

Klaus G. Grohmann

Celebrating 36+ Years of Chemistry at Hunter College

Friday May 30, 2008
Room 510 North Building

- 9:00 – 9:30 Dr. Robert Lichter, Introduction
Dr. Shirley Clay Scott, Hunter College Dean of Arts & Sciences
Mr. Ernesto Malave, CUNY Vice Chancellor of Finance
- 9:30 – 10:10 Prof. Mukund Sibi, North Dakota State University, “A New Dimension to Enantioselective Catalysis: Templates Come to the Rescue”
- 10:10 – 10:25 Coffee break
- 10:25 – 11:05 Prof. Martin Semmelhack, Princeton University, “Chemical Communication in Bacterial Social Groups – Its Getting Crowded: Let’s get Virulent”
- 11:05 – 11:45 Prof. Dr. Dieter Kaufmann, Clausthal University of Technology, Germany, “Pd-Catalyzed Rearrangement of Strained Small-Ring Hydrocarbons under C-C Coupling”
- 11:45 – 12:00 Former colleagues: “Just how much trouble can one organic professor cause?”
- 12:00 – 1:30 Lunch HW 217
- 1:35 – 2:05 Stu Borman, Chemical & Engineering News, “How I got My Career, and Other Hunter College Tales”
- 2:10 – 2:40 Prof. Akira Kawamura, Hunter College, “How to Speak Macrophage – Molecules You can Use to Speak to Macrophages”
- 2:40 – 3:00 Prof. Charles Michael Drain, Hunter College, “From Lithographer to Professor and Back: What a Long, Strange Trip It’s Been”
- 3:00 – 3:15 Coffee break
- 3:15 – 3:45 Prof. Sasan Karimi, Queensborough Community College, “Chemistry & the Arts”
- 3:45 – 3:55 Dr. Richard Mawe, Former Dean of Science & Math, Hunter College
- 3:55 – 4:05 Dr. Edward Barrett, Former Chair of Chemistry, Hunter College
- 4:05 – 4:50 Prof. Klaus G. Grohmann, Hunter College, “My Fascination with Chemistry: Ein Potpourri”

Reception - Party HW 217