The Department of Anthropology Research and Training (DART) Program supports undergraduate and graduate research and training across the four fields of anthropology. The DART Program supports approximately 10 students annually with average grants of $1000.

Eligibility
1. Applicants for DART Program support must be matriculated students of the Department of Anthropology.
2. They may be undergraduates, participants in the BA/MA Program or Master’s students.
3. Their interests may be in anthropological archaeology, cultural anthropology, linguistic anthropology or physical anthropology.
4. Prior recipients of DART Program support may reapply.
5. They must be U.S. citizens

Type of Projects
1. Participation in fieldwork, including field schools or membership in the field project of another Principal Investigator.
2. Exploratory fieldwork to assess the potential of an area / topic for a full field project.
3. Field Project, in which the student is the Principal Investigator.
4. Projects involving human subjects will require approval by the Institutional Review Board of the college

Application Process
Applicants should submit a 3 - 5 page proposal in addition to a detailed budget by email attachment to the department chair by Monday, April 9th, 2018. Mail to: jonathan.shannon@hunter.cuny.edu

Each proposal should be accompanied by a letter of support from a member of the department faculty.

Applications will be reviewed by the Committee on Personnel and Budget of the Department of Anthropology. DART Program recipients will be announced about 2-3 weeks after the application deadline.

At the conclusion of a project, the recipient shall submit a brief report of project results to the Department.

For further information or to submit proposals, contact:
Jonathan Shannon
Jonathan.Shannon@hunter.cuny.edu
Chair, Dept. of Anthropology