

Windows Remote Desktop Connection (Mac)

Overview

How to use free Microsoft Remote Desktop 10 for MacOS

1. On your Apple desktop or laptop, click the App Store icon from the lower Dock to launch the program to download programs on MacOS

2. Now type in Microsoft Remote Desktop 10 in the search field on the upper left then click Get to download
3. Open the Microsoft Remote Desktop 10 application from your machine via Launchpad

4. Once the program is open mouse over to "+" icon in the file menu and select Add PC

5. Enter the IP Address given to you by the helpdesk and/or IT admin in the “PC name” text field.
6. For “User account:” leave the selection Ask when required as it is
7. For “Friendly name:”, you may enter an your office room number
8. “Group:” may be left as Saved PC’s
9. Under “Gateway:” make sure no gateway is selected as the setting

10. Click Add
11. Click Save
12. To initiate a connection to your machine, double click on your PC Name tile

13. Now enter your Hunter NetID Username and your Hunter NetID password

14. On the next screen click Show Certificate

15. Click Always Trust to prevent seeing this warning again for the PC specified

16. Click Continue

Please Note: If you have not recently connected to this computer there will be a delay as your profile is created. This is normal. You are now connected!