PROCESSING TIME AND ELIGIBILITY DETERMINATION: Allow at least 20 business days for your loan to process. Once your loan has been awarded, you can check the status on your CUNYfirst account. The approved loan amount will be determined by the CUNY Cost of Attendance (COA), minus the Expected Family Contribution (EFC), which is determined by your 2018-2019 FAFSA. Any financial aid and scholarships you are awarded will be deducted from your COA. Students cannot exceed their COA and/or annual loan limit for the academic year. Undergraduate students will be considered automatically for a SUBSIDIZED loan. If you received loans from another institution within the 2018-2019 academic year your annual loan limit will be reduced accordingly. You must be registered for at least 6 credits within your career/program plan to be considered for a loan. If the Office of Financial Aid receives notification that you have exceeded your COA after disbursement of your loan(s) have occurred, the necessary reductions and/or cancellation will be done and you may incur tuition liability at a later date. NSLDS WEBSITE: Students should view the NSLDS website to keep track of their loan borrowing such as aggregate limits. NSLDS provides loan history for both undergraduate and graduate borrowing (www.nslds.ed.gov). NOTE: Direct Loan requests are not processed from September 16 through September 30, 2018 due to the change in the loan origination fee. If you request a loan increase during this time frame your request will be processed October 1, 2018.
