

WORKSHEET FOR PRE-REQUISITE COURSES NECESSARY TO APPLY TO HUNTER COLLEGE-CUNY
DEPARTMENT OF SPEECH-LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY AND AUDIOLOGY

(THIS WORKSHEET IS FOR YOUR CONVENIENCE AND CANNOT BE UPLOADED TO THE APPLYYOURSELF APPLICATION)

COURSES IN FOUNDATIONS OF SPEECH-LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY AND AUDIOLOGY

GRADE OF B OR BETTER IN EACH COURSE IS REQUIRED

| Course   | Course Title | College/University | Credits | Grade | Date Completed |
|---|---------------------|---------------------------|----------------|--------------|-----------------------|
| Introduction to Language Science (3 credits) – this may include Introduction to Linguistics  |                     |                           |                |              |                       |
| Phonetics of American English (3 credits) – coursework must cover IPA symbols and phonetics  |                     |                           |                |              |                       |
| Anatomy and Physiology of the Speech Mechanisms (3 credits) – general anatomy of the body is not acceptable – only courses covering speech or speech and hearing anatomy                             |                     |                           |                |              |                       |
| Introduction to Speech-Language Pathology – Communication Disorders (3 credits) – studies introducing the student to the field of speech-language pathology, disorders of speech, voice and fluency. |                     |                           |                |              |                       |
| Introduction to Audiology (3 credits) – an overview of the study of hearing, disorders of hearing, and acoustics.  |                     |                           |                |              |                       |

YOU MUST HAVE A GRADE OF B OR BETTER IN EACH COURSE IN ORDER THAT MINIMUM STANDARDS ARE MET

PRE-REQUISITE COURSES IN LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES (MUST BE GRADE OF B OR BETTER PER COURSE)

| Course   | Course Title | College/University | Credits | Grade | Date Completed |
|---|---------------------|---------------------------|----------------|--------------|-----------------------|
| Biological science (3 credits) – e.g., biology, microbiology, human anatomy and physiology, human genetics, human neuroanatomy and physiology, veterinary science, (anatomy of speech mechanisms is not accepted)  |                     |                           |                |              |                       |
| Physical science (3 credits) – e.g., chemistry, organic chemistry, general physics, physics of sound (lab coursework is not necessary to fulfill this requirement)   |                     |                           |                |              |                       |
| Statistics (3 credits) – e.g., research methods statistics, psychological statistics (mathematics cannot be accepted)  |                     |                           |                |              |                       |
| Behavioral and/or social science (6 credits total)– studies pertaining to normal/abnormal human behavior, development across the life span, social interaction, and issues of culturally diverse populations) – e.g., anthropology, sociology, psychology, public health |                     |                           |                |              |                       |
| 2nd Behavioral and/or social science – does not need to be in the same department as the 1 st behavioral or social science course  |                     |                           |                |              |                       |
| English (6 credits total) (at least 3 credits of intensive writing, e.g., freshman composition)  |                     |                           |                |              |                       |
| 2nd English (at least 3 credits of English or American Literature)  |                     |                           |                |              |                       |
| Art (3 credits) – e.g., pottery, painting, drawing, theater performance, dance, musical instrument performance, vocal performance  |                     |                           |                |              |                       |
| Non-English language (3 credits) – American Sign Language, Spanish, French, Mandarin, Greek, etc. (this must be a formal course; self-attested fluency in a language cannot be accepted)   |                     |                           |                |              |                       |
| US History or US Political Science (3 credits)(may not be culture or social science courses – world/ancient history courses cannot be accepted)  |                     |                           |                |              |                       |

GRADE OF B OR BETTER IS REQUIRED FOR EACH COURSE