CALL FOR PAPERS, PRESENTATIONS, AND WORKSHOPS

The National Center's 45th Annual Conference

April 15-17, 2018

CUNY Graduate Center, New York City

The National Center for the Study of Collective Bargaining in Higher Education and the Professions, Hunter College, City University of New York, invites scholars and practitioners from multiple disciplines to submit abstracts of proposed papers, panels, and interactive workshops for our 45th annual conference.

The labor-management conference will take place on April 15-17, 2018 at the CUNY Graduate Center in New York City.

We welcome proposals by authors of recently published books who wish to present their scholarship relevant to higher education, unionization, collective bargaining, labor relations, and/or labor history.

Those interested in presenting their work should upload an abstract by September 8, 2017 to 2018 Abstract Dropbox that includes a description of the proposed paper, panel or interactive workshop. Abstracts of panels and workshops should include a list of invited participants including their title and affiliation. Questions concerning the call for papers should be emailed to 2018 National Center Annual Conference.
