Located in the heart of Manhattan near some of the world’s major museums, galleries, and stages, Hunter College is uniquely positioned to connect students with the arts both on and off campus.

As an undergraduate or graduate student, you can choose from a rich array of arts majors and minors. Courses are taught by a distinguished faculty that includes many award-winning artists, and you will have access to studio spaces, stages, and galleries on campus. Programs featuring visiting artists and speakers provide frequent opportunities to meet leading artists, writers, performers, and other arts professionals, while student publications, clubs, and ensembles provide forums for showcasing students’ creative work. In addition, Hunter’s partnerships with New York’s cultural institutions provide access to performances, exhibits, and other events throughout the city.

Studying at Hunter offers not only an outstanding opportunity to practice and experience the arts, but also an education at one of the nation’s best colleges. Listed as having one of the Top 20 BFA Programs in the country (source: www.collegeatlas.org), Hunter has also been named one of the nation’s Top Producers of awardees in the Fulbright U.S. Student and Scholar Programs, and has been named a Best Value College by Princeton Review and USA Today.

Visit!
The best way to learn about a college and its academic programs is to visit. Please contact the Welcome Center at Hunter College for visitor information:

Hunter College Welcome Center
695 Park Avenue, 100 North Building
New York, N.Y. 10065
Tel: 212.772.4490
Fax: 212.650.3336
Email: WelcomeCenter@hunter.cuny.edu

Hunter College, City University of New York
www.hunter.cuny.edu

What inspires you? What is your talent? Your passion?

• Art & Art History
• Creative Writing
• Film & Media Studies
• Music • Theatre • Dance

You’ll find it at Hunter...
Creative Writing

PICTURE / PICTURE / MEMORY / NONFICTION

The Creative Writing concentration offers a vibrant workshop atmosphere, enabling undergraduates to develop their own poetry, fiction, and creative nonfiction under the supervision of internationally known writers. After completing an introductory course, students take advanced classes in a literary genre of their choosing. They also have the opportunity to engage with the world-famous authors visiting each semester in the Distinguished Writers Series.

Degrees Offered:
- BA in English with a Concentration in Creative Writing, MA in English

Creative Writing

Dance

PERFORMANCE / CHOREOGRAPHY / EDUCATION / PRODUCTION

The Dance Program’s wide-ranging curriculum allows students to study performance, both under the direction of a dynamic faculty with deep connections to the New York City dance community. Dance majors create, produce, and perform their own works and collaborate with recognized performers and choreographers. Students are encouraged to develop work and professional careers in performance, choreography, arts administration, dance education, production, and physical therapy. The Bachelor's of Arts in Dance Program offers six concentrations in the School of Education and the Dance Program, while focusing on the application of innovative teaching methods to classroom environments that emphasize dance.

Degrees Offered:
- BA in Dance, BA in Dance Education, MA in Dance (5-year program), MA in Dance (7-year program), MA in Dance (oncological dance)
- MFA in Dance

Film & Media Studies

PRODUCTION / HISTORY / THEORY / EMERGING MEDIA

The Department of Film & Media Studies offers two undergraduate programs: a major in film, which combines cinema history and theory with film production, and a major in media studies, which links critical media analysis with creative practice in such contemporary media forms as video, print, digital graphics, and the Internet. Media majors may choose to concentrate in journalism, documentary and TV production, or emerging media under the direction of distinguished scholars and practitioners.

Degrees Offered:
- BA in Film, BA in Media Studies, MA in Integrated Media Arts

Music

PERFORMANCE / THEORY / HISTORICAL / MUSIC MANAGEMENT

The Department of Music offers courses in music performance, theory and manuscriptship, music history, ethnomusicology, and music education as well as music specialists classes in jazz, opera, composition, and the music business. Private lessons are available in all instruments and in voice. Hunter offers students many opportunities to showcase their musical talents—through the Hunter Symphony, Chamber Music Workshop, College Choir, Chamber Singers, Opera Theater Jazz Ensembles, Jazz Vocal Workshop, and Pop and Jazz Combos. Beginning in 2015, Hunter will offer a program that allows students to take courses at Jazz at Lincoln Center.

Degrees Offered:
- BA in Music, BMus, MA in Music, MA in Music Education, BA/MA in Music (5-year program), MA/MA in Music Education (5-year program)

Theatre

ACTING / DESIGN / DIRECTION / PLAYWRITING / PRODUCTION

Students in the Department of Theatre study stage production and the relationship between text and performance by combining hands-on stage experience with a historical, critical, and theoretical education. Courses cover all aspects of theatre, including acting, stagecraft, production, history, theory, directing, and playwriting, often drawing on the rich resources of theatre and performance in New York City.

Degrees Offered:
- BA in Theatre, MA in Theatre, MA in Playwriting

Scholar Program

Learn more about this and Hunter’s other scholar programs at www.hunter.cuny.edu/scholars