HUNTER COLLEGE
of The City University of New York

Hunter College Mission Statement

Hunter College is a comprehensive teaching, research and service institution, long committed to excellence and access in the education of undergraduate and graduate students in the liberal arts and sciences, as well as in several professional fields: education, health sciences, nursing and social work.

Founded in 1870, Hunter is one of the oldest public colleges in the country, dedicated from its earliest days to serving a student body that reflects the diversity of New York City. Hunter takes pride in the success it has had over the years in enabling the people of New York to combine the strengths of their varied experiences with the skills they need to participate effectively in the wider society.

Committed to the achievement of a pluralistic community, Hunter College offers a curriculum designed to meet the highest academic standards while also fostering understanding among groups from different racial, cultural and ethnic backgrounds.

The goal of a Hunter College education is to encourage the fullest possible intellectual and personal growth in each student. While preparation for specific careers is an important objective of many programs, the fundamental aim of the college experience as a whole is to develop a student’s rational, critical and creative powers. Such development involves the abilities to conceptualize and analyze, to relate the concrete and particular to the abstract and general and to think and write logically and coherently. It also includes a broadening and deepening of outlook: an awareness of one’s own and other cultures as well as of the enduring questions and answers concerning being, purpose and value that confront humanity. Finally, the educational experience at Hunter is intended to inspire a zest for learning as well as to bring the recognition that learning is pleasurable and knowledge is useful.

While teaching and research are its primary missions, community service is also an essential goal of the college. Hunter faculty seek to generate new knowledge and to design programs to address the myriad cultural, social and political needs of New York City and the world at large.

Hunter College is part of The City University of New York (CUNY), the nation's largest urban university. CUNY comprises 11 senior colleges, six community colleges, a graduate school and a law school.

Known for its rich and academically rigorous environment, Hunter College takes pride in a curriculum as diverse and wide-ranging as its community. Hunter faculty and students come from virtually every nation and culture in the world, enriching the Hunter community and the city with their myriad perspectives and experiences. The college seeks to help its students broaden their outlook on the world, achieve success in their chosen professions and fulfill their personal, academic and civic potential.

Originally called The Normal College, the school was founded in 1870 by Thomas Hunter to educate young women who wished to be teachers. Today Hunter is a coeducational, fully accredited college with a large, distinguished faculty in the liberal arts and sciences and in its professional schools. Hunter offers both undergraduate and graduate degrees and enrolls more than 20,000 students, making it the largest college in CUNY.

The college consists of four schools: the School of Arts and Sciences, the School of Education, the Schools of the Health Professions and the School of Social Work. They offer more than 55 undergraduate programs, which lead to the degrees of bachelor of arts, bachelor of science, bachelor of fine arts and bachelor of music— as well as 15 dual bachelor's/master's programs and scores of graduate programs. Each program of study provides students with skills to attain competence in a specialized field and a foundation of general knowledge. The fields of concentration may be chosen from the general areas of the fine arts, the humanities, the language arts, the sciences, the social sciences and the applied arts and sciences, as well as in professional areas in education, health sciences and nursing.

Graduate students may matriculate in any one of over 70 master's degree programs in the arts and sciences, education, the School of Health Sciences, the School of Nursing and the School of Social Work. In addition, the graduate programs in teacher education and nursing include courses leading to post-master's certificates in several different areas. Details of the graduate programs are available in the graduate catalog, at the Hunter College Welcome Center (Room 100 North Building), in the offices of the deans of each area, in the Wexler Library and on the web at www.hunter.cuny.edu.

The Hunter College Campus Schools are devoted to the education of gifted students who reside in New York City. Opportunities are provided for students to engage in critical thinking and creative endeavors in an atmosphere of intellectual inquiry. Educational research and teacher education projects are features of collaboration with the School of Education at Hunter College. The elementary school (K to Grade 6) and the high school (Grades 7-12) model different educational strategies and serve as demonstration schools for students and teachers. For additional information, contact Dr. David Laurenson, Director, at (212) 860-4586 or by e-mail at director@hchsm1.hunter.cuny.edu.

FINDING OUT ABOUT HUNTER

The Admissions Office at Hunter College encourages all prospective students to meet with an admissions counselor to discuss their educational goals and opportunities at Hunter. Prospective students are also invited to visit the campus. Campus tours originate from the College Welcome Center, Room 100 Hunter North, most Fridays at 3:30 p.m. throughout the year. Please call (212) 772-4490 for tour information.

Students who apply to Hunter College must file the CUNY undergraduate application, which is available from New York State high school guidance offices, CUNY community colleges and the Welcome Center at Hunter College. Applicants are notified by CUNY's University Application Processing Center (UAPC) if additional information is necessary for the college to make an admissions decision.

Freshmen and transfer students are encouraged to apply by March 15 for the fall semester and October 1 for the spring semester. There is no official closing deadline for applications. Applications are accepted and qualified applicants are offered admission throughout the year, space permitting. However, applicants who have had all or part of their education outside the United States should have a completed application on file by the aforementioned deadlines. All students should apply as early as possible to guarantee full consideration for admission and scholarship aid.

APPLICATION FEES

Fall 2004 admissions: $50 freshman, $50 transfer, $50 graduate
Spring 2005: $60 freshman, $65 transfer and $100 graduate Fall 2005 and Spring 2006: $65 freshman, $70 transfer, $125 graduate.

FRESHMAN ADMISSION

Freshman admission to Hunter College is competitive. Applicants are considered for admission on the basis of the overall strength of their academic preparation, which includes SAT/ACT scores, high school academic average, the number of academic subjects and the distribution of those courses. A diploma from an accredited high school, an equivalency diploma or a United States Armed Forces diploma is also required for entrance to the college. Neither a high school certificate nor an IEP diploma is acceptable.

Academic Preparation

The best preparation for success at Hunter College is a full program of college-preparatory courses. The college recommends four years of English, four years of social studies, three years of mathematics, two years of foreign language, two years of laboratory science and one year of performing or visual arts.

In addition to providing a strong foundation for college-level coursework, the program recommended above fulfills the 16 units of high school work in academic courses required for admission to a CUNY senior college under the College Preparatory Initiative (CPI). High school students should check with guidance counselors to determine which courses are considered to be academic within the English, mathematics, science, social science, foreign language and fine and performing arts curricula.

Advanced Placement and College-Level Courses

Students who have had an Advanced Placement (AP) course in secondary school and who pass the Advanced Placement Tests of the College Entrance Examination Board with grades of 5 or 4 (high honors or honors) are in most cases exempt from taking a corresponding course or equivalent requirement at Hunter. Those who are similarly prepared but whose scores are 3 (creditable) may also be exempt from a corresponding course at Hunter, provided the appropriate Hunter department so recommends.

A maximum of 30 credits can be awarded by examination through the following programs; College Entrance Examination Board Advanced Placement (AP), College-level Examination Program (CLEP) and Regents College Examinations (RCE). Certain academic departments may have restrictions on the award of credits by examination. Check with the department and see the Office of Admissions Web site for additional information.

Students who have completed college-level coursework offered by an accredited senior or community college while in high school will receive credit for courses in which grades of C or better are earned. Official college transcripts must be submitted to the Office of Admissions for credit to be awarded.

SPECIAL ADMISSIONS PROGRAMS AND CATEGORIES FOR FRESHMEN

CUNY Honors College at Hunter College The Hunter Honors College program attracts students with outstanding academic records who seek intellectual challenges in a supportive environment. Using an application available from their high school counselor or from The City University of New York Office of Admission Services (OAS), students indicate Hunter College as their first choice school.

A student must enter the Honors College as a first semester freshman and may seek admission through either Early Decision (application by November 1) or regular decision (application by December 1). For more information on the Hunter Honors College, see Special Academic Programs of this catalog or inquire at the Honors Office, Room 140 Hunter North, (212) 772-4128.
Early Admission

Students with superior high school records may apply for admission to the college upon completion of the third year of high school. An interview with the Admissions Committee is required, as well as a high school average of at least 90%, minimum SAT scores of 600 verbal and 600 math and three high school recommendations. Students are admitted only in the fall semester. Applications must be filed directly with the Hunter Admissions Office before April 1.

ESL (English as a Second Language) Designation

Students whose secondary school education includes at least one year in a high school where a language other than English is the primary language of instruction are designated as ESL students. ESL students who are admitted to Hunter may be permitted to register even if they received failing scores on the CUNY skills assessment tests in reading and/or writing. (A passing score on the CUNY Math Assessment Test (CMAT) is required for ESL designation.) These students are tested for placement in appropriate developmental courses and receive special advisement regarding program planning. ESL students may take developmental English courses for two semesters and are permitted to enroll at Hunter for an additional two semesters before being required to pass. Additional information about placement and program planning for ESL students is available at the Office of Student Services.

SEEK Program (Search for Education, Elevation and Knowledge) admits a limited number of educationally and economically disadvantaged students who do not meet the standard admission criteria. This program provides intensive academic services and a stipend for educational expenses to those students who exhibit extreme need. Students apply for entry to the SEEK Program through the standard freshman admission process. See the Financial Aid section for additional information on requirements for admission to the SEEK Program.

Note: For information about admission to special academic programs for continuing students, including programs in the Schools of the Health Professions, QUEST (School of Education) and the Thomas Hunter Honors program, see the appropriate school and department/program listing in this catalog.

TRANSFER (ADVANCED STANDING) ADMISSION

Students who attended a regionally accredited college or university after graduation from high school must file a CUNY Transfer (Advanced Standing) application. Transfer applicants are considered for admission with advanced standing if they meet the following minimum criteria (with the exception of the School of Nursing and the School of Health Sciences):

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Number of Credits Earned</th>
<th>Admission Requirement</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(i.e., credits completed at time of application)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>0 - 13.9</td>
<td>Applicants must satisfy freshman admission criteria and present a cumulative college grade point average of at least 2.3.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14 - 23.9</td>
<td>Applicants must satisfy freshman admission criteria and present a cumulative college grade point average of at least 2.3, or a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 regardless of high school academic average.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>24 or more credits</td>
<td>A cumulative grade point average of at least 2.3.</td>
</tr>

Nondegree students who are in attendance at Hunter College as well as those who were previously enrolled, in addition to meeting the above stated criteria, must have had a minimum grade point average of 2.0 in their Hunter coursework.

Transfer admissions decisions and determinations of advanced standing are made by the Hunter College Admissions Office on the basis of work done as a matriculated student at regionally accredited two- and four-year colleges and universities. Only courses in which a student has earned a grade of C or better (D from CUNY colleges) can be accepted for transfer. Transfer credit will not be granted for any remedial, developmental or ESL courses.

Transfer students from CUNY community colleges who have earned an AA or AS degree are admitted to the college, awarded junior status and considered to have satisfied core course requirements. However, depending upon the major selected at Hunter, some students may need more than 60 additional credits in order to complete Hunter's bachelor's degree requirements. Transfer students from CUNY colleges who have not earned a two-year AA or AS degree and transfer students from non-CUNY colleges are awarded credit for previous work on a course-by-course basis. All transfer students, including those entering with CUNY AA and AS degrees, must fulfill the college's foreign language and Pluralism and Diversity requirements.

The maximum total number of credits that may be transferred from other accredited four-year institutions to Hunter College is 90. There is a 70-credit limit on the number of credits that may be transferred from two-year institutions.

Applicants are required to report and provide transcripts for all previous college coursework including coursework that was in progress at the time of application. Failure to do so may result in the denial of all transfer credit and suspension from Hunter.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Admission of international students is based on three factors: academic record, English proficiency and the guarantee of sufficient financial resources to meet the cost of attendance. For purposes of admission, an international student is defined as an applicant who currently holds a student (F-1) or exchange visitor (J-1) visa or seeks such visa status upon enrollment. The United States Immigration and Naturalization Service requires documentation of financial support before approving the issuance of a visa.

International applicants whose primary language is not English must demonstrate a firm command of the English language by scoring a minimum of 500 on the TOEFL. No provisional admission is offered whereby a student may come to the college and spend a semester or year learning English.

Applicants are responsible for the payment of all tuition and fees at the time of registration. Hunter College does not provide financial assistance to international students; they must be in a position to finance tuition, fees, room and board, insurance, books and incidental expenses. The estimated cost is $25,000 per year and is subject to change. Hunter College does not make housing arrangements for students; it is essential that students be prepared to make their own housing arrangements upon arrival.
For more information, contact the International Students Office, Hunter College, 695 Park Avenue, Room 1109 E, New York, NY 10021; telephone: (212) 772-4864; e-mail: internationalstudent.ser@hunter.cuny.edu. Policies governing the Office of Admissions and the International Students Office are based on policies and practices recommended by NAfSA, AACRAO and other educational organizations.

PART-TIME STUDENTS
Each semester nearly 6,700 part-time undergraduate students attend Hunter College. These students vary widely in age, interests, background and educational goals. Part-time students can enroll in most degree programs offered. Certain programs, however, require daytime attendance or periods of full-time attendance, such as those involving internships, student teaching and work outside the college.

Part-time students can be either degree candidates or nondegree students. To enroll as a part-time student contact the Hunter College Welcome Center for an appropriate application. The CUNY Undergraduate Degree Application must be filled out by those seeking degree status, while those seeking nondegree status need to file the Hunter College Application for Nondegree Admission.

NONDEGREE STUDENTS
Students who are not interested in earning a degree but wish to enroll in courses relating to career advancement, preparation for graduate school or other special interests may be admitted as nondegree students. All students wishing to enroll at Hunter in a nondegree status must obtain an application for nondegree admission from the College Welcome Center, Room 100 Hunter North. This application, along with verification of at least a high school diploma or 24 earned college credits, must be submitted to the Office of Admissions. Neither a high school certification nor an IEP diploma is acceptable (see back of the nondegree application for further information.) A nondegree admission fee of $60 (spring 2005) will be charged at the student’s first registration. This fee will increase to $65 effective fall 2005. See fee schedule in section 2. Nondegree students may register for any course for which space is available at the time of registration, provided they have met the prerequisites and have taken and passed applicable placement exams. (Check with the appropriate departments for more information concerning prerequisites and placement exams.) Such students: (1) are permitted to attempt up to 12 credit hours before they are required to take the CUNY Skills Assessment Test(s) and, providing they pass all parts of the test(s), must (2) either matriculate or leave the college when they have attempted 24 credits. Courses in which the student receives a grade of “W” do not count toward the 12- or 24-credit limitations.

Students are permitted to take the CUNY Skills Assessment Test(s) at any time before the 12-credit limit. Generally, all parts of the Skills Assessment Test(s) must be taken, with the understanding that failing any part of the test(s) means the student cannot register for any further courses at Hunter College until all parts are successfully completed. (For student options in this case, see below.)

For students who have failed any part of the CUNY Skills Assessment Tests and consequently cannot enroll at Hunter in a nondegree or matriculated status, remediation is available at CUNY community colleges. Generally, students must matriculate at these colleges before they can take the appropriate remedial courses. Upon completing the relevant courses, students may apply for readmission to Hunter. Baccalaureate, master’s or doctoral degree holders (from a college or university accredited by a regional U.S. accrediting association) are exempt from testing and the 24-credit limit, provided proof of the degree is submitted along with their application for admission.

Credits earned at Hunter College as a nondegree student are automatically transferred into a degree program upon matriculation at Hunter. Those credits earned at Hunter will be accepted as residency credits.

Applications for all categories of nondegree students must be filed by April 15 for summer, July 15 for fall and December 15 for spring.

VISITING STUDENTS
Students in attendance at other than CUNY colleges who wish to take courses at Hunter College may enroll as visiting students. Visiting students attend Hunter in a nondegree classification and are subject to the same rules and regulations. Along with the Application for Nondegree Admission, visiting students must present to the Office of Admissions a college transcript indicating the completion of at least 24 academic credits.

Permit Students from CUNY Colleges Students in degree attendance at other CUNY colleges who wish to take courses “on permit” at Hunter College may enroll as nondegree visiting students. An approved permit must be obtained from the registrar of the home college and submitted to the Hunter College (host college) registrar in the OASIS, Room 217 Hunter North.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS
Students at New York City public high schools may acquaint themselves with undergraduate life by participating in Hunter College Now. Activities range from showcases by dance and music faculty to workshops for sharpening writing or mathematics skills to college-level courses across the arts and sciences. Each summer, Hunter College Now focuses on the sciences and mathematics by hosting high-performing students at the Summer Institute for accelerated coursework that is complemented by tutoring, college guidance and internships.

Admission to college-level courses offered through College Now is competitive. To qualify for college-level coursework, including the Summer Institute, a student must demonstrate mastery of basic mathematics and/or verbal skills, depending on the discipline, as measured by the SAT, PSAT and English language arts and mathematics Regents exams. College Now offerings, including credit-bearing courses, are provided at no cost.

Apart from College Now, high school students from non-public and public high schools in New York City and elsewhere may register as nondegree students under Hunter’s current tuition and fee schedule with the written approval of a high school principal. High school students must meet CUNY proficiency standards in basic skills. Interested high school students are encouraged to speak with an admissions counselor in the Welcome Center, Room 100 Hunter North.
SENIOR CITIZENS
New York State residents 60 years of age or older may audit undergraduate courses at Hunter College on a tuition-free, space-available basis. Auditors receive neither grades nor academic credit for their courses. Individuals enrolling under this program pay fees totaling $70 each semester. Along with verification of having attained the age of 60 and New York State residency, applicants must file the undergraduate nondegree application to be considered for this program. Individuals over the age of 60 who do not wish to audit their courses may receive academic credit provided the appropriate tuition is paid.

READMISSION
Students who have previously attended Hunter College may apply for readmission to their former status. These applicants should apply for readmission to the college well in advance of the semester for which they wish to return. Priority consideration will be given to applications filed prior to September 15 for spring admission and April 15 for summer and fall admission. Applications filed after these dates will be considered on a space-available basis.

Applications for degree and nondegree readmission are available at the College Welcome Center. Students in good academic standing are routinely readmitted to the college, whereas students who were dismissed for academic reasons or who left with a grade point average below 2.0 are considered for readmission on a probationary basis. Readmission on probation is predicated on the expectation that the student will raise his/her grade point average above 2.0 within an additional 24 credits. SEEK students who have not been in attendance for four or more semesters and/or have been in the program for 10 semesters will not be readmitted to SEEK. Students who do not wish to return to SEEK must receive a release from the director of the SEEK program.

ENROLLMENT REQUIREMENTS

Health Requirements
Prior to registration, the following health requirements must be met:

Immunizations for Measles, Mumps and Rubella Public Health Law 2165 requires college students to present a complete record of two live immunizations against measles and a single immunization against mumps and rubella. Students born on or after January 1, 1957 must submit a complete immunization record signed by a health practitioner. Further information regarding health standards may be found in the Student Rights and Regulations section of this catalog.

Meningococcal Disease Public Health Law 2167 requires institutions, including colleges and universities, to distribute information about meningococcal disease and vaccination to all students meeting the enrollment criteria, whether they live on or off campus. Hunter College of the City University of New York is required to maintain a record of the following for each student: a) response to receipt of meningococcal disease and vaccine information signed by the student; b) record of meningococcal meningitis immunization within the past 10 years; or c) acknowledgement of meningococcal disease risks and refusal of meningococcal meningitis immunization signed by the student.

Please note that students will not be allowed to continue at Hunter if they are not compliant (have not handed in their Response Form) within 30 days from the first scheduled day of classes. To learn more about meningitis and the vaccine, please consult your physician. You can also find information about the disease at http://www.cdc.gov.

For more information and to download/print the Immunization Requirement Form please see the following website: http://studentservices.hunter.edu/. The form must be returned to the Office of Health Services, 307 Hunter North. Office hours are Monday-Thursday 10-6 and Friday 10-3 pm.

TESTING REQUIREMENTS

Basic Skills Assessment Tests

Degree Students
Students admitted to Hunter College with fewer than 45 credits must demonstrate mastery in the basic skills of reading, writing and mathematics. Students may demonstrate basic skills mastery by meeting the score criteria indicated below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Test</th>
<th>Minimum Score</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Reading and Writing Test</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SAT (Verbal)</td>
<td>480</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>or – English (ELA) Regents</td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mathematics Test</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SAT (Mathematics)</td>
<td>480</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>or – Math Regents (Sequential 2, 3 or A)</td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Students who cannot demonstrate mastery by meeting the above criteria must take and pass the appropriate skills assessment test(s) before registering for their semester of coursework.

Nondegree Students
Nondegree students may attempt up to 12 credits without taking the CUNY Skills Assessment Tests, unless a placement test is required for a particular course. However, the test is required once 12 credits have been attempted, unless a student is exempt based on the same score criteria set forth above for degree students. Students who fail to demonstrate basic skills mastery will not be permitted to register for coursework beyond 12 credits. Nondegree students who take and fail any part of the CUNY Skills Assessment Tests before reaching the 12-credit limit will not be permitted to enroll in additional courses at Hunter until they have met proficiency requirements at a CUNY community college.

Mathematics Placement Test
The mathematics placement exam assesses a student’s knowledge of algebra, trigonometry and pre-calculus. All students, whether or not they have demonstrated minimum proficiency in math, must take a math placement test before they may register at Hunter. Test results will be used to place students appropriately in coursework at the college. Although it is mandatory, the exam does not affect acceptance.

Students will automatically be scheduled for this examination and may change a scheduled appointment by contacting the Testing Center, Room 150 Hunter North or by calling (212) 772-4898. Sample questions may be viewed on the Testing Center Web Site: http://admissions.hunter.cuny.edu/testing.htm.

CUNY Proficiency Examination (CPE)

See Program of Study section of this catalog for more information about the CPE.

OASIS (Office of Administrative and Information Services)
217 Hunter North; (212) 772-4474

The Office of Administrative and Information Services combines the most vital administrative services at Hunter College into one conveniently located office in Room 217 HN. The OASIS incorporates the information services of the Registrar, Bursar and Financial Aid Offices. The OASIS is designed to help students navigate the administrative arm of the college by eliminating most of the “traveling” previously done between offices. In addition, the OASIS is conveniently located next door to the Registrar’s Office, around the corner from the Bursar, Financial Aid and Admissions Offices, one floor up from the Hunter College Welcome Center and one floor down from the Medical Office.

Many of the forms and services available in the OASIS are also available on the registrar’s Web site.

ID Cards
To obtain an ID card, bring a validated (stamped “paid”) Bursar’s Receipt for the current semester and other proof of identification, such as a Social Security card or a driver’s license, to the OASIS.

Department of Veterans Affairs Liaison
The Registrar’s Office serves as the college’s liaison to the Department of Veterans Affairs to certify enrollment status for students eligible for education benefits. Students who would like to receive VA education benefits and belong to any of the following categories must come to the Registrar’s Office to fill out the appropriate forms:

- Active duty service person
- Active Selective Reservist or National Guards person
- Veteran
- Veteran’s dependent
- Disabled veteran

Students receiving benefits must notify the Registrar’s Office of any adjustments made in their schedules that result in changes in the total number of credits attempted during the semester. The Registrar’s Office also facilitates course drops and adds related to military service obligations.

Registration
Registration Procedures Prior to each registration period, the Registrar’s Office develops a Schedule of Classes, which is available on the web through the Registrar’s Web site. Students are assigned appointment times for registration by the Registrar’s Office. Prior to each registration, an e-mail is sent to students alerting them that their registration appointment has been established. Students may then view their appointment time online by accessing E-SIMS. (see Web Services below)

Students may register on the Web or by telephone. Instructions for using either method may be found on the Registrar’s Web site.

Each semester, as grades are submitted, the Registrar’s Office notifies students by e-mail that a grade has been posted on their transcript and is available for viewing on E-SIMS. Students should pay careful attention to their grade and if there are any errors, contact their instructor immediately.

WEB Services Access to the electronic student information system (E-SIMS) is available through the registrar’s Web site. Students may register, view their transcript, current schedule, current bill, change their PIN, view open course sections and access their registration appointment times. All registration is conducted through E-SIMS or via the telephone.

Students wishing to register for courses at another CUNY campus may do so by registering for an E-Permit through the CUNY portal available at http://www.cuny.edu. Effective Fall 2004, grades for courses taken on permit are posted to students’ records and are computed in the GPA.

THE BURSAR’S OFFICE
Bursar’s Office
238 Hunter North; (212) 772-4400

The Bursar’s Office collects all tuition and fees and issues a Bursar’s receipt. The Bursar’s receipt is the only valid proof of registration payment. The Bursar’s Office will issue a duplicate Bursar’s receipt to replace a lost one for a fee of $5. The office also accepts cash and issues receipts for payments to other Hunter offices.
Method of Payment for Tuition and Fees
Students may pay for tuition and fees by cash, check, money order or acceptable credit card (MasterCard, Visa, American Express or Discover). All checks and money orders must be made payable in U.S. currency only. Details concerning payment options are included with the tuition and fee bill.

In addition, a tuition payment plan can be arranged through Academic Management Services (AMS). For a $30 fee, the AMS Tuition Pay Plan permits students to pay semester expenses over a five-month period. AMS can be contacted directly by telephone at 1-866-AMS-CUNY or through their website at www.tuitionpay.com.

Financial Obligations
Students who are delinquent and/or in default in any of their financial accounts with the college, the university or an appropriate state or federal agency for which the university acts as either a disbursing or certifying agent and students who have not completed exit interviews as required by the Federal Perkins Loan Program, the Federal Family Education Loan Programs, the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program and the Nursing Student Loan Program, are not to be permitted to complete registration or issued a copy of their grades, a transcript of academic record, certificate or degree nor are they to receive funds under the federal campus-based student assistance programs or the federal Pell Grant Program unless the designated officer, in exceptional hardship cases and consistent with federal and state regulations, waives in writing the application of this regulation.

TUITION AND FEES
Effective Fall 2005
The City University of New York adopted a revised schedule of student tuition and fee charges (see below) All tuition and fee charges listed in this catalog and in any registration materials issued by the college are subject to change by action of the Trustees of The City University of New York without prior notice.

Refunds
Cancellation Policy
A letter will accompany your tuition bill outlining the cancellation policy for the semester. This policy will also be outlined in the Schedule of Classes. If you plan not to attend the college for the semester and register after the early registration period, you must drop all your classes prior to the first day of class. If you do not drop your classes, you will be liable for all tuition and fees, whether or not you attend classes during the semester.

CUNY Policy
This policy relates to all students who withdraw from courses prior to the 1st day of the 4th week of class. The refund policy is as follows:
100% tuition and fees prior to 1st day of class
75% tuition only prior to 1st day of 2nd week of class
50% tuition only prior to 1st day of 3rd week of class
25% tuition only prior to 1st day of 4th week of class

Federal Pro Rata
This refund relates to students who totally withdraw in the first semester of attendance and have financial aid at Hunter. A refund is calculated based on the number of weeks that a student attended class. Fall and spring semesters consist of 15 weeks each. A student’s refund is prorated up until the 60% point of the semester, usually the end of the ninth week. The bursar, along with the Office of the Registrar, will calculate and determine how the refund will be disbursed to federal programs and the student accordingly. A recalculated tuition liability will be produced by the Bursar’s Office.
Federal other than Pro Rata refund This refund applies to Federal financial aid recipients who totally withdraw within the 50% point of attendance for the semester. This is for students who are beyond their first semester of attendance at Hunter. The end of the eighth week is considered the 50% point of attendance for the semester. The percentage of refund is as follows: 100% tuition and fees prior to 1st day of class; 90% tuition only prior to 3rd week of class; 50% tuition only prior to 5th week of class; 25% tuition only prior to 9th week of class. The bursar, along with the Office of the Registrar, will calculate and disburse refunds to federal programs and the student accordingly. A recalculated tuition liability will be produced by the Bursar's Office.

Special Provisions for Students in the Military
The following policies apply to students who leave CUNY to fulfill military obligations. Military personnel for whom these provisions apply must register each semester with the Veterans Affairs representative in the Registrar's Office, Room 217 Hunter North.

Students called up to the reserves or drafted before the end of the semester

A. Grades. In order to obtain a grade, a student must attend 13 weeks (five weeks for summer session).

B. Refunds. A student called up to the reserves or drafted who does not attend for a sufficient time to qualify for a grade is entitled to a 100% refund of tuition and all other fees except application fees.

Students who volunteer (enlist) for the military

A. Grades. Same provision as for students called up to the reserves. In order to obtain a grade, a student must attend 13 weeks (five weeks for summer session).

B. Refunds. The amount of the refund depends upon whether the withdrawal is before the 5th week of classes.
   1. Withdrawal before beginning of the 5th calendar week (3rd calendar week for summer session): 100% refund of tuition and all other fees except application fees.
   2. Withdrawal thereafter: 50% refund.

Other Provisions for Military Service:

A. Resident Tuition Rates These lower rates are applicable to all members of the armed services, their spouses and their dependent children, if full-time active duty and stationed in the State of New York.

B. Re-enrollment of Veterans Veterans who are returning students are given preferred treatment in the following ways:
   1. Veterans who were former students with unsatisfactory scholastic records, may be readmitted with a probationary program.
   2. Veterans, upon their return, may register even after normal registration periods, without late fees.
   3. Granting of college credit for military service and armed forces instructional courses.
   4. Veterans returning too late to register may audit classes without charge.

C. Late Admissions Veterans with no previous college experience are permitted to file applications up to the date of registration and are allowed to begin classes pending completion of their application and provision of supporting documents.

D. Readmission Fee Upon return from military service, a student will not be charged a Readmission Fee to register at the same college.

E. Veterans Tuition Deferrals Veterans are entitled to defer the payment of tuition pending receipt of veterans' benefits.

F. New York National Guard Tuition Waivers Active members of the New York National Guard, who are legal residents of New York State and who do not have a baccalaureate degree, are eligible for a tuition waiver for undergraduate study.

Financial Aid Processing Center: 1605 Hunter East; (212) 772-5017

The primary role of the Financial Aid Processing Center (FAPC) is to help students fulfill their tuition obligation by processing financial aid in coordination with the Bursar's and Financial Aid Offices. Additionally, this office administers the Federal Work Study and Federal Perkins Loan Programs, issues medical/economic hardship deferrals, processes emergency loans and maintains accountability over all financial aid funded book vouchers.

FINANCIAL AID

The Office of Financial Aid helps matriculated undergraduate students to access funds in order to pay for their educational expenses at Hunter College. Federal, state and municipal financial aid funds are available to help pay for these expenses. Students who want to apply for financial aid may contact the OASIS, the college's one-stop service center, located in 217 Hunter North. The OASIS is open on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. and on Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Application Procedure

The fastest and easiest way to apply for financial aid is by completing the application online. FAFSA on the Web is available at www.fafsa.ed.gov. When the student completes the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid), Hunter College should be included among the colleges to which the application information is reported. When the FAFSA is processed, CUNY will receive an electronic record of the student's application information. The student may be required to provide additional documentation to the Office of Financial Aid to verify the application information or to clarify any discrepancies in the application information.

New York State resident students can apply for both federal and New York State aid during a single on-line session. After completing FAFSA on the Web, New York State residents are able to link to the TAP on the Web Form, which is pre-filled with their FAFSA data.

In order to request a Federal Direct Loan at Hunter College, the student must complete the FAFSA and complete an on-line Federal Direct Loan Request on the Hunter College Office Financial Aid Office web site at www.hunter.cuny.edu/financialaid.

Financial Need

All funds from federal financial aid programs administered by the Office of Financial Aid are awarded on the basis of financial need, with the exception of the Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan and the Federal Direct PLUS (Parent) Loan.

When the student applies for federal student aid, the information that is reported on the FAFSA is used in a formula, established by the U. S. Dept. of Education and approved by the U.S. Congress, that calculates the Expected Family Contribution (EFC), the amount that the student and the student's family are expected to contribute toward the student's education.

If the EFC is below 3851*, the student will be eligible for a Federal Pell Grant, assuming all other eligibility requirements are met. There is not a maximum EFC that defines eligibility for the other financial aid programs. Instead, the EFC is used in an equation to determine financial need:

\text{Cost of Attendance - Expected Family Contribution (EFC)} = \text{Financial Need}

The Financial Aid Office subtracts the Expected Family Contribution (EFC) from the Cost of Attendance. The remainder is the student's financial need. In determining the student's need for aid from the federal financial aid programs, the Financial Aid Office must first consider other aid the student is expected to receive.

*3850 is the maximum EFC that qualifies for a Federal Pell Grant award in 2004-05.

The maximum EFC that qualifies for a Federal Pell Grant may change from year to year, depending on U. S. Congressional actions and appropriations.
The Cost of Education

Cost must be considered when a student is making decisions about whether, where and when to attend college. A student budget is used as an estimate of the amount of money it will cost a student to attend college. The budget includes allowances for tuition, fees, books, transportation, housing, food and personal expenses. Additional allowances may be made for unusual expenses such as dependent care costs.

Student budgets are set each year by CUNY. They reflect the average expenses of all students who are living with their parents or living away from their parents. Students with disabilities should speak to a financial aid counselor about budget adjustments for their special needs.

The 2004-2005 Hunter College budgets for full-time undergraduate students who are charged the NY State resident tuition rate are as follows for the 9-month period of the fall and spring semesters:

Note: Tuition charges are estimates for full-time New York State residents based on 2004-2005 tuition charges. Actual tuition charges for New York State residents, out-of-state residents and international students for full-time and part-time study can be found in the Schedule of Classes.

The Housing component of the Living Away from Parent budget is derived using average housing costs for a rental apartment in metropolitan New York and using the assumption that the student is sharing the cost of housing with a roommate. The Personal component includes an allowance for medical expenses and/or health insurance.

Student Resources

In reviewing the student budget, a prospective student should consider the resources they will have from earnings and savings, the amount that parents can contribute and any benefits the prospective student receives, such as Social Security, veteran’s benefits, unemployment or public assistance. Summer employment can help to meet the first costs of enrollment and the prospective student should plan to save money from summer earnings. Cash will be needed at the beginning of the school year for books, supplies and transportation.

Packaging

Rather than using one source of funds to finance their education, students may receive a combination of funds from a number of programs for which they are eligible. This system for allocating aid is called packaging. Funds will be allocated first to meet the basic costs of attendance (tuition, books, transportation). If funding permits, other living expenses will then be addressed.

Applications for financial aid must be filed each year. FAFSA on the Web for the coming academic year is available starting on January 1.

Study Abroad

Students who enroll in an overseas program of study approved by Hunter College are eligible to receive federal financial aid and, in some cases, state aid. The coursework for which they enroll must be applicable to their degree at Hunter College. Contact the Office of Programs Abroad at (212) 772-4983 for further information about study abroad.

STUDENT ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for federal and state aid, a student must be a United States citizen or an eligible non-citizen who is making satisfactory academic progress toward a degree. Students who have defaulted on a loan or owe a repayment of a federal grant at any postsecondary school must make satisfactory repayment arrangements with that institution before they will be eligible to receive aid at Hunter College.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

All recipients of financial aid must be making satisfactory progress toward a degree. There are two different formulas used to make this determination, one for state aid and another for federal aid.

State Program Eligibility

In order to receive assistance from the Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) and the Aid for Part-time Study (APTS) Program, students must complete a minimum number of credits the prior semester, complete the appropriate number of cumulative credits and have the appropriate grade point average at the beginning of each semester of state-supported study. The chart below outlines these requirements.

For example, to receive the fifth payment of TAP, a student would have to have completed 9 credits the prior semester for a total of at least 31 cumulative credits with a minimum grade point average of 2.00.

Waiver of Academic Standing Requirements

Students who become academically ineligible to receive assistance from state programs because of an unusual circumstance for which documentation can be provided (e.g., illness) may apply for a one-time waiver of the Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements. For further information, contact the Office of Student Services at (212) 772-4878.

Federal Program Eligibility

The federal Satisfactory Academic Progress standard applies to students seeking assistance from all federal student financial aid programs available at Hunter College. To be eligible for federal aid, an undergraduate student must achieve at least the GPA required for completion of the degree.

A. Attempted credits are not more than 150% of the credits normally required for completion of the degree.
   – and –
B. Accumulated credits are equal to or greater than two-thirds of the cumulative credits attempted at the institution.

If the standard in paragraph B is not met, eligibility may be retained by meeting conditional standards:

C. For students who are pursuing a baccalaureate degree, the accumulated credits must be equal to or greater than (75 percent times the cumulative credits attempted) minus 18.

Students will be measured against the satisfactory academic progress standard at the end of the spring term to determine eligibility for receipt of Title IV student financial assistance for the upcoming year.

This chart would be used by a student pursuing a BA degree.
requiring 126 credits. In this example, if you have attempted 36 credits, you must successfully complete at least 24. To maintain conditional eligibility, you must successfully complete 9 credits.

Federal Pell Grant
A Federal Pell Grant, unlike a loan, does not have to be repaid. Federal Pell Grants are awarded only to undergraduate students who have not earned a bachelor’s or professional degree. For many students, Federal Pell Grants provide a foundation of financial aid to which other aid may be added. The amount of Federal Pell Grant awards each year depends on program funding. The maximum Federal Pell Grant for the 2004-2005 award year is $4,050. The amount of the student’s Federal Pell Grant award depends on the student’s Expected Family Contributions (EFC), the cost of attendance, the student’s enrollment status (full- or part-time) and the number of terms the student attends during the academic year.

Campus-Based Programs
Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) Program, Federal Work-Study (FWS) Program and the Federal Perkins Loan Program are considered campus-based programs because they are administered directly by the Financial Aid Office. How much aid a student receives depends on the student’s financial need, the amount of other aid the student will receive and the availability of funds. Students are encouraged to complete the FAFSA no later than May 1 in order to be considered for awards for the subsequent award year. When funds are no longer available, no more awards can be made that year.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (FSEOG)
FSEOG is for undergraduates with exceptional financial need, that is, students with the lowest Expected Family Contributions (EFCs). An FSEOG does not have to be paid back. The amount of the FSEOG award the student may receive depends on when the student applies, the student’s level of need and availability of funds. There is no guarantee that every eligible student will receive an FSEOG award; students at each college are awarded based on the availability of funds in the university.

Federal Work-Study
The Federal Work-Study (FWS) Program provides jobs for students with financial need, allowing them to earn money to help pay educational expenses. The program encourages community service work and work related to the student’s course of study. The FWS salary will be at least the current federal minimum wage, but it may be higher, depending on the type of work the student does and the skills required. The total FWS award depends on when the student applies, level of need and availability of funds.

Federal Perkins Loans
A Federal Perkins Loan is a low-interest (5 percent) loan for students with exceptional financial need. Federal Perkins Loans are made through Hunter College as the lender and the loan is made with government funds. Students must repay this loan. Eligible students may borrow up to $3,000 for each year of undergraduate study. The maximum total amount an undergraduate can borrow is $15,000. The actual amount of the loan is dependent on financial need and the availability of funds.

William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan
The Federal Direct Student Loan Program, established by the Student Loan Reform Act of 1993, provides low-interest loans for students and parents. Under the Direct Loan Program, the federal government makes loans directly to students and parents through the college. There are three kinds of Direct Loans available through Hunter College:

- Federal Direct Subsidized Loans are subsidized loans awarded on the basis of financial need. (See Financial Need section.) If you qualify for a subsidized loan, the federal government pays interest on the loan ("subsidizes" the loan) until you begin repayment and during authorized periods of deferment thereafter.
- Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loans are unsubsidized loans, not awarded on the basis of need. If students qualify for an unsubsidized loan, they will be charged interest from the time the loan is disbursed until it is paid in full. Students can choose to pay the interest or allow it to accumulate. If students allow the interest to accumulate, it will be capitalized — that is, the interest will be added to the principal amount of the loan and will increase the amount that has to be repaid. If the interest is paid as it accumulates, the student will have less to repay in the long run.
- Federal Direct PLUS Loans are loans that parents of a dependent student can borrow to pay for the student’s education.

Federal Direct Subsidized and Unsubsidized Loans
Matriculated students enrolled in an eligible program of study at least half-time may receive a direct loan. They must also meet other general eligibility requirements. (See Federal Program Eligibility section.)

The maximum amount that may be borrowed under the Federal Direct Loan Program by a dependent undergraduate student is:

- $2,625 for first-year students enrolled in a program of study that is at least a full academic year;
- $3,500 if that student has completed the first year of study and the remainder of the student’s program is at least a full academic year;
- $5,500 a year if the student has completed two years of study and the remainder of the student’s program is at least a full academic year.

For periods of undergraduate study that are less than an academic year, the amounts that can be borrowed will be less than those listed above.

The maximum amount that may be borrowed under the Federal Direct Loan Program by an independent undergraduate student is:
- $6,625 if the student is a first-year student enrolled in a program of study that is at least a full academic year. (At least $4,000 of this amount must be in unsubsidized loans.)
- $7,500 if the student has completed the first year of study and the remainder of the student’s program is at least a full academic year. (At least $4,000 of this amount must be in unsubsidized loans.)
• $10,500 a year if the student has completed two years of study and the remainder of the student's program is at least a full academic year. (At least $5,000 of this amount must be in unsubsidized loans.)

For periods of undergraduate study that are less than an academic year, the amount a student can borrow will be less than those listed above.

Note: Federal Direct Loans are not made to undergraduates enrolled in programs that are less than one-third of an academic year.

The total debt a student can have outstanding from all Federal Direct Loans and Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) Program Loans combined is:

• $23,000 as a dependent undergraduate student;
• $46,000 as an independent undergraduate student (no more than $23,000 of this amount may be in subsidized loans).

For students whose Federal Direct Loans were first disbursed on or after July 1, 1994, the interest rate is variable, but it will never exceed 8.25 percent. The interest rate is adjusted each year on July 1. Students will be notified of interest rate changes throughout the life of their loan.

To apply for a Federal Direct Loan the student must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), the Renewal FAFSA or FAFSA on the Web and complete an on-line Federal Direct Loan Request on the Hunter College Office Financial Aid Office web site at www.hunter.cuny.edu/finaid. Hunter College will certify the student's enrollment, the student's cost of attendance, the student's academic standing, any other financial aid for which the student is eligible and the student's financial need. (Need is evaluated to determine if the student qualifies for a less costly subsidized Federal Direct Subsidized Loan.)

Once a Federal Direct Loan is made, it is managed and collected by the U.S. Department of Education’s Direct Loan Servicing Center. The toll-free telephone number is 1-800-848-0979.

Federal Direct PLUS Loans (for Parents)

For parent borrowers, the Federal Direct Loan Program offers the Federal Direct PLUS Loan.

These loans enable parents with good credit histories to borrow to pay the educational expenses of each child who is a dependent undergraduate student enrolled at least half-time.

To be eligible to receive a Federal Direct PLUS Loan, parents are generally required to pass a credit check. If they do not pass the credit check, they may still be able to receive a loan if someone, such as a relative or friend, is able to pass the credit check, agrees to co-sign the loan and promises to repay it if the student's parents should fail to do so. Parents may also qualify for a loan even if they do not pass the credit check if they can demonstrate that there are extenuating circumstances. Students and their parents must also meet other general eligibility requirements for federal student financial aid.

The yearly limit on the Federal Direct PLUS Loan is equal to the cost of attendance minus any other financial aid for which a student is eligible. For example, if a student's cost of attendance is $6,000 and the student is eligible for $4,000 in other financial aid, the student's parents could borrow up to--but no more than--$2,000.

The interest rate is variable, but will never exceed 9 percent. The interest rate is adjusted each year on July 1. Parents will be notified of interest rate changes throughout the life of their loan(s). Interest is charged on the loan from the date the first disbursement is made until the loan is paid in full.

Parents will pay a fee of up to 4 percent of the loan, deducted proportionately each time a loan payment is made. A portion of this fee goes to the federal government to help reduce the cost of the loans. Also, if parents do not make their loan payments as scheduled, they may be charged late fees and collection costs.

To apply for a Federal Direct PLUS Loan the student must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), the Renewal FAFSA or FAFSA on the Web and the parent must complete an on-line Federal Direct PLUS Loan Request on the Hunter College Office Financial Aid Office web site at www.hunter.cuny.edu/finaid.

Federal Direct Consolidation Loans (Loans not available through Hunter College)

A Federal Direct Consolidation Loan is designed to help student borrowers simplify loan repayment. Even though a student may have several different federal student loans, a Consolidation Loan allows the student to make only one payment a month for all the loans the student may consolidate. The student may even consolidate just one loan into a Federal Direct Consolidation Loan to get benefits such as flexible repayment options.

Most federal student loans or PLUS Loans can be consolidated. The Direct Loan Servicing Center provides students with a complete listing of eligible loans. The toll-free telephone number of the Servicing Center's Consolidation Department is 1-800-557-7392.

Federal Aid to Native Americans

Awards are granted to applicants who are at least one-quarter American Indian, Eskimo or Aleut and a member of a tribe, band or group on record with the Bureau of Indian Affairs. In addition, the student must be enrolled full-time in a degree-granting program and demonstrate need.

NEW YORK STATE FINANCIAL AID PROGRAMS

Tuition Assistance Program (TAP)

This grant is awarded to New York State residents who are enrolled full-time in a degree-granting program and meet the income criteria. To be eligible for a TAP award, each semester students must register for 12 credits, which are directly attributable to their degree. Students should consult with an adviser in the Office of Student Services or their major department when planning their programs to ensure continued TAP eligibility.

Awards ranging from $275 to $4,000 are made to dependent students and independent students with dependents whose New York State taxable income is $80,000 or less or to independent students with no dependents if the taxable income is $10,000 or less. Students may receive awards for eight semesters; SEEK students may receive awards for ten semesters. A student with a disability that prevents attendance on a full-time basis may be eligible to receive TAP while attending on a part-time basis.

CUNY Student Tuition Assistance (CUSTA)

Students who are otherwise eligible for a maximum TAP award but whose award is reduced because they have received four semesters of payment may be eligible for a CUSTA award up to $100 a semester.

Aid for Part-Time Study (APTS)

This award provides assistance to students who attend less than full-time, have accrued a minimum of 6 credits (not equated) and have not exhausted their TAP eligibility. In order to be eligible, a student must be a New York State resident and enrolled for at least 6 credits.
New York State World Trade Center Memorial Scholarships
The World Trade Center Memorial Scholarship Program for study at the City University of New York is intended for victims, spouses and children of the victims who died or were severely disabled as a result of the September 11 terrorist attacks. The program also provides scholarships to the spouses and children of those who died or were severely disabled during ongoing rescue and recovery efforts, including firefighters, police officers, peace officers and emergency medical service workers.

The scholarships cover the cost of tuition, fees, books, supplies, transportation and room and board, if applicable, for four years of full-time undergraduate study or for five academic years of a program of academic study as defined by the Commissioner of Education. The scholarships were established by Governor George Pataki’s Executive Order 113 and related legislation to establish such a program, along with a CUNY Board of Trustees resolution. Applications are available online at: http://www.hesc.com/Forms/WTC_scholarship_inst.html

Vietnam Veterans Award Program
To qualify, undergraduate students must meet New York State residency requirements, must have served in the armed forces in Indochina between December 1961 and May 1975 and must satisfy all other eligibility requirements including filing for TAP and Federal Pell Grants. Students must demonstrate good academic standing and meet college guidelines for pursuit of this awards program. Awards are $1,000 per semester for full-time study and $500 per semester for part-time study. Awards cannot exceed the cost of tuition. In addition, the applicant must file a Vietnam Veterans Tuition Assistance Supplement (VTTA) to establish eligibility. After the initial year eligibility is established, students must re-file a supplement yearly. Supplements are available on request from New York State Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC) at (518) 473-7087. All applications must be completed by May 1 of the academic year for which an award is sought. For more information see the HESC web site at: http://www.hesc.com/bulletin.nsf/

Army Reserve National Guard-Army Continuing Education System (ARNG-ACES)
The New York State Army Reserve National Guard offers tuition assistance through two programs for full- and part-time students. All current and future members of the New York Army Reserve National Guard (ARNG) are eligible except for members serving on active or full-time duty and those on Active Guard Reserve status. ARNG members who also receive veterans’ benefits are not eligible. For full-time students, the program is limited to tuition costs, instructional fees in lieu of tuition and laboratory or shop fees specifically required as a condition of enrollment in a course. Part-time students must be enrolled half-time (7 or fewer credits).

Commissioned officers must agree to remain in the ARNG for four years after the last course for which tuition assistance has been provided is completed. For more information on these programs, contact the Civilian Education Office at (518) 786-4500.

State Aid to Native Americans
The student must be a member on the official tribal roll of a New York State tribe or a child of a member. Applicants must provide documentation. Awards are available for two-, four- or five-year programs. Awards are $775 for 12 or more credits per semester.

Prorated amounts are available for students taking fewer than 12 credits. Contact Native American Education Unit, New York State Education Department, Room 543 Education Building, Albany, NY 12234. Call (518) 474-0537 for information. The deadlines are July 15 for the fall semester, December 31 for the spring semester and May 20 for the summer semester.

The Scholarship and Welfare Fund of the Alumni Association, a not-for-profit group established in 1949, administers a number of funds to provide scholarships to students who otherwise might not be able to complete their education. For over fifty years, the Scholarship and Welfare Fund has contributed substantially to the education of Hunter College students. Contributions from alumni, friends, chapters and classes have provided the funds needed for this support.

Emergency Loan Program The emergency loan program was established to assist students with an immediate problem concerning essential needs for school-related expenses. The program provides emergency loans, primarily as a substitute for financial aid checks not available on distribution dates because of college error. Emergency loans are generally not given unless the student has a viable method of repayment, such as stipends, wages or expected financial aid loans. All emergency loans must be repaid prior to the end of the semester in which they are issued. All students receiving emergency loans must sign a limited Power of Attorney, which will allow the college to recoup funds that have been advanced.

Students may obtain information and request an emergency loan through the Financial Aid Office, 241 Hunter North or the Office of Student Services, 1103 Hunter East. Counselors in the Financial Aid Office help students with processing emergency loans.

This program is funded in part by a bequest from Sara Feldmesser, Class of 1918.

Other Sources of Financial Assistance Hunter College is committed to providing its students with the maximum amount of financial assistance available from government grants, loans and work-study opportunities. Information and assistance in obtaining financial aid is available from counselors in the Financial Aid office, Room 241 HN. See the Financial Aid section of this catalog or visit the Financial Aid Office Web site at www.hunter.cuny.edu/finaid/.
The Office of Student Services helps students move successfully through the college experience from orientation through graduation. Student Services counselors provide advice and information on matters related to course and program requirements and curricular offerings, personal concerns and college procedures, regulations and policies. Exceptions to academic regulations are considered through an appeals process.

Counselors meet with students individually and in small groups to explore and evaluate the student’s academic strengths and concentration, additional training, work history, interests, skills and personal traits. Counselors help uncover underlying factors that may impede progress toward decision making. Counselors also help the student develop a resume, interviewing skills and job search skills and provide assistance in job placement. Alumni are also encouraged to use the services for assistance in job search and career change.

Internships Internships provide the opportunity to gain pre-professional work experience in a setting related to a student’s major course of study. Interns work in corporations, government agencies and nonprofit organizations. In addition to gaining work-related skills, students develop contacts for future employment and acquire job-related experience to enhance their resume and interview presentation and earn academic credit or stipends.

Employer Recruiting Representatives from corporations, banks, brokerage houses, accounting firms, insurance companies, retail stores, computer and software companies, nonprofit organizations and government agencies recruit on and off campus in the fall and spring by interviewing students for a variety of professional positions.

Employer Visits Employers and successful professionals, including alumni, come to Hunter to discuss career opportunities in their respective areas. Panelists explore current trends in various fields, offer suggestions for preparing for the competitive job market and describe their own careers. From these experiences, students learn about specific companies, their products and services, hiring trends and career opportunities.

The Graduating Senior Recruiting Program Graduating seniors have the opportunity to enroll in the Graduating Senior Recruiting Program. Approved resumes are made available to participating employers for review. Employers select those candidates in whom they are interested and conduct interviews on and off campus.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY
B122 Hunter West; (212) 772-4447

Public Safety and Emergencies
In order to provide a safe and secure environment, the Hunter College campuses are monitored 24 hours a day by members of the Department of Public Safety. Public Safety personnel are available to provide assistance with public safety, security and health emergencies at all times. If an officer is not immediately available, the department can be reached in the following manner:

Emergencies Located throughout the campuses are general emergency telephones, which are large silver boxes identifiable by their “For Emergency Use” label. These phones are to be used in the event of all emergencies. If, however, one of these phones is not available, the department can be reached from any telephone on campus by dialing (212) 772-4444.

Non-emergencies All calls for Public Safety services from all Hunter College campuses should be made to (212) 772-4447. This number is staffed 24 hours daily. Calls for outside assistance can be made from campus telephones by dialing 9-911. (An extra 9 is entered to ensure that the caller is given an outside line.)

Building Hours and Off-Hours Use The following schedule and procedures are in effect for the Hunter College complex of buildings:

Building Hours:

| Monday through Friday | 7:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. |
| Saturday, Sunday | 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. |

To enter the buildings at times and days other than those scheduled above, everyone must show proper identification to the security officers on duty. A sign-in and sign-out log will be maintained by the security officers.

Special Procedures on the Brookdale campus Students, faculty, staff and visitors to the Brookdale campus are required to possess a valid photo ID, which they must present to campus security upon entry into Brookdale campus buildings and show to any member of the Residence Life or Campus Security staff upon request at any time.

Information and Complaints Requests for information or complaints concerning security services should be made to Louis Mader, Director of Public Safety, (212) 772-4521.
THE ACADEMIC PROGRAM

The Bachelor of Arts (BA) encompasses sciences, humanities and the arts and the social sciences. It prepares students for positions in profit, nonprofit and government organizations or for graduate programs.

The Bachelor of Science (BS) provides training for a particular career and is therefore considered a professional degree. Hunter offers BS degrees in 5 fields.

The Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) is a program concentrating in art for highly qualified students. This program is described in detail in the section devoted to the Art Department.

The Bachelor of Music (BMus) is a program designed for students who intend to perform professionally or to teach the performance of music. This program is described in detail in the section devoted to the Music Department.

The Bachelor/Masters programs are designed for highly qualified students in particular areas of study; they enable full-time students to complete both the bachelor's and master's degrees in 4-5 years. Some programs offer teacher certification at the master's level. Fifteen programs are available. See page 54 for a list of programs.

The CUNY (City University of New York) Baccalaureate degree is a university-wide program. This degree, awarded by CUNY rather than by a specific undergraduate CUNY college, may be a BS or BA degree and is intended for students who have well formulated individual academic and career goals. Students who are accepted work out their programs with a faculty committee of their choice that is willing to support the student's plan of study. Students pursue their studies at one or more colleges in CUNY, according to their interests. Students must complete at least 15 but not more than 90 credits to be considered for admission to this program. Further information can be obtained from the CUNY/BA adviser in the Office of Student Services.

Policy on Remediation

Beginning January 2000, students enrolling at Hunter College must prove their proficiency in reading, writing and mathematics through SAT scores, Regents scores or assessment tests prior to registration. Remedial courses are no longer offered by the college. ESL and non-proficient SEEK students are exempt from this policy, but must adhere to the following guidelines (see the Admissions section of this catalog for information about ESL and SEEK designations): SEEK students must enroll in the appropriate basic skills workshop(s) prior to enrolling in their first semester at Hunter. SEEK students who do not gain proficiency in the pre-first semester workshops must take additional basic skills workshops during the semester. SEEK students must demonstrate proficiency within one year of enrollment at Hunter. SEEK students needing basic skills coursework must consult with the director of the SEEK Program for course access and availability. ESL students are placed in an appropriate developmental reading and/or writing course during their first semester and may continue taking developmental courses in their second semester, if needed. ESL students must demonstrate proficiency by the end of their fourth consecutive semester at Hunter. ESL students should see the ESL adviser in the English Department, Room 1212 Hunter West, for details about basic skills proficiency requirements.

College Preparatory Initiative

Students who graduated from high school in spring 1993 or later are required to satisfy a set of prescribed educational competencies known as the College Preparatory Initiative (CPI). Students who do not satisfy the Initiative through coursework taken while in high school take appropriate college-level courses to meet the requirement. See the Admissions section of this catalog for CPI requirements.

CUNY Proficiency Examination (CPE)

The CPE requires students to demonstrate proficiency in aspects of academic literacy and quantitative reasoning that the CUNY faculty considers important for success in upper-division studies. The examination consists of two parts totaling three hours: part one is an essay written in response to questions related to two reading assignments, one of which is provided in advance of the test; part two requires students to determine the extent to which data from charts or graphs support the major claims of a short reading selection. As of fall 2003, all baccalaureate students are required to take the CPE between the 45th and 60th credit. Students who are within the credit range or time frame mandated for the examination will be sent information about test dates and registration procedures by mail. Additional information about the CPE, including a booklet with sample tasks and responses, is available at the Testing Center, 150 Hunter North, (212) 772-4868. General information, including sample questions and a self-paced learning program to practice CPE tasks, may also be viewed at the website of the Reading/Writing Center at http://www.rwc.hunter.cuny.edu.

General Education Requirement

Students must fulfill the General Education Requirement, which consists of a Core Requirement made up of three sequential stages of liberal arts courses, as well as three graduation requirements: Writing, Foreign Language and Pluralism and Diversity. See section on General Education Requirement below. Note: All students who matriculated at Hunter College prior to fall 2001 have the option of fulfilling either the Distribution Requirement in its entirety or the General Education Requirement in its entirety in order to be eligible for graduation. The Distribution Requirement is included as Appendix A of this catalog.

Major Field of Study

Students must choose a major field of study: two chosen subjects, (the major and the minor), for the BA or one subject of specialization or professional study for the BS (approximately 36 credits for the BA and 60 for the BS). See Major Field of Study on page 53.

Elective Courses

Elective courses are courses chosen by the student, provided the prerequisites are met, to complete the total credits required for the degree. See Elective (or Optional) Credits on page 54.
THE GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENT

Introduction
All undergraduate students who matriculated at Hunter College in fall 2001 and later must fulfill the General Education Requirement (GER), a set of competencies, knowledge areas and perspectives that Hunter College considers essential to the intellectual development of its undergraduates. Students are strongly urged to complete most of the GER before going into their major and minor. Without the necessary background found in the GER, you may find yourself at a disadvantage in your major courses. However, students in highly structured programs, such as the sciences, mathematics, foreign languages and BFA, BMus and BS degree should begin their major and minor courses and their Core requirements concurrently.

The General Education Requirement is comprised of the Core Requirement, consisting of designated courses at various academic levels and three graduation requirements: the Writing Requirement, the Foreign Language Requirement and the Pluralism and Diversity Requirement. Transfer students who have earned an AA/AS degree from a CUNY college and who matriculated in fall 2003 and after are exempt from the Core requirements of the GER, but must fulfill the three graduation requirements of Writing, Pluralism and Diversity and Foreign Language. Transfer students who have earned an AA/AS degree from a CUNY college and who matriculated between fall 2001 and summer 2003 are exempt from the Core Requirement and the Writing Requirement. Evaluated transfer credits sometimes can be used to fulfill the GER requirements. All transfer students should carefully check their evaluated courses against the GER. Students transferring from a CUNY school without an AA or AS degree should seek an adviser to help determine which courses they may use to satisfy Core requirements. For overlaps and restrictions on these different requirements and their relation to major and minor requirements, see the section below on Regulations.

Summary
The Core Requirement, comprised of designated courses, is divided into three sequential Stages: 1-Academic Foundations; 2-Broad Exposure; and 3-Focused Exposure.

Stage 1 — Academic Foundations: (Students should complete this stage within their first 30 credits.) The Academic Foundations Stage includes courses in mathematics, composition and history that provide students with the analytic, interpretive, communicative and historical competencies and perspectives critical to academic success.

Stage 2 — Broad Exposure: (Students should complete this stage within their first 45 credits.) The Broad Exposure Stage continues with courses in the social sciences, humanities, arts and natural sciences to introduce students to a broad range of disciplinary perspectives and areas of knowledge.

Stage 3 — Focused Exposure: (Students should complete this stage within their first 60 credits.) This Stage requires students to select advanced courses outside their major (students with more than one major should see the Regulations, below). The Focused Exposure Stage includes courses in areas that the student has selected to study in greater depth, in the expectation that more advanced students should do more analysis and research.

Graduation Requirements:
Comprised of the Writing Requirement, the Foreign Language Requirement and the Pluralism and Diversity Requirement.

Writing Requirement The Writing Requirement (the “W” designation) ensures that all students have significant writing experiences. It is recommended that students fulfill the Writing Requirement early in their academic career in order to prepare effectively for advanced coursework and for the CPE. The maximum number of writing intensive, (W)-designated courses a student must take is 3 (see the section below on Writing Requirement). All (W) courses must be taken at Hunter. The (W)-designated courses (or specific sections thereof) are indicated in the Schedule of Classes each semester. (NOTE: Not all sections of a course are necessarily offered with significant writing. To satisfy the Writing Requirement a section designated as (W) must be taken.)

Foreign Language Requirement: The goal of this requirement is to provide facility in a language other than English and to enable students to access non-English literatures. In learning a foreign language and studying its literature and cultures, students acquire new perspectives on how peoples think, view the world, express themselves and communicate with another. Language learning expands one’s ability to create and discover new meaning in one’s own language and culture. An awareness of contrasting cultural concepts sensitizes students to the differences between their own culture and others — increasingly important, as the communities of the world have become so interconnected and interdependent. This is a graduation requirement. The requirement of four semesters of language courses or an equivalent combination of college and high school courses is fulfilled only if all four semesters are completed in the same language.

All BA, BFA and BMus students must fulfill a graduation requirement of intermediate (fourth semester) foreign language proficiency. It is recommended that students begin the first two semesters of foreign language proficiency within their first 30 credits at Hunter. Although intermediate foreign language proficiency is required only by the time a student graduates, gaps in language instruction are very undesirable and it is strongly recommended that students complete all foreign language requirements in consecutive semesters. Students in BS programs should check the requirements for their specific program. Students who change from a BS to a BA program must meet the foreign language requirement for the BA degree.

Pluralism and Diversity Requirement is comprised of designated courses in four groups (A, B, C, D). A course can satisfy only one of these four groups, though it may also satisfy a requirement in the Core and in the minor and major.

General Education Requirement Tables
The General Education Requirement is comprised of a Core Requirement and Graduation Requirements in: Writing, Foreign Language and Pluralism and Diversity. Any number of courses from a major or minor may be used to satisfy Pluralism and Diversity Requirement and the Writing Requirement.

Note: The list of courses satisfying the requirements is often updated. For the most recent list, please check the registrar’s web site at: http://registrar.hunter.cuny.edu.

The tables are organized by GER category. These are:

A. Core Requirements
Stage 1: Group A, B and C ..............................................9 credits
(one course from each group)
Stage 2: Group A, B, C, D and E .................................22 credits
(one course Group A, two from Group B, one from Group C, one from Group D and two from Group E)
Stage 3: Group A and B ...............................................6 credits
(one course from each group)

B. Graduation Requirements
Writing .................................................................Three courses
Foreign language .........................................................12 credits
Pluralism and Diversity: Group A, B, C and D ...........12 credits
(one course from each group)

Courses that satisfy the GER are listed below.

Please note that a Pluralism and Diversity course can satisfy only one of the four Pluralism and Diversity groups, even when it is a designated P&D course in more than one group. It is so indicated in the “also meets” column with an “or,” meaning that it will satisfy one P&D category or the other but not both.

P&D courses can also satisfy the Core and the Writing requirement as indicated. They can also satisfy the major and the minor.

Core courses can satisfy P&D and Writing where indicated.
ACADEMIC PROGRAMS | General Education Requirement

CORE REQUIREMENT

Regulations for Core Requirement:
1. A course may be used to satisfy only one Core Requirement.
2. No more than two courses per department or program may be applied to satisfy Core requirements. Exceptions to this are courses in Stage 1: Academic Foundations.*
3. All courses satisfying Core, Stage 2, Groups A through D must be from different departments or programs.*
4. Students may apply up to two courses from their major to satisfy Stage 1 and Stage 2 of the Core; only one of these is permitted to fulfill a Stage 1 requirement and only one a Stage 2 requirement.
5. All CUNY Honors College (CHC) courses designated for the Core Requirement may be applied toward the Core Requirement.

Note: Students who have declared two or more majors can use up to two courses from one of those majors to satisfy Stage 1 and Stage 2 of the Core. Only one of these is permitted to fulfill a Stage 1 requirement and only one a Stage 2 requirement. Courses from minors and any additional majors can be used without limit to satisfy Stages 1, 2 and 3 of the Core.

STAGE 1: ACADEMIC FOUNDATIONS

This Stage involves basic academic skills needed for success in the liberal arts and sciences. Accordingly students should complete this Stage as early as possible, preferably within their first 30 credits at Hunter.

Exemption may be granted on the basis of placement exams or other criteria as determined by the Hunter College Senate. Such exemptions do not yield credit unless they are based on the successful completion of college courses.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

Hunter College currently offers the following programs to meet foreign language requirements: Chinese (CHIN), French (FREN), German (GERMN), Greek (GRK), Hebrew (HEBR), Italian (ITAL), Japanese (JPN), Latin (LAT), Polish (POL), Russian (RUSS), Spanish (SPAN), Swahili (SWA), Ukrainian (UKR), Yoruba (YOR).

Course of Study All students must demonstrate foreign language proficiency at the 12-credit level or its equivalent. In each language a required course sequence (12 credits) is offered: Elementary I and II (2 three-credit courses or 1 six-credit intensive course) and Intermediate I and II (2 three-credit courses or 1 six-credit intensive course). The Elementary three-credit courses are usually numbered 101 and 102 and the Intermediate three-credit courses are usually 201 and 202 (except that the Spanish for Native Speakers sequence is SPAN 105, 106, 207 and 208; intermediate Greek is GRK 110 and GRK 202 or 203; intermediate Latin is LAT 110 and LAT 201, 202, 203 or 204). The intensive six-credit courses are usually numbered 103 and 203 (except for: CHIN 107 and 207; GRK 107; and LAT 107). Intensive courses are not offered in all languages. The first semester of a four-course sequence will not be credited without successful completion of the second semester.

Exemption Students may be exempted from part or all of the foreign language requirement by virtue of:

1) Successful completion of high school courses. Each year of language study completed in high school is equivalent to one semester (3 cr) of the same language in college. The requirement of 4 semesters of language courses or an equivalent combination of college and high school courses is fulfilled only if all 4 semesters are completed in the same language. Students who have completed 4 years of one foreign language in high school should apply for an exemption with the Coordinator of Academic Appeals; an official high school transcript is required. Students who have passed a language Advanced Placement Test of the College Board with a grade of 5, 4 or 3 should contact the Office of Admissions.

2) Courses taken at other colleges.

3) Competency demonstrated through proficiency examinations. To arrange for an examination contact the appropriate department office; if the language in question is not taught at Hunter College contact the Dean of the School of Arts & Sciences.

4) Students who have graduated from a high school outside the United States in which the language of instruction was other than English may be exempted from the foreign language requirement upon presentation of a high school or secondary (equivalent) transcript.

Note that an exemption from a language requirement does not yield any credit unless the exemption is based on successful completion of college courses.

Placement Students may begin a foreign language at Hunter College. Students who are not exempt from the foreign language requirement as described above should choose their language course as follows:

1) Students who have satisfactorily completed 3 years of study of one language in high school or have completed the college equivalent of the 3rd level in a foreign language sequence should take the 4th course in the required sequence.

2) Students who have satisfactorily completed 2 years of study of one language in high school or have completed the college equivalent of the second level in a foreign language sequence should take the 3rd and 4th courses in the required sequence.

3) Students who have satisfactorily completed 1 year of study of a language in high school or have completed the college equivalent of the 1st level in a foreign language sequence should take the 2nd, 3rd and 4th courses in the required sequence.

4) Students who are beginning the study of a foreign language should take all 12 credits of a course sequence.
PLURALISM AND DIVERSITY

The growing interdependence of the world’s political, economic and cultural relations, along with the increasingly diverse character of the American citizenry in general and the students of Hunter College in particular, make it imperative that Hunter undergraduates be exposed to a wide range of intellectual traditions, perspectives and concerns arising from all corners of the globe. The emergence of sizable bodies of scholarship in recent decades reflecting that intellectual array makes it important for Hunter to present them as an integral part of the education of its undergraduates.

Accordingly, all students, including transfer students, who entered Hunter College in the Fall 1993 semester or later are required to complete 12 credits in designated courses that address issues of pluralism and diversity before graduating from Hunter College. Students choose three credits from each of the four groups below. Work done at other colleges may be counted toward the pluralism and diversity requirement. When a student is given course equivalence for a course that counts towards pluralism and diversity, that student will also be deemed to have met the corresponding pluralism and diversity requirement except that for BIOL 100/102 students must see the department to receive pluralism and diversity credit. All courses used to satisfy Pluralism and Diversity requirements may simultaneously meet a student's Core requirement or the courses necessary for a major or minor area of study.

While some courses may be listed in more than one group of the requirement, students will be able to apply such course to only one of the four areas.

Group A: Non-European societies, particularly those of Africa, Asia, Latin America or those indigenous to the Americas

Group B: Groups in the United States of America: African Americans, Asian Americans, Latino Americans and Native Americans

Group C: Women and/or issues of gender or sexual orientation

Group D: Europe, including the ways in which pluralism and diversity have been addressed

MAJOR FIELD OF STUDY (MAJOR AND MINOR)

The total number of credits for the bachelor of arts degree is 120. Among the requirements for a Hunter College BA, a student selects a major and a minor. A major is a concentration of courses in a particular subject area. It usually consists of 24 to 30 credits. A minor is a secondary concentration usually related to the student’s educational or career goals. It usually consists of 12 credits.

All majors offered by Hunter College have been authorized by the New York State Education Department. See Degree and Certificate Programs, page 23.

Requirements for a Major

All matriculated students must declare a major no later than the semester in which the combination of credits earned and credits for which they are currently registered totals 61 or greater. Transfer students entering with 60 credits or more must declare their major before the end of their first semester of attendance at Hunter. Students may find that some courses and career opportunities are available to them only if they have declared a major. In addition, under New York State guidelines, students who have not yet declared a major by the 61-credit point are ineligible for TAP financial aid.

To declare or change a major, a student should get a major/minor form from the OASIS, Room 217 Hunter North and confer with an adviser in the major department. The major department is responsible for approving the content and the arrangement of both the major and the minor, except in the case of childhood education, which requires the approval of the School of Education.

For students who are nearing the 61-credit point and remain undecided about their choice of major, there are a number of avenues of assistance. Designated faculty in each academic department advise prospective majors about the undergraduate programs and related career possibilities. Also, the counselors in the Office of Student Services and Career Development Services offer assistance in choosing a major. The college is concerned that students select their major with careful consideration and with good knowledge of the range of options.

To earn a Hunter degree, students must complete at least half of their major credits and half of their minor credits at Hunter.

Double Major

It is possible to have a double major in the BA degree. The student must complete all of the General Education Requirement, satisfy the sequence of study for both majors, fulfill a minor approved by both departments and file a major/minor form for each approved major. The double major and the minor must consist of courses taken in liberal arts departments or programs. Students fulfilling the requirements of two separate majors may be released from the requirement of completing a minor if the minor requirement is waived by both major departments.

The Minor

A minor is a secondary concentration usually related to the student’s educational or career goals. The major department is responsible for approving the content and the arrangement of both the major and the minor, except in the case of education, in which the collateral major in Quest (childhood education) and the adolescence education sequence require the approval of the School of Education in addition to that of the major department.

In order to graduate with a Hunter College BA, a student must have a major and a minor and complete at least half of their major credits and half of their minor credits at Hunter. The BS, BFA and BMus degrees do not require a minor.

The minor is chosen when the student declares the major and it must be approved by the student’s major department. It usually consists of 12 credits. The minor is chosen from among the departments and programs leading to the BA degree. Students pursuing childhood education along with their liberal arts major may use the childhood education sequence (Quest) as a collateral major; no minor is required. Students pursuing the adolescence education sequence may use the adolescence education sequence in place of the minor.

Courses from the minor can be used without limit to satisfy Stages 1, 2 and 3 of the Core, the Writing requirement and the Pluralism & Diversity Requirement. Although this does not lessen the number of credits required for the degree, it frees those credits to be used in an elective area.

The Major and the GER

Students may apply up to two courses from their major to satisfy Stage 1 and Stage 2 of the Core; only one of these is permitted to fulfill a Stage 1 requirement and only one a Stage 2 requirement. Note: Students who have declared two or more majors can use up to two courses from one of those majors to satisfy Stage 1 and Stage 2 of the Core. Only one of these is permitted to fulfill a Stage 1 requirement and only one a Stage 2 requirement. Courses from the minors and any additional majors can be used without limit to satisfy Stages 1, 2 and 3 of the Core, the Writing Requirement and the Pluralism & Diversity Requirement.

Departmental Majors

BA Degree These are majors concentrated within one department. The major typically consists of 24 to 30 credits. A minor in a related subject is chosen at the same time and it must be approved by the student’s major department. It usually consists of 12 credits. Both the major and the minor must be in programs leading to the BA.

In order to graduate, a student must have a minimum GPA of 2.0 in the courses designated for the major. Major departments may have higher requirements. Each student should consult the major department for details and also check the department’s description of the major in the catalog.

Specialized Honors Programs in the Upper Division

Minority Access to Research Careers (MARC) Program The Hunter College MARC Program is a scholarship program funded through the National Institute of General Medical Sciences to increase participation of minorities underrepresented in the sciences. The program focuses on preparing undergraduates for entry and success in Ph.D. programs and subsequent research careers. The program sponsors research internships in one of Hunter’s research laboratories and opportunities for students to travel and present at national scientific meetings. The program provides a yearly stipend of $10,536 and pays full tuition and health insurance premiums. African-American, Hispanic, Native American (American Indian, Eskimo) and Pacific Islanders are particularly encouraged to apply. Members of other ethnic groups underrepresented in the sciences are also encouraged to apply. Other requirements include citizenship or permanent residency, a grade point average of 3.0 or higher, a declared major in the sciences, computer science or math, an expressed interest in a biomedical research career and a commitment of at least one year.

Minority Biomedical Research Support Program (MBRS) The National Institutes of Health’s Division of General Medicine provides an opportunity for qualified minority students at Hunter College to gain experience in a research laboratory. Part-time research is conducted by the student for a salary range as follows: doctoral students receive $18,000 per year, masters’ candidates are reimbursed at an annual rate of $13,500 and undergraduates receive $9,600 per year. Graduate students receive a full tuition scholarship and undergraduates receive full tuition remission. The program is intended to encourage and increase the participation of underrepresented minorities in biomedical research careers.

For both the MARC and MBRS programs, Hunter College faculty members (representing the departments of biological sciences, chemistry, physics and psychology) provide research direction in a wide variety of projects that reflect their special expertise. Students interested in these programs can obtain an application at 314 Hunter North or contact the MBRS Office at (212) 772-5243 or the MARC Office at (212) 772-5245.
Ronald E. McNair Post-Baccalaureate Achievement Program

The Ronald E. McNair Post-Baccalaureate Achievement Program is funded by a grant from the U.S. Department of Education. An educational training grant, the McNair Program's purpose is to effectively prepare eligible Hunter College undergraduates for graduate study leading to a doctoral degree. McNair Program students must be either low-income and first-generation college students or members of groups underrepresented in graduate study in the United States. The regulations define underrepresented groups as Black (non-Hispanic), Hispanic and American Indian/Alaskan Native. To be eligible, students must have earned a grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or higher. Students enhance their research and analytical skills and refine their graduate school plans through their attendance at workshops, advising and scholarly and research activities. The program is funded to provide services to 20 eligible Hunter College students annually. For more information, contact the program office in 1236/1238 Hunter East, (212) 772-4967/4824.

Mellon-Mays Undergraduate Fellowship Program (MMUF)

The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation established the MMUF Program with the original purpose of rectifying the underrepresentation of Black, Latino and Native American faculty within America's colleges and universities. The program has since evolved to include students of other ancestries who demonstrate a strong commitment to racial equality.

In cooperation with faculty members, MMUF @ Hunter identifies and selects academically talented students from these backgrounds. During their undergraduate careers, MMUF Fellows are provided with a distinct and carefully guided college experience, both inside and outside the classroom. This includes: one-on-one mentoring with a Hunter faculty member; collaborating with a mentor in research projects, teaching and curriculum development; attending professional conferences; and opportunities to study or conduct research at other universities in the United States and abroad.

Students must be nominated by a Hunter faculty member and have the following qualifications: upper sophomore to lower senior status; a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better; a strong interest in pursuing a doctoral degree within specified fields of study; and a demonstrated commitment to increasing minority faculty representation in higher education. Once selected as a nominee, students will have to meet additional entrance requirements. Students who enter the program must maintain matriculated status and an overall GPA of 3.5 or better. Fellows receive an annual stipend, a tuition waiver and are eligible for loan repayments. For further information, contact the MMUF office, 1512 Hunter North, (212) 650-3142.

Career Opportunities in Research and Education (COR)

is an interdisciplinary research training program for talented minority juniors and seniors funded by the National Institute of Mental Health. The program is jointly offered by the departments of anthropology, psychology and sociology. Participants receive a monthly stipend and tuition and fee remission. They take a special curriculum and get individualized research training in a variety of areas under the supervision of a faculty mentor. The program has several levels of participation and all minority students — especially freshmen and sophomores intending to pursue a research-related career in the participating disciplines — are urged to apply for admission to the program. Additional details and descriptive literature are available from the COR program adviser. For more information call the program coordinator Carlotta Stephens (212) 772-4562 or the program director Vanya Quiñones-Jenab at (212) 772-4640.

Other Special Programs

Block Program for First-Year Students

Most first-year students entering in the fall semester have the opportunity to begin their college careers by enrolling in a specially designed one-semester Block Program. The Block Program offers clusters (or blocks) of courses organized to explore possible areas of interest and future career choices.

Blocks introduce courses of study, for example, in the sciences, teaching, psychology, film and media and nursing. Some blocks provide a general liberal arts foundation for entering students who are uncertain about a specific academic direction. All blocks include ENGL 120 (Expository Writing) and ORSEM 001 (Orientation Seminar). In addition to providing a preset, desirable program, the block courses are a start toward fulfillment of the college's General Education Requirement. Each block leads comfortably towards almost any major offered by the college and participation in a given block does not lock a student into any particular area of study. Additional information about the Block Program and a description of all the current blocks is available at www.hunter.cuny.edu/blockprogram.

Preprofessional Programs

Hunter College provides certain special programs to prepare students to qualify for careers in law, medicine, dentistry, veterinary medicine, pharmacy and optometry. Students are encouraged to be in contact with the preprofessional adviser in their area of interest to ensure adequate preparation for admission to the appropriate professional school.

Professional Option

Students preparing for a career in medicine, dentistry or veterinary medicine may elect the professional option, which enables them to earn the BA degree by taking the last year of study at an accredited professional school. Students choosing this option must complete all the general education requirements and all major and minor requirements Hunter prior to entering professional school. Before beginning professional studies, a formal application for a professional option must be submitted to and approved by the preprofessional adviser and registrar. Further details are available from the Pre-Medical adviser, Professor Howard Krukofsky at (212) 772-5244 or by e-mail: c.howard.krukofsky@hunter.cuny.edu

Premedical Professions

Students preparing for a career in medicine, other health professions (osteopathy, dentistry, optometry, podiatry, veterinary medicine) may elect any major or minor and should consult the premedical adviser during preadmission conference days about the choice of science in the first term's program. It is imperative that students maintain a close relationship with the premedical adviser in the time they become interested in such a career, so that they are adequately prepared for admission to a professional school. The college also offers a post-baccalaureate premedical program for students who already have a bachelor's degree (in any field) and wish to prepare for admission to a health professions school on a full-time or part-time basis. The Premedical Advising Office is located in Room 803 Hunter East and can be reached by telephone at (212) 772-5242.

Prelaw

There are no specific courses required for entry to law school. Legal educators agree that a well-balanced education is the best preparation for admission to and success in law school. Students planning to attend law school should take courses that best develop writing skills and the ability to think critically and creatively about human values and social institutions. There are some areas of legal practice for which a specific undergraduate major or coursework in a particular area is required or helpful. In order to be admitted to the Patent Bar, for example, an undergraduate degree in science, computer science or engineering is required. Students interested in law are encouraged to contact the pre-law adviser as early as possible to discuss preparation for applying to law school and to learn about opportunities to explore legal careers. For information contact Barbara Landress, Pre-Law adviser, at (212) 772-4889, Room 1134 Hunter East.
Pre-engineering The pre-engineering program is organized for students who plan to transfer to an engineering school of another college after two years at Hunter. The courses for pre-engineering outlined in the Physics Department section of this catalog satisfy requirements for the first two years of the City College engineering degree. Students planning to go to an engineering school should contact the Physics Department to work out a program suitable to their needs.

Preparation for Social Work A major in one of the social or behavioral sciences is preferred for students planning to enter the field of social work. Specific entrance requirements vary for the different graduate schools of social work. Most schools recommend a minimum of 24 credits in the social sciences. A major in sociology or psychology is desirable for those interested in casework or group work; a major in sociology, political science, economics or urban affairs is desirable for those interested in community organization. In addition, field placement courses that provide internships in social work agencies are highly recommended. Students planning to go to a graduate school of social work are encouraged to speak with an adviser in the Office of Student Services.

Teacher Education The Hunter College School of Education (HCSOE) offers 55 teacher and allied professional certifications at undergraduate and graduate levels. At the undergraduate level, students are prepared for careers in elementary and secondary education. Most teacher preparation programs have received national recognition. All teacher education programs meet certification and licensing requirements for New York City. For details, see the Education section of this catalog.

Public Service Scholars The Public Service Scholar Program seeks to improve our cities and the lives of people by preparing talented students for public service careers through internships in government and nonprofit organizations. The program runs for a full academic year and combines internship placements in the offices of senior officials and administrators with intensive seminars on public policy issues, government and nonprofit organizations. The program is open to any Hunter College student, regardless of major, who has a minimum 3.0 GPA and who is within 45 credits of graduation at the beginning of the program in the fall semester. Admission of up to 24 students is competitive. Applications are accepted starting in November with a deadline of March 15th. Students accepted as Public Service Scholars receive 18 academic credits and a $5,000 stipend. Because women, minorities and immigrants have been traditionally underrepresented in public policymaking positions, special efforts are taken to encourage them to apply for the program. Interested students should contact the Public Service Scholar Program, 1643 Hunter West, (212) 772-5599; ewalsh@hunter.cuny.edu.

Seminar/Internship Program in New York City Government/Politics This university-wide program bridges the gap between academic study and the practical world of New York politics. Students are advised to have taken prior coursework in American politics and to have at least a 3.0 GPA prior to being admitted to the program. For details, see the description in the Political Science department section of the catalog.

Opportunities for Air Force ROTC Instruction Air Force ROTC (AFROTC) is a college class that teaches students about the Air Force and its way of life. AFROTC for Hunter College students, AFROTC Detachment 560, is located on Manhattan College's campus in the Riverdale section of the Bronx. Any freshman and sophomore student (and on rare occasions junior students) may enroll into AFROTC. However only qualified students will be provided with uniforms and be eligible for scholarships and/or a subsistence allowance. Hunter College will grant elective credit, when applicable, toward graduation for the successful completion of courses offered by the Department of Aerospace Studies at Manhattan College. For further information, please call AFROTC Det 560 at (718) 862-7201 or email atafrotc@manhattan.edu.

Education Abroad Programs Opportunities exist for study abroad in summer, intersession and academic-year programs. Additional information is available on the Education Abroad web site http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/psa.

CUNY/UPR Academic Exchange Program (Intercambio) Intercambio is a program of academic interchange between the City University of New York (CUNY) and the University of Puerto Rico (UPR). The program has four major components: undergraduate student interchanges; visiting professorships; graduate students' research projects; and joint research and other projects. The program serves all CUNY colleges. CUNY undergraduates may study for a semester, a summer or the full year at the Río Piedras Campus of the UPR and receive full credit from their home college. Intercambio provides special activities and continuous support from UPR and CUNY program staff. For additional information, contact: Pedro Pedreira (program director) or Rachel Arteaga at the Center for Puerto Rican Studies, Hunter College, 1441 Hunter East, 695 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10021; (212) 772-5714/5716; fax (212) 650-3903; e-mail: intercambio@hunter.cuny.edu.

CUNY-Caribbean Exchange Program The CUNY-Caribbean Exchange promotes institutional, faculty and student intellectual and scientific exchange with academic institutions in the Caribbean. Through a broad range of scholarly projects, this CUNY-wide program aims to: a) foster ongoing dialogue between faculty and students from CUNY and other universities and other scientific research centers in the Caribbean; b) contribute to an enhanced mutual understanding of culture and scholarship; c) strengthen the network of CUNY faculty and students whose research and professional interests focus on the Caribbean; and d) strengthen CUNY curricula pertaining to the Caribbean and advance the field of Caribbean studies.

New York/Paris Exchange Program This is an exchange program with the Universities of Paris. Undergraduate as well as graduate students are invited to apply for either a semester or a year. Requirements include either four semesters of college-level French or an equivalent proficiency. Participants pay their tuition at Hunter College and receive elective credits at Hunter for the work they do in France. Students remain eligible for TAP and PELL tuition assistance grants during their time abroad. The program office in Paris assists students in finding housing and positions as au pairs with French families. Deadline for the fall semester is April 15; deadline for the spring semester is November 30. For further information and applications, please contact: Professor Julia Przybos, Romance Language Department, 1308 Hunter West, (212) 772-5097; or Dr. Maxine Fisher, The New York/Paris Exchange Program, Queens College, English Department, 65-30 Kissena Blvd., Flushing, NY 11367, (718) 997-4608.

The National Student Exchange Program (NSE) is a consortium of approximately 170 public colleges and universities throughout the U.S., which enables students at member campuses to spend 1-2 semesters at any participating college while paying tuition and fees at the home college or at the host college's in-state tuition rate. On-campus housing is usually available. Sophomores through seniors in any major can apply for exchange. Generally, a GPA of at least 2.8 is required. Applications may be submitted from September through March 1st. Further information may be obtained in 1420-21 Hunter East, (212) 772-4983; gary.braglia@hunter.cuny.edu or by writing to the Education Abroad/National Student Exchange Office, Hunter College, 695 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10021.

Continuing Education Continuing Education at Hunter College offers non-credit courses for adults and children in a variety of disciplines. Classes in academic skill development, test preparation (for GED, GRE, GMAT), personal finance, languages, creative writing, social dance, fitness, computers,
ACADEMIC HONORS

Graduation with General College Honors A student who has completed 60 credits of traditional letter grades at Hunter College may be considered for graduation honors. Students with a cumulative GPA of 3.900 or higher will be graduated Summa Cum Laude. Students with a GPA from 3.750 to 3.899 will be graduated Magna Cum Laude. Students with a GPA from 3.500 to 3.749 will be graduated Cum Laude.

Policy for On-line Courses
Courses taken online shall be treated the same as other courses, as follows: online courses originating at Hunter College shall require no special permission; online courses originated from another branch of CUNY shall be treated as permit courses; and online courses originating from other institutions shall be treated as transfer courses. In the case of permit and transfer courses, students are responsible for obtaining any required permission from Hunter College in advance of taking the courses, to ensure the transferability of course credit.

Distance Learning Courses
For the educational enrichment and conveniences of its students, Hunter offers several distance learning courses, some via videoconferencing and others via the Internet. Videoconferencing enables students in one location to participate fully in a class that takes place at another site, expanding the possibilities for class offerings. Internet courses offer students the flexibility of 24-hour access to course materials, as well as increased opportunities to interact with other students and the professor. Multimedia material can be accessed and a number of courses allow students to complete assignments online. Special facilities equipped for distance learning are located at the main campus and the School of Social Work.

ACADEMIC HONORS

Dean's List At the end of each fall and spring semester the Dean of Students recognizes matriculated students with excellent academic records. The criteria for inclusion on the Dean's List are: a grade point average of 3.5 or higher with traditional letter grades (A, B or C) in courses other than ESL basic skills courses in reading and writing. If ESL basic skills courses are taken, those grades will be excluded. No grades of D, F, NC, IN or WU are allowed in any course completed or attempted. Full-time students must complete 12 credits or more in one semester; part-time students must complete 6-11½ credits in two consecutive semesters.

Graduation with Departmental Honors On recommendation of any department or interdepartmental field, students with at least 24 credits in the department or field may be graduated “With Honors” in that department or field, provided they graduate in the term for which they file for honors. Of these credits, 21 (or, in exceptional cases, 18) must be taken at Hunter. Students who participate in the Study Abroad Program or the Exchange Program within the United States may be considered for departmental honors even if they have earned fewer than 18 credits at Hunter in courses approved for the major. Students are eligible for departmental honors if their GPA in the major or field is not less than 3.5. The student must also elect at least 2 credits (but no more than 6 credits) in honors courses offered in that department and present to the department’s Committee on Honors a piece of independent work. Honors courses include seminar, laboratory, reading and tutorial courses and independent study projects established for the instruction of honors students.

Honor Societies Two kinds of honor societies are recognized at Hunter College: academic and professional. In general the requirements for nomination are: for academic societies, a cumulative GPA of 3.0 and a departmental GPA prescribed by the department concerned, although in no case less than 3.0; for professional societies, a cumulative GPA of 2.8 and a departmental GPA and professional qualifications that meet departmental requirements. All honor societies except Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi are subject to the rules and regulations established by a committee of the Hunter College Senate. Students may qualify for the following honor societies:

- Alpha Kappa Delta — Sociology
- Dobro Slovo — Slavic Language and Literature
- Eta Beta Rho — Hebrew
- Gamma Kappa Alpha — Italian
- Gamma Theta Upsilon — Geography
- Kappa Delta Pi — Education
- Kappa Pi — Art
- Kappa Omicron Nu — Food Science and Human Nutrition
- Omicron Delta Epsilon — Economics
- Phi Alpha Theta — History
- Pi Delta Phi — French
- Pi Mu Epsilon — Mathematics
- Pi Sigma Alpha — Political Science
- Psi Chi — Psychology
- Sigma Delta Pi — Spanish
- Sigma Epsilon Phi — German
- Sigma Pi Sigma — Physics
- Sigma Theta Tau — Nursing

Phi Beta Kappa is a national honor society. Students do not apply for membership; they are elected on the basis of academic excellence. Eligibility is calculated on the basis of liberal arts courses under Phi Beta Kappa rules, which differ from those used in awarding other honors at Hunter College.

The Society of the Sigma Xi has as its purpose the encouragement of original investigation in pure and applied science. The Society now has about 190,000 members organized in chapters at colleges and universities across the United States. These men and women have been elected to membership by their respective chapters because of their engagement in and commitment to the promotion of scientific research. The Hunter chapter was installed in May 1969.
ACADEMIC POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

Students are expected to be familiar with the various requirements and procedures as given in this catalog and to follow them.

The Hunter College Senate, with authority granted to it by the CUNY Board of Trustees, determines all academic rules and regulations and approves all curricula. The Senate publishes the Senate News Bulletin to announce changes in rules and regulations. Students should also consult the Registrar’s web site for any changes in regulations: www.registrar.hunter.cuny.edu

Students who believe that their individual circumstances warrant a variance from the rules and regulations listed in this catalog must proceed to obtain permission from the appropriate college authority. Only through the procedures listed below are such variations permitted. Students should obtain written documentation for any such variations. Students should be wary of informal advice or undocumented claims that they can be exempt from any college rules.

1. Inquiries concerning college regulations in general should be directed to the Office of Student Services. Appeals for administrative exceptions to academic rules and regulations (for example, exceptions to approved academic program loads) are heard in the Office of Student Services.

2. Inquiries concerning the major and minor should be directed to the departmental adviser in the major department or program.

3. Inquiries concerning the GER Core Requirement and the Foreign Language Requirement should be addressed to the appropriate departmental adviser or an adviser in the Office of Student Services. (Note: Students who matriculated prior to fall 2001 and follow the regulations for the Distribution Requirement should also see a departmental adviser or an adviser in the Office of Student Services.)

4. Authorization for substitutions for specific Pluralism & Diversity course requirements must be made by the Senate’s GER Appeals Committee. Students should consult the procedure for appeals outlined on p.57 and go to the Office of the Hunter College Senate, Room 1018E, to obtain the proper forms for filing an appeal.

5. The procedure for Grade Appeals appears on p.61.

   Every student is obliged to determine that all requirements for the degree have been met before the date of graduation. No changes may be made to the student record transcript after the graduation date. Any “STOPS” not cleared by the graduation date will result in the withholding of diploma and transcripts. Incomplete (IN) grades received in the final semester must be completed by the graduation date. If not, an application to graduate for the following semester must be filed with the Graduation Audit Unit of the Registrar’s Office.

   Students who are uncertain about the interpretation of any matter may learn under whose authority the matter rests by inquiring in the Office of Student Services. This catalog covers the general academic requirements consonant with earning a degree at Hunter College when this catalog went to press in 2004. Students are responsible for knowing all current regulations.

Grading System

Students are to be graded in courses according to the traditional system of letter grades (A, B, C, D and F).

Retention Standards The Board of Trustees has mandated uniform student retention standards for all the colleges that are part of the City University system. Under these standards, decisions about whether or not students may continue in a CUNY college are made on the basis of the grade point average (GPA). In order to make these decisions, course grades are assigned quality points (which count toward the GPA), as shown in the following table:

<table>

Credit/No Credit A system based on the non-letter grades of Credit/No Credit, where Credit is the equivalent of A, B or C and No Credit is the equivalent of D or F. Credit/No Credit grades are not averaged into the GPA; course requirements are the same as in the traditional grading system.

Credit grades will be changed to C; No Credit grades will be changed to F. Credit/No Credit to F for their purposes.

ALERT/NOTE: ELIGIBILITY FOR SOME FINANCIAL AID GRANTS MAY BE AFFECTED BY THE CHOICE OF CREDIT/NO CREDIT GRADES. THIS MUST BE CHECKED BY STUDENTS BEFORE THE OPTION OF CREDIT/NO CREDIT GRADING OPTION AND MAY EVEN CONVERT CREDIT TO C AND NO CREDIT TO F FOR THEIR PURPOSES.

ALERT/NOTE: OTHER COLLEGES, GRADUATE SCHOOLS, PROFESSIONAL SCHOOLS, SERVICES and EMPLOYERS MAY LOOK WITH DISFAVOR UPON THE USE OF THE CREDIT/NO CREDIT GRADING OPTION.

There are certain restrictions about how and when the student may choose the Credit/No Credit system:

a) A maximum of four courses (including repeated courses) at Hunter College may be taken on a Credit/No Credit basis excluding remedial/developmental courses and any courses with mandatory CR/NC grading.

b) Credit/No Credit grades are not allowed for students on probation.

c) When a student chooses the Credit/No Credit option and earns a D as the final grade, the student may choose to receive either the D or a grade of No Credit.

d) If (as a result of a student’s request) a Credit/No Credit is given where it is not an allowed grade according to existing regulations, it will be converted to a letter grade by the Registrar’s Office. Credit grades will be changed to C; No Credit grades will be changed to F.
With approval of the Senate, departments may prohibit the use of Credit/No Credit grades in major courses, especially in those areas in which outside certification is required. Credit/No Credit grades are not permitted in education, nursing, pre-engineering, premedical, health sciences, nutrition and food science and prelaw. All students should check with their departmental advisers for specific policies.

The Credit/No Credit system may be elected by students up until the beginning of the final exam (or the due date for handing in the last term paper, if there is no final exam). Requests must be made on a form obtained from the Registrar's Office or on the web at http://registrar.hunter.cuny.edu/subpages/forms.shtml. When departmental policies allow, request forms must be accepted by the instructor. Students requesting grading according to this system must satisfy whatever attendance requirement has been set by the instructor, complete all the assignments and take the final examination. It should be noted that the grade of No Credit shall be used only to replace the academic grades of D and F. It shall not be used to replace the grades of WU or IN. A No Credit grade may not override the FIN grade.

Courses at Other Accredited Institutions (Permit)

Currently enrolled degree students may take courses at other accredited institutions (CUNY or other) provided the appropriate procedures are followed. A department may refuse to authorize a permit if, in its judgment, it is inappropriate to do so.

Students wishing to register for courses at another CUNY campus may apply to do so by registering for an E-permit through the CUNY portal available at www.cuny.edu. At the CUNY portal home page, you must log in to begin the process. Students wishing to register for courses at non-CUNY institutions must complete a permit form to attend another college. The form is available in the OASIS.

In all cases, permits are authorized by the appropriate department and administered by the Office of the Registrar.

It is the responsibility of students who study at other institutions to have official transcripts of their work sent to the Office of the Registrar. Effective Fall 2004, grades for courses taken on permit are posted to the student’s record and are computed in the GPA.

Note: Hunter students may not take courses on permit during their final semester prior to graduation.

Graduation-in-Absentia

Students within 15 credits of graduation who have completed the General Education Requirement (including pluralism and diversity, writing and foreign language requirements) and the major and minor requirements and have fulfilled all college requirements for graduation, may apply for graduation-in-absentia if they must leave the city before completing their studies. They may attend an accredited college in the United States or abroad. The graduation audit division of the Registrar’s office has further information. Students who must leave before these criteria are met should apply for transfer to another college.

Retention on the Basis of Grade Point Average

General scholarship is indicated by a college GPA (also referred to as the “cumulative index” or “index”). Each student is expected to know how to figure the GPA and is expected to compute it each semester. Students admitted with advanced standing or transfer credits cannot use previous grades earned at other colleges in the computation of the GPA, but the number of their transfer credits will be added to the total Hunter College credits to determine retention. This means that students must have achieved a given GPA by the time they have completed a certain number of credits or they will be placed on probation and if insufficient improvement is made within a specified period, they will be subject to dismissal for poor scholarship. The standards guiding these decisions are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Credits Earned</th>
<th>Minimum Cumulative GPA (Index)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>0-12</td>
<td>1.5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>13-24</td>
<td>1.75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>25+</td>
<td>2.0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Hunter’s normal probation appeals procedure will continue to consider individual cases and to make such exception to these policies as circumstances may warrant.

Students dropped from the college may not be readmitted until they have been separated from the University for at least one semester or equivalent calendar time. Students must obtain an application for readmission at the OASIS, 203 Hunter North. Students who are separated from the college may not enroll for credit-bearing courses in any unit of the University in any status.

Dismissal from the College and the City University

Students who fail to achieve the required academic standards will be placed on academic probation. Students who fail to achieve the required academic standards while on probation will be dismissed from Hunter College and the CUNY system.

Students may appeal an academic dismissal and should discuss the preparation of such an appeal with an academic adviser in the Office of Student Services, 1119 Hunter East. The Senate Committee on Student Standing reviews all appeals and makes the final determinations.
Tuition and fees will be refunded to a student who is dismissed for failure to meet the required academic standards after having registered. Students who withdraw from the college when their GPA is below the required academic standards will be automatically dismissed from the university. Students who have been dismissed or who have withdrawn when their GPA is below required academic standards may not be readmitted until they have been separated from the university system for at least one fall or spring semester. Students who wish to apply for readmission after separation of one or more semesters must file an application at the Office of Admissions, 203 Hunter North. Applications must be filed at least three months prior to the beginning of the semester in which the student plans to re-enter.

Until such time as they are eligible to apply for readmission, students who are separated from the university may not enroll for credit-bearing courses in any unit of the university in any status.

Incomplete Work in Course When a student for valid reason does not complete the work assigned in a course (including the final exam, papers, etc.) and in the view of the instructor still has a reasonable chance to pass the course, the student shall be given the grade IN (incomplete). The student must explain the reason to the instructor or, in the absence of the instructor, to the department chair and arrange a schedule for making up the missing coursework. These steps must be taken as soon as possible and no later than the end of the second week of the following semester. The student shall then be given the opportunity to complete the course without penalty beyond previously established penalties for lateness.

The length of time permitted for completing missing coursework remains at the discretion of the instructor and shall be indicated in writing to the student, but shall not extend beyond the end of the semester following the one in which the course was taken. Unless the student submits the work by the date specified by the instructor, the grade will automatically become FIN on the student’s permanent record. (Under certain circumstances, where the student must repeat class sessions or laboratories in a course not given during the following semester, the FIN grade may later be converted to the appropriate letter grade.)

Instructors and departments may choose to have make-up final examinations administered by the college. Such examinations will be given before Monday of the seventh week of the following semester. It is the responsibility of the student who must take an absentee examination to determine from the instructor or department whether it will be administered by the college, to file the appropriate form and to pay any required fee by the deadline specified by the college.

If the faculty member wishes to extend the deadline for the student to complete the coursework beyond one semester, the faculty member and the student must enter into a written contract clearly specifying the deadline. This contract must be written during the semester following the one in which the course was taken. The student must be aware that the IN grade will change to a FIN grade until the work is completed. The written contract must accompany the change of grade form. If a student has not filed a contract with the faculty member but still wishes to complete the work and have a FIN grade changed, the student can appeal to the Senate Grade Appeals Committee. The appeal must include the reason for failing to complete the coursework and must be accompanied by a supporting letter from the faculty member who issued the IN grade or, if the faculty member is no longer at the college, from the department chair. Appeals with no endorsement will be denied.

Repeating Courses

1. Students shall not be permitted to repeat a course in which they have received a grade of A, B, C or CR unless that course has been designated as repeatable in the course description of the college catalog.

2. Students may repeat a course in which a D was received. The credit for that course will be applied toward the degree once, but both the grade of D and the second grade earned are calculated in the grade point average. If the course is part of a sequence, it should be repeated before continuing the sequence.

3. A student who has received a grade of D or NC twice (or any combination of these grades) in the same course may reregister for the course only with the permission of the department offering the course. This rule does not apply to ENGL 120.

4. If a student receives a failing grade (F, WU, FIN) in a course and then retakes that course and receives a grade of A, B, C or CR, the initial failing grade will remain on his/her academic record, but will no longer be computed into the grade point average. A “Failing Grade Course Repeat Form” must be filed in the OASIS, 217 Hunter North.

- The original course in which the failing grade was received must have been taken after September 1, 1984 and repeated after September 1, 1990.
- No more than 16 credits may be deleted from the calculation of the cumulative grade point average.
- If two or more failing grades have been received for the same course and a grade of C, CR or better is subsequently earned, all of the failing grades for that course will be deleted from the grade point average, subject to the 16-credit limit.
- The 16-credit limit applies cumulatively to courses taken at all CUNY colleges.
- The repeated course must be taken at the same college as the initially failed course.

School of Nursing In order to be allowed to continue in the nursing major, students must receive minimum grades of C in all required nursing courses. One required nursing course (Generic Pathway: NURS 200, 310, 312, 331, 332, 380, 410, 412, 419, 421; RN Pathway: NURS 379, 380, 381, 384, 480, 482) is repeatable once by students who have received a failing grade. Students who fail a second required nursing course in the sequence may not repeat that course and may not continue in the nursing major. This policy applies even though a grade appeal is in progress.

Note: Other colleges, graduate schools, professional schools, services and employers may calculate a grade point average inclusive of the failing grades. For questions regarding this policy, check with the Office of Student Services.
Other Academic Regulations

Absence of Instructor If a class finds that the instructor is still absent after 10 minutes of the period has elapsed, a representative should be sent to the appropriate department office for instructions. The class should remain until the representative returns.

Academic Calendar and Sessions The fall semester starts approximately September 1, the spring semester starts approximately February 1 and two summer sessions of six weeks begin in June and mid-July. Consult the Schedule of Classes or the Registrar’s web site at http://www.registrar.hunter.cuny.edu for specific starting dates.

Courses are offered from early morning to late evening each semester and in the summer. Students are expected to attend both the fall and spring semesters; students who do not must apply for readmission.

Attendance in the summer program is optional. Students who receive financial aid under the New York State Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) should realize that these awards are available for no more than a total of eight semesters (10 for SEEK). TAP assistance for a summer session will count as one-half a semester; the other half may be used only in a subsequent summer session.

Academic Honesty — Plagiarism Any deliberate borrowing of the ideas, terms, statements or knowledge of others without clear and specific acknowledgment of the source is plagiarism. It is, in fact, intellectual theft. Serious students, scholars and teachers agree that they cannot tolerate plagiarism. It is not, of course, plagiarism to borrow the ideas, terms, statements or knowledge of others if the source is clearly and specifically acknowledged. Any conscientious student will, from time to time, consult critical material and may wish to include some of the insights, terms or statements encountered. When this happens, the source must be given full credit. This means listing the source in a footnote and/or appended bibliography and footnoting all quotations or close paraphrasing, including the page number of the passage in the source.

Plagiarism will result in disciplinary proceedings. A more detailed explanation of plagiarism and the accepted procedures for acknowledging sources is available from the department of English or the office of the Hunter College Senate.

Academic Honesty — Purchase of Written Assignments and “Cheating” Sale of term papers, student essays, reports and other written assignments for use in credit courses is a misdemeanor under section 213-b of the Education Law. This law is interpreted to include material advertised to be used for “research purposes.” The use of material (whether or not purchased) prepared by another and submitted by students as their own will result in disciplinary proceedings. Similarly, copying or otherwise obtaining another’s answers to questions on examinations or assignments (commonly called “cheating”) will result in disciplinary proceedings.

Note: The CUNY Policy on Academic Integrity (including CUNY Procedures for Imposition of Sanctions for Violations of the CUNY Policy on Academic Integrity) is reproduced in Appendix F.

Appeals — Rules and Regulations Appeals for administrative exceptions to academic rules and regulations — including such matters as exceptions to approved program loads, variation of the General Education Requirements: Core Requirement and the Foreign Language requirements and other academic situations involving classwork — are heard in the Office of Student Services; appeals of the GER: Pluralism and Diversity Requirement are heard by the Senate Offices.

Appeals — General Education Requirement Any student wishing to formulate an appeal for substitutions or exemptions from a specific General Education Requirement (i.e., Core Requirement, Foreign Language Requirement or Pluralism and Diversity Requirement) as described below should do so through the General Education Requirement Appeals Committee of the Hunter College Senate, Room 1018E. (Note: Students who matriculated prior to fall 2001 and follow the regulations for the Distribution Requirement may also appeal to this committee.)

The student must present clear evidence that:

a) it is impossible for him/her to complete the requirement as specified in the catalog and

b) he/she can offer an adequate substitute that meets the academic objectives of the requirement; such as:

1. The student must demonstrate that a “special topics” course he/she has taken fulfills the academic objectives of the requirement, though it has not yet been approved by the Hunter College Senate as fulfilling the requirement;

or

2. The student must demonstrate that a course transferred from another college or university adequately fulfills the academic objectives of the requirement.

Appeals — Grades When a student considers a final course grade unsatisfactory, the student should first confer with the instructor regarding the accuracy of the grade received. This conference should be held within the first three weeks of the semester following receipt of the grade. At this time, errors may be corrected. If the grade is not an error, the student and instructor must together review all class material pertinent to the grade. If the student is not satisfied or if the instructor does not confer with the student within the first three weeks of the semester, the student should promptly contact the department chair by submitting a written appeal, consisting of a statement giving the factual reasons and basis for the complaint. The student has the right to request in writing that the chair appoint a student as a member of the department/school Grade Appeals Committee. This appeal at the department/school level must be submitted within the first five weeks of the semester following receipt of the grade, in accordance with the “College-wide Grade Appeals Procedures” adopted by the Senate in fall 1985. Copies of this procedure may be obtained in the Senate Office, the Office of Student Services or departmental offices.

Students appealing grades to the School of Nursing or the School of Health Sciences should direct their appeal to the director of the school. Students appealing grades to the School of Social Work should direct the appeal to the dean of the school, who shall carry out the responsibilities of the department chair.

Auditing Students are required to file an application in the OASIS, 217 Hunter North, at the time of registration, to obtain permission to audit a course. Auditors must register in the normal manner and pay required tuition and fees. No credit or grade will be given for audited classes. Auditor status cannot be changed to credit status after the closing date for late registration. Likewise, credit status cannot be changed to auditor status after late registration.

Class Attendance All students must report to classes during the first week of classes. Students will lose their place in some classes if they do not attend the first class meeting. (See, for example, the “Notes” for biology and chemistry in the Schedule of Classes.)

The instructor has the right to set attendance requirements for the course, to keep attendance records, and to consider attendance in the calculation of final grades. Such attendance policies will be listed in the course syllabus. Students may not use absence from class as an excuse for not fulfilling all course requirements.

Students who have earned fewer than 15 credits of college-level work are limited in the number of cuts they may take in a course without risking a lower grade, as follows:

1-cr course-2 hrs of cuts
2-cr course-4 hrs of cuts
3-cr course-6 hrs of cuts
4-cr course-6 hrs of cuts (equal to 1 lab period and 1 lecture)
College Calendar: Schedule of Final Examinations A final examination is required in each course at the College during the examination period scheduled by the registrar, except in those courses in which the department has ruled that no examination shall be given. Since the final examination week is part of the semester hour requirement as mandated by the State Education Department, the period scheduled for final examinations should be used either for the final examination in the course or as an instructional period.

Students in an examination room may not have in their possession or within their reach any books or papers except those permitted by the instructor for use in the examination. Notes normally carried in pockets or handbags should be placed completely out of reach.

Students taking a drawing examination should bring their own implements. Students are not to possess an examination book at any time except during the examination period. Students should carefully fill out all information asked for on the front cover of every examination book used. If scratch paper is needed, students should use the back pages of the examination book; no other paper of any kind is to be used. All matter that is not intended to be read and marked by the examiner should be crossed out (but not torn out) before the examination book is handed in. No pages are to be torn from examination books.

The student is responsible for making sure that the instructor receives the examination book. Students may leave the examination room as soon as they finish. Quiet should be maintained in passing through the halls.

Students obliged to withdraw from an examination because of illness will be counted as absent from the examination and are permitted to take an absentee examination, as explained in the section on Incomplete Work in Course, above.

For information on absence from final examination for other reasons, see section on Incomplete Work in Course, above.

Suspension of Classes Announcements concerning emergency suspension of classes will be made on the following radio stations:
- WFAS 1230 AM and 104 FM
- WINS 1010 AM
- WADO 1280 AM (Spanish-speaking)
- WCBS 880 AM and 101.1 FM
- WBLS 107.5 FM
- WL2B 1140 AM

Additionally, announcements will be posted on the Hunter College web site at http://www.hunter.cuny.edu.

Access to College Files The Federal Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These rights include the right to inspect the student’s education records; the right to request the amendment of the student’s education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading; the right to consent to disclosure of personally identifiable information contained in the student’s education records; and the right to request that certain information not be released without his or her prior written consent by filing a letter with the Office of the Registrar. (The complete text of Hunter College’s policy on FERPA is in Appendix B.)

Withdrawal from Part of Program The Board of Trustees has ruled that students have until the end of the third week of classes (or during the summer session, the end of the first week of classes) to drop a course without penalty. This period coincides with the refund period. The course will not appear on the student’s record. A student may withdraw officially, with a grade of “W,” between the end of the third week of classes and the first day of the tenth week of classes. (During the summer session a student may withdraw officially between the second week of classes and the first day of the fifth week of classes.)

To do so, a student should obtain a withdrawal form from the OASIS. After the deadline, official withdrawals will be considered for approval by the Office of Student Services. Approval will be granted only when it is clear that the student has good and sufficient reason for withdrawing. Students should be aware that withdrawal from classes may have an impact on their financial aid. A student should make an appointment with an adviser in the Office of Student Services, 1119 Hunter East, before proceeding with the withdrawal process. The problem often has other solutions.

Unofficial Withdrawal When a student ceases to participate in a course but has not withdrawn officially, the student shall be deemed to have withdrawn unofficially. Evidence of unofficial withdrawal shall include all of the following: failure to attend class for at least four weeks consecutively (or during the summer session, two weeks consecutively) through the end of the semester (the last day of classes); failure to attend the final exam; and failure over this period to meet any other course requirements (e.g., to submit paper assignments and take examinations). The unofficial withdrawal (“WU”) by University regulations is equivalent to a grade of F. Cessation of attendance or unofficial withdrawal, may also have negative financial aid consequences.

Withdrawal from College Students who become ill or who experience personal difficulties or a lack of interest that prevents their concentrating on college work, are encouraged to withdraw completely from college. Failure under such conditions can only make an eventual return to college more difficult. Deadlines for such withdrawals are the same as for withdrawals from part of the program (see above).

Such students should make an appointment to see a counselor in the Office of Student Services. Students must return books to the library and all college equipment to the department to which it belongs. Students who are unable to return to Hunter to withdraw in person should write or have someone else write to the Office of Student Services. The letter should contain (1) the name under which the student is registered at Hunter; (2) the Social Security number; (3) the return address and telephone number; (4) the reason for withdrawal, with appropriate documentation (medical, psychological or employee) and the last date of attendance; and (5) a copy of the Bursar’s receipt.

Students who stop attending without following the above procedures are considered to have withdrawn unofficially and will receive WUs, which are equivalent to Fs in computing the GPA.

Students whose GPA at the time of withdrawal is below the minimum required for continued matriculation shall be considered as having been dropped for poor scholarship. Students who have withdrawn from the college, officially or unofficially, must apply for readmission in the Office of Admissions, 203 Hunter North, at least three months prior to the semester in which they wish to re-enter.
RESEARCH CENTERS AND INSTITUTES

Brookdale Center on Aging
The Brookdale Center on Aging, established in 1974, is the largest multidisciplinary academic gerontology center in the tri-state area. The center has an operating budget of $3 million and is supported by funding from Hunter College, grants from philanthropic and corporate foundations, grants and contracts from federal, state and local governments and contributions from the general public.

The work of the center addresses the needs of all older people, with particular attention to lower-income, minority or frail aged persons. Current projects address legal rights of older people, support for people with Alzheimer’s disease, issues of grandparents caring for young children and various policy issues affecting older populations.

Center on AIDS, Drugs and Community Health
The Center on AIDS, Drugs and Community Health seeks to help New York City community organizations and human-service agencies to develop effective programs for the control of HIV/AIDS, substance abuse, tuberculosis, violence, asthma and related threats to health. By providing training, helping in program development and conducting research and evaluation, the center enables communities that have been most adversely affected by these intersecting epidemics to mobilize for health.

Current projects are based in city jails, public high schools, community organizations and after-school programs. The center is funded by several private foundations and city, state and federal governments.

Center for Occupational and Environmental Health
The Hunter College Center for Occupational and Environmental Health was established in 1986 to improve workplace and environmental health by assisting worker and community efforts to understand and ameliorate hazardous conditions. The center conducts training classes to assist labor unions, government agencies and other groups to strengthen their capacity to respond to workplace hazards; assists communities in addressing urban environmental concerns; and sponsors graduate student internships in occupational and environmental health.

Current areas of interest and study include asbestos, lead poisoning, hazardous waste and materials, asthma, air pollution, ergonomics and public health policy. The Center for Occupational and Environmental Health is funded by federal and state grants, labor unions and private foundations.

- Biomolecular theory and computer graphics
- Drug design and synthesis
- Drug protein interaction with nucleic acids
- Gene expression and signal transduction
- Genomics
- Molecular immunology
- Structural biology
- Neurobiology and biopsychology
- Nanotechnology

The Gene Center supports state-of-the-art core research facilities, including:
- Genomics
- Imaging facility for STEM and Confocal Microscopy
- X-ray diffraction
- Nuclear magnetic resonance
- Mass Spectrometry

The Gene Center has made significant contributions to research in diseases that disproportionately affect minority populations such as stroke, drug addiction, cancer and AIDS. Gene Center scientists have been recognized for their outstanding research in these areas, receiving distinguished awards such as the Ameritech Prize for Paralysis Research and the Presidential Award for Research. The Gene Center is also committed to recruiting outstanding faculty, postdoctoral fellows and graduate students, with special efforts to identify underrepresented minority scientists.

The Center for Puerto Rican Studies (Centro de Estudios Puertorriqueños)
Administrative Office: 1429 Hunter East; (212) 772-5688
Director Dr. Félix V. Matos Rodríguez
http://www.centropr.org

The Centro de Estudios Puertorriqueños/Centro for Puerto Rican Studies (Centro) is a university-based research institute whose mission consists of two components. One is to collect, preserve and provide access to archival and library resources documenting the history and culture of Puerto Ricans. The other is to produce, facilitate and disseminate interdisciplinary research about the diasporic experiences of Puerto Ricans and to link this scholarly inquiry to social action and policy debates.

Founded in 1973 by a coalition of faculty, students and community leaders, Centro seeks to achieve its mission by working... closely with a network of education, research, archival, advocacy and community-based partners. Centro has been housed at Hunter College since 1983; however, it is a CUNY-wide research center. Centro staff guide and mentor Latino and other students, assist and advise community organizations and other research institutions and serve on local, national and international committees concerned with issues of social, economic, educational and cultural policy. In addition, CUNY faculty and staff with interests in Puerto Rican and Latino studies are invited to affiliate with Centro, where they utilize its extensive resources. Centro has been a founding member of the Inter-University Program for Latino Research (IUPLR) since 1989. The IUPLR, currently composed of 16 affiliate centers, is the most extensive consortium of Latino research centers in the United States.

As a university-based Puerto Rican research center, Centro staff and researchers are interested in a comprehensive understanding of the Puerto Rican diasporic experience in the U.S. and in relevant socioeconomic and historical aspects regarding Puerto Rico. Given its history and role within CUNY, the Centro is particularly interested in New York's Puerto Rican and ethnic communities. The following are research areas of current interest and attention in the Centro: history and political economy, migration, race, class, gender and sexuality, education, community development, political and human rights, public policy and political participation and cultural and literary studies. This list reflects the current combination of staff strengths and expertise, as well as the academic, community and policy networks the Centro has developed. Given the changing needs in Puerto Rican communities, in academia and in the Centro's staff, the areas of current interest are reviewed periodically.

Library and Archives The Centro Library and Archives is devoted to collecting, preserving and providing access to resources documenting the history and culture of Puerto Ricans. The collections include books, newspapers, periodicals, audio and video tapes, manuscripts, photographs, prints and recorded music. The library and archives provides services and programs to the scholarly community as well as the general public. The library and archives facilitates access to its holdings through mail and telephone services, City University's online public catalog CUNY+, participation in national computerized databases and through the publication of finding aids. The library and archives promote the study of Puerto Rican history and culture through exhibitions and other public programs. The Centro Archives division collects, preserves and makes available for research unique primary materials that document the history and culture of the Puerto Rican diaspora with a concentration on New York City. The holdings include personal papers, records of organizations and institutions, photographic collections, broadsides, programs and ephemera. Among the collections are the records of civil rights organizations, the papers of activists, writers, artists, scholars, educators and elected officials. A highlight of the holdings is the extensive records of the offices of the Government of Puerto Rico in the U.S. Special features of the Archives include its photographic holdings, art prints/posters by artists from New York and Puerto Rico and sound recordings of Puerto Rican popular music. Finding aids and guides are available for processed collections and are online on the Centro Web site. The Archives are open five days per week by appointment. Now in its fifteenth year of publication, the CENTRO journal is one of the Centro's most important links to the public. A multidisciplinary, bilingual, refereed publication that welcomes scholarly articles in the humanities and the social and natural sciences, as well as interpretive essays, interviews, fiction, reviews and art, CENTRO reflects developments in the field of Puerto Rican studies. Although primarily an academic publication directed at disseminating the body of scholarship on Puerto Rico and Puerto Ricans, the journal retains elements of its earlier incarnation, publishing work in a variety of formats. The journal encourages a dialogue that compares Puerto Ricans with other racialized ethnic groups, particularly other Latinos and African Americans. CENTRO is available by subscription or, with all of our publications, directly from our offices.

The Centro exchange programs, Intercambio and CUNY-Caribbean, promote institutional, faculty and student intellectual and scientific exchange with academic institutions in the Caribbean and Puerto Rico. Since its inception the programs have focused on strengthening institutional links between the City University of New York and higher education and research institutions in the Caribbean through academic and cultural exchanges and scholarly collaboration. The Centro exchange programs have facilitated research and other academic/cultural activities for more than three hundred faculty and students.

PERFORMING AND FINE ARTS VENUES

The Kaye Playhouse The Kaye Playhouse originally dedicated in 1943 as The Playhouse at Hunter College and renovated and re-opened in 1993 as the Sylvia and Danny Kaye Playhouse, serves as the centerpiece for the performing arts at Hunter College.

Each season, The Kaye hosts over 200 performances in the fields of dance, music, theatre, film, education and children’s programs, bringing an eclectic mix of cultural events to more than 100,000 theatergoers annually.

For most performances at The Kaye Playhouse, a limited number of discounted or complimentary tickets are available to Hunter students.

There are employment opportunities for Hunter students at The Kaye Playhouse, including positions as ushers and box office personnel. Call the box office at (212) 772-4448; or administrative office at (212) 772-5207.

Assembly Hall The Assembly Hall is Hunter's largest performance venue. With a seating capacity of 2,079, the hall hosts performances by the Hunter College Symphony, concerts, meetings, forums and a variety of other events. Anyone interested in reserving the Assembly Hall for an event should contact the Office of Central Reservations at (212) 772-4872.

The Frederick Loewe Theatre The Frederick Loewe Theatre is a black-box theatre that seats an audience of 110. It has the ability to accommodate prosenium or thrust stage productions and houses most of the Department of Theatre events. Box office: (212) 772-4448; administrative office:(212) 772-4227.

Ida K. Lang Recital Hall The Lang Recital Hall, a 149-seat auditorium designed by the firm of Abramowitz Kingsland Schiff, opened in Spring 1995.

This state-of-the-art facility hosts jazz concerts, chamber music ensembles and film festivals and houses most of the Department of Music graduation and faculty recitals. Artists from throughout the world have performed at the Lang. Box office: (212) 772-4448; administrative office: (212) 772-4227.

Hunter Galleries The Bertha and Karl Leubsdorf Art Gallery, located at the 68th Street campus, houses professionally organized exhibits that support the educational programs of the Art Department of Hunter College. The MFA Gallery, located at 450 West 41st Street, is an 8,500-square-foot space created by graduate students and faculty. The entire exhibition program maximizes student and faculty participation to expand the parameters of the graduate programs in both fine arts and art history.
COURSE DESIGNATIONS

Numbering System Each course in the curriculum is defined by an alphabetical prefix and a 3-digit number. The 3-digit number indicates the level of study: 100- and 200-level courses are lower division; 300- and 400-level courses are upper division; 500-, 600- and 700-level courses are graduate courses.

000-level course designation Developmental courses for ESL students; placement determined by testing of entering students.

100-level course designation Courses with no prerequisites, survey courses or courses defining basic concepts and presenting the terminology of a discipline.

200-level course designation Courses of intermediate college-level difficulty, courses with 100-level course(s) as prerequisite(s) or survey courses devoted to particular areas or fields within a discipline.

300-level course designation Courses of advanced college-level difficulty taken by majors and upper-division students; these are often considered to be courses in the major, offered for students clearly interested in and qualified in the subject.

400-level course designation Advanced upper-division courses and/or seminars, tutorials and honors courses for majors and upper-division students.

Alphabetical Prefixes

The following prefixes are used, preceding the 3-digit number, to designate the field of study. They are listed here alphabetically, with the department or program and field to which they pertain. Specific departments and programs appear alphabetically in the table of contents, the index and the HEGIS Code section (page 4).

The School of Arts and Sciences is dedicated to providing Hunter College students a flexible and challenging liberal arts education. We support dedicated teaching and up-to-date research programs and have made both integral components of strong major programs. In addition, Arts and Sciences faculty teach almost all of the courses that Hunter students are required to take to fulfill the General Education Requirement. Through major courses and GER courses, the School of Arts and Sciences works to complement and strengthen student academic progress in the Schools of Education and the Health Professions.

The School has more than 400 full-time faculty in 23 different departments and eight interdisciplinary programs. It enrolls over 15,000 undergraduate majors and close to 1000 graduate students. The School of Arts and Sciences is also home to interdisciplinary majors in Archaeology, English Language Arts, Women's Studies, Comparative Literature, Jewish Social Studies, Religion, Urban Studies and Latin American and Caribbean Studies.
The Department of Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino Studies is comprised of Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino sequences. It offers an interdisciplinary course of study combining humanities and social sciences approaches in the School of Arts and Sciences. The curriculum is devoted to the history and cultures of these two heritages. The Africana sequence focuses on the experiences of African people on the continent and those in the diaspora. The Puerto Rican/Latino sequence addresses issues related to Puerto Ricans, Dominicans and Cubans in the Islands as well as Latinos’ experiences in the U.S. Where applicable, the similarities and common experiences of the sequences are emphasized.

Because of the department’s emphasis on intellectual, analytical and research development, the student with a background in Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino Studies is well prepared to enter the job market or to pursue graduate or professional study. Education, law, journalism, social work, urban planning, public health, medicine, nursing, business, politics, international affairs and government are some of the fields in which students can utilize a background in Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino Studies. Generally, occupations in the public sector, central cities and urban institutions, as well as jobs involving intergroup and intercultural relations, also benefit from such a background.

Program of Study

Given the interdisciplinary organization of the department, students may elect to concentrate their program of study in the Africana sequence, Puerto Rican/Latino sequence or a combination of both with courses from social sciences and humanities offered by the department.

MAJOR

The major consists of 30 credits. Courses to be taken are as follows:

- 6 credits from among AFPRL 201, 202, 203, 204, 209, 210, 241, 242
- 3 credits from AFPRL 281
- 21 credits, of which at least 12 must be taken at the 300 and 400 level. At least 3 credits must be taken in Puerto Rican/Latino studies if the student’s concentration is in Africana studies and vice versa.

Minor

Students who major in the department are also required to have a minor of 12 credits. A minor is chosen in consultation with the undergraduate adviser. The minor may be selected from any other department or program leading to a BA degree or split equally between two separate departments.

Minor for Non-Majors

For minors from other departments, we recommend at least 6 credits at level of 300 or above.

Anthropology is the study of past and present peoples. Among the social sciences, anthropology is distinguished by its comparative approach to peoples and cultures. As a major in a liberal arts curriculum, it provides students with basic and advanced training in all four branches of the discipline: cultural anthropology (ethnology), archaeological anthropology and anthropological linguistics. Major and minor programs are designed to prepare students for postgraduate activities, which include graduate studies and research. Students are also prepared for careers in teaching, social work and work in museums, government and industry, both domestic and overseas. Many use anthropology as a prelaw or premedical degree. Hunter College also offers a master of arts degree in anthropology; a doctoral degree in anthropology is offered by The City University of New York, of which Hunter is a senior college member.

MAJOR

The anthropology major is designed to give students an overview of the discipline, as well as training in all four fields of the subject (archaeology, cultural anthropology and ethnology, anthropological linguistics and biological anthropology). The anthropology major consists of 25 credits [see table below].

Note: While ANTHC 101 is a prerequisite for many courses in cultural anthropology, including some of the required courses, it is not itself included in the courses required for the major.

Minor

The minor consists of 12 credits. Sociology, history, education, languages, biology, geology, psychology, art, art history and classics are often selected as minor concentrations, but they are not the only suitable choices. The minor for the anthropology major should be selected after consultation with the undergraduate adviser or the department chair.

It is also possible for the anthropology major to minor in one of the four fields of anthropology by combining relevant courses from other departments:

- Anthropological Linguistics—relevant courses in anthropological linguistics (in the department of anthropology) and in classics, English, film and media, German, Hebrew, philosophy, Romance languages, Russian and theatre.
- Archaeology—relevant courses in prehistoric archaeology (in the department of anthropology) and in art, chemistry, classics, geography, geology, history, mathematics and physics.
- Cultural Anthropology or Ethnology—relevant courses in cultural anthropology (in the department of anthropology) and in art, classics, education, economics, English, geography, geology, Latin American and Caribbean studies, mathematics, music, philosophy, political science, psychology, sociology and foreign languages.
- Physical Anthropology—relevant courses in physical anthropology (in the department of anthropology) and in biological sciences, chemistry, geography, geology, mathematics and physics.

Minor for Non-Majors

Students wishing to minor in anthropology should consult their major adviser for appropriate course recommendations.

Honors Work

Honors work is possible in each of the major branches of anthropology. The emphasis is on independent student research under the supervision of a faculty member. In order to graduate with departmental honors in anthropology, a student must: (1) have taken at least 2 credits of ANTHC 400; (2) have a GPA in the major of not less than 3.5 and a cumulative GPA of not

Recommended Minor

- Sociology, history, languages, biology, geology, psychology, art, art history and classics;
- other choices may also be suitable. Consult undergraduate adviser or the department chair. Can minor in one of the four fields of anthropology by combining courses from other departments.

Accelerated BA/MA Program in Anthropology

130 credits total, including at least 30 graduate credits. Students pursue the MA degree as part of the undergraduate curriculum by substituting graduate courses for electives in the degree program. Students may substitute graduate courses for undergraduate courses except for ANTHP 101 and 102. Participants fulfill all requirements for the BA and MA degrees in anthropology. less than 2.8 at the time of graduation; and (3) complete a departmental honors form available from the departmental undergraduate adviser.

ANTH 400 Honors Project (available to students in each of the four fields of anthropology)
Open to qualified juniors and seniors every semester. Research under supervision of a faculty member. From 2 to 3 credits per semester, depending on the nature of the student’s work. May be taken for 1, 2, or 3 semesters for a maximum of 6 credits. To apply, students must (1) present a research plan prepared in conjunction with a faculty member; (2) have this plan approved by the undergraduate adviser and the department chair; and (3) obtain approval prior to preregistration.

The COR Program
The departments of psychology, anthropology and sociology jointly offer a program called COR (Career Opportunities in Research and Education). This interdisciplinary research training program for talented minority juniors and seniors is funded by the National Institute of Mental Health. Participants receive a monthly stipend and tuition and fee remission; they take a special curriculum and get individualized research training in a variety of areas under the supervision of a faculty mentor. The program has several levels of participation and all minority students—especially freshmen and sophomores—intending to pursue a research related career in the participating disciplines are urged to register with the program. Additional details and descriptive literature are available from the COR program manager, 532 Hunter North, (212) 772-4562.

Interdepartmental Fields
Students who want to do work in anthropology as part of an interdepartmental field, such as Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino studies, Latin American and Caribbean studies, religion, urban affairs and planning, or women’s studies, should refer to descriptions under the department or field of their interest.

BA/MA Program in Anthropology
A special feature of the Hunter Anthropology Department is the innovative BA/MA program, designed to permit a small number of highly motivated students to begin graduate study before completing their undergraduate degrees. The program allows students to pursue the MA degree as part of the undergraduate curriculum by substituting graduate courses for electives in their degree programs. Participants fulfill all the requirements for the BA and MA degrees in anthropology.

The total number of credits taken by the student is 130. At least 30 must be graduate credits (the same number of course credits required of a student admitted as a matriculated graduate student with a BA in hand). Graduate courses may fulfill undergraduate major requirements with the exception of ANTHP 101 and 102. Students to the BA/MA program must have a minimum GPA of 3.25 and a minimum of 3.5 in their anthropology courses. Students must apply to the program early in their academic careers, usually before beginning the junior year.

The Department of Art offers a wide variety of courses for majors and non-majors. In studio art, two academic degrees are offered: the BA and the BFA. In art history, we offer a BA degree. Art history is the study of works of art and architectural monuments in their cultural environment. Students learn first to develop their powers of critical visual analysis. Then, by concentrated study of certain significant periods in the history of Western and non-Western art, they learn to relate the forms of art to contemporary historical, political, economic, religious, social and cultural phenomena.

The department’s broad range of studio courses begins with Introduction to Study of Visual Experience (ARTCR 101) and Beginning Drawing (ARTCR 221), which are prerequisites for all advanced studio courses except ARTCR 203, 204 and 261. In the beginning classes, the student learns the basic principles in various media; the advanced courses emphasize individual exploration.

The Department of Art offers introductory, intermediate and advanced courses in art history. It offers a choice of either a 24-credit standard major or a 42-credit intensive major. A 12-credit minor in art history is also available; it is planned in consultation with the student’s major adviser and an art history adviser (see below).

MAJORS

Studio Art

The 24-Credit Major (BA) The standard major is available to the student interested in a liberal arts education. It consists of eight courses in the major subject, normally one 3-credit course per semester and includes ARTCR 101 and 221 followed by an additional 18 credits selected from 200- and 300-level ARTCR courses. The department recommends that the minor associated with the 24-credit studio major consist of 12 credits in art history.

The 42-Credit Major (BA) An intensive major is available for the student who prefers a greater concentration in studio art and particularly the student who intends to pursue a career as a professional artist and attend graduate school. Students follow the regular GER for the BA degree. Departmental approval of the 61-credit BFA concentration is required. Some of the 61 credits may, with departmental approval, be earned in other departments. Required courses are as follows:

Year 1
ART H 111 (see below)

Year 2
- Four of the following five courses
- 3 of the following 5 courses plus one 300-level course

Year 3
At least one area of concentration with two 300-level courses repeated in either of: ....6 cr ARTCR 326, 326, 352, 357, 372

Additional studio art requirements: ..........6 cr Courses chosen from all other 200- and 300-level studio art courses. Special-topic advanced studio courses will also be offered each semester for advanced art students.

Art history requirements: .............................15 cr To be completed by the end of year three.
ART H 111, 249, 250 and six to nine additional credits chosen from 200- and 300-level courses.

Year 4
ARTCR 405, 459, 460

Minor in Studio Art

A minor in studio art is composed of 12 credits of studio art courses. Students must obtain approval of a minor from their major department.

Note: All art materials are to be supplied by the student. The college is not responsible for work left in the studios beyond the date assigned for removal. The department reserves the right to retain students’ work for purposes of exhibition and for illustrative material for classroom use. This work will be returned at graduation upon application to the instructor.

Art History

The Department of Art offers introductory, intermediate and advanced courses in art history. It offers a choice of either a 24-credit standard major or a 42-credit intensive major. A 12-credit minor in art history is also available; it is planned in consultation with the student’s major adviser and an art history adviser (see below).
The 24-Credit Major A BA in art history is available to students interested in a liberal arts education in the humanities. A broad range of courses from different fields, rather than specialization in one area, is encouraged. Students who have completed 9 credits in art history are eligible to take the required advanced Research Seminar (ART H 368), to be programmed in consultation with an art history adviser. A minor of 12 credits is required and it may be taken in a related field such as classics, anthropology, history, etc.

Majors must consult with an art history adviser during an early semester concerning their choice of a minor.

Majors planning graduate study in art history are advised to discuss requirements for graduate admission, including graduate language requirements, with an art history adviser during an early semester.

Required Courses for the 24-Credit BA:
Program prerequisite:
ART H 111, 121, or 122 (survey courses do not count toward art history major credit.)

Six courses, including at least one in each of three different areas:

Modern including 19th, 20th, 21st century
Non-Western including:

Advanced topics or theme course selected from any of the offerings .....................3 cr

ART H 368 .............................................3 cr

Total ..................................................24 cr

The 42-Credit Intensive Major Recommended for students desiring concentrated advanced work in art history. It requires 36 credits of course work in art history and 6 credits in studio art. It does not include a minor; however, with permission of the art history adviser, up to 6 credits of work in related areas — studio art, literature, or history, for example — may be substituted for art history courses within the required 36 credits.

As in the case of the 24-credit major, the sequence begins with one of the introductory courses (program prerequisite), is followed by four elective courses in art history and includes the advanced Research Seminar (ART H 368).

Required Courses for the 42-Credit Intensive Major:
Program prerequisite: ART H 111 or 121 or 122 (Survey courses do not count toward art history major credit.)

The Asian American Studies Program (AASP) was established on the initiative of students and faculty in 1993. The AASP offers a range of courses to the entire Hunter College community, a minor in Asian American studies and extracurricular programs and events. The AASP contributes to the growing scholarship in the vital field of Asian American studies and serves as a resource for New York City’s Asian communities and community-based organizations. Long before the modern age, Asian ports and cities were vital international crossroads. Today, we are witnessing an unprecedented circulation of Asian peoples and cultures throughout the world. What was formally called the Orient still struggles with the legacy of centuries of imperialism.

Asia today also grapples with the impact of globalization and growing inequities in economic and human development. Yet, the nations and cultures of Asia are in the process of transformation through the struggles of democratic movements, a proliferation of creativity and ideas, emigration, immigration and exchange at every level. As a result, Asia is global. Here in the U.S., Asian immigrants have become part of the history of the United States, redefining American culture and reconstituting American society.

The AASP at Hunter College benefits from its location in a global city with unmatched cultural and intellectual resources and a diverse and dynamic Asian population. Faculty and students are ideally positioned to become actively involved in a field at the forefront of contemporary research and scholarship and to contribute to the growth and development of Asian communities.

The AASP offers a minor in Asian American studies. The program draws its faculty and course offerings from traditional disciplines such as history, sociology, anthropology, political science, education and literature, as well as interdisciplinary fields such as Asian area studies, American ethnic studies, women’s and gender studies, gay and lesbian studies, postcolonial studies, international human rights and policy studies. The AASP grounds its curriculum and extracurricular programs in the firm belief that the question of Asia can most adequately be addressed through an alliance of these areas and methods of study.

PROGRAM OF STUDY

Minor

Students may minor in Asian American studies in consultation with their major advisers. A minor consists of 12 credits in Asian American studies. Contact the AASP office for a list of qualifying courses. An Asian American studies minor will enhance the degree and career of students. It provides them with special competence in the histories of diverse communities of Asia and Asian diasporas and the critical skills with which to understand complex social issues and rapid change. The AASP prepares students for careers in education, government and community organizations; for entrance to professional schools in areas such as law, social work and urban planning; and for graduate study and research in the social sciences and humanities.

Students majoring in nursing or the health sciences, psychology, political science, sociology, history, business, literature, art and many other areas would find Asian American studies useful, particularly when their interests include activities within Asian communities or issues that affect Asians and Asian Americans.

Accelerated bachelor’s/master's degrees in biological sciences

| BA/MA in Biological Sciences with specialization in Biotechnology | Five-year program. Begin graduate work as seniors and receive the MA one year after completing BA requirements. Successful completion of the biotechnology workshop (BIOL 410/411), entitles students to a summer internship in an industrial or private research laboratory. Interested biology majors should contact a departmental adviser as early as possible. |
| BA/MS in Biological Sciences/Environmental and Occupational Health | Opportunity for biology majors to have a career option in public health. Consult a departmental adviser as well as the office of the Director of the Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences Program at the Brookdale Campus, early in undergraduate studies. |
| BS/MA in Medical Laboratory Sciences with specialization in Biotechnology | Qualified seniors majoring in medical laboratory sciences (see p. 211) may apply to the BS/MA collaboration between MLS and biological sciences. An intensive techniques workshop (BIOL 410) is taken prior to graduation and upon successful completion, students may continue with professional internship, and MA program, allowing MLS graduates to complete the degree at an accelerated pace. |

The Department of Biological Sciences at Hunter College stresses excellence in both teaching and research. Fully equipped research laboratories are supported by major federal grants and students are strongly encouraged to become involved in laboratory research. State-of-the-art flow cytometry and bioimaging facilities are housed within the department. They have been created and are funded by federal grants, New York State and the Center for Gene Structure and Function. The Center consists of faculty from the Departments of Biological Sciences, Chemistry, Physics, Psychology and Anthropology working in the areas of biomolecular structure and function.

The core curriculum in biological sciences prepares students for admission to both graduate and medical schools and for careers in the biological sciences, including teaching and the growing industry of biotechnology. The curriculum emphasizes cell biology, molecular biology, developmental biology, genetics and neurobiology as the foundation for future careers in fields related to the biological sciences.

Career Planning

Graduate Study The department offers a master of arts in the biological sciences and courses taken in the MA program can later be credited toward the PhD upon acceptance into the CUNY doctoral program in biology. Interested students should obtain the Hunter College Graduate Catalog and contact the biology master’s program adviser. Laboratory research under faculty supervision (see undergraduate research, below) is extremely valuable for gaining admission to graduate schools. Students planning to apply to graduate school should consult with their adviser as early in their college career as possible.

Professional Schools Students who plan to apply to schools of medicine, dentistry, or veterinary medicine should consult with their adviser and see the preprofessional adviser in 812 Hunter East.

Preparation for Teaching In cooperation with the School of Education, the Department of Biological Sciences offers opportunities for students to prepare for a teaching career in elementary and secondary schools. Major I in biology satisfies the requirements for New York State certification of at least 30 credits for teachers in adolescence education, grades 7-12. Major II in biology satisfies the requirements for New York State certification for teachers in childhood education, grades 1-6 (see below). See the School of Education section of this catalog and consult with an adviser in the School of Education for additional information and requirements.

Preparation for Biotechnology Students interested in careers in the rapidly growing field of biotechnology should select Major I and consult with their adviser as early as possible. Advanced courses taken as electives should include BIOL 410 and those special topics courses (BIOL 470-471) that are most relevant to biotechnology.

Qualified students are also encouraged to pursue the BA/MA Program in Biotechnology (see below).
MAJORING IN THE BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES

The Department of Biological Sciences offers two major programs. Major I is for students who intend to prepare for graduate study, medicine, dentistry, secondary school teaching, biotechnology and industry. Major II is for students preparing to teach in elementary schools. Students planning to pursue Major I are strongly encouraged to declare their major as soon as possible after completing one semester of Principles of Biology. Declared majors are assigned a permanent faculty adviser who will assist in individual curriculum planning. Students are required to meet with their adviser at least once each semester throughout their undergraduate career to discuss their program and progress.

MAJOR I

This plan consists of 9 credits of introductory biology (BIOL 100-102) and a 28-credit concentration in biology at the 200-level and higher. The biology concentration consists of an 18-credit core—BIOL 200, 202, 300, 302—and 10 credits of electives. Together, introductory biology and the concentration (37 cr) satisfy the major requirement for certification as a teacher of biology in grades 7-12.

Additional science and math requirements for Major I: CHEM 102, 103, 104, 105, 222, 223, 224; PHYS 110, 120 (or 111, 121); MATH 150; MATH 155 or STAT 213.

Electives (10 cr)

Students may select the remainder of their credits toward Major I from advanced courses in the biological sciences. At least one course must be at the 300 level, in addition to BIOL 300 and 302. At least one special-topics course must also be taken (BIOL 470 or 471; various topics offered each semester). Students with strong interdisciplinary interests may select advanced course offerings in other departments or SCI 302 (an interdisciplinary course), after approval by their adviser.

Minor for Major I

12 credits in a field approved by faculty adviser. Note that although other minors may be taken, chemistry is the usual minor, as the required courses CHEM 102-105 and 222-224 fulfill the minor requirements. For students preparing to teach biology at the secondary school level, adolescence education is an appropriate minor (see the School of Education section of this catalog). Minor courses can be used without limit to satisfy Stage I, 2 and 3 of the GER core.

*We recommend that math, physics and chemistry courses be completed as early as the student's schedule allows. Note that CHEM 224 must be taken prior to or corequisite with BIOL 300; otherwise, instructor permission is required. Students who are behind in the chemistry sequence are urged to take advantage of the summer session, during which these chemistry courses are usually offered.

MAJOR II

(for students planning to teach in childhood education, grades 1-6)

This plan consists of 26 credits in biological science, 12 credits in additional science and 6 credits in math. Major II satisfies the major requirements for certification as a teacher for grades 1-6. This major requires 30 credits of education courses and should thus be initiated as early as possible.

A. BIOL 100, 102 .........................................(9 cr)
B. Courses approved by adviser selected from the 200 or 300 level .........................................(17 cr)

Minor for Major II

Childhood education (grades 1-6) is a collateral major and thus students are exempt from having a minor. See the School of Education section of this catalog for requirements.

Additional science and math requirements for Major II: CHEM 100, 101, 120, 121; PHYS 101 (or PHYS 110 or 120); MATH 104 and 105.

CR/NC Policy

Only a letter grade (A, B, C, D, including + or -) will be accepted by the department in the required science and mathematics courses for the biology Major I and Major II.

Minor for other Majors

For the biology minor, the department recommends at least two courses beyond the required BIOL 100, 102 (GER 2E) at the 200 level or above. Please note that the major department must approve the minor.

Opportunities for Undergraduates in Biological Sciences

Undergraduate Research Students who wish to undertake a research project under the supervision of a faculty member must first obtain written permission from that faculty member and then register for BIOL 480-483. Research opportunities for undergraduates at Hunter are available in cell and molecular biology, developmental biology, neuroscience, cancer biology, AIDS, microbiology and a variety of other contemporary areas. In some cases students may be permitted to work at one of the several neighboring research institutions. Synopses of faculty research interests can be obtained in the department office or from the Department of Biological Sciences Web site (http://sonhouse.hunter.cuny.edu/). Please note that, to qualify for departmental honors at graduation, there is a research requirement (see below).
Honors Work
In order to qualify for departmental honors, students must have a departmental GPA of at least 3.5 and an overall GPA of at least 2.8. They must also satisfy a research requirement consisting of either: (a) at least 2 credits of BIOL 480-483; or (b) at least one course chosen from among BIOL 375, 390, or 410. The research requirement includes a written report resulting from work in any of these courses.

BA/MA Program with Specialization in Biotechnology
In this five-year program, qualified biology majors begin graduate work as seniors and receive the MA one year after completing BA requirements. Students are provided with theoretical knowledge and skills in molecular biology and a foundation for application of these skills in careers in the biotechnology and pharmaceutical industries, academic research, or public health. Successful completion of the biotechnology workshop (BIOL 410/610), an essential program component, entitles students to a summer internship in an industrial or private research laboratory. Interested biology majors should contact a departmental adviser early in their undergraduate career as early as possible.

BA/MS Program in Biological Sciences/Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences

The Department of Chemistry offers courses to prepare the science major for professional work and further study in chemistry and other fields of pure and applied science. Courses for the non-science major are designed to present those essentials of chemical fact and theory which will contribute to the student’s understanding of present-day scientific knowledge.

MAJOR

There are two chemistry majors: Major I, a 41-credit concentration in addition to a 9-credit general chemistry core, is designed to prepare the student with intensive training for professional research and graduate study. Major II consists of two options: Option 1 for students interested in the chemical industry; and Option 2 (the biochemistry option) for students interested in the pharmaceutical industry, medicine, dentistry, veterinary medicine or physical therapy. Major II includes a minimum concentration of 26 credits (Option 1) or 24 credits (Option 2) in 200-level and above chemistry courses, in addition to a 9-credit general chemistry core. Both Options 1 and 2 are appropriate for students pursuing teacher education programs.

Students considering a chemistry major should consult the departmental adviser during their first semester to plan the proper sequence of courses, and they are urged to consult with the adviser at least once each succeeding semester. General Chem lecture I and II and General Chem Labs 1 and 2 are prerequisites for admission to both Major I and Major II.

Chemistry Major I

General Chemistry Core: CHEM 102-105 or CHEM 111-113.

The requirements for this major consist of 41 credits in chemistry. There is no allied minor. This major is recommended for students preparing for admission to graduate school or for careers in chemical research. It will also be useful to students seeking a position in the chemical or allied industries, as it is accredited by the Committee on Professional Training of the American Chemical Society.

The 41-credit major consists of CHEM 222-223, 224-225, 249, 349, 352, 354 or 356 with 355, 357, 356, 376 and 390. One further laboratory course must be chosen from 291.02 (research), 491.02 (honors research) or 378. In addition, one additional lecture course must be chosen from among the following: CHEM 322, 345, 354, 356, or 377. Also acceptable for completion of Major I are PHYS 330, PHIL 562 or 379. Students should be aware, however, that if either of the philosophy courses is used to complete the Major I requirements, the major will not be eligible for accreditation by the American Chemical Society. One year of physics, PHYS 111 and 121, and four semesters of mathematics, MATH 150, 155, 250 and 254 or 260 are also required for this major; CHEM 249, MATH 150 and 155, and PHYS 121 are prerequisites for CHEM 352 and should be completed by the end of the sophomore year. College Russian or German sufficient to meet Hunter’s GER requirement in foreign languages is recommended. Major I is required of all students who wish to be considered for certification by the American Chemical Society upon graduation. It is recommended for all students intending to enter the profession of chemistry through either graduate study or employment in industry or government. Students who can attend only in the evenings should consult the department adviser regarding the feasibility of completing Chemistry Major I.

Chemistry Major II
General Chemistry Core: CHEM 102-105 or CHEM 111-113.

Option 1:
For students interested in a career in the chemical industry. It consists of a minimum of 26 credits in chemistry above the introductory level and a 9-credit general chemistry core for a total of 35 credits of chemistry. One year of physics and three semesters of calculus are also required for Major II.
- Required chemistry courses: CHEM 222-225, 249, 352, 354, or 356, 355, and 357
- Required elective course: Any chemistry course at the 300 level or above.
- Required allied courses: MATH 150, 155, 250, and PHYS 111, 121

Option 2 (Biochemistry option):
For students preparing for admission to medical, dental, veterinary schools or physical therapy programs, or for students interested in a career in the pharmaceutical industry. It consists of a minimum of 24 credits above the introductory level and a 9-credit general chemistry core for a total of 33 credits of chemistry. One year of physics, one year of biology and one year of calculus are also required.
- Required chemistry courses: CHEM 222-225, 350, 376-378
- Required elective course: Any chemistry course at the 200-level or above (excluding CHEM 291 and 295) or BIOL 200 or 202
- Required allied courses: BIOL 100, 102, MATH 150, 155, and PHYS 110, 120

Minors for Major II
Any combination of the required physics and math courses, totaling 12 credits, may be used as a minor. If students prefer to elect a different minor, they must consult with the department adviser or chair.

Minor for Non-Majors
Students wishing to minor in chemistry should consult their major adviser for appropriate course recommendations.

Honors Work
Opportunity for an individual research experience is provided by an honors course, CHEM 491 (Introduction to Research).

Electives
Advanced lecture courses in special areas of chemistry, and lab courses providing training in inorganic and organic chemistry and in research techniques, are offered as electives for Major I and are open to students enrolled in Major II who have fulfilled the course prerequisites.

Graduate Study
Qualified chemistry majors may be admitted to 700-level courses in the graduate program. Permission of the department is required.

Preparation for Teaching
In cooperation with the School of Education, the Department of Chemistry provides opportunities for students to prepare for careers in teaching at the elementary and secondary level in the area of chemistry. Chemistry Major II, Option I (35 credits) and Option 2 (33 credits) both satisfy the requirements for New York State certification for teachers of chemistry in Childhood Education (Grades 1-6) and Adolescence Education (Grades 7-12). For students pursuing certification as chemistry teachers at the secondary level, the 23-credit adolescence education sequence is an appropriate minor. Students who want to qualify for New York City licensing and New York State certification for teaching in secondary schools should consult the Education section of this catalog for additional requirements.

Five-Year BA/MA Degree in Chemistry and Adolescence Education: Chemistry
An accelerated program leading to a BA in Chemistry and an MA in Adolescence Education: Chemistry. Undergraduates admitted to the program start graduate courses during their senior year and will be able to complete the MA degree one year after they complete the requirements for the BA degree. Students interested in the program should speak to a chemistry department adviser during their sophomore year to review the curriculum path for the five-year program. A minimum of 134 credits is required for the dual degree.

CHINESE CULTURE AND LITERATURE IN TRANSLATION

CHIN 112 Chinese Culture II

The ancient cultures of Greece and Rome have shaped much of our own civilization: our government, education, and even our ways of thinking. The themes and ideas of classical mythology and literature deeply influenced the development of the art, music, and literature of Western Europe; classical studies thus can provide the keys to understanding both other cultures and our own.

The Classics Division of the Department of Classical and Oriental Studies offers a full range of studies in the worlds of ancient Greece, Rome, and the Mediterranean, from a single course to majors in Greek, Latin, classical archaeology, or classical studies. Students who want to know about the classical world without learning its languages can choose from courses in civilization, literature, myth and religion, and archaeology. In addition, the division participates in Hunter's interdepartmental programs in religion, comparative literature, archaeology, and women's studies.

Careers in research, government, and education use skills developed in classical studies, and a major in classics provides an excellent foundation for many professional programs, such as law. In addition, specialized careers—such as college and high school teaching, museum work, and library cataloging—are open to professional classicists and archaeologists.
MAJORS

Students who want to major in Classics have five choices:
1. Greek 24 credits of Greek above 101-102, and a corequisite of LAT 101-102 or equivalent.
2. Latin 24 credits of Latin above 101-102, and a corequisite of GRK 101-102 or equivalent.
3. Greek and Latin 18-20 credits each of Greek and Latin (may include 101-102).
4. Classical Studies 12-14 credits of either Greek or Latin, including 101-102, and 12 credits of classics courses given in English (CLA prefix), including two courses at the 300 level. CLA 101 and CLA 110 do not count toward the major.
5. Archaeology (Interdepartmental) 24 credits from the interdepartmental course pool, including CLA 204, 220, 221, and 222, with a corequisite of 12-14 credits of Greek or Latin. Offered within the interdepartmental archaeology major.

Minor

Students majoring in any of the Classics majors must have their minors approved by the division adviser. The minor must be taken in a department or program that leads to a BA degree.

Minor for Non-Major

12 credits in Greek, Latin, classical studies, or classical archaeology. Minors must be approved by the student's major adviser. Division faculty would be pleased to assist in the selection of appropriate courses.

Preparation for Teaching in Grades 7-12

Students interested in a teaching career should refer to the Chinese, Hebrew, and Russian sections of this catalog, and should consult with the School of Education. Such students may count the 23-credit pedagogical sequence for grades 7-12 as a minor. In addition, the department offers an MA in the teaching of Latin.

Honors and Tutorials

Consult the division head for these special programs.

The major in comparative literature is designed for students who are interested in a broad view of literature and in the diversity of literary cultures. The study of comparative literature considers literary movements and genres, as well as techniques and recurring themes in world literature. The study of comparative literature prepares students for careers in teaching, interpreting, and translating, as well as those professions that recognize the importance of a broad humanistic education, including law and medicine.

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

All majors take a core course in methodology, but the remaining classes in a student's program are arranged with the coordinator in an effort to work out a balance between two different bodies of literature, two different literary periods, and two different genres. In addition to comparative literature courses in prose fiction, drama, myth and folklore, literary movements, and literature and the arts, majors may also elect appropriate classes from other literature departments, as well as from such disciplines as history, philosophy, art and anthropology, with the approval of the coordinator.

Upon becoming a major, a student will, in consultation with the coordinator, choose one member of the comparative literature committee as an adviser and plan an individualized program. All majors are required to review their programs with their adviser once a semester.

The comparative literature major consists of 30 credits distributed as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Concentration</th>
<th>Credits</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A. Concentration in at least two periods and in two genres</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. At least 9 credits in COMPL-prefixed courses, beginning with COMPL 301</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. 21 credits in literature courses distributed so that at least 12 credits are courses studied in the original language.</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The offerings of the Comparative Literature Program are determined by the needs of students in the program and the faculty available. For specific information, consult the coordinator. Prerequisite: ENGL 220 (or equivalent) is the prerequisite for all Comparative Literature courses.

Minor for Students Majoring in Comparative Literature

A 12 credit minor is required. Students will be advised by their Comparative Literature faculty mentor to choose a discipline that will complement and enrich their major field of study.

Minor in Comparative Literature for Students Majoring in Other Programs

If this minor is recommended by the major department, students may consult a Comparative Literature adviser who will help them select suitable courses.

Honors

Students are eligible for departmental honors if their GPA in the major is no less than 3.5. The student must also take at least 3 credits (but no more than 6 credits) in honors courses offered by the program and approved by the adviser. The offerings of the Comparative Literature Program are determined by the needs of students in the program and the faculty available. For specific information, consult the coordinator. Prerequisite: ENGL 220 (or equivalent) is the prerequisite for all Comparative Literature courses.

MAJOR
The Computer Science major consists of 39 credits in CSCI courses and a collateral 14 credits in MATH courses.

Preliminary Course
Before being permitted to enter computer science as a major, a student must complete CSCI 135 Software Analysis & Design I with a grade of C or better. Students planning to pursue a computer science major are strongly encouraged to declare their major as soon as possible after completing CSCI 135 and to seek help from a faculty adviser for assistance with individual curriculum planning.

Required Courses
All computer science majors must complete successfully the following courses with a grade of C or better:
- CSCI 145 Computer Architecture I
- CSCI 150 Discrete Structures
- CSCI 235 Software Design & Analysis II
- CSCI 245 Computer Architecture II
- CSCI 265 Computer Theory I
- CSCI 335 Software Design & Analysis III
- CSCI 340 Operating Systems
- CSCI 345 Computer Architecture III
- MATH 150 Calculus I
- MATH 155 Calculus II
- MATH 160 Matrix Algebra
- STAT 213 Applied Statistics

Electives
In addition to the preliminary and required courses, each major must complete 15 hours of elective credits from 300-level and 400-level courses with a grade of C or better. At least 12 elective credits must be in classes other than CSCI 391, 392 and 393. With departmental permission, certain appropriate upper-level electives from other academic departments may be substituted.

Minors for Computer Science Majors
Because there is such a broad spectrum of interests among computer science majors at Hunter, the department does not mandate one particular minor. In the past, our majors have minored in fields as diverse as psychology, archaeology and Japanese. There are, however, several minors which combine with the computer science major in very practical ways:

Math/Stat The four collateral courses in Mathematics/Statistics which are required of computer science majors (MATH 150, MATH 155, MATH 160 and STAT 213) comprise an automatic minor and many of our majors choose this option.

Geographic Information Systems (GIS) This is a new and very much in-demand field, and a GIS minor combined with a computer science major can lead to careers dealing with weather, climate, the environment, and other topics of global importance. Two tracks offer different perspectives on the field:
- Remote Sensing (GTECH 321, 322, 361 and one of GTECH 362, 380 or 385) emphasizes the role of computer technology in GIS today.
- Geographic Information Science (GTECH 321, 361, 362 and 385) focuses on the theory and practice of GIS including applications to human and physical geographic problems.

Multimedia Studies Two tracks in this field combine well with a computer science major:
- Web Technology: (MEDIA 161, 180, MEDP 285 and MEDP 331, or MEDIA 399.99) makes an excellent minor for computer science majors who have an artistic flair and a creative imagination.
- Film and Video Editing: (MEDIA 151, 180, MEDP 281 or 282, and 311) is the perfect minor for computer science majors interested in the technical end of the magical world of film-making.

Corporate Finance A minor in economics (ECO 200, 271, 365 and one of 272, 355, 366, or 360) provides the skills computer science majors need for careers in the financial services industry.

Minor for Non–Majors:
The minor consists of at least 12 credits. Courses selections for the minor should be discussed with your major adviser and adhere to the following guidelines:
- Neither CSCI 120 nor CSCI 127 may be used toward the computer science minor
- CSCI 135 must be part of the minor
- All prerequisites must be fulfilled for any CSCI course. The only exception is a written waiver from the instructor.

Students should consult their major adviser to determine appropriate courses. However, the Computer Science department suggests the following sequences: CSCI 135, 235, 335 and 435 (programming track); CSCI 135, 145, 245 and 345 (architecture track)

Please note: Computer Science majors cannot choose computer science for their minor.

Honors
To graduate from Hunter College with honors in computer science, a student must have at least a 2.7 GPA overall and a 3.5 GPA or better in computer science/math and a grade of A in one of the CSCI 493 series of courses.

The Department of Computer Science provides students with outstanding preparation both for employment as computer professionals and for graduate study. Students use a broad spectrum of programming languages and machine architectures and are expected to construct creative solutions to challenging problems in a variety of contexts. In addition, students are educated in the mathematics of computer science — the theoretical foundations that support current technology and will guide its future development.

Students may work with faculty who engage in research, publish books and articles in highly respected journals and receive grants to pursue significant research. Adjunct faculty are highly competent professionals in a variety of specialized technical fields. The department takes an active interest in students’ goals and provides extensive advising and guidance.
Recommended course sequence for entering freshmen without credit for pre-calculus and without prior computer programming experience:

- Term 1: MATH 125; CSCI 127

- Term 6: CSCI 265; CSCI 345; STAT 213
- Term 7: CSCI 340; 2 CSCI electives
- Term 8: 3 CSCI electives

Students with both credit for pre-calculus and prior computer programming experience can begin with Semester 2.

Recommended course sequence for students with transfer credit for CSCI 135, 145 and 150, and MATH 150 and 155:

- Term 1: CSCI 235; CSCI 245; MATH 160
- Term 2: CSCI 335; CSCI 265; STAT 213
- Term 3: CSCI 340; 2 CSCI electives
- Term 4: CSCI 345; 3 CSCI electives

The "one repeat" rule is in effect for all courses to be used toward the major, from CSCI 135 through the 400-level courses. This means that if a student fails a CSCI major course once (failure = D, F, NC, WU), that student will have only one more chance to pass the course.

In addition, the Computer Science department will not accept a CR grade in any of the CSCI courses listed above, that student will have only one more chance to pass the course.

In addition, the Computer Science department will not accept a CR grade in any of the CSCI courses listed above, that student will have only one more chance to pass the course.

Please note: A grade of “D” is not considered a passing grade by this department for any of the computer science or math courses required for the major.

The Hunter College Dance program offers an opportunity to pursue a B.A. degree in dance within the context of a strong liberal arts education. From a campus in the heart of New York City, the dance major or minor student has the unique opportunity of interfacing with many professional dance companies, choreographers and critics who live and work in New York. The modern dance-based curriculum provides the student with opportunities to pursue careers in performance, choreography, teaching, arts administration and production. The curriculum is enriched by community outreach performances, repertory classes with New York-based choreographers, specialty workshops, dance clubs, international performances, internships and New York State teaching certification. In addition, Hunter Dance hosts “Sharing the Legacy,” an ongoing series of conferences, forums and concerts devoted to experiencing dance masterworks of the twentieth century.

The Dance Program offers a broad based curriculum with an emphasis on modern dance, including three major areas of study:

I. Technique (modern, ballet, traditional, folk);

II. Creative theory and performance (improvisation, composition, production, repertory, lecture/demonstration touring company);

III. Theoretical and scientific aspects of dance (musicianship for dancers, dance history, theory and practice of teaching, anatomy and kinesiology, movement re-education).

MAJOR

(34 credits)

A placement audition is required of all incoming majors, as well as of all second-year majors. All dance majors are required to be registered in at least one technique class every semester they are in attendance at Hunter. Performance, choreography and technical production requirements are to be fulfilled prior to graduation. These requirements include:

1. Performance in at least two (2) concerts.
2. Choreography of at least two (2) works:
   - a. solo performed in open composition.
   - b. group work developed during fall and spring semesters and performed in formal concert.
3. Production crew work in two (2) concerts:
   - two (2) formal concerts or one (1) formal and one (1) informal concert.

The following 34-credit curriculum is required of all majors. Note: Some course numbers have changed. The old numbers appear in parentheses next to the new numbers:

- DAN 101 Folk Forms of Dance I
- DAN 210(111) Contemporary Dance Technique I
- DAN 213(113) Basic Musicianship for Dancers
- DAN 220(112) Contemporary Dance Technique II
- DAN 221 Improvisation as a Creative Process I

The undergraduate adviser suggests the appropriate sequence of electives for the career specialization the student chooses.

Prerequisites for all dance majors: ENGL 120, DAN 101, DAN 102, DAN 145 or permission of Dance adviser.

Minor

Dance majors may minor in any program leading to a BA degree. However, they must consult with a dance adviser before choosing a minor. Students registered in the dance education program take the teacher education sequence in lieu of a minor.

Minor in Dance for Non-Majors

(12 credits)

A placement audition is required of all incoming minors. Students minoring in dance are required to take DAN 210(111), 220(112), 221, 440 and three additional credits in dance. Prerequisites are DAN 101 or permission of dance adviser. The following requirements must be met by all minors: performance in at least one (1) concert (must be registered in at least one technique course in order to qualify as a performer) and production crew work in one (1) or two (2) studio concerts.

Grading:

All dance majors and minors must receive a letter grade for all dance classes. Grades of “NC” or “CR” are not permissible.

Preparation for Teaching Pre-K-12

New York State certification for teaching dance requires the 34-credit dance major plus the 22 credit education sequence, which is considered a collateral major and includes DAN ED 302 (dance methods) and SEDC 456 (student teaching in dance). See the School of Education section for more information. Note: students must be accepted by the School of Education before they may register for education courses.
All required classes are not offered every semester. Annual meetings with dance advisers are essential for both majors and minors in order to assure that required coursework will be completed in time for graduation. Note: Some course numbers have changed. The old numbers appear in parentheses next to the new numbers.

TECHNIQUE COURSES

All technique courses require an audition that is held during the first class session of each semester. Students who are registered but do not pass the audition will be asked to drop the course. Registered students who miss the first day of class must notify the dance office before the first class session or their place will be given to another student.

Accelerated BA/MA Program in Economics

| BA/MA in Economics | Both degrees can be completed within 120 credits, 30 of which must be at the graduate level. ECO 221, 300, 301, 321, MATH 150, 155 and 160, or their equivalents are required. An undergraduate major in economics is normally required. Consult the graduate adviser | | GER 1B: MATH 150 | ECO 200 ECO 201 | Minor in math is recommended, since program requires Math 150, 155, & 160. |

One way to define the scope of economics is to say that it is the social science that deals with how best to use scarce resources to satisfy unlimited human needs and wants. While economists do not claim to have the answer to what humans should want, they do have something to say about how to get it. Economics is more about how to think than what to think.

Economics students become problem solvers. They learn to analyze a situation, figure out what is important and determine what can be abstracted away. The economics curriculum stresses the development of general problem-solving skills: finding, gathering and interpreting information; predicting the consequences of decisions; evaluating alternative courses of action; and analyzing the management of resources in both the public and private sectors. At the same time, economics students learn about the institutions and rules that shape daily life—the monetary system, the stock and bond markets and the regulatory system that mandates warning labels on cigarette packs and seat belts in automobiles.

Many professional economists enter government at the federal, state, or local level, either in research or policy-making positions. Some are employed by businesses, financial institutions, labor unions, trade associations and consulting firms. Still others are involved in teaching and research in colleges and universities. While an undergraduate major in economics does not lead directly to professional accreditation, it provides students with a point of view and a set of skills that will be useful in almost any path taken after the completion of the major. A major in economics is especially valuable for those who plan careers in finance, management, law, journalism, or public policy.

Accountants specialize in measuring, reporting and interpreting the financial aspects of business, governments and institutional activities. Accounting provides the information necessary to determine and evaluate both present and projected economic activities of organizations. Professional accountants develop and apply their skills in auditing, taxation, management policy, information systems, computer operations and many other areas.

Nearly half of all accounting graduates are employed by public accounting firms. The remainder join private firms, engage in research and consulting, or practice in the government sector.

MAJORS

The Department of Economics offers two majors: the BA in economics, requiring a minimum of 24 credits and the BS in accounting, requiring a minimum of 30 credits of accounting and an additional 33 credits of professional studies. Details are outlined below.

Grade Options

The department strongly urges economics majors who plan to go on to graduate or professional school to choose letter grades rather than CR/NC. Students enrolled in the BS (accounting) curriculum may not use CR/NC grades for the 30 accounting credits in the accounting major.

Progression in the Major

Students who have not completed the prerequisite(s) with a grade of C, CR, or better will not be allowed to register for the course for which the prerequisite(s) are required. ECO 220 and 221 are required for the major and must be completed with a grade of C, CR or better to be accepted for credit toward fulfillment of the major.

Interdepartmental Fields

Students may take courses in economics as part of an interdepartmental program of study in Latin American and Caribbean studies, environmental studies (geography), women’s studies and Jewish social studies. Listings in each area discuss recommended courses.

Internships

The Department of Economics does not grant credit for participation in internships as such. Participants in programs approved by the college may, however, obtain credit for independent study.
in areas of economics to which an internship is related. An independent study of this kind must be supervised by a faculty member in the appropriate area and will involve academic work beyond the internship. It is the student's responsibility to contact the faculty member and make arrangements.

Accelerated BA/MA Program in Economics

The Department of Economics offers promising students the opportunity to complete both the BA and MA degrees within 120 credits, 30 of which must be at the graduate level. The program is open to talented and highly motivated students who maintain a GPA of 3.0 in economics as well as in the cumulative index. All students in the BA/MA program must complete ECO 221, 300, 301, 321, MATH 150, 155 and 160, or their equivalents. An undergraduate major in economics is normally required. Thomas Hunter Honors Program students may be admitted without declaring an undergraduate economics major, provided that the above courses are completed. To apply, see the graduate advisor.

Honors

Students with a 3.5 GPA in economics and an overall 2.8 GPA at the beginning of the upper-senior semester may apply for departmental honors at that time. Registration in ECO 499 and submission of an honors paper are required. Honors papers are written under the supervision of a senior faculty member and defended before a faculty committee. GPA levels must be maintained for the award of departmental honors.

Concentrations

For interested students, the department offers concentrations in Public Policy and in Commercial and Financial Enterprises. The concentration in public policy prepares students for analytical and managerial careers in both the public and private sectors, as well as providing a firm foundation for graduate or professional studies. The concentration in commercial and financial enterprises provides a general background in the skills and knowledge necessary for a successful business career. Information is available in the Economics Department.

BA DEGREE IN ECONOMICS

Major Students majoring in economics must take:

A. ECO 200 and 201. Although required, these courses cannot be credited to the major. Students may begin the study of economics with either ECO 200 or 201, but they are advised to take ECO 100 before 200 or 201 if they have not had recent exposure to economics in high school. If taken, ECO 100 cannot be substituted for either ECO 200 or 201 or credited toward the major.

B. ECO 220, 221, 321 and 300 or 301. These courses, along with ECO 200 and 201 (as described above), are the core of the economics major. Majors are advised to complete ECO 220 and 221 within their first 75 credits of college work and ECO 300 or 301 within their first 90 credits. For students already at or beyond these points when they become majors, such courses should be taken within the first 12 credits following declaration of the major.

The department may waive the requirement of any of the above or other courses upon satisfactory proof of course equivalency. Courses waived through substitution or examination do not provide course credit nor do they count toward the major.

C. Elective courses. The remaining credits needed to complete the 24-credit major shall be satisfied by other courses offered by the department. For students admitted after August 1998, only one course in accounting and one course in business law may be credited toward the economics major. Completion of MATH 150 with a grade of C or better permits the waiver of ECO 220 and selection of an additional elective course.

Minor

Economics majors may choose a minor from any program in the college that leads to a BA degree. The department also allows a split minor (i.e., 6 credits each from two related departments). The department recommends minors in mathematics and computer science, either separately or in combination. No minor is required of double majors.

Minor for Non-Majors

We recommend that students minoring in economics take ECO 200, 201 and 6 additional economics credits.

BS (ACCOUNTING) DEGREE

The degree of bachelor of science (accounting) offered at Hunter College fulfills educational requirements for the CPA examination in New York State, for individuals applying for licensure in public accountancy no later than July 31, 2009. All students contemplating a career in accounting should request an interview with the director of the accounting program or a department adviser during the lower freshman term. To assure completion of the BS (accounting) degree within four years, a full-time student should begin the accounting major sequence in the upper freshman term, if possible and no later than the lower sophomore term by registering for ECO 271.

General Education Requirement

Students working for a BS (accounting) degree must complete the General Education Requirement (see General Education Requirement section) except that:

A. The Stage 1, Group B Quantitative Reasoning Requirement must be met by MATH 150. This should be done within the first 75 credits of college work. For students already at or beyond this point when they become majors, the course should be taken within the first 12 credits following declaration of the major.

B. The foreign language requirement is modified, so that:

1. Students who present three or more years of one foreign language are excused from taking additional foreign language courses;

2. Students who present two years of one foreign language must take two additional courses of advanced-level work in the same language or, if they do not want to go on with that language in college, they must take four courses in another foreign language at the college level;

3. Students who present fewer than two years of one foreign language must take four courses in that or any other foreign language at the college level.

Students must file with the Department of Economics a high school transcript or other evidence of completion of the requisite number of years.

C. In Stage 2, Group B, 3 of the 6 required credits must be in ECO 201. (ECO 200, which must be taken as part of the professional studies requirement, cannot be used to fulfill the Stage 2, Group B requirement for accounting majors.)

D. Electives. Any remaining credits needed to complete the 120 credits required for the BS (accounting) degree must be in liberal arts electives.

The English Department offers students a variety of courses in the study of literature, literary theory and linguistics and in the creation of literature through workshops in writing fiction, poetry and essays. Taught from a number of points of view—formal, historical, philosophical, ethical, psychological, sociological—these courses deepen students’ insight into the nature and value of human experience and at the same time prepare them for almost any profession in which writing and self-expression are essential. The department encourages disciplined, original thinking and writing, while its small classes promote learning through stimulating discussions.

Introductory and intermediate courses present a wide range of literary forms, periods and genres. Students who major in English choose one of three concentrations: Literatures, Language and Criticism; Creative Writing; or Adolescence Education (a concentration designed for prospective high school teachers). Qualified students may enroll in honors seminars and tutorials. The English Department participates in Hunter's interdisciplinary programs in English Language Arts, Comparative Literature, Women's Studies and Religion. The English major provides a foundation for careers in writing, teaching, journalism, law, business, or any other career that depends on the ability to read analytically and write effectively. ENGL 220 Introduction to Literature is a prerequisite to all literature courses numbered above 220 in the English Department. Students must pass this course with a minimum grade of B to major in creative writing.

Prerequisite for all 300- and 400-level writing courses (except ENGL 301): ENGL 300 Introduction to Creative Writing (3 cr). Students must pass this course with a minimum grade of B to major in creative writing.

ENGL 220 Introduction to Literature is a prerequisite to all literature courses numbered above 220 in the English Department. Students who plan to major in English should take no more than 6 credits past ENGL 220 before declaring the major. Prerequisite for all 300- and 400-level writing courses (except ENGL 301): ENGL 300 Introduction to Creative Writing (3 cr). Students must pass this course with a minimum grade of B to major in creative writing.
Preparation for Teaching

The concentration in Adolescence Education prepares students to teach English in grades 7-12. Students choosing this concentration must begin their course of study with the two foundation courses before they may progress any further in the concentration: ENGL 303 Western Literary Backgrounds of British and American Literature and ENGL 338 Survey of British Literature I: Anglo-Saxon Literature to Romanticism. Together with the requirements of the School of Education, this program meets initial certification requirements for New York State and New York City public schools. Students take courses in literature, writing and language study as preparation for teaching in secondary schools, which are increasingly concerned to develop fluent speakers, readers and writers of the English language.

In cooperation with the School of Education, the Department of English provides opportunities for students to prepare for a career in teaching at the elementary level (see English Language Arts) or at the secondary level (see section III below).

I. Concentration in Literatures, Language and Criticism (30 cr)

This concentration consists of three parts:

A. Required Foundation Courses ........... (6 cr)

These courses must be taken once the student has declared a major in this concentration; they may be taken simultaneously.

- ENGL 303 Western Literary Backgrounds ....................(3 cr)

- ENGL 338 Survey of British Literature: Anglo-Saxon Literature to Romanticism ........... (3 cr)

After fulfilling Part A, the student will take at least eight 300- or 400-level courses (24 cr) distributed so that they fulfill the requirements of Parts B and C.

Note: A single course may be used to fulfill requirements in Parts B and C. However, the credit value of a course may not be counted twice.

B. Required Area of Special Study ........... (9 cr)

The student must take three courses in one of the following seven areas of study. Some courses that fulfill the area requirement are listed; for other courses, consult with an advisor. Special topic courses (marked *) must conform to the area requirement.

C. Late Victorian, Modern and Contemporary British Literature (373, 374, 376, 378, 380, 385*, 386*, 387*, 389*, 390*)

C. Required Core Courses and Electives (15 cr)

There are five core requirements. The student must take an English Department course in:

A. Literary Theory (ENGL 306)

B. At least one course in British literature written prior to 1660 ........................................(3 cr)

C. At least one course in British literature from 1660 to the present ........................................(3 cr)

D. At least one course in American literature before 1870 ....................................................(3 cr)

E. At least one course in African American, Asian American, Latino American, Native American, Caribbean, Transnational and/or Post-Colonial literature ........................................(3 cr)

Note: An individual course may not be used to fulfill more than one core requirement. Since the credit value of a course may not be counted twice, the major in this concentration may need to take electives to accumulate 30 credits.

II. Concentration in Creative Writing (30 cr)

The concentration in Creative Writing is designed to provide students with solid experience in the writing and revising of poetry, fiction and creative non-fiction, as well as in reading and analysis of texts. All students who wish to take advanced workshops in writing must take ENGL 300 Introduction to Creative Writing as the prerequisite for all other 300-level writing courses (except ENGL 301). Students must pass this course with a minimum grade of B in order to major in Creative Writing. Creative Writing majors must also take the foundation course, ENGL 338 Survey of British Literature-Anglo-Saxon Literature to Romanticism before they progress any further in the concentration.

Prerequisite for all 300- and 400-level courses in writing (except ENGL 301):

ENGL 300 Introduction to Creative Writing .................................................(3 cr)

Students must pass this course with a minimum grade of B to major in creative writing.

Required Foundation Course

ENGL 338 Survey of British Literature: Anglo-Saxon Literature to Romanticism ............(3 cr)

This course must be taken once the student declares a major in this concentration but may be taken during the same semester as ENGL 300.

Electives:

After fulfilling the foundation requirements, students pursuing the concentration in "Creative Writing" will be allowed to take the remaining 24 credits (8 courses) within the major. These 24 credits (8 courses) are to be distributed as follows:

- Three courses chosen from 300-level writing courses .....................................................(9 cr).

- One 400-level writing seminar (such as Advanced Poetry Workshop or Starting the Novel, or Revision). Students may substitute an independent Tutorial, with the permission of the faculty member, for this requirement ........................................(3 cr).

- Four courses in literary study (see below) ..........................................................(12 cr).

Core Requirements:

Students must choose their 12 credits (4 courses) in literary study so that they fulfill the following Core Requirements:

A. One course must deal substantially with British literature written before 1870 ...........................................(3 cr)

B. One course must deal substantially with American literature written before 1914 ...........................................(3 cr)

C. One course must deal substantially with African American, Asian American, Latino American, Native American, Caribbean, Transnational and/or Post-Colonial literature ........................................(3 cr)

D. One course must be chosen from among the following: ENGL 303 Western Literary Backgrounds of British and American Literature; ENGL 306 Literary Theory; ENGL 331 The Structure of Modern English; ENGL 332 The History of the English Language .........................................................(3 cr).

Note: Students may not use individual courses to fulfill more than one Core Requirement.
III. Concentration in Adolescence Education: Preparation for Teaching (30 cr)

Required Foundation Courses .......... (6 cr):
These courses must be taken once the student declares the major in this concentration and may be taken during the same semester:

ENGL 303 Western Literary Backgrounds ..........(3 cr)
ENGL 338 Survey of British Literature: Anglo-Saxon Literature to Romanticism ..........(3 cr)

Core Requirements ..................................(24 cr)

Minor for Non-Majors
Students who wish to minor in English should consult their major adviser for appropriate course recommendations.

Honors
A student must meet two related requirements in order to qualify for departmental honors: the Honors Seminar (ENGL 494) and the honors essay. English Language Arts is not a department, but an interdisciplinary program leading to the bachelor of arts degree. It is open to all students, but it may be particularly suitable for prospective teachers of grades 1-6.

The required and recommended courses in this program have been selected for their relevance to the childhood education curriculum and for the breadth they offer to teachers of grades 1-6 who may find a traditional major too specialized for their needs.

Students who do not plan to teach will find this major good preparation for careers that require facility with spoken and/or written language, such as public relations, advertising and the communications media. Students interested in the growing field of linguistics will also find English language arts an appropriate undergraduate major, particularly if they are interested in the application of linguistics to such educational concerns as second-language learning, dialect variation and beginning reading instruction.

Open to qualified juniors and seniors by permission of the English Language Arts coordinator.
The Department of Film and Media Studies offers two majors in the production and critical analysis of film, mass media, and alternative media: Film and Media Studies. Each program provides a range of production and analytical courses.

The Film major combines theoretical perspectives and practical production experience to provide students with a thorough understanding of the cinema and of their creative potential as filmmakers. The major is composed of required and elective courses in film and video production and film studies. Students are introduced to the aesthetics of filmmaking, the historical background of the film industry, alternative cinematic practices, current critical theories, and various national and multicultural perspectives on cinema. Production courses include screenwriting, screen directing, producing the film, sound, editing, and cinematography.

The Media Studies major fosters media literacy in the belief that the ability to understand and make use of the media of public expression and interaction is essential to the vitality of a democratic society. It provides a wide range of courses in the production of video, print and broadcast journalism, graphics and interactive digital media. Analytical courses are offered on the theory, history, interpretation, structure and criticism of contemporary media and culture. Courses are designed to engage students analytically and creatively with social, cultural and aesthetic issues in contemporary media practice.

In both programs, analytical courses provide students with a broad base in critical thinking. Courses deal with subjects such as the history and aesthetics of film, video, and television; genre studies; the production and distribution of print and broadcast news; the representation of race, class, and gender in various media; domestic and international policy and regulatory issues in print, broadcasting, telecommunications and new media; Hollywood's past and present configurations; and the intricate relationships among the mass media, popular culture and society.

Production courses constitute a vital element of both the film and media studies majors. The production curriculum is designed to offer students in-depth understanding of applied aesthetics, creative concepts and technical proficiency through a diverse range of rigorous practicum courses in film, video, television studio, news writing, screenwriting, graphics, layout and new digital media. Production offerings encourage students to produce original work in dramatic narrative, documentary and experimental forms, permitting them to cultivate a creative voice that can find expression across the range of contemporary media technologies and forms.

In addition to classroom activities, majors and minors earn general elective credits through valuable internship placements in New York City's vibrant media industries. Host institutions include film, television, radio, video and record companies; newspaper, magazine, and book publishers; public relations and advertising agencies; museums; and telecommunications and new media organizations. The internship web site is http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/fmintern.

MAJOR IN FILM (27 CR)

Students must receive a grade of B or better in Film 101 to declare a major in Film. The major must be declared in person with an undergraduate film adviser (call (212) 772-4949 to schedule). The student must bring his or her transcript (and, where relevant, transcripts from other colleges attended) when meeting with the undergraduate film adviser to declare a film major. Students majoring in Film must also take FILM/MEDIA 151, which is prerequisite for all film production courses.

Course Requirements:

- FILM 201, 211, 212, 251, 252 …..15 cr
- FILM 213 or 214
- FILM/MEDIA 327 or 328 ……..3 cr
- FILM 371 or 376 or MEDIA 311 ……..3 cr

One elective chosen from 300-level courses in FILM or MEDIA …………………..3 cr

One elective course from 200 level or above in FILM or MEDIA …………………..3 cr

A maximum of 6 cr in MEDIA courses at the 200 or 300 level may be applied toward the major in film. Students must meet any prerequisites for these courses.

Courses at the 100 level, independent study, and internship courses do not count toward the major. Students must see a program adviser to plan choice and sequence of courses.

MAJOR IN MEDIA STUDIES

(24 cr)

Students must receive a grade of B or better in MEDIA 180 to declare a major in Media Studies. The major must be declared in person with an undergraduate media studies adviser (call (212) 772-4949 to schedule). The student must bring his or her transcript (and, where relevant, transcripts from other colleges attended) when meeting with the undergraduate media studies adviser to declare a media studies major.

In addition to MEDIA 180, students must complete a total of 24 credits at the 200- or 300-level. At least 12 of these credits must be in production, may be applied toward the major in film. Students must meet any prerequisites for these courses.

Courses at the 100 level, independent study, and internship courses do not count toward the major. Students must see a program adviser to plan choice and sequence of courses.
Double Majors
Students may choose to complete a major in the Department of Film and Media Studies and a second major in another department. A student with a double major does not need to complete a minor in a third department. A student cannot declare a double major in film and media studies. Because of the intensive nature of the production courses in both Film and Media Studies, it is strongly recommended that all students take no more than two production courses per semester.

Minor
Majors in either the Film program or Media Studies program must complete a 12-credit minor in a department or program that leads to a BA degree, which must include 3 credits at the 200 level or higher, and 3 credits at the 300 level. Minors must be completed within one department. Students should consult with a departmental adviser in the choice of a minor. Minor courses can be used without limit to satisfy stages 1, 2 and 3 of the GER. A student cannot major in Media Studies and minor in Film.

The department offers courses in human geography, physical geography, earth systems science, geographic techniques and methods and geology. Students may major in geography, social studies education options within geography or environmental studies; and they may minor in geography, environmental studies or geology. These areas provide preparation for both graduate study and immediate employment. Courses in all of these fields are valuable parts of a general liberal education, developing an awareness of earth phenomena and the role these play in people’s lives.

The Center for Geographic Learning was established in 2004. At the undergraduate level in association with the Hunter College School of Education and the New York City Department of Education, the Center will help prepare students who wish to become teachers of social studies or earth science. See “Options in Social Studies Education within the Geography Major” and “Preparation for Graduate Work in Teaching Earth Science”, below.

The social studies education options prepare students for a career in teaching social studies at the grades 1-6 or 7-12 levels. The geography major with electives in PEGEOG/GTECH and a minor in one of the sciences prepares students to pursue further study leading to a career in teaching earth science. Many of these courses are concerned with the environmental problems that are of so much concern today and can provide part of a well-rounded program of environmental studies.

Revisions in the curricula within the Department of Geography that are currently under way may involve modifications in various requirements. Please consult with the department office for up-to-date information and requirements.

Preparation for Teaching
In cooperation with the School of Education, the department provides opportunities for students to prepare for a career in education. Students interested in this career track should consult the Education pages of this catalog. The following routes are available to qualified students:

1. Option in Social Studies within the Geography Major for Childhood Education Teachers, grades 1-6 (see listing under Program in Geography).
2. Option in Social Studies within the Geography Major for Adolescence Education Teachers, grades 7-12 (see listing under Program in Geography).
3. Preparation for the MA program for Teachers of Earth Science (grades 7-12) with a concentration in physical geography, geology, earth science or environmental science (see listing under Program in Geology).

PROGRAM IN GEOGRAPHY

Students who expect to do graduate work in geography are advised to take courses in statistics and/or computer science. We suggest, but do not require, that those planning to continue to the doctoral level fulfill the GER Foreign Language Requirement with the language of the area of regional specialization.

Note that GEOG 101 is a prerequisite to GEOG 221, but does not count toward the major.

Minors

Geography majors may minor in a wide variety of fields but must secure permission from their major adviser. For students preparing to become teachers of social studies, education is an appropriate minor. For students wishing to concentrate in the areas of geomorphological studies, environmental geology or environmental geoscience, it is recommended that a minor in geology, composed of 200- and 300-level GEOG courses, be selected and appropriate courses from cognate fields be used to satisfy general education and elective credit requirements. For information concerning approved courses in the minor, students should consult a departmental adviser.

Preparation for Teaching
In cooperation with the School of Education, the department provides opportunities for students to prepare for a career in education. Students interested in this career track should consult the Education pages of this catalog. The following routes are available to qualified students:

1. Option in Social Studies within the Geography Major for Childhood Education Teachers, grades 1-6 (see listing under Program in Geography).
2. Option in Social Studies within the Geography Major for Adolescence Education Teachers, grades 7-12 (see listing under Program in Geography).
3. Preparation for the MA program for Teachers of Earth Science (grades 7-12) with a concentration in physical geography, geology, earth science or environmental science (see listing under Program in Geology).

PROGRAM IN GEOGRAPHY

Students who expect to do graduate work in geography are advised to take courses in statistics and/or computer science. We suggest, but do not require, that those planning to continue to the doctoral level fulfill the GER Foreign Language Requirement with the language of the area of regional specialization.

Minor in Geography for Non-Majors

A minor in geography consists of a minimum of 12 credits approved by the student’s major department. Because of the nature of this field of study, geography is a very appropriate minor for major programs. By choosing a concentration from any of the three course prefixes (GEOG, PGEOG, or GTECH) or by combining courses from two or more prefixes, a student will be able to create a focused program of study that will enhance that student’s major. For specific recommendations see the Geography undergraduate adviser.

Minor in Environmental Studies for Non-Majors

The minor consists of a minimum of 12 credits approved by the student's major department that may include any required or elective course for the environmental studies major.

Minor in Geology for Non-Majors

A minor in geology consists of 12 credits selected from GEOG prefix courses, GEOG 231, 334 and GTECH 350 and approved by the student's major department. If after taking a number of geology courses at Hunter, a student wishes to concentrate in geology, it is recommended that the student transfer to a unit of CUNY offering a geology major or take courses on permit at other CUNY units as elective credits.

Preparation for Graduate Work in Teaching Earth Science

For students planning to pursue an MA degree for teachers of earth science, grades 7-12, it is recommended that they complete the following undergraduate work: a baccalaureate degree with a grade point average of 2.8 or better in their science courses and in their overall undergraduate work; a major of at least 30 credits in arts and sciences.

At least 21 credits in geology, physical geography, earth science or environmental science, including geographic techniques; general education core in the liberal arts and sciences that includes 6 credits in English, 6 credits in mathematics/technology; 6 credits in social studies (to include at least one course in U.S. history or geography), 6 credits in the arts and 6 credits in a language other than English. It is recommended, but not required, that the criteria above be satisfied using electives selected from GEOG, PGE GEOG and GTECH courses; a minor in geology; GER core requirement laboratory science chosen from chemistry, physics or biology and GER core requirement non-laboratory science chosen from astronomy, oceanography, statistics or mathematics. For further information on the education requirements, students should see an adviser in the School of Education.

Honors Work and Individual Study

To graduate with departmental honors, a major in the geography or environmental studies program must be admitted to GEOG 490 or PGEOG 490 and have a 3.0 cumulative GPA and a 3.5 GPA in the major. GEOG 391, 392, 393; GEOG 391, 392, 393; and PGEOG 391, 392, 393 also offer students the opportunity of undertaking individual research in geography, geology or environmental studies.

Fieldwork

Several courses offer students an opportunity to study geography, geology and environmental situations in the field. They are usually offered during intersession periods, summer session or on weekends (consult Schedule of Classes). In addition to the regular field courses, special-topic field courses are offered periodically and fieldwork is conducted in connection with a number of the other courses. The department participates in the Study Abroad Program. It offers a field geography of selected world regions course (check with adviser for current location). An additional fee for transportation, lodging and food allowance is attached to these courses, depending on the focus of the course and its itinerary.

Graduate Study

Graduate-level courses may be taken for credit toward the bachelor's degree by highly qualified seniors. Written permission must be obtained from the undergraduate and graduate advisers.

Intern Program

Internship (GEOG 498, PGE GEOG 498) provides opportunities for qualified majors and minors in both geography and environmental studies to work in positions of responsibility in professional institutions while earning from 1 to 4 academic credits. See a departmental adviser for details.

Study Abroad/National Student Exchange Programs

The department is a participant in these programs and offers courses periodically outside of New York City. See a departmental adviser for details.
COURSE LISTINGS

Fieldwork requiring an additional fee for transportation may be required in any course and will be collected prior to the trip by a departmental representative.

The Department of German offers courses in the language, literature and culture of German-speaking countries. Courses in the German language are offered at the elementary (100), intermediate (200) and advanced (300) level. Courses in German literature and culture, taught in German, are offered at the 300-400 level. The entire language and literature curriculum is designed to guide beginners in the language through well-defined levels of proficiency in speaking, reading, writing and comprehension to the point of college-level literacy in German. The proficiency-testing system used in the department makes it possible to place students who have prior knowledge of the German language at the level most appropriate to their needs.

The goals of the elementary and intermediate courses, which fulfill the foreign language requirement, are:
1. To give all students a real ability to function in everyday situations in the German language.
2. To create a solid linguistic base for the further study of German at the advanced level.
3. To build students’ capacity for intellectual discourse in written and spoken German.
4. To prepare for teaching grades 7-12: includes 9 additional advanced credits in German language and literature, or other 300-level courses related to German studies offered by other departments (with approval of German dept. chair).

The goals of the advanced language, literature and culture courses are:
1. To impart knowledge and understanding of German literature and civilization, past and present.
2. To develop students’ comprehension of spoken and written German to the level of understanding the classics of German prose, drama and poetry.
3. To develop students’ ability to function in everyday situations in the German language.
4. To assess students’ ability to function in everyday situations in the German language.

The German Department also offers courses in German literature in English translation for students who have no knowledge of the German language. These courses may not be used to fulfill the foreign language requirement, nor may they be applied toward the regular German major.

Preparation for Teaching in Grades 7-12

In cooperation with the School of Education, the program in German provides opportunities for students to prepare for a career in teaching German in grades 7-12. Students interested in teaching German in New York schools may count the 23-credit pedagogical sequence for grades 7-12 as a minor. This minor may count toward the course requirements for New York State Certification but will not by itself be sufficient for certification. Students interested in a teaching career should consult with the School of Education. All students who want to pursue a teaching certificate in German must take an oral examination with the German Department. See the School of Education section of this catalog for further information.

The Hebrew Division of the Department of Classical and Oriental Studies offers a comprehensive program covering the main areas of Hebraic and Judaic studies, namely Biblical and post-Biblical studies, Talmudic and medieval literature, Hebrew language and modern Hebrew literature, Jewish philosophy and Kabbalah, Jewish legacy and folklore, contemporary Jewish literature and Israeli culture. This program is designed to develop language skills, cultivate a critical appreciation of Hebraic and Judaic literature and thought and promote an understanding of Jewish cultural tradition against the background of world civilization. Specifically, these courses may be applied to satisfy foreign language and literature components of the General Education Requirement as well as to fulfill major and minor concentrations.

This curriculum also meets the special needs of students majoring in other disciplines for courses dealing with the Hebraic or Judaic elements and influences on European culture. The wide variety of course offerings, covering the entire range of Hebraic and Judaic culture from early Biblical times to modern Israel, enables students to concentrate their attention on one major period, to aim for an overall proficiency or to strive for both objectives simultaneously. This course of study also provides the student with a solid foundation for further professional and graduate study in such disciplines as education, library science, publishing, area studies, specialized communication and community services, government and diplomatic and trade exchanges.

Placement and Exemption Students with background in the language should consult the head of the Hebrew Division for proper placement or exemption.

MAJORS

The major consists of 24 credits from courses beyond HEBR 101-102. In general, a Hebrew major is required to achieve proficiency in Biblical and/or modern Hebrew literature by successfully completing a minimum of four courses at the 300 level in Hebrew. Courses in Hebraic studies conducted in English may be applied toward partial fulfillment of the Hebrew major provided they are part of a coherent program approved by the head of the division.

Qualified students interested in a more intensive program in the field of Hebraic or Judaic studies, particularly those preparing for graduate work in such specialized areas as Semitic languages and civilizations, Jewish history, Biblical studies and archaeology, medieval or modern Hebrew literature, Near Eastern studies or religious studies, should consult a division adviser regarding additional courses and supportive studies in related fields.

Minor for Non-Majors

The minor consists of 12 credits in Hebrew language, literature or Hebraic studies in English. Consult your major department for approved courses.

Preparation for Teaching in Grades 7-12

In cooperation with the School of Education, the Program in Hebrew provides opportunities for students to prepare for a career in teaching Hebrew in grades 7-12. Students preparing to teach Hebrew must complete a 33-credit major option for teaching that includes the 24-credit sequence taken by non-teaching majors plus 9 additional credits in Hebrew language and literature at the 300 or 400 level. Students interested in teaching Hebrew in New York schools may count the 23-credit pedagogical sequence for grades 7-12 as a minor. This minor may count toward the course requirements for New York State Certification, but will not by itself be sufficient for certification.

Students interested in a teaching career should consult with the School of Education. See the School of Education section of this catalog for more information.

Honors

Opportunity for honors work is available through HEBR 491.

Electives

All courses offered by the Hebrew Division are open to qualified students for elective credit. For placement consult a Hebrew Division adviser.

History is the record of human experience. Its study is a first step in learning about ourselves and our society—about economics and politics, psychology and sociology, mathematics and science, the arts and the humanities.

For students whose undergraduate major is history, career opportunities are numerous and varied. Medical, law and other professional schools favor applicants with history majors because of their broad background and research skills. Moreover, while teaching has long been a popular goal for history majors, positions in government (local, state and national), in publishing and advertising, in communications and in business also await those students whose human perspective and intellectual discipline have been developed in history classes. Beyond the purely practical consideration of a profession, the study of history is exciting in its own right.

MAJOR

The history major consists of 30 credits as follows:

a. A maximum of 9 credits may be taken in basic 100-level courses.

b. At least 18 credits are required above the 100 level; 6 credits must be in 200-level courses and 12 credits must be in 300-level courses.

c. Majors must take History 300 (Historical Research) twice in conjunction with 300-level courses or, in rare instances and with department permission, in conjunction with a 200-level course.

Within the courses taken to fulfill the major requirement, students must take a minimum of 6 credits in each of the following areas:

1. United States history
2. European history
3. World/non-Western history/Latin American history

History majors are strongly encouraged to take at least 3 credits in an advanced seminar or problems course (HIST 382, 383, 384, 385, 400, 483, 484 or 485).

Students may not use courses graded on the basis of Credit/No Credit toward fulfillment of the major.

Minor

The minor that leads to a BA degree consists of 12 credits in any one department or program, of which 6 credits must be above the 100 level.

Students preparing to become elementary school teachers may take the 30-credit in childhood education in lieu of a minor.

Minor for Non-Majors

The choice of particular courses in the history minor must be approved by the student’s major department adviser.

Major in History with Minor in International Affairs

Adviser: Michael Luther

Major

The major consists of 18 credits in history: HIST 329, 360, 361 plus 9 credits selected from HIST 277, 278, 288, 289, 327, 333, 341.54, 341.62, 341.63, 341.66, 346, 372, 375, 376.50, 376.51, 377, 378, 381, 390 and seminars, problems courses and tutorial if appropriate.

Minor

The minor consists of 18 credits including ECO 340 or POLSC 375; POLSC 115 and 278; GEOG 221 or 334 plus 6 additional credits chosen from cultural anthropology, economics, energy and environmental studies, geography, political science, sociology, religion or other appropriate areas chosen with the approval of the adviser.

Preparation for Teaching

Childhood education (grades 1-6) In cooperation with the School of Education, the Department of History provides opportunities for history majors to prepare for a career in teaching childhood education. The childhood education sequence is a collateral major.

Adolescence education Students who wish to prepare for a career in teaching social studies in grades 7-12 may take a 30-credit history major that must include HIST 151, 152, 111, 112, a 300-level course in history, and one course in geography. A course with a focus on political science and a course with a focus on economics are also required.* Students take the 23-credit adolescence education sequence in lieu of a minor. For further details see the undergraduate advisor in the Department of History.

Honors in History

Students will be eligible for honors in history upon completion of 30 credits in history with a 3.5 GPA and a 2.8 cumulative GPA at the time of graduation. To be eligible to graduate with honors in history, students can take HIST 400 (Historiography) or 3 to 6 credits in seminar, tutorial or problems courses (HIST 483, 484, 485, 492, 493) or graduate courses with special permission, with a grade of B or better. Eligible students should apply for honors at the time they file for graduation. Applications are available from the department.

Latin American and Caribbean Studies is an interdisciplinary program that offers students the opportunity to learn about the history, culture, politics, society and political economy of the region and the region’s relations with the United States. With financial support from the Ford Foundation, LACS has been able to develop an innovative outreach program with Afro Latino and Caribbean Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) in New York City and throughout the Latin American and Caribbean region. The Global Afro Latino and Caribbean Initiative (GALCI), housed within LACS, offers summer internship possibilities for LACS and other Hunter students to collaborate with Afro Latino NGOs throughout the region. In the context of a rapidly growing and dynamic Caribbean and Latin American community in New York City, the program enables students to seek knowledge and an understanding of the origins of these peoples and their settlement in the country. Visiting Afro Latino scholars will spend a semester at the college. Under this new GALCI program, the visiting scholars will continue their own personal research on compensatory social programs and affirmative action in Latin America, as well as giving public lectures at Hunter and interacting with LACS students.

LACS, in collaboration with the Hunter Study Abroad Program, will initiate a January Semester Abroad Program with the Federal University of Bahia, Brazil. The course will be taught in English and is titled “Factory of Ideas: Understanding Racial Identity”.

The specialization in Latin American and Caribbean Studies as a major leading to a BA degree consists of 36 credits: 24 core credits for the major and 12 credits for the minor. The core courses for the major are drawn from the social sciences and the humanities and the arts. Students select courses for the major and minor components in consultation with the program’s director or with a member of the Latin American and Caribbean Studies Faculty Advisory Committee serving as mentor/adviser. Please note: the program is currently considering modifications to the degree requirements for the major in LACS. Consult your program adviser before registering for your courses to insure your progress in the major.

The interdisciplinary specialization of the major, combined with the minor, will serve graduates well, whether they choose to seek employment in public or private organizations, to pursue a professional degrees, or go on for a graduate degree in the social sciences or humanities. New courses on Afro Latino Communities in New York City and Asian literary influences in Latin America and the Caribbean (to include South Asia, China, Korea, Lebanon and Syria) serve as a bridge between LACS and Hunter’s Asian American Studies Program.

Language Requirement

Latin American and Caribbean Studies majors are required to demonstrate a reading knowledge of Spanish, Portuguese or French, fulfilled at least one semester before graduation from the college.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MAJOR/MINOR

LACS students are required to take either LACS 330, a field course for students to study in the region or who are interning in an institution either in the New York area or in the region, or LACS 434, a course that comprises preparation of a major original research paper to be developed in close association with a mentor from the Latin American and Caribbean Studies Faculty Advisory Committee. ENGL 120 is a prerequisite for program courses.

Minor

Minor courses can be used without limit to satisfy Stages 1, 2 and 3 of Core. LACS students with a double major are exempt from the minor.

Minor for Non-Majors

LACS recommends HIST 271 and HIST 272 for students from other departments planning a LACS minor. The minor must be approved by the major department.

Departmental Honors

LACS majors with a GPA above 3.5 are eligible to receive the Lily Mage Award.

CR/NC Policy

No CR/NC grades will be accepted in courses to meet LACS major/minor requirements.

Mentoring

Faculty mentoring is very important to the LACS Program. Majors should maintain regular contact with their mentors/advisers.

Study Abroad

Study abroad is encouraged for LACS majors and minors. Apart from the new Bahia, Brazil course, LACS students have studied in Hunter's January in Cuba course, as well as other study abroad experiences in the Caribbean and Latin America.

Teaching

Apart from its excellent regular Hunter faculty, LACS offers students courses by excellent adjunct faculty such as Dr. Marta Moreno Vega, Director of the Caribbean Cultural Center, producer of the documentary film When the Spirits Dance Mambo, as well as invited specialists on Latin American and Caribbean theatre, Haitian and Dominican literature and the political economy of the Caribbean and Latin America.

Mathematics Proficiency and Placement

Effective fall 2004, all students entering Hunter College must demonstrate proficiency (mastery of basic skills) in mathematics as evidenced by scoring 27 or greater on each of the pre-algebra and algebra parts of the new COMPASS math test. Certain categories of students are exempt from this requirement. See the Testing Requirements section of this catalog or check with the Testing Office for more information. Subsequent placement into all mathematics and statistics courses is determined by the student’s score on the remaining parts of this exam. New students entering the college take this test in its entirety when they take the other placement exams in reading and writing. Continuing students at the college who have already taken parts 1 and 2 of the formerly used CUNY five-part math exam must take the algebra, college algebra and trigonometry parts of the new COMPASS math exam before registering for a course above MATH 100. A testing schedule and information about the math exam is available from the Testing Office, Room 150 Hunter North, 772-4898. The schedule for this examination should be checked well in advance of registration.

Passing specific parts of this examination is now required by various other departments for entry into certain courses. Requests for information about other departments’ regulations should be directed to those departments.

Symbolic Computation Proficiency Requirement

As a requirement for graduation with a BA or MA in mathematics, students must demonstrate entry-level proficiency in symbolic computation. The requirement can be met in any of the following ways:

(a) passing any of MATH 126, MATH 151, MATH 154;

(b) passing a departmental exam in a computer algebra system (currently we use MATHEMATICA or the equivalent).

Accelerated BA/MA Program in Mathematics or in Statistics and Applied Mathematics

The BA/MA program offers promising students the opportunity to complete both the bachelor’s and master’s degree requirements with a minimum of 120 credits. Requirements are the same as those for a major in the department, plus 30 credits at the graduate level. Interested students should contact the graduate adviser for further information regarding eligibility and curriculum requirements.

Track 1: BA/MA Program in Mathematics
Students complete the BA in pure mathematics with 30 additional credits at the graduate level in pure mathematics approved by the departmental graduate adviser.

Track 2: BA/MA Program in Statistics and Applied Mathematics
Students complete the BA in statistics or mathematics with 30 additional credits at the graduate level in applied mathematics, statistics and computer science approved by the departmental graduate adviser.

Honors

A student majoring in mathematics or statistics may become a candidate for departmental honors by successfully completing MATH 490, by presenting a major GPA of at least 3.6 and by achieving a satisfactory rating on a comprehensive examination.

MATHEMATICS MAJOR

The mathematics major introduces students to the fundamental areas of mathematics and provides some degree of specialization in one or more areas. It trains students in the analytic thinking characteristic of pure and applied mathematics and provides some familiarity with rigorous methods of mathematical proof. To declare the major, the student should have completed one year of calculus (MATH 150 and 155, or the equivalent). The mathematics major consists of at least 30 credits of coursework: 21 credits of core curriculum courses (taken by all mathematics majors except those with a minor in childhood education) and at least 9 credits of advanced courses, chosen by students according to their career plans. Students are expected to select an option from those described below.

Major Core Curriculum

Options

Some flexibility is possible within each option, but any deviation from the requirement must be approved by the departmental adviser. Such approval is not automatic and will depend on the career goals of the student.

Option 1

For students intending to pursue technical careers in business, industry, or government. Required courses (in addition to the core): 3 courses chosen from MATH 352, 353, 385, or STAT 311. Recommended electives: MATH 254, 255, 301, 354, 485, STAT 312, 313, CSCI 135, 355.

Option 2

For students intending to continue graduate study beyond the master’s level. Required courses (in addition to the core): MATH 352 and any two of MATH 312, 340, or 353. To prepare adequately for graduate study, the student should choose at least three additional courses from among MATH 301, 312, 340, 353, 354, 370, 376, 385, 454, 485, 490, STAT 311, 312, 313, CSCI 135, 355 and any 700-level graduate course in the department or at the Graduate Center.

Option 3

For students intending to teach in grades 7-12. Required courses (in addition to the major core): MATH 331, STAT 311. Recommended for required third course and electives: MATH 275, 312, 313, 340, 352, 370, 371, 376, 385, STAT 212, 213, 214, CSCI 135.

Option 4

For students intending to teach in grades 1-6. Any of the above options is appropriate. An alternative requiring permission of the department adviser is an interdisciplinary major including some science courses as well as approved courses within the department. For such a major, core courses would include at least MATH 250, 260 and 311. Elective courses would ordinarily include MATH 261(W) and 313.

Minor

Except for mathematics majors planning to teach in elementary or secondary schools, majors in mathematics ordinarily take as a minor 12 approved credits in one of the following subjects: biological sciences, chemistry, computer science, economics, geology, philosophy (in particular, logic), physics, or statistics. However, other minors may also be approved. For students preparing to teach in elementary or secondary schools the education sequence as prescribed by the School of Education is taken in lieu of a minor.

Minor for Non-Majors

Non-majors wishing to minor in mathematics should consult their major adviser for appropriate course recommendations.

STATISTICS MAJOR

The study of statistics provides the student with analytical tools that may find application in various fields within the sciences and social sciences. Actuarial science is one area open to students in statistics who also have backgrounds in such subjects as computer science, mathematics and economics. The MA in statistics and applied mathematics offered by the department provides enrichment for undergraduate statistics majors. To enter the major the student must have completed MATH 150 and 155.

The statistics major consists of 32 credits as follows: MATH 250, MATH 254 or 250, 260, STAT 212, 213, 214, 311, 312, 313 and any additional 3-credit statistics, mathematics, or computer science courses approved by the undergraduate statistics adviser. Modifications are permitted with the consent of the statistics adviser. For example, a student may elect to replace STAT 212 with a more advanced course. With permission of the adviser, a student may take graduate courses in the MA in statistics and applied mathematics program.

Minor
Statistics majors take 12 approved credits as a minor in one of the following subjects: biological sciences, chemistry, computer science, economics, geology, mathematics, philosophy (in particular, logic), physics, political science, psychology or sociology. For information concerning approved minor sequences, students should consult the departmental adviser.

Minor for Non-Majors
Non-majors wishing to minor in statistics should consult their major adviser for appropriate course recommendations.

Actuarial Sequence
Students interested in actuarial work should take MATH 150, 155, 250, 260, STAT 311 and 313. Students are also encouraged to take courses in accounting, economics and computer science. For information concerning examinations and prizes given to undergraduates by the Society of Actuaries, consult the departmental adviser.

Preparation for Adolescence Education (Grades 7-12)
Students preparing to teach at this level may pursue Option 3, above. The 23-credit sequence in adolescence education can serve in place of the minor. Students interested in teaching grades 7-12 may also pursue a combined BA/MA program in teaching. This program requires a minimum of 141 credits. Approval for admission to this program requires completion of at least 45 credits with a GPA of 2.8 and completion of at least 10 credits in mathematics, including a year of calculus (MATH 150 and 155 or equivalent), with an average of 2.7 in these major courses.

The BA/MA program includes 46 credits in mathematics and 22-24 credits in teacher education courses. See the School of Education section in the undergraduate catalog for additional information on admission, progress standards and exit criteria. The required mathematics courses for the BA/MA in the teaching of mathematics are: MATH 150 and 155 (or the equivalent), 250, 260 and 311 (or the equivalent), 620, 623, 630, 661 and STAT 614 plus 12 additional credits at the 300 level or above, selected with the approval of the departmental adviser.

Preparation for Childhood Education (Grades 1-6)
Students preparing to teach in elementary schools may pursue Option 4, above. The specified collateral major is childhood education. No minor is required.

The Department of Music offers a wide variety of courses and degree programs tailored to the needs of students with different personal and professional objectives. Course offerings include a large selection of topics for both majors and non-majors covering many areas of music performance, theory, history, and literature. The BA degree can be completed evenings or days. In addition, the department sponsors numerous extracurricular events, including concerts, lectures, and master classes.

Private lessons in instruments and voice are provided to all performance majors and many other music majors by a distinguished roster of teachers of music performance. Financial aid is available to qualified performance majors and other majors who need to study with private teachers not on the staff.

Graduates of the department are active in classical and popular performance fields as singers, instrumentalists, and conductors. Concentration in music theory and composition can lead to career opportunities in orchestrating, choral or commercial arranging, film scoring, and music composing in contemporary and popular idioms. Concentration in music history paves the way for career opportunities in college teaching and musical scholarship, including such work as music journalism and criticism; lecturing; writing program and music-liner notes; editing, translating, and cataloging musical materials; and serving as a consultant to concert societies, opera houses, and publishers. Graduates of the BA/MA Degree in Education program are qualified to teach in the public elementary and high schools of New York State.

MAJOR PROGRAMS

The Department of Music offers three undergraduate and two BA/MA major programs to fit individual interests and requirements. Students must take three examinations before declaring a music major:

1. Music notation, rudimentary theory, and basic aural skills. This examination is prerequisite to MUSTH 220 (Music Theory I). Students who do not pass it must take MUSTH 101 (Basic Musicianship) or learn the material on their own, then repeat the examination.

2. Elementary music history and literature. This examination is prerequisite to MUSHL 205 (Music History I). Students who do not pass it must take MUSHL 101 (Introduction to Music) or learn the material on their own, then repeat the examination.

3. Performance audition on an instrument or voice. This examination is prerequisite to MUSPF 401 (Private Instruction in Instrument or Voice). Students whose performance skills fall below New York State School Music Association (NYSSMA) level 2, equivalent to about one year of study, must take MUSPF 211-212 (Voice I-II), MUSPF 213-214 (Piano I-II), or private lessons at their own expense (without credit), then repeat the examination. Students with no experience in performance may defer the audition until the end of their first semester of study.

Prospective majors should consult the Music Department's undergraduate adviser as soon as possible to discuss these examinations and any prerequisite courses they may need before beginning the major.

Piano Proficiency Requirement

All music majors must demonstrate elementary proficiency at the piano. Students should plan to fulfill this requirement during their first year of study. A passing grade on the piano proficiency examination is a prerequisite for the second year of study in music theory (MUSTH 222 and 292).

Students entering Hunter with limited keyboard background may take MUSPF 213-214 (Piano I and II) for elective credit or private lessons in piano at their own expense. The Music Department office has a list of recommended piano teachers.

25-Credit Major (BA)

This degree is designed for students who want to study music in the context of a general liberal arts education, but who do not plan to pursue careers in music. It may also be convenient for students who enter Hunter with a large number of transfer credits in music. Requirements are:

- Music history: MUSHL 201, 205, 206, 305, and one of the following: MUSHL 306, 352, or 353.
- Music theory: MUSHL 220, 221, 280, 281, 290, and 291.
- Performance: 2 credits in MUSPF 221 or 231.
- Allied minor: 12 credits in any field of study leading to a BA degree (other than music).

42-Credit Major (BA)

This degree is designed for students planning to pursue professional careers in music. It provides basic training in all areas of music and serves as a foundation for graduate study of any aspect of the field. Requirements are:

- Music history: MUSHL 201, 205, 206, 305, and one of the following: MUSHL 306, 352, or 353.
- Music theory: MUSHL 220, 221, 280, 281, 290, and 291.
- Performance: 2 credits in MUSPF 221 or 231.
- Piano: 42 credits in MUSPF 213-214 (Piano I and II).
- Allied minor: 12 credits in any field of study leading to a BA degree (other than music).

Performance: 2 credits in MUSPF 401; 2 credits in large ensembles (MUSPF 221 or 231); and 2 credits in performance electives (MUSPF 221, 231, 249, 251, 353, 355, 365, 369 or 401).

Electives: 3 credits in music courses above the 100 level.

60-Credit Major (BMus)

This degree is designed for students planning to pursue careers as professional performers of music or as teachers of music performance. It provides intensive instruction in the student's instrument or voice; solid training in music history and theory; and a broad, liberal arts education. Admission to this program is conditional on passing an audition (preferably before the student enters college) demonstrating a high level of skill in performance. Requirements are:

- Music history: MUSHL 201, 205, 206, 305, and one of the following: MUSHL 306, 352, or 353.
- Private lessons: 18 credits in MUSPF 431.
- Performance ensembles: For instrumentalists - 6 credits in instrumental ensembles (MUSPF 231, 249 or 353): for singers-MUSPF 368 and 5 credits in vocal ensembles (MUSPF 221, 251, 353 or 369) of which a minimum of 2 credits must be in MUSPF 369.
- Electives: 3 credits in music courses above the 100 level.
- Recital: A senior recital, for which no credit is given, is also required.

4-Year Dual BA/MA Degree

The department offers unusually gifted students the opportunity to obtain a master's degree in four years with a minimum of 120 credits. Requirements are the same as those for the 42-credit BA plus those for the MA in music (30 credits at the graduate level; see graduate catalog). Incoming freshmen should consult the undergraduate adviser to set up a curriculum appropriate to their individual backgrounds. In addition, the graduate adviser must be consulted about the MA requirements.

5- to 6-Year Dual BA/MA Degree in Teacher Education

Exceptionally qualified students may obtain a master's degree in teacher education in 5-6 years with a minimum of 140 credits. Requirements are the same as those for the 42-credit BA plus requirements for the MA degree in music teacher education (see graduate catalog). Matriculation is open to undergraduates with at least 50 credits who have a cumulative grade point average of 2.8 or better and a major subject index of at least 3.0. Students must have completed at least 24 credits of coursework in music, including at least two semesters of music history, four semesters of music theory, and two semesters of sight singing and ear training. At least 12 credits, including at least 6 credits in music major courses, must have been taken at Hunter College. Students must have passed the Music Department's piano proficiency examination, and they must demonstrate reasonable mastery of an instrument (which may be a keyboard instrument) or voice. They must be admitted to the program by both the Music Department and the School of Education. They must maintain the grade point averages required for admission at all times in order to remain in the program. See the School of Education section of both the undergraduate and graduate catalogs for more information.

Minor

For 25-credit music majors, the minor consists of 12 credits in a field of study leading to a BA degree and approved by the Music Department adviser. Double-majors and students in other music major programs are exempt from the minor requirement. Minor courses can be used without limit to satisfy stages 1, 2, and 3 of the GER.

Minor for non-Majors

For students minoring in music, the requirements are determined by the student's major department. See your major adviser. The Music department recommends the following courses: MUSTH 101 or MUSTH 220 and 290; MUSHL 101 or MUSHL 107; one course with an MUSHL prefix at the 200-level; and 2-3 credits of music electives. Because 300-level courses are intended primarily for music majors and have extensive prerequisites, students whose major departments require a 300-level course in the minor may, with permission of their adviser, substitute a 200-level course in the music minor.

Grading Policies

Students must have grades of C or better in all prerequisite courses in order to take courses that are required for the major. The grade of CR may not be elected in major courses. In accordance with Hunter College policy, a course may not be taken more than twice without permission of the department.

Honors

To qualify for departmental honors in music, a student must have a 3.5 grade point average in major courses and complete an honors project, taken under the course number MUSTH 491 or 492. The project, which must be approved in advance by the Policy Committee, may be a research paper on a historical, theoretical, or other topic; an original composition; or a recital. All projects should demonstrate an advanced level, a broad scope, and a high quality, and must be done under the supervision of a faculty member of the Music Department.

Graduate Study

Seniors of high academic standing who are recommended by the department may be permitted to take graduate courses for undergraduate credit. Seniors within 9 credits of graduation may apply to the Admissions Office for permission to take graduate courses creditable toward the MA degree.

Philosophy studies the most fundamental questions that human beings ask — about individual and social action, the possibility and limits of knowledge, the truth and justification of beliefs, human nature and freedom, the existence of God and the operations of nature. Philosophy approaches these questions in a systematic way and philosophers have worked out more or less comprehensive theories to answer them (or show why they cannot be answered). The courses offered by the Philosophy Department are designed to introduce students to the main problems that philosophers study and to the main ideas of such profound and influential thinkers as Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, Augustine, Aquinas, Descartes, Hume and Kant.

Philosophy is one of the most important subjects a student can study because it develops the ability to reason clearly and critically, to write thoughtfully, to use intelligence and logic to deal with problems all too often ruled by emotion and prejudice. Philosophy also helps one develop intellectual flexibility and learn to appreciate ideas and beliefs other than those of one's own time, place, class or group. Since it develops these intellectual abilities and habits, the study of philosophy, either in individual courses or as a major or minor, is excellent preparation for any profession or occupation.

Students of philosophy pursue careers in law, business, medicine, government and the arts. Some go on to study philosophy at the graduate level with the aim either of teaching philosophy or of obtaining an advanced degree to further their career objectives.

Recommended GER

Courses for Philosophy Majors

In general, students should follow their interests in selecting courses to satisfy the GER. However, some courses are recommended for philosophy majors satisfying the requirement.

In satisfying Stage 2, Group B (social science), courses in history are particularly appropriate — for instance, HIST 201 for those interested in ancient philosophy, or HIST 121 or 122 for those interested in modern philosophy. In addition, since research in psychology and anthropology is frequently relevant to issues in contemporary philosophy, courses such as PSYCH 100 or ANTHC 101 are recommended.

Prospective majors should note that all of the courses that are prerequisites for the major (PHILO 101, 103, 104, 106, 203, 204) also satisfy the Stage 2, Group C (humanities) requirement. In satisfying Stage 2, Group D (natural science), courses in physics or biological sciences are particularly appropriate especially PHYS 101 or, for those students with the relevant prerequisites, PHYS 110 and 111 or BIOL 100 and 102. In addition, SCI 101 and 102 may also be a good way to fulfill this requirement, particularly for those who are intending to become teachers.

While a number of courses in philosophy may be used to satisfy the Stage 3, Groups A or B requirements, these may not count toward the philosophy major and so must be taken in addition to courses that satisfy major requirements. Philosophy majors should note that a large number of courses offered by the department are W courses and can therefore be counted toward that requirement. While any foreign language offered at Hunter College can be used to fulfill the requirement, languages particularly appropriate for philosophy majors are German, Greek, French, Latin and, to a lesser extent, Chinese.

In fulfilling the pluralism and diversity requirement, philosophy majors should note the following courses in the department that meet this requirement: PHILO 219 for Group A, PHILO 226 for Group B, PHILO 216 and 230 for Group C and PHILO 106, 201, 203, 204, 212, 214, 215, 218, 220, 225 and 228 for Group D.

Program Prerequisites

One of the following courses constitutes an appropriate first course in philosophy, as well as serving as a prerequisite for 200-level (or higher where specified courses) that are required for the philosophy major: PHILO 101, 103, 104, 106, 203, 204.

Note: none of these courses count toward the major requirements, though any one is a prerequisite for declaring a major.

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

30 cr. distributed as follows:

1. 3 cr. in logic: PHILO 171
2. 9 cr. in history of philosophy: PHILO 212, 215 and 218
3. 3 cr. in ethics, politics and aesthetics: any course from PHILO 244, 246, or 258
4. 3 cr. in metaphysics and epistemology: any course from PHILO 360, 362, 364, 366, or 379
5. 3 cr. in the intensive study of a major philosopher: any course from PHILO 380, 381, 383, 384, 386, 387, 388, or 389
6. 9 additional cr. chosen in consultation with the adviser. Students are required to select at least one course (3 cr.) at the 300-level. Also they are encouraged to select courses that acquaint them with philosophic traditions other than the dominant Western ones.
Minor
A philosophy major is permitted to minor in all programs leading to the BA degree that the college offers. The minor may include only 3 credits at the 100 level and must include at least 6 credits at the 200 level. Exceptions may be made with the permission of a Philosophy department advisor. Double majors are also permitted. Students fulfilling the requirements of both the philosophy major and another separate major are released from the requirement of completing a minor by the Philosophy Department.

Recommended Minors for Philosophy Majors
While any minor offered at Hunter College is acceptable for philosophy majors, certain minors may be more appropriate for students with particular philosophical interests, especially those considering graduate study in philosophy.

For students with historical interests, a minor in a language in which there is a substantial philosophical literature is appropriate. In particular, Greek or German. Latin, French, or Chinese may also be appropriate minors in cases of students with special interests.

For students with interests in politics, ethics, or aesthetics, minors in fields that devote considerable attention to the study of values (such as History, Africana & Puerto Rican/Latino Studies, English, Women's Studies, Art, Latin American & Caribbean Studies or Music) are appropriate.

For students with interests in ontology, epistemology, or logic, a minor in one of the sciences is appropriate. In particular, Psychology, Physics, Mathematics. Anthropology or Biological Sciences may also be appropriate minors in cases of students with special interests.

Recommended Philosophy Minor Courses for Other Majors
Students should consult with their major department adviser in the selection of a minor. Students majoring in foreign languages and cultures who minor in philosophy should take courses on philosophers writing in the language of the major—for example, for Greek majors, PHILO 212, 380, 381; for German majors, PHILO 218, 384, 386, 387, 389; etc. Students majoring in English or fine arts fields should take historical courses that include the substantial study of values, such as PHILO 212 and/or 218, as well as courses dealing directly with problems of ethics or aesthetics, such as PHILO 244, 256 and 258. (In addition, English majors should consider taking courses that include substantial study of English or American philosophers, such as PHILO 215, 225 and/or 383.) Students majoring in history or social studies fields should take historical courses related to their area of interest (for example, PHILO 212 for ancient history or PHILO 218 for late modern European history), as well as courses dealing directly with problems of politics and society, such as PHILO 246, 248 and 250. Students majoring in the sciences should take courses in logic (PHILO 171, 275, 279, 375), as well as courses directly related to their major field—for example, PHILO 268 and 366 for Psychology, PHILO 270 and 379 for Physics, or PHILO 376 for Mathematics.

Major Adviser
Philosophy majors must consult with one of several department advisers to review their course of study and progress toward the degree each semester. A semester by semester consultation with a department adviser makes it easier for philosophy majors to complete as coherently as possible all college and major requirements in a timely fashion.

Mentoring
Philosophy majors are encouraged to establish a relationship with a faculty mentor of their choice. This relationship can be distinct from the departmental advising relationship.

Honors
To be eligible for graduation with departmental honors in philosophy, a major must have at least a 3.50 GPA in philosophy, at least a 3.0 overall GPA. The student must register for the 3- or 6-credit PHILO 494, which is taken in addition to and is not part of the 30 credits for the major. The student must write a substantial paper under the direction of a full-time faculty member. Both the faculty member under whose direction the student is working and the departmental Honors Committee will judge this honors essay.

Independent Study
Students may engage in independent study under the supervision of a member of the Philosophy Department by receiving permission to take PHILO 492.

Physics is the study of the basic interactions that govern the behavior of the universe as we know it. As such, a knowledge of physics is necessary for the proper understanding of any science, and, of course, it is an exciting field of study in its own right.

The department offers comprehensive training in physics that can lead to a teaching position in grades 7-12; industrial, institutional and government work; and graduate study. The major includes lecture courses, laboratory courses, and a chance for qualified students to participate in research with faculty members.

Graduate Study
The Department of Physics and Astronomy offers a number of advanced courses, listed in the Graduate Catalog, which give credit toward the degree of master of arts. Qualified undergraduate students may be admitted to these courses with the approval of the department chair.

Accelerated BA/MA Program in Physics
This special program for a limited number of well-qualified students leads to a bachelor of arts and a master of arts degree. Students are offered the opportunity quickly to reach a level where they can stand in competition for admission into any doctoral program in physics. The program requires 124-126 credits (including the 30 credits required for a physics major BA degree and 30 credits from the graduate curriculum). Because this program requires a large number of physics courses, many of which have other physics courses as prerequisites, students in this program should begin taking physics courses in their first or second semester. Students should consult the department chair, undergraduate adviser or graduate adviser for details as early as possible.

Dual degrees BA/BS in physics and engineering are proposed for the near future; contact the pre-engineering adviser.

Physics for Non-Physics Majors
A minimum of one year of physics is recommended for all majors in sciences and health sciences.

Medical and dental schools also require one year of physics. Students requiring one year of physics may take either the PHYS 110-120 sequence (9 cr) or the PHYS 111-121 sequence (11 cr). Although both sequences cover the same topics, PHYS 111-121 utilizes elementary calculus and meets for one additional lecture hour each week. It is recommended for science students and those premed students who satisfy the mathematics pre- or corequisite. PHYS 101 (4 cr) should be taken only by those who want a one-semester terminal course in physics; it does not satisfy pre-professional requirements. Students should take no more than one first-semester course (PHYS 101, 110, 111) and no more than one second-semester course (PHYS 120, 121) since they may receive credit for no more than one course from each group.

The major consists of 8 credits of introductory physics courses and a 22-credit concentration in physics courses at the 200 level and higher. Additionally, 15-24 credits of allied courses (mathematics and chemistry) are also required. Together, the introductory physics and the Option 1 concentration (30 credit total) satisfy the major requirement for certification as a teacher of physics in grades 7-12. Option 1, together with the MA (see the Accelerated BA/MA Program in Physics), is recommended for students planning to pursue a PhD in physics. Option 2 is recommended for those interested in a career in the telecommunications industry, as it includes a foundation in lasers and fiber optics. Eight (8) credits of introductory physics are required, with PHYS 111-121 recommended. PHYS 110-120 may be taken instead. No more than 8 credits toward the major can be obtained from these courses. It is recommended that PHYS 190 be taken if the PHYS 110-120 sequence is taken instead of the PHYS 111-121 sequence. MATH 150, 155, 250, and 254 (15 cr) are required of all physics majors in addition to one year of high school chemistry or college chemistry.

Concentration in Physics

Four intermediate-level lecture courses (16 cr), PHYS 221, 330, 334, and 335, must be taken in addition to the lab course PHYS 222 (2 cr). Also, one of two options below is necessary:

Option 1
For students in the BA/MA program, students intending to teach grades 7-12, and students intending to enter the medical profession. Two physics laboratory courses (4 cr), PHYS 230 and 235, are required.

Option 2
(Laser and Fiber Optics Concentration) All four courses of the sequence PHYS 231, 232, 233, and 234 are required. No more than 4 credits of the sequence PHYS 231-234 may be used toward the major.

Minor

12 credits in biological sciences, chemistry, computer science, geology, mathematics, or another approved department or program that leads to a BA degree and is selected after conference with the major adviser. For students planning to become physics teachers at the secondary level the 23-credit sequence in secondary education constitutes an appropriate minor.

Minor for Non-Majors

Students choosing to minor in physics should consult their major department adviser for appropriate course recommendations. Faculty from the physics and astronomy department will be pleased to help in the selection of courses for the minor in physics and astronomy.

Preparation for Teaching

The major in physics satisfies the requirements for NY State initial certification of at least 30 credits for teachers in adolescence education: physics (grades 7-12). Students preparing to teach physics are advised to include the following courses or their equivalents in their undergraduate program: MATH 254; CHEM 102, 103, 104, 105; ASTRO 100; GEOL 101; and BIOL 100. See the School of Education section of this catalog for additional requirements and consult with an adviser in the School of Education.

Honors Work

The opportunity for students to do individual research (experimental or theoretical) is offered in courses PHYS 453 and 454.

Articulation Agreement for Queensborough AAS Degree in Laser Technology

An articulation agreement is in place for place for AAS graduates from Queensborough Community College with a degree in Laser Technology. Consult the Physics department for further information.

Pre-Engineering Program

The college offers courses that will prepare the student in the first two years of study to pursue a career in engineering. Students planning to go into engineering should consult the pre-engineering adviser during preadmission conference days and also at least once each semester.

This program is directed toward the degree of bachelor of science in engineering. The courses offered are chosen so that students will have satisfied their first two years’ requirement if they transfer to another college for their final two years.

Those students planning to go to an engineering school other than City College should see the pre-engineering adviser to work out a program suitable to their needs.

If, by the end of the fourth semester, students decide not to continue their engineering degree and to remain at Hunter College, they become subject to the same requirements as other Hunter College students. Many of the courses taken in the pre-engineering program may be used to satisfy these requirements.

The following courses comprise the pre-engineering curriculum:

Political science deals with the various political, social and cultural arrangements through which people govern their lives. It attempts to interpret the past and explain the present and often dares to draw images of the future. As a field of study, it reaches to many levels, from the evolution of political philosophy and the character of contemporary political concepts to the problems of development in emerging nations, from the crisis of urban government in America to the interaction of peoples and states in the international arena. In short, its centers of interest are broad and diverse.

Many people think of politics in terms of political parties and voting. Political science is interested in both of these subjects, but it is also interested in many other areas. Students will find courses on the ideas of great thinkers from Plato to the present, the problems of cities, war and peace, democracy and utopia, democratic and authoritarian political systems, international political economy, human rights, women and politics, American politics, the domestic and foreign policies of the United States and countries in Latin America, Europe, Asia, Africa and other regions.

A large number of political science majors choose some branch of public service upon completing their bachelor's degrees. Some go into teaching. Others enter business. Some work in journalism. Still others enter politics or go on to law school or graduate training.

Political science, therefore, prepares students for a variety of career opportunities as well as for a lifetime of active citizenship.

Writing Corequisites and Prerequisites

Introductory, intermediate and advanced political science courses require significant expository writing and ENGL 120 as a co- or prerequisite. To assure that students are ready for these courses, they should be enrolled in ENGL 120 (or its equivalent) or have successfully completed the course. For all 100-level courses, ENGL 120 (or its equivalent) is a prerequisite or corequisite; for all 200-level, 300-level and 400-level courses, ENGL 120 (or its equivalent) is a prerequisite.

(24 cr)

Majors are required to take at least one course in each of the four following subfields of the discipline: American government, political theory, comparative politics and international relations. We do not recommend that students take more than two introductory courses. Students may distribute their remaining courses in the major as they see fit. However, students contemplating graduate work are encouraged to specialize appropriately in consultation with the department's faculty members. One political science course used to satisfy Stage 1 and one political science course used to satisfy Stage 2 of the Core Requirement of the GER may also be used to satisfy the major requirement. Majors may not use a political science course to satisfy Stage 3, unless they have a double-major. For students who entered under the Distribution Requirement, one political science course used to satisfy the Distribution Requirement in the social sciences may also be used to satisfy the major requirement.

Majors must complete at least one course at the 300 level or above in any subfield (effective for students declaring the major after January 1, 1998). No more than 6 credits in internships (POLSC 411, 412, 413, 414, 498) may be used toward the major. While students are entitled to take all four 100-level courses offered by the department, we do not recommend that a student apply more than two 100-level courses to the major. Courses taken for Credit/No Credit may not be applied toward the major.

Minor

The minor consists of 12 credits in one or two other programs leading to a BA degree, in areas related to the major. Credits satisfying Stage 1, 2 or 3 of the Core Requirement or the Pluralism and Diversity Requirement can also be counted toward the minor. The minor must be approved by the Department of Political Science.

Minor for Non-Majors

Students considering a minor in political science should consult their major adviser. Advisers from the political science department would be pleased to assist students in selecting appropriate courses. The department welcomes political science minors who are contemplating careers in law or public service.

Interdepartmental Fields

Political Science department faculty are actively involved in many interdisciplinary programs at Hunter College. Students who want to do work in political science as part of the interdepartmental programs in Latin American and Caribbean Studies, Women's Studies, Asian American Studies, Russian and East Central European Studies and Jewish Social Studies should refer to the appropriate descriptions in this catalog.

Preparation for Law

A substantial number of majors in political science intend to go on to law school. For information on law school requirements and on relevant courses in political science as well as in other departments, students should read the departmental brochure, "Frequently Asked Questions about Law School,” and consult the pre-law adviser.

Honors

In order to graduate with honors in political science, a student must have a 3.5 GPA in the political science major and a college-wide cumulative index of at least 3.0 and must also complete a major paper of approximately 25 pages in length that reflects serious scholarship in a 300- or 400-level political science course or an honors course (POLSC 492). Students are encouraged to enroll in POLSC 492 in order to conduct a significant independent research project or to revise a term paper or similar project begun in a political science course in a previous semester. As a general rule, a student who takes POLSC 492 must be supervised by a full-time faculty member with whom the student has done prior coursework and who has agreed to supervise the student's honors project. Thus, students seeking to graduate with departmental honors should begin to plan the sequence of honors work at least two semesters in advance of their expected graduation date.

Seminar/Internship Program in New York Government

This university-wide program is designed to bridge the gap between academic study and the practical world of government. Each year approximately 300 students are selected as CUNY interns. Hunter College students participate by enrolling in POLSC 411 and 412. Interns spend eight to ten hours a week in agencies, political offices or community groups working on administrative or research assignments related to urban affairs and services. They attend a weekly classroom seminar at Hunter and monthly meetings of the entire program at the Graduate School and University Center. Prominent government officials, political leaders, community representatives and academic experts participate in both the weekly and monthly meetings. Students are advised to have taken prior coursework in American politics and to have at least a 3.0 GPA prior to being admitted to this program. For further information, consult the Department of Political Science.

Students may also arrange for internships in international relations as an independent study by enrolling in POLSC 498. Up to 6 credits in internship work (POLSC 411, 412, 413, 414, or 498) may be used to satisfy requirements for the major. As a general rule, a student who takes POLSC 498 must be supervised by a full-time faculty member with whom the student has done prior coursework and who has agreed to supervise the student's internship. Additional internship credits may be used as electives toward graduation.

Preparation for Graduate Study

Many political science majors go on to graduate study. Students considering graduate work should consult members of the political science faculty.

Awards and Prizes

The Political Science Department confers recognition on its outstanding graduates through prizes and awards: The Katherine Duffy Prize and The Edgar Dawson Prize presented annually to graduating political science majors and The David E. Haight Memorial Award, a substantial fellowship to enable a graduating political science major to pursue graduate studies in political science.

Scholarships The Political Science Department may award the Joan Pincus Scholarship to students majoring in political science who have achieved at least sophomore status, have an excellent academic record and have demonstrated financial need. For additional information, see the department chair or the departmental adviser.

E-mail List

The department operates an e-mail list, POLSCI-L, to disseminate news of interest to students and faculty in political science—including news of job and internship opportunities and announcements of special events, financial aid opportunities, political developments and similar matters. To subscribe, send the message: Subscribe POLSCI-L to: majoromo@hunter.cuny.edu

Computer and Study Facilities

The department has established a computer facility with a student study area in 1729 Hunter West. Political science students are encouraged to use the study area and to join the political science student association, which also is based in 1729 Hunter West.

Students matriculated fall 2001 or later must take three courses with a significant writing component as part of the General Education Requirement at Hunter College. Political science courses that meet the writing requirement (as of spring 2004) have a "W" designation. All 200- or 300-level political science courses satisfy the Focused Exposure/Stage 3, Group B requirement. Check with the department for an up-to-date list of "W"-designated courses. Also, some 300-level courses are occasionally conducted as seminars. Consult the department website or office for offerings each semester.

Psychology is concerned with all aspects of the study of behavioral, developmental and cognitive processes and employs a broad spectrum of approaches, from the social to the biological, to understand them. The Hunter College psychology program reflects the diversity of psychology as a science and a profession. Course offerings range from clinical, social and developmental psychology to experimental psychology, ethnology, biopsychology and behavioral neuroscience.

Although Psychology is a large department, students have personal contact with faculty members through an extensive advisement system, involvement in departmental activities and committees, supervised field placement and participation in research laboratories under the guidance of faculty mentors as part of our independent study, honors, COR (Career Opportunities in Research and Education) and MBRS-RISE (Minority Biomedical Research Support) programs.

A broad range of applied and research opportunities are available within the department in developmental psychology, social psychology, human adjustment, animal behavior, physiological psychology and abnormal psychology. Departmental affiliations with mental health and community organizations make it possible for students to integrate their academic studies of personality, abnormal and child psychology with supervised practical experience by means of field placements and opportunities for applied research.

The faculty and facilities of the CUNY doctoral program in biopsychology are an integral part of the Hunter College psychology program. Our doctoral program in biopsychology and our master’s program in general psychology provide course concentrations in a number of different areas within psychology and offer our undergraduate students research and other opportunities to interact with graduate students. Qualified students in their last semester may be admitted to graduate courses with the approval of the instructor and the department’s graduate adviser.

The psychology major, as part of the bachelor’s degree program, prepares the student for many career possibilities in psychology, education, social and welfare services, health services and industry and fulfills the course requirements for entering most psychology graduate programs. A background in psychology combined with special training in other disciplines within the college may be especially useful in preparing for careers in human resources, nursing, speech pathology, social work, special education, counseling and music, art and dance therapy. Our Undergraduate Psychology Advising Resource Library (on reserve, 2nd floor, Hunter’s main library at the 68th Street campus, under “PSYCH ADV”) and our undergraduate and graduate advisers provide students with additional guidance and information regarding career opportunities and graduate study.

Special Programs

The COR Program (Career Opportunities in Research and Education) The departments of psychology, anthropology and sociology jointly offer a program called COR (Career Opportunities in Research and Education). This interdisciplinary research training program for academically talented minority juniors and seniors is funded by the National Institute of Mental Health. Participants receive a monthly stipend and are granted tuition and fee remission. Students take a special curriculum and get individualized research training in a variety of areas under the supervision of a faculty mentor. The program has several levels of participation and underrepresented minority students, especially sophomores, intending to pursue a research-related career in the participating disciplines are urged to apply to the program. Additional details and descriptive literature are available from the COR program director, Professor Vanya Quiñones-Jenab (jenab@genecr.hunter.cuny.edu, (212)772-4640), or Carlotta Stephens, program manager (cstephe@hunter.cuny.edu, (212) 772-4562).

Field Placement Program Offered for one semester (PSYCH 306) or as a 2-semester sequence, Psychological Services I and II (PSYCH 306 and 307) give enrolled students practical supervised career experience one day per week in an approved mental health or community service setting in conjunction with a class that meets once each week. Students may also gain field experience in conjunction with academic work through Independent Study (PSYCH 201) with a faculty sponsor and through Peer Advising in Psychology (PSYCH 295). Permission of the instructor is required for these courses and students should start making arrangements by the middle of the term before they plan to take the course (e.g., mid-spring for the fall term). The undergraduate adviser can inform students of the instructor who will be teaching PSYCH 295, 306 and 307, for which field placement referrals are made by the instructor. Students wishing to take PSYCH 201 in conjunction with a field experience should meet with the college internship coordinator (by appointment in Career Development, 805 Hunter East) and with prospective faculty sponsors.
Exemptions
A student may be exempt from PSYCH 100 by earning a score of 4 or 5 on the Advanced Placement Test in Psychology or passing the CLEP examination (College Level Examination Program). Exemption from Child Psychology (PSYCH 210) may be earned by a passing grade on the CLEP examination in Developmental Psychology. CLEP examinations are given at various testing centers. Interested students can obtain information and application forms at collegeboard.com/clep or by contacting the Office of Student Services. A passing grade on either CLEP examination provides 3 credits. Information on exemption from the mathematics course requirement and on test administration is available from the Testing Center, North 150 (http://admissions.hunter.cuny.edu/testing.htm).

THE PSYCHOLOGY MAJOR
Preparation
The psychology major is designed to provide students with training in both the evaluation and the generation of research data. For this reason, the core sequence of Psychological Statistics (PSYCH 248) and Experimental Psychology (PSYCH 249 or 250) is central to the program and is a prerequisite for all upper-level psychology courses.
Performance in the Psychological Statistics/Experimental Psychology sequence will be greatly facilitated by proper preparation in mathematics and laboratory science and the development of excellent writing skills.

Course of Study
Completion of ENGL 120 prior to declaration of the major in psychology is strongly recommended. Until it is completed, a student may not enroll in any course numbered above PSYCH 248. ENGL 120 is a prerequisite to all 200-level courses below PSYCH 249. Students whose career goals include graduate work in psychology, social work, or counseling should take PSYCH 201 (Independent Study), PSYCH 295 (Peer Advising), PSYCH 306/307 (Seminar in Psychological Services), PSYCH 395 (Independent Research), or PSYCH 396/398 (Honors in Psychology), as appropriate. Note that each may be used only once to satisfy major requirements.
We recommend that all prospective majors see an undergraduate psychology advisor for assistance in program planning and that the major be declared as soon as possible. Majors are encouraged to discuss their program of study and their plans regularly with the advisor and with faculty in their respective areas of interest. The courses selected to fulfill the major requirements will vary with the student’s career objectives.

Declaration of Major
To declare a psychology major, the student must have completed any 100-level psychology course with a minimum grade of B, a required mathematics course with a minimum grade of C or CR and have a minimum GPA of 2.00. The mathematics requirement may be satisfied by STAT 113 or MATH 125, or by earning exemption from the mathematics requirement. The major must be declared in person with an undergraduate psychology advisor. (Call (212) 772-5568 for schedule.) The student must bring his/her Hunter transcript (and where relevant, transcripts from all other colleges attended) when meeting with the advisor to declare a psychology major.

Psychology Major
The major consists of 26 credits in psychology above the 100 level, including Statistical Methods in Psychology (PSYCH 248) and Experimental Social Psychology (PSYCH 249) or General Experimental Psychology (PSYCH 250). The major also requires at least one course in each of the following content areas: applications of psychology; biopsychology; cognitive processes; and developmental/social psychology. (If a course meets requirements for more than one content area, the student may apply the course to only one of them.) All of the content-area courses must be at or above the 200 level and at least 2 of the content-area courses must be at or above the 400 level. Two additional (elective) courses in psychology, at the 200 level or higher, must be completed. Two-semesters of laboratory science must also be completed. (See the Science Requirement for Graduation below.)
Qualified undergraduates in their last semester may register for graduate-level psychology courses with the permission of the instructor and the graduate adviser. Most psychology majors intending to attend graduate school take more than the minimum 26 credits in psychology and design their course of study in close consultation with a faculty mentor. Students should obtain a copy of “Psychology Major Requirements and Policies” from the undergraduate advising office and subscribe to psych-l, the Department’s automatic e-mail announcement service (listserv), as soon as they declare the major, for up-to-date information on department resources, activities and faculty research interests.
Beginning in the spring 1998 semester, psychology courses taken on a Credit/No Credit basis may not be applied toward the major; PSYCH 248, 249 and 250 may not be taken on a Credit/No Credit basis.

Courses Taken on Permit and Courses Transferred into Hunter
Once the psychology major is declared, students may not take any psychology course that they wish to count toward the major on permit at another college. In contrast, psychology courses that were taken before the student enrolled at Hunter and that are deemed equivalent to a Hunter College course may count toward the major. The assessment of course equivalence is made by the Office of Admissions and by the undergraduate psychology advising office.

Prerequisites
Course prerequisites are strictly enforced. Students are responsible for meeting all course prerequisites, including satisfactory completion of courses in progress at the time of enrollment. Students enrolling in courses without necessary prerequisites will be dropped from the class by the registrar.
The department screens for prerequisites and students may be dropped after the course begins. (See specific prerequisites for each course in Course Listings section, which follows.)

Prerequisites for PSYCH 248 (Statistical Methods in Psychological Research) All students must have received at least a C or CR in STAT 113 or MATH 125 or earned mathematics exemption and must have declared psychology as their major in the Psychology Department Advising Office at Hunter.

Prerequisites for PSYCH 249 (Experimental Psychology: Social) and PSYCH 250 (Experimental Psychology: General) All students must be declared Psychology majors and have passed ENGL 120 with C or higher, STAT 113 or MATH 125 with C or higher (or earned mathematics exemption) and 1 semester of laboratory science (see Science Requirement for Graduation, below).

Science Requirement for Graduation
In order to graduate, psychology majors must have completed two semesters in laboratory science approved by the department. Students must take at least one semester of laboratory science before taking PSYCH 249 or 250. Students may complete the laboratory science courses at any point in their studies, and the courses need not be taken in sequence. The science requirement may be met by any of the following courses, all of which meet the General Education Requirement Stage 2E, Laboratory Science, requirement: ANTHP 101; ANTHP 102; BIOL 102; BIOL 120; BIOL 122; CHEM 100/101; CHEM 102/103; CHEM 104/105; CHEM 111; CHEM 120/121/SCIENCE 120/121; GEOL 101; GEOG 102; PGEOG 130; PGEOG 231; PHYS 110; PHYS 120; SCI 101; SCI 102.
Note: Students who declared a psychology major before January 1, 1998 are exempt from the science requirement within the Department of Psychology. For transfer students, the laboratory science requirement may be met by courses taken at previous institutions only if they have been assigned the Hunter College course numbers in the above list. Transfer students should check with the psychology adviser after their courses have been formally evaluated by Hunter College to determine whether the science requirement has been met.

Minor
All psychology majors must complete a minor in a department or program leading to a BA degree. The choice of minor depends on individual goals, interests and skills. Students are encouraged to discuss their choice of minor with the psychology adviser and with faculty mentors. For most subjects, the minor is a minimum of four courses and 12 credits. For foreign-language, laboratory-science and English minors, there are specific requirements for which students should consult the psychology adviser.

Minor for Non-Majors
Students choosing to minor in Psychology should consult their major department adviser for appropriate course recommendations.

In the program in Religion, students examine the nature of religion and the forms its various expressions have taken. Religion is studied as an academic discipline and the program's approach reflects no doctrinal bias. The purposes of the program are to introduce the field of religion in general; to present the thoughts, documents and history of major religious traditions (both Eastern and Western, ancient and modern, missionary and tribal); and to give students insight into specific religious issues and thinkers.

The program in Religion consists of a series of core courses taught by specialists in the field, augmented by other religion courses offered by faculty in 10 participating departments or divisions: Anthropology, Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino Studies, Chinese, Classics, English, Geography, Hebrew, History, Philosophy and Sociology.

The program is divided into five categories of courses: Introduction to the field of religion (basic introductory courses); Theoretical studies in religion (courses focusing on different methodological approaches to the study of religion); Issues in religion (courses dealing with religious experience, faith, ethics, religion and the arts); Religious traditions (courses in major religious traditions); Related courses.

MAJOR

Students interested in a minor in Russian and Slavic studies should consult their major department adviser. Faculty from the division would be pleased to assist in the selection of appropriate courses.

PREPARATION FOR TEACHING IN GRADES 7-12

In cooperation with the School of Education, the program in Russian provides opportunities for students to prepare for a career in teaching Russian in grades 7-12. Students preparing to teach Russian must complete a 33-credit major option for teaching that includes the 24-credit sequence taken by non-teaching majors plus 9 additional credits: RUSS 399 and 6 additional credits in Russian language and literature at the 300 or 400 level. Students interested in teaching Russian in New York schools may count the 23-credit pedagogical sequence for grades 7-12 as a minor.

This minor may count toward the course requirements for New York State Certification, but will not by itself be sufficient for certification. A major in sociology provides the undergraduate with the opportunity to gain a distinct intellectual perspective and a method of inquiry. By continually testing conventional wisdom against evidence, the study of sociology encourages the development of critical judgment. By routinely considering the matrix of social and cultural facts, such study can lead students to an understanding of the conditions under which social facts emerge, and the consequences they have for individuals, groups, societies and social institutions. It can also help students better understand their own roles in the array of social institutions in which they are entwined.

In addition to providing a foundation for the student who desires to pursue advanced study in sociology, a major in sociology can help to prepare students for many careers: social research, marketing, media, and other fields in the private sectors, as well as law, civil service and public policy, social work, the health professions, personnel work and other human-service areas.

Majors are encouraged to develop skills in observation, interviewing, and other data-collection techniques; data processing; statistical and content analysis; and trend analysis — all marketable skills in many career lines.

MAJOR

The department recommends a GPA of at least 2.4 when declaring the major. Prospective majors should also have already taken several sociology courses at Hunter. In addition to SOC 101 (Introduction to Sociology), the sociology major consists of 27 credits. Six of these credits must include SOC 240 (Introduction to Research Methods) and 241 (Statistics). Six credits must be in SOC 221 (Classical Sociological Theory) and SOC 223 (Current Sociological Theory). Of the remaining 15 credits, at least 6 must be in courses at the 300 level or above. No more than 3 credits from SOC 331/332 (Field Placement in Social Work Agencies), SOC 371/372 (Independent Study), SOC 471/472 (Honors Independent Study) and SOC 498 (Internship) may be used to satisfy this requirement.

Minor

The minor consists of 12 credits in one department or program leading to a BA degree. No split minors are allowed.

Minor for other Majors

Students choosing to minor in sociology should consult their major adviser and a sociology adviser to determine their selection of courses.

Five-Year BA/MS Program

For a limited number of qualified students, the department offers an accelerated five-year program leading to a BA in sociology and an MS in social research. The program requires a total of 145 credits of college work (100 undergraduate, 45 graduate), one semester of supervised field experience, and a research paper. In order to be admitted to the program, students must complete their basic requirements, pass an honors course (independent study or honors seminar), and meet the requirements of the MS program as outlined in the graduate catalog. Undergraduate students are typically admitted to the program toward the end of their junior year and begin their graduate work at the beginning of their senior year. Interested students should consult the program's adviser at the earliest possible date.

Bachelor of Science in Social Research Program (BSSR)

*The department is developing a new 45-credit interdisciplinary major that prepares students for careers in applied social research. Apart from introductory course work, students majoring in social research must take: 9 credits in theory; 18 credits in statistics, research methods, and related workshops; 6 credits in applied anthropology and psychology; and pass a 6-credit internship. This program combines the depth of liberal arts education with a rigorous training in research methods and off-campus internships in the private and public sectors. Students majoring in social research will be taking courses in the departments of sociology, anthropology and psychology. There is no minor requirement.

Subject to the necessary approvals, the Sociology Department hopes to commence operation of the BSSR Program during the 2005-2006 academic year. For more information, contact the undergraduate sociology adviser.

The COR Program
The departments of psychology, anthropology, and sociology jointly offer a program called COR (Career Opportunities in Research and Education). This interdisciplinary research training program for talented minority juniors and seniors is funded by the National Institute of Mental Health. Participants receive a monthly stipend, tuition and fee remittance; they take a special curriculum, and get individualized research training in a variety of areas under the supervision of a faculty mentor. The program has several levels of participation, and all minority students — especially freshmen and sophomores — intending to pursue a research-related career in the participating disciplines are urged to register with the program. Additional details and descriptive literature are available from the COR program advisor.

Independent Study
Students may pursue independent study through SOC 371 and 372 or SOC 471 and 472 (Honors Independent Study). These options allow students to initiate and carry out a course of study of their own choosing under the guidance of a faculty sponsor. Students should have a topic and a general plan of study in mind before seeking faculty sponsorship, though students can discuss independent study options with the advisers. Academic sponsors must be full-time members of the faculty.

Honors
In order to graduate with departmental honors in sociology, students must have a 3.0 GPA overall and a 3.5 GPA in sociology; at least 21 of the credits toward the major should have been courses taken at Hunter College. Students must complete either an Honors Seminar (SOC 473 or 474) or an Honors Independent Study (SOC 471 or 472). Students whose GPAs are within this range are urged to consult their adviser before planning senior-year programs of study, since honors seminars are generally offered only once per year, usually in the fall semester. In addition, students qualifying for departmental honors are eligible for membership in Alpha Kappa Delta, the International Sociology Honor Society. See adviser for more information.

Internships
Provided students secure approval of a full-time faculty member, internships can be carried out for 3 to 6 credits in the areas of marketing, media, and politics, with other areas to be added.

Awards
The Department of Sociology offers two prestigious awards to outstanding students in sociology and applied social research. The Norman Hecht Award of up to $300 is provided on an irregular basis for the best research concept developed by an undergraduate or graduate student studying applied social research. It can be granted to an individual student or a group of students. Once a year at the end of the fall term the Benjamin Ringer Award, carrying a cash stipend of $100, is granted for the best undergraduate paper in the areas of ethnic and race relations. The endowed Rosalyn Tough Award is granted with a cash stipend to outstanding sociology or social research students. The Suzanne Keller Award goes to a sociology student with an outstanding record, and the annual Chicago Award with a $100 stipend is given to a work-study student or research assistant whose contribution to a faculty member’s work is acknowledged in the faculty member’s publication. For more information about the awards contact the departmental advisers.

Career Opportunities
Applied Social Research Students interested in careers in research-related fields such as media and marketing research, policy analysis and evaluation, advertising, consumer behavior, and public opinion polling, as well as students who are contemplating graduate studies in sociology, are encouraged to gain research experience through selected coursework and independent research carried out under faculty supervision. In addition to SOC 240 and 241, which are required for the major, students interested in research should consider SOC 350 (Qualitative Research Methods), and select electives from the following: SOC 259, 311, 313, 363, and 441. The department also participates in a number of programs that place qualified minority students in summer research internships at leading universities. See advisers for more information.

Social Work Students interested in careers in social work or other human services are strongly encouraged to consult the pre-social work adviser. The pre-social work advising office offers information about graduate study in social work as well as help with program planning. Pre-social work students without work experience in the human services should plan to take SOC 331 Field Placement in Social Work Agencies and SOC 332 Advanced Field Placement in Social Work Agencies, courses that provide supervised field experience. Ideally, this coursework should be completed by the end of the junior year, and students must meet with the instructor in the previous semester to arrange a placement. While virtually all sociology courses are relevant to the practice of social work, several courses are directly related to social work: SOC 231, 235, 237, and 239. Students interested in Hunter’s School of Social Work graduate programs should bear in mind that admission is highly competitive.

Graduate Courses Qualified undergraduates seeking more advanced or specialized work may, with the permission of the instructor, be permitted to take graduate courses. Consult the graduate catalog for course listings.

Courses That May Not Be Offered in 2004-2007:
SOC 360 Feminist Social Theory
The Department of Theatre studies stage production, the history and theory of theatre and drama, and the relationship among text, theory and performance. Theatre courses include acting, playwriting, directing, history, theory, design, production, theatre for young audiences, creative drama and interdisciplinary performance. The curriculum was developed with an emphasis on professional standards within a liberal arts context.

The theatre major requires courses in practical hands-on work, as well as study of theoretical, critical, and historical approaches to theatre. Interdisciplinary courses include acting, lighting and design for theatre, film and television, adaptation for theatre and film, and comparative aesthetics. Students pursuing a major in theatre must work on theatre productions as part of their requirements for graduation. Advanced undergraduate playwrights may have their work produced by Hunter Playwrights.

Many students who graduate from the theatre program work as actors, directors, stage managers, and designers. Some of our students continue their creative study in conservatory or MFA programs. Others continue their education in history and theory as MA or PhD students. Graduates who concentrate in developmental drama frequently enter the field as teachers and directors of theatre in education.

The department maintains associations with major theatre institutions. Students have opportunities for placement as interns and apprentices with various professional groups.

Theatre majors may select a minor from any department or program in the college that offers a program of study leading to a BA degree. Students should consult the departmental adviser regarding appropriate minor choices.

The interdisciplinary Thomas Hunter Honors Program provides some outstanding undergraduate students with a course of study suited to their individual needs and interests. Students selected for the Thomas Hunter Honors Program must show evidence of high academic potential, interdisciplinary interests, intellectual curiosity, willingness to explore unfamiliar fields and to accept challenges.

Students may apply for admission to the program on their own or they may be invited to participate in recognition of their outstanding academic records. Many graduates of the Thomas Hunter Honors Program go on to PhD programs in the various arts and sciences, or to law, medical and other professional schools. Others choose careers in a wide variety of professional, artistic and business fields.

College Requirements

The Thomas Hunter Honors Program requires that students maintain breadth in their programs, create a significant pattern of courses in at least two academic areas of investigation (Humanities and Arts, Social Sciences, Sciences and Mathematics), including at least one laboratory science course. All programs must be approved every semester by a Council adviser.

Students must also fulfill the following graduation requirements: ENGL 120: Pluralism and Diversity; and, for those entering Hunter in fall 2001 or later, the Foreign Language Requirement.

MAJOR

Students in the Thomas Hunter Honors Program who wish to design an interdisciplinary major for themselves may do so in consultation with the appropriate Council adviser. The final transcript of such students designates the major as “Special Honors Curriculum.” Most students in the Honors Program, however, also elect to fulfill the requirements for a specific departmental major. These students abide by departmental criteria for the major and minor, and are expected to pursue departmental honors in their major. Their final transcript records the major as Special Honors Curriculum/Specific Department. Whatever their major concentration, all students in the program must also successfully complete three special interdisciplinary honors colloquia (see further on) and maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or better until their final certification into the program. Certification usually occurs in the student’s junior year, when the Council, ruling on each case individually, decides that the student’s continuing academic distinction and promise of future productivity warrant permanent membership in the Thomas Hunter Honors Program.

Thomas Hunter Honors Program students meet regularly in 200-level and 300-level colloquia, led by members of the Council on Honors and by other invited members of the faculty. Students take a minimum of three colloquia, one of which must be at the 200-level, and one of which must be at the 300-level. While the specific content of these courses varies from semester to semester, the underlying principles remain the same.

The 200-level colloquium is taught by one professor, often a member of the Council on Honors, who studies a specific theme using the materials and methodologies of at least two disciplines. Students may take more than one of these colloquia if they so desire, but at least one must be taken during their first year in the program. The 300-level honors colloquia are special seminars, usually conducted by two professors, devoted to topics lending themselves to broad interdisciplinary investigation. The colloquia offer breadth of exposure, but, even more importantly, they seek to demonstrate how knowledge gained from a variety of disciplines can be related and integrated in an effort to understand complex processes and phenomena. In all colloquia, students write at least one major paper, in which they apply the methodology of the course to material of particular interest to them.

Upon completion of 90 credits, Thomas Hunter Honors students may also be admitted by the Council to Advanced Interdisciplinary Studies, with the opportunity of engaging in advanced independent study under the Council’s supervision. A thesis or other appropriate report of the results of the student’s research is presented to the Council.

Preparation for Graduate Training
A substantial number of majors in urban studies pursue professional graduate study in urban planning, law, social work, public administration, architecture, and related fields. Students should discuss their professional goals with the adviser in their junior year in order to plan their programs accordingly.

Special Programs
Urban studies majors may apply to participate in four programs sponsored by Hunter College: the Public Service Scholar Program, the City University Seminar/Internship Program in New York City Government and Politics, the Blanche Davis Blank Urban Research Scholar Program, and the Liberty Partnership Program.

The Public Service Scholar Program is a competitive program open to 24 juniors/seniors each year. All Hunter students are eligible for this program, which includes an internship in a public or nonprofit agency and two weekly seminars. Participants receive credit and a stipend. For further information, contact the program director.

The City University Seminar/Internship Program in New York City Government and Politics is a program in which Hunter College students may participate. For further information, contact the department.

The Blanche Davis Blank Urban Research Scholar Program provides awards to outstanding undergraduate students to work with professors on research projects. For further information, contact the department.

The Liberty Partnership Program provides college credit for students who work as mentors with low-achieving high school or junior high school students to improve their chances of attending college. For further information, contact the department.

The Hunter College Women’s Studies Program is an interdisciplinary academic program that seeks to preserve, expand and share knowledge about women and gender. The program reexamines the historical record to make visible women's contributions to the world’s knowledge and cultures. It aims, through a focus on women’s experiences, to open fresh perspectives throughout the curriculum. The Women's Studies program seeks to create an understanding of the ways in which gender intersects with race, religion, class, ethnicity, ability and sexual orientation to shape all human experience, including the pursuit of learning.

The Women's Studies program includes a broad community of faculty, affiliated faculty, students, and staff and is administered by a director and a policy committee of elected faculty and student representatives. Most courses in the program are cross-listed in an academic department; these have been developed through the initiative of Women’s Studies-affiliated faculty throughout the college.

The Women's Studies program draws on the commitment and expertise of feminist scholars in more than 15 academic departments for our wide range of course offerings. The Women's Studies major is useful, directly and indirectly, in all fields involving an analysis of society and social interaction. Women's Studies graduates may seek employment in any field, including such areas as health care, counseling, advertising, market research, publishing, teaching, public service, advocacy or administrative work. The major is an appropriate preparation for professional schools and for postgraduate work in Women's Studies or in one of the many disciplines from which the major draws its curriculum.

Research Seminar
Majors may satisfy the Senior Seminar requirement of the major by enrolling in the Research Seminar (WOMST 310), a capstone course in which they will apply feminist theory and methodology to a significant research project resulting in a substantial paper. Students who wish to qualify for honors in Women’s Studies must enroll in the research seminar.

Honors
In order to graduate with honors in Women’s Studies, a student must have a 3.5 GPA in the Women’s Studies major and a college-wide cumulative index of at least 3.0 and must enroll in WOMST 310 Research Seminar: Feminist Theory and Methodology. MISSION OF THE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

The mission of the Hunter College School of Education is to prepare skilled, caring, and knowledgeable educators for teaching and supportive work in urban educational settings. This mission animates, and in turn is animated by, the Conceptual Framework, which encompasses five agreed-upon aspects of our work:

Living in an Urban Context
...maximizing opportunities and meeting significant challenges;

Developing Knowledge, Skills and Dispositions
...developing depth-and-breadth of active knowledge, effective skills, and empowering dispositions;

Engendering Professionalism
...promoting an ongoing engagement and stewardship of best practices as professionals;

Building a Caring Learning Community and Culture
...forging respect for learners, based on understanding and evident in actions;

Advocating for Social Justice
...activating commitment to social justice.

A complete description of the Conceptual Framework of the Hunter College School of Education can be found on its web site at the following URL: http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/education/ncate/conceptualframework.shtml
Programs in Education
All students who take the education sequence at Hunter must major in a liberal arts or sciences subject. In other words, students who take any program in education do so in addition to fulfilling both the general education requirement and the requirements for a liberal arts or sciences major.

A student who completes an undergraduate childhood education program approved by the New York State Education Department fulfills the academic requirements for New York State Initial Certification and is eligible for New York City licensing in the area studied. (See sections below on New York State certification and New York City licensing for more information.)

The Office of Educational Services
This office provides support services to students enrolled in classes offered by the three teacher education departments of the School of Education. The areas of services provided include: coordination of admissions, advisement and registration; teacher certification; and various other student services such as permits, course equivalencies and leaves of absence.

The Office of Educational Services maintains regular office hours throughout the academic year (September 1-May 31), staying open evenings to provide advisement for working and evening session students although undergraduate education classes meet only during daytime hours. Hours may vary during registration periods, during the summer months and when classes are not in session. Office hours are posted outside Room 1000 Hunter West.

Student teaching and field placement applications and information are also available in Room 1000 Hunter West from the director and associate director of clinical services for childhood education and for adolescence education.

New York State Certification
The undergraduate sequences in education described below have been approved by the New York State Education Department to lead to initial certification for teaching in New York State. To earn this certificate the student must successfully complete the approved program of study, obtain the BA or BA/MA degree, submit fingerprints and pass the required New York State Teacher Certification Examinations (NYSTCE) including the LAST, ATS-W, and CST. The Office of Educational Services processes the certification applications of students who complete an approved program and bachelor's degree.

The initial certificate permits the holder to teach for three years. At the end of that time and three years of full-time teaching in the certificate title, the individual will be able to obtain certification.

New York State certification is reciprocally accepted by many other states upon application. Students with questions about certification should contact the Office of Educational Services. For more information regarding New York State Certification go to http://www.nysed.gov.

New York City Licensing Students who complete approved sequences of study may apply for the NYC license when they possess a valid NYS initial certificate in their subject area. For more information regarding licensing, contact the NYC Department of Education, (718) 935-2670 or http://www.nycenet.com.

Office of Teacher Placement
This office provides professional teacher placement services for:
1. Undergraduates who have completed at least twelve education credits.
2. Students with degrees from Hunter College who have completed either the childhood or adolescence teacher preparation program, including student teaching.

It is common practice for school administrators to request teacher placement files during interviews for teaching positions. Therefore, students are urged to establish their files during the semester in which they student-teach and to maintain and update the files during the job search period. This service helps students seeking jobs locally, nationally and internationally.

Admission to Teacher Education Programs
Undergraduate teacher education programs require a cumulative GPA of 2.8. Students are advised to submit their completed application for admission in March for the fall semester and October for the spring semester. Applicants must attach a student copy of transcripts of previous college study to their application. Applicants must demonstrate satisfactory performance in a group interview and an on-site writing sample. No courses with credit/non-credit grades are accepted.

Registration
Because of the intricacies of certifying programs, students are required to see advisers prior to or during registration in order to secure approval for courses in education. The School of Education allows early registration (during April for fall and during November for spring). The school also provides a schedule of adviser availability during the regular registration period. However, advisement hours do not entirely coincide with registration hours. Students are urged to read the Schedule of Classes, or the announcement page on the School of Education Web site and to consult the bulletin boards outside 1000 Hunter West to determine the best times to see the appropriate advisers or program coordinators.

Nondegree and Second-Degree Students
The School of Education is not currently accepting nondegree or second-degree students.

Honors in Education
Students become eligible for honors in education at graduation by successfully completing EDUC 490 for QUEST and Adolescence Education and DANCE 490 for dance education (Honors in Educational Research). Students must have a GPA of 3.5 in education courses and a cumulative GPA of 2.8. They must be taking a full education sequence including student teaching.

Kappa Delta Pi Students become eligible for membership in the Iota Alpha Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, the national honor society for education, when they meet the following criteria: 3.2 GPA, with an education index of 3.5 after 12 credits, 3.7 after 11 credits, or 4.0 after 9 credits in education.

Applications are available in Room 1000 Hunter West.

Hunter College Campus Schools
The Campus Schools are located at Park Avenue and 94th Street in Manhattan. They serve as a laboratory for observation, demonstration, research, curriculum design and other projects involving their students, all of whom score in the range of the gifted on intelligence and achievement tests. Students are admitted to the publicly supported schools on the basis of competitive testing. Efforts continue to identify gifted children from diverse backgrounds who meet the schools’ rigorous standards for admission to kindergarten and grade 7 (the two levels at which students are admitted).

Hunter College Elementary School Children must be five years of age to attend the kindergarten. Only Manhattan residents are eligible to apply. The age of an applicant is calculated according to the academic year. While some students continue on to the high school from the elementary school, high-achieving students from the five boroughs are invited to take a competitive examination in order to enter Hunter High School at the 7th grade.

Hunter College High School The Hunter College High School is a 6-year junior-senior high school. The academic program stresses both acceleration and enrichment and provides students with a classical education. Research focuses on the development of curriculum, teaching strategies and other educational practices that maintain and advance a “state of the art” approach to the education of intellectually gifted students.
Childhood Education (QUEST) Grades 1-6

1000 Hunter West; (212) 772-4624

QUEST Program Overview
The Quality Urban Elementary School Teacher (QUEST) program is an undergraduate elementary teacher education program that prepares students to become New York State certified teachers of childhood education grades 1-6. QUEST is an integrated, holistic 30-credit program completed over either four or six semesters, which includes extensive field experiences attached to didactic courses. The six-semester sequence is designed for students who enter Hunter College as freshmen. The four-semester sequence is designed for transfer students and other students who do not apply to QUEST until after they have completed 40 or more credits.

QUEST is committed to the preparation of teachers for urban elementary schools who can deal effectively with the wide range of diverse learning needs found among the City’s students. QUEST collaborates closely with New York City public schools to provide outstanding field experiences for these students. The program of study for the BA degree at Hunter College consists of a minimum of 120 credits. All students must major in one of the following liberal arts or sciences subjects: English language arts, English, history, geography, social studies (available as a major in the geography department), mathematics, biology or chemistry. Childhood education, QUEST, serves as a collateral major, in place of a minor. Students must also complete the college General Education Requirement (GER), which consists of a core and graduation requirements in writing, pluralism and diversity and in a foreign language. Since the QUEST program requires MATH 104 students are exempt from GER/Stage 3, Group B.

Required Coursework in Liberal Arts and Sciences
Teachers in elementary schools are required to teach all subject areas in the curriculum and thus need a broad liberal arts background in addition to specialized knowledge of teaching. Therefore, students will be required to complete the following liberal arts and sciences courses, or their equivalent (most of these courses can be taken within the college’s General Education Requirement):

- ENGL 120
- ENGL 220
- GEOG 101
- HIST 151 and 152
- MATH 104 and 105

Two semesters of science, at least one of which is a laboratory science*
6 credits in the arts
At least 6 credits in the study of a language other than English
(The Hunter College GER/foreign language requirement is 12 credits or the equivalent.)

Two additional courses that are required for students in the childhood education program are CSCI 115 Computer Technology in Childhood Education (2 credits) and HED 314 Health Education for the Classroom Teacher (3 credits).

*Note: Computer Science does not count as a science course in meeting this requirement.

Admissions Requirements
Six-semester sequence for students entering Hunter College as freshmen
1. 30 credits in liberal arts and sciences*
2. Minimum GPA of 2.8
3. Prerequisite for MATH 104: either a score high enough on the CUNY COMPASS to be placed in MATH 104 or completion of MATH 101
4. ENGL 120 (or a 200- or 300-level writing course), with a grade of B or better
5. Declaration of an appropriate liberal arts and sciences major: biology, chemistry, English, English language arts, geography, history, social studies (an option within the geography major), or mathematics

Four-semester sequence for transfer students and other Hunter College students who apply after completing 40 credits
1. Transfer students may enter the program with 40 to 72 credits. (Students with more than 72 credits should complete their liberal arts and sciences major and apply to the master’s degree program in childhood education.)
2. Transfer students with 60 or more credits, GPA of 3.3 or better and a grade of B or better in ENGL 120 do not have to present Hunter College grades. Transfer students with GPAs between 2.75 and 3.29 will have to complete 12 credits of coursework at Hunter College with a GPA of at least 2.8 before a final decision will be made on their application to QUEST.
3. Transfer students must meet all other requirements listed above for admission as well as the progress standards that follow.

*Students may apply to QUEST if the total of their completed credits plus courses in which they are currently enrolled is at least 30 credits.

Progress Standards
Students must receive grades of C or better in QUEST didactic courses and grades of B or better in QUEST fieldwork courses. All QUEST courses are repeatable once by students who have received a grade of D in a didactic course or a C in a fieldwork course. Students must officially re-register for these courses. Students who receive an F in any course or a D in fieldwork may not continue in the program. Students must also maintain a GPA of at least 2.8 throughout the QUEST program.

In order to register for QSTA 406 Teaching and Learning Mathematics in the Elementary School, students must have completed MATH 104 and MATH 105. Transfer students may be allowed to enroll in QSTA 406 after completing MATH 104 and registering for MATH 105 if their progress through the QUEST program would be delayed by the requirement for MATH 105 as a prerequisite.

In order to register for QSTA 414 Teaching Science in Elementary Schools, students must have completed two courses in science, at least one of which must be in a laboratory science.

In order to register for QSTA 412 Teaching Social Studies through Literature, the Arts and Technology in Elementary Schools, students must have completed HIST 151 and 152, or one of these courses plus GEOG 101.

Students should register to take the Liberal Arts and Sciences Test (LAST) of the New York State Teacher Certification Examinations during their junior year. Students will not be allowed to enroll in Student Teaching (QSTA 415) until their scores on the LAST have been received by the QUEST coordinator. Students who do not pass the LAST at least partly because of low scores on subtest 4 and/or 5 must enroll in a college-directed writing course before being allowed to register for any additional courses.

Adolescence Education, Grades 7-12 and Dance Education, Grades Pre-K-12

Coordinator: Gess LeBlanc, 1000 Hunter West; (212) 772-4677

Students who major in an academic subject may also wish to complete a sequence of courses in education that will enable them to pursue a career teaching adolescent students in grades 7-12. The undergraduate programs in adolescence education are designed to prepare prospective teachers to serve as high-quality educators for adolescents in urban schools. More specifically, candidates learn to investigate, orchestrate, modify, implement, and assess academic content and professional knowledge and skills. These efforts are focused on creating safe, supportive and challenging classrooms for student populations of diverse backgrounds, abilities and interests within the four following global areas of competency:

1) Academic Subjects Content Knowledge
   Teacher candidates will learn to integrate in-depth knowledge of their subject area into the design of curricula that reflect state and professional standards.

2) Professional Knowledge
   Teacher candidates will link philosophical, historical, political, psychological and sociological theories of education to the learning of adolescents in their classrooms, including exceptional and English-language learners.

3) Skills
   Teacher candidates will learn to adapt curriculum and instruction to adolescent students' prior knowledge, interests, literacy levels, abilities, and experiences. Teacher candidates will develop skills in communication; critical and creative thinking; application of technology; self-reflection; and classroom management in order to provide effective instruction for all students.

4) Creating Community
   Teacher candidates will familiarize themselves with their students' communities, as well encourage their students' active and constructive participation in classroom, school, or local problem solving.

Required Coursework in Liberal Arts and Sciences

In addition to completing a major of at least 30 credits in the area of the teaching certificate to be pursued, applicants must complete a general education core that includes the specific course requirements listed below, which can be fulfilled as part of the college's core requirement, graduation requirements, and the major:

1. ENGL 120 English Composition
2. ENGL 220 Introduction to Literature
3. Two courses selected from: HIST 151 The U.S. from the Colonial Era to the Civil War; HIST 152 The U.S. from the Civil War to the Present; and GEOG 101 People and Their Environment
4. 12 credits in math/science/technology, to include one laboratory science course and either STAT 213 (for science and math majors) or STAT 113 (for students with other majors)
5. 12 credits of study in a language other than English (or exemption by the college on the basis of equivalency)
6. 6 credits in the arts
7. A course that includes a focus on communication, which may be met through a variety of disciplines. Courses in theatre, media, and the linguistics area of anthropology generally meet this requirement, as does AFPR 181 Language and Ethnic Identity.

Admission Requirements:

1. Minimum of 65 credits but no more than 90 credits
2. GPA of at least 2.8. If a student has more than 6 credits of CR/NR grades, the excess of these grades will be calculated as C or F in determining whether the student meets the minimum GPA
3. A grade of at least B in ENGL 120 or a 200- or 300-level writing course such as ENGL 201
4. Formal declaration of a major in a subject area appropriate for certification: English, Languages Other than English (Chinese, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Russian, Spanish), Mathematics, Science, Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Social Studies (Geography Option 2), Dance
5. Submission of an application for admission to the sequence (the application is available in the Office of Educational Services, Room 1000 Hunter West) along with proof of a negative finding on a tuberculosis test.

Transfer Students

The program will conditionally admit transfer students with 60 or more credits who have a GPA of at least 3.3 without requiring that they complete 12 credits at Hunter College. However, they must establish a minimum GPA of 2.8 at Hunter College to continue in the program after the first semester. Any transfer student who has a GPA of 2.8-3.29 must complete 12 credits at Hunter College with a cumulative GPA of at least 2.8 before being admitted to the program in adolescence education.

Admission Process

1. Students interested in applying to the Adolescence Education program should apply at the beginning of the semester prior to the semester in which they plan to enroll.
2. Students must participate in a group interview with several other students and School of Education faculty members.
3. Students must complete an on-site writing sample that the School of Education faculty will use to assess written English skills.

Program Overview

The Hunter College School of Education offers the following undergraduate programs leading to initial certification in adolescence education (grades 7-12): biology, chemistry, Chinese, English, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, mathematics, physics, Russian, social studies and Spanish. Hunter also offers an undergraduate program leading to initial certification in dance (pre-K-12). In addition, BA/MA programs in mathematics, chemistry and music are offered. These programs lead to professional certification. A BA/MA in biology is pending NY State approval.

The program of study for the baccalaureate degree at Hunter College requires a minimum of 120 credits. This is a daytime program that includes fieldwork in New York City public schools designated by the Hunter College School of Education. Students who wish to pursue initial certification in one of the above areas must take a specified sequence of education courses, in addition to fulfilling the college's General Education Requirement (GER) and the requirements of their arts or science major. All relevant departments accept the adolescence education sequence as a minor.

Hunter College's Schools of the Health Professions comprise two prestigious units of the college: The School of Health Sciences and the Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing. Restructured under a single dean in 1997, each school can now coordinate and enhance efforts to carry out a shared mission: the education of a new generation of health care professionals to meet the needs of the urban population.

HISTORY
Nursing education began at Hunter in 1943, when courses for registered nurses were added to its curriculum. In 1955, a four-year collegiate program that was a pioneer for its time — the Hunter College Program in Nursing — was launched. When the Bellevue School of Nursing closed in 1969, Hunter absorbed it to create the Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing, now located at the college's Brookdale Health Science Center at 425 East 25th Street in Manhattan, near Bellevue Hospital.

Hunter's Institute of Health Sciences, dedicated to the educational preparation of a range of health care professionals, opened its doors on East 106th Street in 1968. Six years later, the Institute became the School of Health Sciences and moved downtown to join the nursing school at the Brookdale campus at 25th Street. The reorganization of the two schools allows them to be more innovative academically—and more influential in the delivery of modern urban health care. Interdisciplinary programming and research are strategic initiatives of the schools.

The Hunter College School of Health Sciences offers undergraduate and graduate programs in health-related professions. The school is housed at the Brookdale Health Science Center, located in close proximity to many of New York's major health care facilities. The health professions complex at East 25th Street provides students with fully equipped laboratories, computer and media facilities, a speech and hearing clinic and a library, as well as recreational facilities, a cafeteria and an on-site dormitory.

Hunter's School of Health Sciences prepares liberal-arts educated professionals to enter and advance in health-related careers. These professionals will provide health maintenance and promotion, disease prevention, evaluation and clinical management of health-related conditions. The school's programs of study provide unique educational, research, and clinical and community service-oriented opportunities to students.

The undergraduate programs offered at the Hunter College School of Health Sciences are designed for working health professionals:

- BS in Medical Laboratory Sciences
- BS in Community Health Education/Urban Public Health
- BS in Nutrition and Food Sciences/Urban Public Health

Additionally, the following graduate programs are offered at the School of Health Sciences:

- MS in Communication Sciences (Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology)
- MPH in Urban Public Health with Specializations:
  - Community Health Education
  - Environmental and Occupational Health
  - Public Health Nutrition
- MS/MPH in Community Health Nursing/Urban Public Health
- MS in Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences
- MPT in Physical Therapy

Note: The Physical Therapy program transitioned to a solely post-baccalaureate master's degree curriculum, effective September 2000. The program no longer offers a BS degree curriculum. Contact the Physical Therapy Program for specific information on prerequisites and admission for this new program at (212) 481-4469 or visit their Web site: http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/health/pt/.

Course Offerings for Undergraduate Students in Communication Sciences, and Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences

Degrees in Communication Sciences and Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences are not offered at the undergraduate level. Electives may be taken in Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences. For further information on Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences, call the Urban Public Health Program at (212) 481-5111.

Admission to Health Sciences Programs

Students enter the School of Health Sciences after completion of a minimum of 60 college credits. All applicants, including those currently enrolled at Hunter College who wish to apply to Community Health Education and Nutrition and Food Science, BS degree in the Urban Public Health Program, must file a City University of New York (CUNY) transfer (Advanced Standing) application. The application may be obtained at Hunter's 68th Street Campus in the college's Welcome Center, Room 100, Hunter North, (212) 947-4490; at CUNY's Office of Admission Service, 101 West 31st Street, New York, NY 10001, (212) 947-4800, at all CUNY campuses, and online at http://www.cuny.edu.

The transfer application and required supporting academic records must be mailed to the University Application Processing Center, PO Box 359023, Brooklyn, NY 11235-9023 between January 1 and March 1 for the fall semester, and between September 1 and November 1 for those programs with spring admissions. Applications received after the deadline are not given priority consideration and are processed on a space-available basis. Applicants with completed applications by the deadline date can expect to be notified no later than May 1 for the fall semester and by December 1 for the spring semester. Students who have not completed the prerequisite course requirements to be considered for admission to one of these undergraduate programs in the School of Health Sciences may wish to transfer to Hunter College as liberal arts and science students. These students should follow the same transfer admission processes detailed above.

Students seeking admission to one of the undergraduate programs offered at the School of Health Sciences should contact their program of choice directly for admission and degree requirements. These programs offer prospective student sessions each semester. See individual program listings in the catalog, or visit their web sites.

The requirements for consideration for admission to programs in the School of Health Sciences are as follows:

Community Health Education Completion of 60 credits; combined grade point average of all postsecondary institutions attended of 2.5; one semester of biology with lab; one semester of statistics.

Medical Laboratory Sciences Completion of 60 credits; minimum GPA of 2.5; one year of general chemistry with lab; one year of biology with lab. Hunter College students applying to Medical Laboratory Sciences should contact the program, preferably in the semester before they wish to enter, or earlier if they have questions. Qualified students will receive the Major/Minor form, usually at their first academic advisement session.

Nutrition and Food Science Completion of 60 credits, including the following prerequisites: two semesters of anatomy and physiology with lab; one semester of general chemistry with lab; one semester of organic chemistry with lab; one semester of microbiology with lab; one semester of introductory food science; one semester of introductory nutrition. The introductory food science and nutrition courses may be completed in the summer session preceding entrance to the program. A grade of C or better must be earned in all prerequisites. The introductory food science and nutrition courses may be completed in the summer session preceding entrance to the program. An overall GPA of 2.8 is required for consideration. Due to the competitive nature of the program, however, the actual GPA required for admission may be higher. Students who have completed 30 credits at Hunter College or at another City University institution at the time of the application will be given priority in the selection process. Students can attend on a full- or part-time basis during the day.

Course of Study The course of study varies from program to program. The curriculum for each program follows this section. Candidates for the BS degree complete a total of 120 credits and are exempt from the college's foreign language requirement. In addition to the special requirements in each program, all candidates for graduation must also complete a Hunter-wide General Education Requirement that is explained in detail in the General Education section of this catalog. We recommend that students complete most General Education Requirements before they enter any of the programs in the School of Health Sciences.

Scholastic Requirements Student grades are reviewed each semester to determine eligibility for remaining in programs of the School of Health Sciences. Each student must maintain an overall GPA of 2.5 for each semester and a grade of C or better in each major course. Major courses must be taken for letter grades except, at the discretion of the program director, for clinic, field or independent study.

Program permission is required in order to register for most courses offered at the School of Health Sciences. Permit forms are authorized by program advisers during the preregistration and registration periods.
Biotechnology BS/MA
Qualified seniors may apply to the BS/MA collaboration between MLS and the department of biological sciences. An intensive techniques workshop (BIOL 410) is taken prior to graduation and upon successful completion, students may continue with professional internship and the MA program, allowing MLS graduates to complete the degree at an accelerated pace.

Professional Outcomes
Entry–Level positions: Students completing the MLS degree are prepared for positions in a variety of settings:
- Hospitals, private diagnostic and reference labs (as clinical lab technologists)
- Academic and public health labs (as research assistants)
- Pharmaceutical, biotechnology companies (as bench scientists, technical sales force)
- Personnel shortages are currently severe in several of these areas, and growth in opportunities is predicted to continue.

Further Education
All MLS students are encouraged to plan for post-baccalaureate education, and guided to complete prerequisites. MLS alumni have been successful in medical and dental school, graduate programs in biomedical science (Master’s and PhD), management and clinical specialties (PA, forensic science, etc.) and advanced laboratory diagnostics such as Cytochemistry.

Opportunities for Pre-Professional Experience
Professional Practice: Students planning for careers in the diagnostic lab are urged to enroll in MLS 410, to begin accumulating the practical experience necessary for state certification as clinical technologists. Students are assigned to hospital, reference or public health labs for summer or semester-long internship experience in an area of interest.

The program in Urban Public Health educates public health professionals to promote health and prevent disease in diverse urban communities. The program offers bachelor of science degrees in Community Health Education and Nutrition and Food Sciences, a master of science degree in Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences, and a master in Public Health degree with specialization tracks in Community Health Education, Environmental and Occupational Health and Public Health Nutrition. (Please see the Graduate Catalog.)

As more of the world’s population moves into urban areas, cities pose unique challenges to public health practitioners. This program prepares students to contribute to improved urban health by addressing such problems as HIV, substance abuse, asthma, obesity, under-nutrition, violence, heart disease and cancer. Graduates are employed by public and private agencies, hospitals, schools and community organizations. Many students go on to enroll in graduate programs after they earn the bachelor’s degree and qualified undergraduates can take selected graduate courses in Urban Public Health in their senior year.

Community Health Education

Bachelor of Science Degree

Community health educators use educational skills and a sound knowledge of public health to encourage, maintain and improve the health of people in diverse communities. They develop, implement and coordinate health education programs, educate the public about health and disease and what can be done to maintain good health, prevent disease or secure treatment. Community health educators are employed in community organizations, family planning clinics, mental health centers, homeless shelters, and work sites. The BS degree at Hunter provides the background for positions in the field and the academic background to pursue graduate education in public health, social work and related fields.

Field placements provide students with an opportunity to practice skills prior to graduation.

Admission Requirements

Nutrition plays an important role in the development and maintenance of optimal health in individuals of all ages. Current research focuses on nutrition and diet as critical factors in the prevention and treatment of the major diseases that cause death and disability in the U.S. Over the past decade, this awareness has led to an increase in the diversity of opportunities available to the person trained in nutrition and food science.

Dietitians address food and nutrition needs of individuals through health promotion guidance and medical nutrition therapy. Nutrition professionals may provide nutrition counseling in clinical settings and nutrition education in groups, manage food programs, communicate nutrition information to the public, and conduct nutrition research. Food science professionals examine the physical and chemical properties of foods and apply these principles in the area of food technology to improved flavor, desirable texture and enhanced nutritional value of foods. Food scientists are employed in food companies, test kitchens and research facilities.

Academic preparation in nutrition and food science combines the study of the basic, behavioral, food and nutrition sciences. The curriculum offers a wide range of courses on the nutritional aspects of human diseases, a broad perspective on human biology that takes cultural as well as organic factors into account, and a strong clinical orientation.

Students who graduate with a BS in Nutrition and Food Science are prepared for entry-level positions in community health agencies. Career opportunities include positions in local health agencies and the Special Supplemental Food Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC), opportunities at industry wellness programs, cardiac rehabilitation programs, exercise fitness programs and health maintenance organizations, and in test kitchens. NFS graduates with a grade of C or better in all required 300- and 400-level NFS courses are also qualified to apply for accredited dietetic internship programs and for graduate study in nutrition and public health. Many of our graduates continue on for the Hunter College graduate-level Dietetic Internship Program — Web Site: http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/schoolhp/phn/dietetic_internship/index.htm and the MPH in Public Health Nutrition (http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/schoolhp/phn/index.htm). These programs are described online and in the graduate catalog.

The Nutrition and Food Science curriculum meets the didactic program in dietetics (DPD) requirements established by the Commission on Accreditation for Dietetics Education (CADE), the accrediting agency of the American Dietetic Association (ADA) and qualifies students to continue their professional preparation for the Registered Dietitian (RD) credential. To become an RD, students must: a) complete a minimum of a bachelor’s degree at a US regionally accredited university or college; b) complete all required courses for the DPD, which is the NFS major; c) complete an accredited dietetic internship (DI); and d) pass a national examination administered by the Commission on Dietetics Registration, the credentialing agency of the ADA.

Admission Requirements
Students planning to apply for admission to the School of Health Sciences Nutrition and Food Science track should attend a group orientation session for prospective students held every October and February. Individual appointments with a faculty adviser may also be requested by calling 481-5111. After completion of 45 credits and most of the General Education Requirements (GER), Hunter students may see an NFS adviser for pre-NFS major advising; however, pre-major status does not guarantee later acceptance into the major. Pre-majors must follow the same application procedures as any other student. Students enter the program in the fall semester and can attend on a full-time or part-time basis during the day. The Hunter College GER should be met before entrance into the NFS major. The requirements for admission into the NFS major are completion of 60 credits, including the following courses: two semesters of anatomy and physiology with lab; one semester of general chemistry with lab; one semester of organic chemistry with lab; one semester of biochemistry; one semester of microbiology with lab; one semester of introductory food science; one semester of introductory nutrition. A grade of C or better must be earned in all science prerequisites, and a grade of B or better in the two nutrition and food science courses.

The prerequisite courses must be completed by the end of the summer session preceding entrance into the NFS major. An overall GPA (combined grade point average from all postsecondary institutions attended) of 2.8 is required for consideration. Because of the competitive nature of the applicant pool and the small size of the incoming class, the admission process may favor applicants with an overall GPA greater than 2.8. Students who have completed 30 credits at Hunter College or at another City University institution at the time of application will be given priority in the selection process.

All applicants, including those currently enrolled at Hunter College, must file a City University of New York (CUNY) Transfer (Advanced Standing) application. The application may be obtained at Hunter's 68th Street campus in the college's Welcome Center, Room 100 North Building, (212) 772-4490, online at http://admissions.hunter.cuny.edu, at CUNY's Office of Admission Services, 1114 Avenue of the Americas, New York NY 10036, (212) 997-2869 and at all CUNY campuses.

The transfer application and required supporting academic records must be mailed to the University Application Processing Center, PO Box 359023, Brooklyn, New York, 11235-9023 by March 1. Applications that arrive after March 1 will not be considered and are processed on a space available basis. Applicants who have completed all prerequisites by the deadline date can expect to be notified no later than May 1.

Students who have not completed the prerequisite course requirements to be considered for admission to the NFS major may wish to transfer to Hunter College as liberal arts and science students. These students should follow the same transfer admission process detailed above for the following year.
CUNY students with an earned AA or AS degree in fall 2003 and after are exempt from the Core requirements of the GER but must fulfill the graduation requirements of significant writing, and pluralism and diversity. Students must have successfully completed the other prerequisites before applying as a NFS major. Transfer students who have not earned a degree, or who have earned an associate degree from a non-CUNY institution are required to complete the Hunter GER requirements in order to graduate.

The Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing is one of the largest and most prestigious nursing schools in the country. The program of study combines liberal and professional education with a humanistic and comprehensive approach to health care. The School of Nursing offers a program leading to the bachelor of science (nursing) degree. The undergraduate program has two pathways: the Generic Pathway, for those students who do not have an RN license; and the RN Pathway, for those students who have completed a nursing program and have or are about to receive a current license to practice professional nursing in New York State. Applications to either program are available from the Hunter College Admissions Office at 695 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10021 or by calling (212) 997-CUNY or on the web at http://www.cuny.edu. An accelerated BS/MS in nursing for highly qualified RN Pathway applicants will be available in fall 2005. Please check the nursing web site, http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/schoolhp/nursing/index.htm, or the current fact sheet (available from the pre-nursing adviser or Student Services) for further information.

The undergraduate division consists of two parts: lower division (general education) and upper division (professional education). Students are considered for admission to the Generic Program for the fall semester only, and only after completing lower division courses. RN Pathway students are admitted both fall and spring. An overall college GPA of 2.75 (pending Senate approval) in addition to other requirements is the minimum requirement for consideration of an application. Admission to the School of Nursing is competitive. A minimum grade of “C” must be attained for all required science, mathematics, and nursing courses. Generic Pathway students must attend during the day on a full-time basis. Only matriculated Hunter College students can apply to the Generic Pathway Program. RN Pathway students may attend during the day or evening (depending on scheduling of courses) on a full- or a part-time basis. All undergraduate nursing students are assigned a faculty member who is their academic adviser and mentor throughout the program.

Application Eligibility and Admission Criteria: Generic Pathway

The program is designed to be completed in four academic years by students who are admitted with no college credit and who attend full-time. How long it takes transfer or second-degree students to complete the program depends on such factors as the number of applicable transfer credits they have and the number of courses they take each semester. Generic Pathway students cannot earn the degree in the evening. Part-time attendance may result in the student losing the pace of the upper division sequence and having to wait a year for a required course. The Generic Pathway is a full-time, daytime program.

In order to be considered for admission into the Generic Pathway Program, applicants must meet eligibility requirements and admission criteria. All students applying to the upper division Generic Nursing Pathway must have a college GPA of 2.5 or above by the end of the fall semester preceding spring application. Students who do not meet this GPA requirement are not eligible to register as a nursing major at Hunter College. Since decisions are made before the spring term is completed, applicants with grades pending will be conditionally accepted until receipt of final grades.

Acceptance of the student into the major is based on the following admission criteria: composite admission score (GPA plus score on NLN Pre-Admission-RN Examination) and completion of all admission requirements. The composite score of all students applying for admission at the same time will be ranked ordered from the highest to the lowest. Students will be accepted for admission based on this ranked composite score and the completion of all other admission requirements. Failure to meet all admission criteria will require reapplication for the following year, with no guarantee of acceptance. Students must request a current Generic Pathway Fact Sheet, which details the admission process, from the School of Nursing. The schedule of the NLN exam dates, times and locations as well as the current Generic Pathway Fact Sheet may be obtained from the pre-health adviser by July 1; otherwise the student will be ineligible to register as a nursing major at Hunter College. All RN Pathway students admitted to the RN Pathway Program must have completed 36 credits of liberal arts and sciences (including credits equivalent of 24 credits in nursing). Since decisions are made before the spring term is completed, applicants with grades pending will be conditionally accepted until receipt of final grades.

Admission Criteria: RN Pathway Program

The program is designed to meet the special needs of the experienced RN student who has already completed a two- or three-year nursing program. All RN Pathway students admitted to the program are required to submit evidence of NYS RN licensure and current registration, liability insurance, health insurance, medical records with specified immunizations and CPR certification prior to entering the first semester of the nursing major. Students awaiting their State Board licensing examination scores who have not yet been awarded the Registered Professional Nurse License are admitted conditionally. Proof of receipt of the RN license must be submitted to the School of Nursing by December 1 for students admitted in the fall and June 1 for students admitted in the spring. Students unable to document receiving the license will not be permitted to continue in the nursing major. Applicants to the RN Pathway Program must have completed 36 credits of liberal arts and sciences (including credits in progress) at an accredited college, plus the equivalent of 24 credits in nursing.

A maximum of 24 credits may be transferred for credit in the nursing curriculum upper division. CUNY transfer RN students will be granted 24 nursing credits for advanced placement. All other students admitted to the RN Pathway...
Program must take the Nursing Regents College Examinations (RCE'S) in Adult Nursing, Maternal and Child Nursing and Psychiatric/Mental Health Nursing at the baccalaureate level. A score of “C” or better is acceptable. All applicants must be licensed to practice professional nursing in New York State before the beginning of their first semester. A one-semester extension is granted for recent graduates of associate degree programs. All RN Pathway students admitted to the program are required to submit evidence of NYS Professional Nurse licensure and current registration, liability insurance, health insurance, medical records with specified immunizations and CPR certification prior to entering the first semester of the nursing major. Students must request a current RN Pathway Fact Sheet, which details the admission process, from the School of Nursing. The sheet may be obtained from the pre-health adviser at (212) 481-4313, Hunter College Student Services, or the Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing web page.

Progression in the Nursing Major

In order to be allowed to continue in the Nursing major, students must receive minimum grades of “C” in all required nursing courses. One failed required nursing course (Generic Pathway: NURS 200, 310, 312, 331, 332, 380, 410, 412, 419, 421; RN Pathway: NURS 379, 380, 381, 384, 380, 480, 482) is repeatable once by students who have received a “D” or less. Students who fail a second required course in the sequence may not repeat that course and may not continue in the Nursing major. This policy applies even though a grade appeal is in progress.

Course of Study

In each language a required course sequence (12 credits) is offered: Elementary I and II (two 3-credit courses or one 6-credit intensive course) and Intermediate I and II (two 3-credit courses or one 6-credit intensive course). The four 3-credit courses are usually numbered 101-102 and 201-202.* The two intensive 6-credit courses are usually numbered 103 and 203. The first semester of a four-course sequence will not be credited without completion of the second semester.

*The Spanish for Native Speakers sequence is numbered SPAN 105-106, 207-208. Intermediate Greek is GRK 110 and GRK 202 or 203; Intermediate Latin is LAT 110 and LAT 201, 202, 203, or 204.

Intensive courses are not offered in all languages. Exceptions to the usual numbering are CHIN 107, 207; FREN 208; GRK 107; LAT 107.

Students who change from a BS to the BA program must meet the foreign language requirement for the BA degree. Some students in BS programs elect to take foreign language as part of their liberal arts requirement and are thus prepared for either degree. Those who plan graduate study at the doctoral level should inquire about foreign language requirements and prepare for these in their undergraduate study.

Placement and Exemption

1) Students may be exempted from part or all of the foreign language requirement by virtue of successful completion of high school courses. Each year of language study completed in high school is equivalent to one semester (3 cr) of the same language in college. The requirement of four semesters of language courses or an equivalent combination of college and high school courses is fulfilled only if all four semesters are completed in the same language. Students who have completed four years of one foreign language in high school should apply for an exemption with the Coordinator of Academic Appeals (1119HE); an official high school transcript is required. (Students who have passed a language Advanced Placement Test of the College Board with a grade of 5, 4, or 3 should contact the Office of Admissions.)

2) Students may also be exempted from part or all of the foreign language requirement by virtue of courses taken at other colleges. (3) Competency demonstrated through a proficiency examination fulfills part or all of the requirement; contact the appropriate departmental office to arrange for an examination. Students who want to be exempted from the language requirement on the basis of competency in a language not taught at Hunter College should contact the Dean of the School of Arts and Sciences.

4) Note that exemption from the language requirement does not yield any credit unless the exemption is based on the satisfactory completion of college courses.

In general, the following guidelines apply:

1. Students have satisfied the foreign language requirement if they can certify satisfactory completion of four years of study of one language in high school, or satisfactory completion of a college course equivalent to at least the fourth level of a Hunter foreign language sequence, or competency demonstrated through a proficiency examination.

2. Students who have satisfactorily completed three years of study of one language in high school or have completed the college equivalent of the third level in a foreign language sequence should take the fourth course in the required sequence.

3. Students who have satisfactorily completed two years of study of one language in high school or have completed the college equivalent of the second level in a foreign language sequence should take the third and fourth courses in the required sequence.

4. Students who have satisfactorily completed one year of study of a language in high school or have completed the college equivalent of the first level in a foreign language sequence should take the second, third and fourth courses in the required sequence.

5. Students who begin a foreign language should take the required course sequence (12 cr).

HUNTER COLLEGE STUDENTS’ RIGHTS CONCERNING EDUCATION RECORDS

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. They are:

I. The right to inspect and review the student’s education records.

Students should submit to the registrar, the dean of students, or other appropriate College official, written requests that identify the record(s) they wish to inspect. If the records are not maintained by the College official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.

All requests shall be granted or denied in writing within 45 days of receipt. If the request is granted, the student will be provided with copies of the requested records or notified of the time and place where the records may be inspected. Students will be charged a fee for copies of requested records. If the request is denied or not responded to within 45 days, the student may appeal to the College’s FERPA appeals officer. Additional information regarding the appeal procedures will be provided by the College’s FERPA appeals officer: Office of Legal Affairs, Hunter College, Room 1705 HE, 695 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10021.

II. The right to request the amendment of the student’s education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading.

Students may ask the College to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They should write to the registrar, the dean of students, or other appropriate College official, clearly identify the part of the record they want changed and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If the College decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the College will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his or her right to a hearing before the College’s FERPA appeals officer regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

III. The right to consent to disclosure of personally identifiable information contained in the student’s education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.

One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to College officials with legitimate educational interests. A College official is a person employed by the University in an administrative, supervisory, academic, or research, or support staff position; a person or company with whom the University has contracted; a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another College official in performing his or her tasks. A College official has a legitimate educational interest if access is reasonably necessary in order to perform his/her instructional, research, administrative or other duties and responsibilities. Upon request, the College discloses education records without consent to officials of another college or school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.

STUDENT REGULATIONS AND RIGHTS

Statement on the Rights of Students
The Hunter College Senate voted endorsement of the following statement on September 24, 1974:

PREAMBLE

"Academic institutions exist for the transmission of knowledge, the pursuit of truth, development of students and the general well-being of society. Free inquiry and "Students "have a distinctive role...which qualifies them to share in the responsibility authority on campus; the exercise of the authority is part of their education....
Joint effort, to be effective, must be rooted in the concept of shared authority. The exercise of shared authority in college and university government, like the protection of (student and faculty) academic freedom, requires tolerance, respect and a sense of community."
The responsibility to secure and respect general conditions conducive to the freedom to learn is shared by all members of the academic community."

Students' rights are not limited by what is enumerated in this statement. The purpose of the statement is to outline some basic principles and guidelines, many of which are now met. Specific implementation will have to be continuously adjusted as conditions at the college change.

I. Academic and Personal Files

1. Improper disclosure, even within the college, of academic, personal and disciplinary records is a serious invasion of privacy. To minimize the risk of improper disclosure, academic, personal and disciplinary records should be kept in separate files.
2. All files may be made available only to specially authorized college staff.
Express consent of the student involved is otherwise required.
3. Academic records and transcripts should contain only information about scholastic achievement.
4. No records should be kept which reflect the political and off-campus activities or beliefs of students.
5. Non-current medical and disciplinary records should be periodically destroyed.
6. Students have the right to periodically review their academic, medical and disciplinary records and to appeal for removal of items improperly included.
If the appeal fails the student has the right to appeal a written rebuttal to the record.

II. Classroom, Grades, etc.

1. Students have the right, within the limits of available facilities, to pursue any course of study for which they are eligible according to college standards.
2. In order to permit eligible students unhindered access to courses, the costs of required materials should be kept within reasonable limits.
3. Students have the right to know, at the start of each course of study, the basis to be used by the instructor in determining grades.
4. Students' grades should be based solely on academic criteria, not on opinions or conduct in matters unrelated to academic standards.

IV. You may appeal the alleged denial of FERPA rights to the: General Counsel and Vice Chancellor for Legal Affairs, The City University of New York, 535 East 28th Street, New York, NY 10021.

V. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the College to comply with the requirements of FERPA.
The name and address of the office that administers FERPA are: Family Policy
Compliance Office, U.S. Department of Education, 600 Independence Avenue
SW, Washington, DC 20202-4605.

VI. The College will make the following "directory information" concerning current and former students available to those parties having a legitimate interest in the information: a student's name, attendance dates, telephone listing, home address, present address, e-mail address, major and minor fields of study, degrees and awards received, date of birth, place of birth, level of education and the most recent previous educational institution attended. By filing a form with the Registrar's Office, a student or former student may request that any or all of the above information not be released without his or her prior written consent.
This form may be completed, withdrawn, or modified at any time.
This policy shall be effective as of September 2000 and shall supersede prior policy on this issue.

Equal Opportunity Programs
Hunter College is an Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action Institution. The college does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, transgender, marital status, disability, generic predisposition or carrier status, alienage or citizenship, military or veteran status, or status as victim of domestic violence in its student admissions, employment, access to programs and administration of educational policies.

Rules and Regulations for the Maintenance of Public Order Pursuant to Article 129A of the NYS Education Law
The tradition of the university as a sanctuary of academic freedom and center of informed discussion is an honored one, to be guarded vigilantly. The basic significance of that sanctuary lies in the protection of intellectual freedoms: the rights of professors to teach, of scholars to engage in the advancement of knowledge, of students to learn and to express their views, free from external pressures or interference. These freedoms can flourish only in an atmosphere of mutual respect, civility and trust among teachers and students, only when members of the university community are willing to accept self-restraint and reciprocity as the condition upon which they share in its intellectual autonomy.

Academic freedom and the sanctuary of the University campus extend to all who share these aims and responsibilities. They cannot be invoked by those who would subordinate intellectual freedom to political ends, or who violate the norms of conduct established to protect that freedom. Against such offenders the University has the right and indeed the obligation, to defend itself. We accordingly announce the following rules and regulations to be in effect at each of our colleges which are to be administered in accordance with the requirements of due process as provided in the Bylaws of The City University of Higher Education.

With respect to enforcement of these rules and regulations we note that the Bylaws of the Board of Higher Education provide that:

"THE PRESIDENT. The president, with respect to his educational unit, shall:

"a. Have the affirmative responsibility of conserving and enhancing the educational standards of the college and schools under his jurisdiction;

"b. Be the adviser and executive agent of the Board and of his respective College Committee and as such shall have the immediate supervision with full discretionary power in carrying into effect the bylaws, resolutions and policies of the Board, the lawful resolutions of any of its committees and the policies, programs and lawful resolutions of the several faculties;

"c. Exercise general superintendence over the concerns, officers, employees and students of his educational unit...."

I. RULES

1. A member of the academic community shall not intentionally obstruct and/or forcibly prevent others from the exercise of their rights. Nor shall he interfere with the institution's educational processes or facilities, or the rights of those who wish to avail themselves of any of the institution's instructional, personal, administrative, recreational and community services.

2. Individuals are liable for failure to comply with lawful directions issued by representatives of the University/college when they are acting in their official capacities. Members of the academic community are required to show their identification cards when requested to do so by an official of the college.

3. Unauthorized occupancy of University/college facilities or blocking access to and from such areas is prohibited. Permission from appropriate college authorities must be obtained for removal, relocation and use of University/college equipment and/or supplies.

4. Theft from or damage to University/college premises or property, or theft of or damage to property of any person on university/college premises is prohibited.

5. H. COMPLAINT TO CIVIL AUTHORITIES

I. EJECTION

504/ADA Grievance Procedures

Hunter College encourages the prompt and equitable settlement of all complaints and grievances of discrimination in College programs under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (29 U.S.C. Section 706) and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 as amended (42 U.S.C. Section 12101-02). Toward that end, both informal and formal grievance procedures are established for the college.

These procedures are available to any student of the College who alleges any action relating to handicap which is prohibited by Section 504, the ADA, or the rules and regulations implementing those laws. No other issues may be raised in these proceedings.

The resolution of a grievance may pass through several steps. Initially, students are encouraged to discuss a complaint with the supervisor of the office involved. Often, this conversation will lead to steps that will alleviate the difficulty. If this discussion does not lead to a result that is satisfactory to the student, he or she should then begin an informal complaint process with the director of the Office for Access and Accommodations. If the informal complaint process does not yield results satisfactory to the student, a written formal complaint may be filed with the Vice President for Student Affairs. Students may obtain a written explanation of the entire grievance procedure and the accompanying form from Office for Access and Accommodations, Room 1124 Hunter East. The Section 504 and ADA Coordinator at Hunter College, Professor Tamara Green, is responsible for policies related to the disabled. She can be contacted in 1429 Hunter West; (212) 772-5061.

Sexual Harassment Policy and Procedures

Sexual harassment is illegal. It is a form of sex discrimination in violation of Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act, Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 and the official policy of The City University of New York. The City University of New York issued a policy in 1982 which was updated and reissued in October 1995.

The policy prohibits sexual harassment of faculty, staff and students:

"It is the policy of The City University of New York to prohibit harassment of employees or students on the basis of sex. This policy is related to and is in conformity with the equal opportunity policy of the University to recruit, employ, retain and promote employees without regard to sex, age, race, color, or creed. Prompt investigation of allegations will be made to ascertain the veracity of complaints and appropriate corrective action will be taken.

"It is a violation of policy for any member of the University community to engage in sexual harassment. It is also a violation of policy for any member of the University community to take action against an individual for reporting sexual harassment."

Hunter College adheres to CUNY policy and condemns all forms of sexual intimidation and exploitation. For the purposes of this policy, sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other intimidating verbal or written communications or physical conduct of a sexual nature. This behavior constitutes sexual harassment when:

1. submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment or academic standing;
2. submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment or academic decisions affecting that individual;
3. such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working or learning environment."

To implement CUNY’s policy, Hunter College created a Sexual Harassment Panel. The panel is responsible for reviewing all complaints of sexual harassment; and for making efforts to resolve those complaints informally, if possible. When informal resolution is not possible, the panel coordinator and/or deputy coordinator will fully investigate the complaint and report the results of the investigation to the College president (and dean of students, if the accused is a student).

Any student or other member of Hunter College may report allegations of sexual harassment to any member of the Sexual Harassment Panel. The names and phone numbers of the panel members are available in the panel coordinator’s office and in departments and offices in the college. The complaint will be promptly investigated and will be handled as confidentially as possible. Retaliation against complainants is specifically prohibited. Students, faculty or staff who are found, following applicable disciplinary proceedings, to have violated the CUNY Policy Against Sexual Harassment are subject to various penalties, including termination of employment and permanent dismissal from the University.

Further information on the panel is available from members of the panel in the panel’s office, located in 1206 Hunter East. Pamphlets on sexual harassment and the Title IX

Hunter College is committed to maintaining a fair and equal environment for both its employees and student body, consistent with the requirements of Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972, which state that:

No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or be subjected to, discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance...

Any individual who believes he or she has been discriminated against on the basis of gender in any area outside the purview of the Sexual Harassment Panel may direct all inquiries, concerns and complaints to Dean Schachter, Hunter's Title IX Coordinator.

These criteria are based on guidelines issued by the Office of Civil Rights, Department of Education.

ATHLETIC PROGRAM PARTICIPATION NOTICE

The college files an annual report with the US secretary of education on intercollegiate athletics which includes information on the participation of males and females on its teams and the expenditures and revenues of those teams. Copies of the annual report on intercollegiate athletics are available at the reference desk of the library and on the college web site.

Health Regulations

Health Standards The following are the general health standards for admission, readmission and continuing attendance at Hunter College:

1. The student’s health status shall not constitute a danger to any individual or group at Hunter College.
2. The health condition shall not be such that it may be aggravated or intensified by the demands of attendance at the College.
3. Any limitations of activity necessitated by a health problem shall be such that program adjustments will still enable the student to conform to the College’s academic requirements.
4. A student’s health status shall be such that the student may be expected to continue his or her college work, taking a reasonable number of hours on a continuing basis.

Immunizations Public Health Law 2165 requires college students to present a complete record of two live immunizations against measles and single immunization against mumps and rubella. Students born on or after January 1, 1957 must submit a complete immunization record signed by a health practitioner. Noncompliance will prohibit a student from registering for classes.

Meningococcal Disease Public Health Law 2167 requires institutions, including colleges and universities, to distribute information about meningococcal disease to all students meeting the enrollment criteria, whether they live on or off campus. Hunter College, CUNY, is required to maintain a record of the following for each student:

• A response to receipt of meningococcal disease and vaccine information signed by the student or student’s parent or guardian. This must include information on the availability and cost of meningococcal meningitis vaccine (Menomune), and either
  • A record of meningococcal meningitis immunization within the past 10 years, or
  • An acknowledgement of meningococcal disease risks and refusal of meningococcal meningitis immunization signed by the student or student’s parent or guardian.

Medical Records and Examinations Matriculated students (including transfer students) are required to submit a medical report by a recognized physician upon admission into certain programs. If a student’s medical report or other factors indicate a health problem, the college may require from the student’s physician a report from a medical specialist in the area of the student’s disability.

Student Physical Activity Cards Permission forms for physical education and recreational activities are obtained in the Office of Health Services, 307 Hunter North. As noted above, the prerequisite for issuance of approved cards is a completed medical report on file. These cards are valid for two years; then they must be renewed.

DRUG-FREE SCHOOLS AND CAMPUSES,
PUBLIC LAW 101-226

Hunter College is in compliance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989 (Public Law 101-226).

The New York State minimum drinking age (21 years) is observed at all campus functions. Proof of age is required to consume alcoholic beverages and no individual appearing to be under the influence of alcohol will be served. All Hunter College organizations sponsoring events must, in advance of the event, agree to the following conditions:

1. No person shall sell or provide an alcoholic beverage to a person under the age of 21. Where documentation of age is unavailable or not reasonably certain, the law requires denial of an alcoholic beverage to that person.
2. No person shall sell or provide an alcoholic beverage to a person actually or apparently under the influence of alcohol.
3. No person shall sell or provide an alcoholic beverage to a person known to be a habitual excessive drinker.
4. All advertising, promotion, publicity, invitations, etc. stating the availability of alcoholic beverages at an event, must include the following statement: The unlawful possession, use or distribution of drugs is prohibited on the campus. Violators will be subject to penalties ranging from reprimand and warning for a first infraction, to separation from the college for a subsequent offense.

Legal sanctions against students alleged to be in violation of Public Law 101-226 will be determined according to Article 15 Section 3 of the CUNY Board of Trustees Bylaws. Sanctions for members of the instructional staff and non-instructional staff will be governed by Article VII of the CUNY Board of Trustees Bylaws and Article XIV, respectively.

Appendix D

COLLEGE GOVERNANCE

Hunter College has several governing assemblies, most of which provide for student participation.

The Hunter College Senate 1018 Hunter East
The Hunter College Senate, chartered in 1970, is the principal governance body of the College and the only such body that holds a Governance Charter with the CUNY Board of Trustees. The Senate has authority to determine College policy in matters related to:
1. Curriculum
2. Academic requirements and standards
3. Instruction and the evaluation of teaching
4. College development, including master plan
5. Computing and technology

Representatives of the College, student body and administration constitute the voting membership of the Senate and serve for a term of two years. The elected officers of the Senate include the chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary and the chairperson of the Evening Council, who constitute the Senate Administrative Committee. There are many standing committees, including an Evening Council and a varying number of special and ad-hoc committees accomplish much of the work of the Senate.

Membership on committees is representative and open to all faculty and students by election of the full Senate from a slate recommended by the Nominating Committee and by member nominations from the Senate floor.

Regular meetings of the Senate are planned for one and one-half hours and are held twice a month. Additional monthly meetings are called as needed.

Election of faculty and student membership to the Senate occurs during the spring semester.

Faculty members and students are encouraged to become involved in the meetings of the Hunter College Senate and its committees.

Further information may be obtained by visiting the Senate Office.

The Faculty Delegate Assembly 1414 Hunter East
The Faculty Delegate Assembly is the official faculty organization of the College.

Composed of two faculty members elected from each department/school, as well as the 10 representatives of the College to the University Faculty Senate, it works closely with the president, the provost, the Hunter College Senate and the Professional Staff Congress to maintain the academic standing of the College and to implement the suggestions of the faculty. In addition, the FDA publishes The Faculty Voice twice each semester and updates periodically a Handbook for Faculty.

The Student Governments
Undergraduate 121 Hunter North Graduate 218 Thomas Hunter

These elected student groups have an essential role in the life of the college by allocating the “student activity fee,” by chartering of student organizations and by serving as representatives of students on matters of college policy.

Hunter College Ombudsman
1016 Hunter East

The ombudsman is empowered by the Hunter College Governance Charter to investigate complaints and grievances by any member of the College community (student, faculty, staff, or administration) about a problem or condition in the College. When requested and where possible, the anonymity of a complainant will be protected and names will not be used in any reports the ombudsman may make.

When someone feels unfairly treated or unjustly disadvantaged, the ombudsman can advise the person of the available appeals procedures, recommend corrective action to be taken by the appropriate College officers, or recommend changes in college procedures or regulations that would eliminate such injustices in the future. The ombudsman may be reached at (212) 772-4203.

Faculty Personnel and Budget Committee (FP&B)

Composed of the president, the provost and the chairs of departments, FP&B is concerned with appointment, reappointment, promotion and other faculty personnel matters.

Departmental Committees

Each department has bylaws approved by the Senate. These bylaws provide for a number of committees, most of which are open to student members. Further information is available in the appropriate departmental office.

College Name

The official name of the college, which must be used in correspondence and on application forms for employment, admission to graduate school and transfer to other institutions, is “Hunter College of The City University of New York.” Merely referring to “The City University of New York” or “CUNY” will result in the correspondence or application being sent to the Board of Trustees, thereby causing delay in processing.
ARTICLE XV – STUDENTS

Section 15.0 PREAMBLE. Academic institutions exist for the transmission of knowledge, the pursuit of truth, the development of students and the general well-being of society. Student participation, responsibility, academic freedom and due process are essential to the operation of the academic enterprise. As members of the academic community, students should be encouraged to develop the capacity for critical judgment and to engage in a sustained and independent search for truth.

Freedom to learn and to explore major social, political and economic issues are necessary adjuncts to student academic freedom, as is freedom from discrimination based on racial, ethnic, religious, sex, political and economic differentiations.

Freedom to learn and freedom to teach are inseparable facets of academic freedom. The concomitant of this freedom is responsibility. If members of the academic community are to develop positively in their freedom; if these rights are to be secure, then students should exercise their freedom with responsibility.

Section 15.1 CONDUCT STANDARD DEFINED. Each student enrolled or in attendance in any college, school, or unit under the control of the board and every student organization, association, publication, club, or chapter shall obey the laws of the City, State and Nation and the bylaws and resolutions of the board and the policies, regulations and orders of the college.

The faculty and student body at each college shall share equally the responsibility and the power to establish subject to the approval of the board more detailed rules of conduct and regulations in conformity with the general requirement of this article.

This regulatory power is limited by the right of students to the freedoms of speech, press, assembly and petition as applied to others in the academic community and to citizens generally.

Section 15.2 STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS.

a. Any group of students may form an organization, association, club, or chapter by filing with the duly elected student government organization of the college or school at which they are enrolled or in attendance and with an officer to be designated by the faculty of the college or school at which they are enrolled or in attendance (1) the name and purposes of the organization, association, club, or chapter, (2) the names and addresses of its president and secretary or other officers corresponding in function to president and secretary.

However, no group, organization, or student publication with a program against the religion, race, ethnic origin, or identification or sex of a particular group or which makes systematic attacks against the religion, race, ethnic origin or sex of a particular group shall receive support from any fees collected by the college or be permitted to organize or continue at any college or school. No organizations, military or semi-military in character, not connected with established college or school courses, shall be permitted without the authorization of the faculty and the duly elected student government and the board.

b. Extra-curricular activities at each college or school shall be regulated by the duly elected student government organization to insure the effective conduct of such college or school as an institution of higher learning and for the prevention of activities which are hereafter proscribed or which violate the standards of conduct of the character set forth in bylaw 15.1. Such powers shall include:

1. The power to charter or otherwise authorize teams (excluding inter-collegiate athletics), publications, organizations, associations, clubs, and chapters and, when appropriate in the exercise of such regulatory power, the power to refuse, suspend, or revoke any charter or other authorization for cause after hearing on notice.

2. The power to delegate responsibility for the effective implementation of its regulatory functions hereunder to any officer or committee which it may appoint. Any aggrieved student or group whose charter or other authorization has been refused, suspended, or revoked may appeal such adverse action by such officer or committee of student government to the duly elected student government. On appeal, an aggrieved student or group shall be entitled to a hearing following the due process procedures as set forth in section 15-3. Following such hearing the duly elected student government shall have the authority to set aside, decrease, or confirm the adverse action.

c. Any person or organization affiliated with the college may file charges with an office of the dean of students* alleging that a student publication has systematically attacked the religion, race, ethnic origin, or sex of a particular group, or has otherwise contravened the laws of the City, State, or Nation, or any bylaw or resolution of the board, or any policy, regulation, or order of the college, within a reasonable period of time after such occurrence. If the dean of students determines, after making such inquiries as he/she may deem appropriate, that the charges are substantial, he/she shall attempt to resolve the dispute, failing which he/she shall promptly submit the charges to the faculty-student disciplinary committee for disposition in accordance with the due process procedures of section 15.3 thereof.

If the committee sustains the charges or any part thereof against the student publication, the committee shall be empowered to (1) reprimand the publication, or (2) recommend to the appropriate funding bodies the withdrawal of budget funds. The funding body shall have the authority to implement fully, modify, or overrule the recommendations.

d. Each college shall establish a student elections review committee in consultation with the various student governments. The student elections review committee shall approve the election procedures and certify the results of elections for student governments and student body referenda.

e. Student government elections shall be scheduled and conducted and newly elected student governments shall take office, in accordance with policies of the board and implementing regulations.

Section 15.3 STUDENT DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES.

Complaint Procedures:

a. Any charge, accusation, or allegation which is to be presented against a student and which, if proved, may subject a student to disciplinary action, must be submitted in writing in complete detail to the office of the dean of students promptly by the individual, organization, or department making the charge.

b. The chief student affairs officer of the college or his or her designee will conduct a preliminary investigation in order to determine whether disciplinary charges should be preferred. The chief student affairs officer or his or her designee will advise the student of the charge(s) against him or her, consult with other parties who may be involved or who have information regarding the incident and review other relevant evidence. Following this preliminary investigation, which shall be conducted within thirty (30) calendar days of the filing of the complaint, the chief student affairs officer or designee shall take one of the following actions:

(i) dismiss the matter if there is no basis for the allegation(s) or the allegation(s) does not warrant disciplinary actions. The individuals involved shall be notified that the complaint has been dismissed;

(ii) refer the matter to conciliation. If a matter is referred to conciliation the accused student shall receive a copy of the notice required pursuant to section 15.3e of this bylaw; or

(iii) prefer formal disciplinary charges.

Conciliation Conference:

c. The conciliation conference shall be conducted by the counselor in the office of the dean of students or a qualified staff or faculty member designated by the chief student affairs officer. The following procedures shall be in effect at this conference:

1. An effort will be made to resolve the matter by mutual agreement.

2. If an agreement is reached, the counselor shall report his/her recommendation to the chief student affairs officer for approval and, if approved, the complainant shall be notified.

Throughout these bylaws in any college or unit where the title “dean of students” does not exist, the same shall refer to the officer performing the functions which would otherwise be performed by a dean of students.

3. If no agreement is reached, or if the student fails to appear, the counselor shall refer the matter back to the chief student affairs officer who will prefer disciplinary charges.

4. The counselor is precluded from testifying in a college hearing regarding information received during the conciliation conference.

Notice of Hearing and Charges:

d. Notice of the charge(s) and of the time and place of the hearing shall be personally delivered or sent by the chief student affairs officer of the college to the student at the address appearing on the records of the college, by registered or certified mail and by regular mail. The hearing shall be scheduled within a reasonable time following the filing of the charges or the conciliation conference. Notice of at least five business days shall be given to the student in advance of the hearing unless the student consents to an earlier hearing.

e. The notice shall contain the following:

1. A complete and itemized statement of the charge(s) being brought against the student including the rule, bylaw or regulation he/she is charged with violating and the possible penalties for such violation.

2. A statement that the student has the following rights:

   (i) to present his/her side of the story;
   (ii) to present witnesses and evidence on his/her behalf;
   (iii) to cross-examine witnesses presenting evidence against the student;
   (iv) to remain silent without assumption of guilt; and
   (v) to be represented by legal counsel or an adviser at the student’s expense.

3. A warning that anything the student says may be used against him/her at a non-college hearing.

*Appendix E
Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee Procedures:

f. The following procedures shall apply at the hearing before the faculty-student disciplinary committee:

1. The chairperson shall preside at the hearing. The chairperson shall inform the student of the charges, the hearing procedures and his or her rights.

2. After informing the student of the charges, the hearing procedures and his or her rights, the chairperson shall ask the student charged to plead guilty or not guilty. If the student pleads guilty, the student shall be given an opportunity to explain his/her actions before the committee. If the student pleads not guilty, the college shall present its case. At the conclusion of the college's case, the student may move to dismiss the charges. If the motion is denied by the committee the student shall be given an opportunity to present his/herself or his defense.

3. Prior to accepting testimony at the hearing, the chairperson shall rule on any motions questioning the impartiality of any committee member or the adequacy of the notice of the charge(s). Subsequent thereto, the chairperson may rule on the subject of the evidence and may exclude irrelevant, immaterial or unduly repetitive evidence. However, if either party wishes to question the impartiality of a committee member on the basis of evidence which was not previously available at the inception of the hearing, the chairperson may rule on such a motion. The chairperson shall exclude all persons who are to appear as witnesses, except the accused student.

4. The college shall make a record of each fact-finding hearing by some means such as a stenographic transcript, a tape recording or the equivalent. A disciplined student is entitled upon request to a copy of such a transcript, tape or equivalent without cost.

5. The student is entitled to a closed hearing but has the right to request an open public hearing. However, the chairperson has the right to hold a closed hearing when an open public hearing would adversely affect and be disruptive of the committee's normal operations.

6. The college bears the burden of proving the charge(s) by a preponderance of the evidence.

7. The role of the faculty-student disciplinary committee is to listen to the testimony, ask questions of the witnesses, review the testimony and evidence presented at the hearing and the papers filed by the parties and render a determination as to guilt or innocence. In the event the student is found guilty, the committee shall then determine the penalty to be imposed.

8. At the end of the fact-finding phase of the hearing, the student may introduce additional records, such as character references. The college may introduce a copy of the student's previous disciplinary record, where applicable, provided the student was shown a copy of the record prior to the commencement of the hearing. The disciplinary record shall be submitted to the committee in a sealed envelope and shall not be opened until after the committee has made its findings of fact. In the event the student has been determined to be guilty of the charge or charges the records and documents introduced by the student and the college shall be opened and used by the committee for dispositional purposes, i.e. to determine an appropriate penalty if the charges are sustained.

9. The committee shall deliberate in closed session. The committee's decision shall be based solely on the testimony and evidence presented at the hearing and the papers filed by the parties.

10. The student shall be sent a copy of the faculty-student disciplinary committee's decision within five days of the conclusion of the hearing. The decision shall be final subject to the student's right of appeal.

11. Where a student is represented by legal counsel the president of the college may request that a lawyer from the general counsel's office appear at the hearing to present the college's case.

Section 15.4 APPEALS. An appeal from the decision of the faculty-student disciplinary committee may be made to the president who may confirm or decrease the penalty but not increase it. His/her decision shall be final except in the case of dismissals or suspension for more than one term. An appeal from a decision of dismissal or suspension for more than one term may be made to the appropriate committee of the board. Any appeal under this section shall be made in writing within fifteen days of the delivery of the decision appealed from. This requirement may be waived in a particular case for good cause by the president or his/her designee. If the president is a party to the dispute, his/her functions with respect to an appeal shall be discharged by an official of the university to be appointed by the chancellor.

Section 15.5 COMMITTEE STRUCTURE.

a. Each faculty-student disciplinary committee shall consist of two faculty members and two student members and a chairperson. A quorum shall consist of the chair and any two members. Hearings shall be scheduled at a convenient time and efforts shall be made to ensure full student and faculty representation.

b. The president shall select in consultation with the head of the appropriate campus governance body or where the president is the head of the governance body, the executive committee, three (3) members of the instructional staff of that college to receive training and to serve in rotation as chair of the disciplinary committees. If none of the chairpersons appointed from the campus can serve, the president, at his/her discretion, may request that a chairperson be selected by lottery from the entire group of chairpersons appointed by other colleges. The chairperson shall preside at all meetings of the faculty/student disciplinary committee and decide and make all rulings for the committee. He/she shall not be a voting member of the committee but shall vote in the event of a tie.

c. The faculty members shall be selected by lot from a panel of six elected annually by the appropriate faculty body from among the persons having faculty rank or faculty status. The student members shall be selected by lot from a panel of six elected annually in an election in which all students registered at the college shall be eligible to vote. In the event that the student or faculty panel or both are not elected, or if more panel members are needed, the president shall have the duty to select the panel or panels which have not been elected. No individuals on the panel shall serve on the panel for more than two consecutive years.

d. In the event that the chairperson cannot continue, the president shall appoint another chairperson. In the event that a student or faculty seat becomes vacant and it is necessary to fill the seat to continue the hearing, the seat shall be filled from the faculty or student panel by lottery.

e. Persons who are to be participants in the hearings as witnesses or have been involved in preferring the charges or who may participate in the appeals procedures or any other person having a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing shall be disqualified from serving on the committee.

Section 15.6 SUSPENSION OR DISMISSAL. The board reserves full power to dismiss or suspend a student, or suspend a student organization for conduct which impedes, obstructs, or interferes with the orderly and continuous administration and operation of any college, school, or unit of the university in the use of its facilities or in the achievement of its purposes as an educational institution.

The chancellor or chancellor's designee, president or any dean may in emergency or extraordinary circumstances, temporarily suspend a student, or temporarily suspend the privileges of a student organization or group for cause, pending an early hearing as provided in bylaw section 15.3 to take place within not more than seven (7) school days. Prior to the commencement of a temporary suspension of a student, the college shall give such student oral or written notice of the charges against him/her and, if he/she denies them, the college shall forthwith give such student an informal oral explanation of the evidence supporting the charges and the student may present informally his/her explanation or theory of the matter. When a student's presence poses a continuing danger to persons or property or an ongoing threat of disrupting the academic process, notice and opportunity for denial and explanation may follow suspension, but shall be given as soon as feasible thereafter.

Section 15.7 THE UNIVERSITY STUDENT SENATE. There shall be a university student senate responsible, subject to the board, for the formulation of university-wide student policy relating to the academic status, role, rights and freedoms of the student. The authority and duties of the university student senate shall not extend to areas of interest which fall exclusively within the domain of the student governments of the constituent units of the university. Consistent with the authority of the board of trustees in accordance with the education law and the bylaws of the board of trustees, the university student senate shall make its own bylaws providing for the election of its own officers, the establishment of its own rules and procedures, for its internal administration and for such other matters as is necessary for its existence. The university student senate shall have the full rights and responsibilities accorded student organizations as provided in these bylaws. The delegates and alternate delegates to the university student senate shall be elected by their respective constituencies, or by their student governments from the elected members of the respective student governments.

Section 15.8 COLLEGE GOVERNANCE PLANS. The provisions in a duly adopted college governance plan shall not be inconsistent with the provisions contained in this article.

ARTICLE XVI-STUDENT ACTIVITY FEES AND AUXILIARY ENTERPRISES

Section 16.1 STUDENT ACTIVITY FEE. The student activity fee is the total of the fees for student government and other student activities. Student activity fees, including student government fees collected by a college of the university shall be deposited in a central depository and, except where earmarked by the board, allocated by a college association budget committee subject to review by the college association as required in these bylaws.

Section 16.2 STUDENT ACTIVITY FEES USE-EXPENDITURE CATEGORIES. Student activity fee funds shall be allocated and expended only for the following purposes:

1. Extracurricular educational programs;
2. Cultural and social activities;
3. Recreational and athletic programs;
4. Student government;
5. Publications and other media;
6. Assistance to registered student organizations;
7. Community service programs;
8. Enhancement of the college and university environment;
9. Transportation, administration and insurance related to the implementation of these activities;
10. Student services to supplement or add to those provided by the university;
11. Stipends to student leaders.
Section 16.3 STUDENT GOVERNMENT FEE. The student government fee is that portion of the student activity fee levied by resolution of the board which has been established for the support of student government activities. The existing student government fees now in effect shall continue until changed. Student government fees shall be allocated by the duly elected student government or each student government where more than one duly elected student government exists, for its own use and for the use of student organizations, as specified in section 15.2 of these bylaws, provided, however, that the allocation is based on a budget approved by the duly elected student government after notice and hearing, subject to the review of the college association.

Where more than one duly elected student government exists, the college association shall apportion the student government fees to each student government in direct proportion to the amount collected from members of each student government.

Section 16.4 STUDENT GOVERNMENT ACTIVITY DEFINED. Student government activity is any activity operated by and for the students enrolled at the college, (2) that participation in the activity and the benefit thereof is available to all students enrolled in the unit or student government thereof and (3) that the activity does not contravene the laws of the state, state, or nation, or the published rules, regulations and orders of the university or the duly established college authorities.

Section 16.5 COLLEGE ASSOCIATION. a. The college association shall have responsibility for the supervision and review over college student activity fee supported budgets. All budgets of college student activity fees, except where earmarked by the board to be allocated by another body, shall be developed by a college association budget committee and recommended to the college association for review by the college association prior to expenditure. The college association shall review all college student activity fees, including student government fee allocations and expenditures for conformance with the expenditure categories defined in section 16.2 of this article and the college association shall disapprove any allocation or expenditure if it does not conform or is inappropriate, improper, or inequitable.

b. A college association shall be considered approved for purposes of this article if it consists of thirteen (13) members, its governing documents are approved by the college president and the following requirements are met:

1. The governing board of the college association is composed of:
   (i) The college president or his/her designee as chair
   (ii) Three administrative members appointed by the college president
   (iii) Three faculty members appointed by the college president from a panel whose size is twice the number of seats to be filled and the panel is elected by the appropriate college faculty governance body.
   (iv) Six student members comprised of the student government president(s) and other elected students with the student seats allocated on a basis which will provide representation to each government, where more than one exists, as nearly as practicable in proportion to the student activity fees provided by the students from the respective constituencies.

2. The college association structure provides a budget committee composed of members of the governing board, at least a majority of whom are students selected in accordance with section 16.5(b) (1)(v) of these bylaws. The budget committee shall be empowered to receive and review student activity fee budget requests and to develop a budget subject to the review of the college association. The college association may choose to not approve the budget or portions of the budget if in their opinion such items are inappropriate, improper, or inequitable. The budget shall be returned to the budget committee with the specific concerns of the college association noted for further deliberation by the budget committee and subsequent resubmission to the college association. If the budget is not approved within thirty (30) days then portions of the budget voted upon and approved by the college association board will be allocated. The remainder shall be held until the college association and the budget committee agree.

3. The governing documents of the college association have been reviewed by the board's general counsel and approved by the board.

Section 16.6 MANAGEMENT AND DISBURSEMENT OF FUNDS. The college and all student activity fee allocating bodies shall employ generally accepted accounting and investment procedures in the management of all funds. All funds for the support of student activities are to be disbursed only in accordance with approved budgets and be based on written documentation. A requisition for disbursement of funds must contain two signatures; one, the signature of a person with responsibility for the port of student activities are to be disbursed only in accordance with approved budgets and (3) that the activity does not contravene the laws of the state, state, or nation, or the published rules, regulations and orders of the university or the duly established college authorities.

Section 16.7 REVENUES. All revenues generated by student activities funded through student activity fees shall be placed in a college central depository subject to the control of the allocating body. The application of such revenues to the account of the income generating organization shall require the specific approval of the allocating body.

Section 16.8 FISCAL ACCOUNTABILITY HANDBOOK. The chancellor or his/her designee shall promulgate regulations in a fiscal accountability handbook, to regulate all aspects of the collection, deposits, financial disclosure, accounting procedures, financial payments, documentation, contracts, travel vouchers, investments and surpluses of student activity fees and all other procedural and documentary aspects necessary, as determined by the chancellor or his designee to protect the integrity and accountability of all student activity fee funds.

Section 16.9 COLLEGE PURPOSES FUND. a. A college purposes fund may be established at each college and shall be allocated by the college president. The fund may have up to twenty-five (25) percent of the unmarked portion of the student activity fee earmarked to it by presentation of the board, upon the presentation to the board of a list of activities that may be properly funded by student activity fees that are deemed essential by the college president.

b. Expenditures from the college purposes fund shall be subject to full disclosure under section 16.13 of these bylaws.

c. Referenda of the student body with respect to the use and amount of the college purposes fund shall be permitted under the procedures and requirements of section 16.12 of these bylaws.

Section 16.10 AUXILIARY ENTERPRISE BOARD. a. The auxiliary enterprise board shall have responsibility for the oversight, supervision and review over college auxiliary enterprises. All budgets of auxiliary enterprise funds and all contracts for auxiliary enterprises shall be developed by the auxiliary enterprise budget and contract committee and reviewed by the auxiliary enterprise board prior to expenditure or execution.

b. The auxiliary enterprise board shall be considered approved for the purposes of this article if it consists of at least eleven (11) members, its governing documents are approved by the college president and the following requirements are met:

1. The governing board is composed of the college president or his/her designee as chair, plus an equal number of students and the combined total of faculty and administrative members.

2. The administrative members are appointed by the college president.

3. The faculty members are appointed by the college president from a panel whose size is twice the number of seats to be filled and the panel is elected by the appropriate college faculty governance body.

4. The student members are the student government president(s) and other elected students and the student seats are allocated on a basis which will provide representation to each government, where more than one exists, as nearly as practicable, in proportion to the student enrollment by headcount from the respective constituencies.

5. The auxiliary enterprise board structure provides for a budget and contract committee composed of a combined total of faculty and administrative members that is one more than the number of student members. The budget and contract committee shall be empowered to develop all contract and budget allocation proposals subject to the review and approval of the auxiliary enterprise board.

6. The governing documents of the auxiliary enterprise board have been reviewed by the board's general counsel and approved by the board.

Section 16.11 THE REVIEW AUTHORITY OF COLLEGE PRESIDENTS OVER STUDENT ACTIVITY FEE ALLOCATING BODIES AND AUXILIARY ENTERPRISE BOARDS. a. The president of the college shall have the authority to disapprove any student activity fee, including student government fee, or auxiliary enterprise allocation or expenditure, which in his or her opinion contravenes the laws of the state, state, or nation or any bylaw or policy of the university or any policy, regulation, or order of the college. If the college president chooses to disapprove an allocation or expenditure, he or she shall consult with the general counsel and vice chancellor for legal affairs and thereafter communicate his/her decision to the allocating body or auxiliary enterprise board.

b. The president of the college shall have the authority to suspend and send back for further review any student activity fee, including student government fee, allocation or expenditure which in his or her opinion is not within the expenditure categories defined by the board of governors. The college association shall, within ten (10) days of receiving a proposed allocation or expenditure for further review, study it and make a recommendation to the president with respect to it. The college president shall thereafter consider the recommendation, consult with the general counsel and vice chancellor for legal affairs and thereafter communicate his/her final decision to the allocating body as to whether the allocation or expenditure is disapproved.

c. The chancellor or his designee shall have the same review authority with respect to university student activity fees that the college president has with respect to college student activity fees.

d. All disapprovals exercised under this section shall be filed with the general counsel and vice chancellor for legal affairs.

e. Recipients of extramural student activity fees shall present an annual report to the chancellor for the appropriate board committee detailing the activities, benefits and finances of the extramural body as they pertain to the colleges where students are paying an extramural fee.
Academic Dishonesty is prohibited in The City University of New York and is punishable by penalties, including failing grades, suspension and expulsion, as provided herein.

I. Definitions and Examples of Academic Dishonesty

Cheating is the unauthorized use or attempted use of material, information, notes, study aids, devices or communication during an academic exercise.

The following are some examples of cheating, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

- Copying from another student during an examination or allowing another to copy your work.
- Unauthorized collaboration on a take home assignment or examination.
- Using notes during a closed book examination.
- Taking an examination for another student, or asking or allowing another student to take an examination for you.
- Changing a graded exam and returning it for more credit.
- Submitting substantial portions of the same paper to more than one course without consulting with each instructor.
- Preparing answers or writing notes in a blue book (exam booklet) before an examination.
- Allowing others to research and write assigned papers or do assigned projects, including use of commercial term paper services.
- Giving assistance to acts of academic misconduct/dishonesty.
- Fabricating data (all or in part).
- Submitting someone else’s work as your own.
- Unauthorized use during an examination of any electronic devices such as cell phones, palm pilots, computers or other technologies to retrieve or send information.

Plagiarism is the act of presenting another person’s ideas, research or writings as your own.

The following are some examples of plagiarism, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

- Using information that is not common knowledge without acknowledging the source.
- Using information from another person’s ideas or theories in your own words without acknowledging the source.
- Failing to acknowledge collaborators on homework and laboratory assignments.
- Presenting another person’s ideas or theories in your own words without acknowledging the source.
- Submitting another person’s research or writings as your own.
- Submission of substantial portions of the same paper to more than one course or examination.
- Changing a graded exam and returning it for more credit.
- Taking an examination for another student, or asking or allowing another student to take an examination for you.
- Using notes during a closed book examination.
- Unauthorized use of any other electronic devices to retrieve or send information.

Plagiarism includes submitting downloaded term papers or parts of term papers, paraphrasing or copying information from the internet without citing the source and “cutting & pasting” from various sources without proper attribution.

Obtaining Unfair Advantage is any activity that intentionally or unintentionally gives a student an unfair advantage in his/her academic work over another student.

The following are some examples of obtaining an unfair advantage, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

- Falsifying information on an official document such as a grade report, letter of permission, drop/add form, ID card or other college document.
- Falsifying information on an official academic record.
- Forging signatures of authorization.
- Falsifying information on an official academic record.
- Falsifying information on an official document such as a grade report, letter of permission, drop/add form, ID card or other college document.

The Baruch College document includes excerpts from University of California’s web page entitled “The Academic Dishonesty Question: A Guide to an Answer through Education, Prevention, Adjudication and Obligation” by Prof. Harry Nelson.
II. METHODS FOR PROMOTING ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

• Orientation sessions for all new faculty (full and part-time) and students should incorporate a discussion of academic integrity. Packets containing information, explaining the policy, the procedures that are in place and examples of infractions should be distributed. These packets should be readily available, throughout the academic year, in the appropriate offices of the college and the locations of those offices should be widely publicized. Colleges using additional resources to detect plagiarism should publicize these resources widely.

• All college catalogs, student handbooks and college web sites should include the CUNY and college academic integrity policy and the consequences of not adhering to it. The Policy on Academic Integrity, as adopted by the Board, shall be distributed to all students. All syllabi and schedules of classes should make reference to the CUNY and college's academic integrity policy and where they are published in full.

• A “Faculy Report” form should be used throughout the University to report incidents of suspected academic dishonesty. (Sample attached) It is strongly recommended that the faculty member report all such incidents by completing and submitting the form to the chief student affairs officer, the Academic Integrity Committee if the college has established one (see recommendation below), or other appropriate academic integrity official whom the college may designate (collectively referred to hereinafter as the “Academic Integrity Official”). A follow-up form should be submitted to the student’s academic integrity file by the adjudicating person or body once the suspected incident has been resolved pursuant to one of the methods described below. Although forms need not be uniform across the University, they need to be uniform within each college. The form should provide at least minimal information, such as the name of the instructor and student, course name and number, date of incident, explanation of incident and the instructor’s telephone/email contact information; it should be easy to use and process. Except as otherwise provided in the The CUNY Procedures, the Academic Integrity Official of each college should retain the forms for the purposes of identifying repeat offenders, gathering data and assessing and reviewing policies.

• CUNY will develop a web site on Academic Integrity. This web site will include suggestions for faculty, students and administrators to reduce cheating or plagiarism, resources on academic integrity and links to relevant sites. Future plans also include the development of an online training program to raise awareness about academic integrity.

• The Committee recommends that this CUNY Policy on Academic Integrity, dated Spring 2004, be adopted by the Board of Trustees.

• Colleges should adopt the “PEN” (Pendng) grade to facilitate the implementation of the Procedures for Imposition of Sanctions. This grade already exists in the University’s Glossary of Grades.

• Colleges may wish to consider issuing a Student Guide to Academic Integrity. An excellent example is a document that students at Baruch College developed called “Student Guide to Academic Integrity at Baruch College”. The Guide is in its initial stages of approval.

• Each college should consider joining the Center for Academic Integrity.

• Colleges should consider subscribing to an electronic plagiarism detection service. Any college that does subscribe must notify every student each semester of the fact that such a service is available for use by the faculty.

• Colleges should consider establishing an Academic Integrity Committee, to serve in lieu of grade appeals committees in cases of academic dishonesty, which would hear and decide contested grade reductions that faculty members award because of student violations of the Academic Integrity Policy and collect and maintain files of Faculty Report forms of suspected and adjudicated violations of the Academic Integrity Policy.

• Establish a mechanism for preventing students from dropping a class in order to avoid an investigation and/or imposition of a sanction for a violation of academic integrity.

III. PROCEDURES FOR IMPOSITION OF SANCTIONS FOR VIOLATIONS OF CUNY POLICY ON ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

A. Introduction

As a legal matter, in disciplining students for violations of policies of academic integrity, CUNY, as a public institution, must conform to the principles of due process mandated by the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution — generally speaking, to provide notice of the charges and some opportunity to be heard. In the context of court-litigated violations, questions as to how much and what kind of process was “due” turn on the courts’ judgment whether the decision on culpability was “disciplinary” (a question of fact) or “academic” (a question of the instructor’s expert judgment). This distinction has proved difficult to apply on campus.

Accordingly, these procedures provide for alternative approaches depending on the severity of the sanction(s) being sought. If the instructor desires solely an “academic” sanction, that is, a grade reduction, less process is due than if a “disciplinary” sanction, such as suspension or expulsion, is sought.

A faculty member who suspects that a student has committed a violation of the CUNY or the college Academic Integrity Policy shall review with the student the facts and circumstances of the suspected violation whenever possible. The decision whether to seek an academic sanction only, rather than a disciplinary sanction or both types of sanctions, will rest with the faculty member in the first instance, but the college retains the right to bring disciplinary charges against the student. Among the factors the college should consider in determining whether to seek a disciplinary sanction are whether the student has committed one or more prior violations of the Academic Integrity Policy and mitigating circumstances if any. It is strongly recommended that every instance of suspected violation should be reported to the Academic Integrity Official on a form provided by the college as described in the third Recommendation for Promoting Academic Integrity, above. Among other things, this reporting will allow the college to determine whether it wishes to seek a disciplinary sanction even where the instructor may not wish to do so.

B. Procedures In Cases Where The Instructor Seeks An Academic Sanction Only

1. Student Accepts Guilt and Does Not Contest the Academic Sanction

If the faculty member wishes to seek only an academic sanction (i.e., a reduced grade only) and the student does not contest either his/her guilt or the particular reduced grade the faculty member has chosen, then the student shall be given the reduced grade, unless the college decides to seek a disciplinary sanction, see Section I above and IV below. The reduced grade may apply to the particular assignment as to which the violation occurred or to the course grade, at the faculty member’s discretion.

2. Student Denies Guilt and/or Contest the Academic Sanction

If the student denies guilt or contests the particular grade awarded by the faculty member, then the matter shall be handled using the college’s grade appeals process, including departmental grading committees where applicable or the Academic Integrity Committee. In either case, the process must, at a minimum, provide the student with an opportunity to be heard and to present evidence.

C. Procedures In Cases Where A Disciplinary Sanction Is Sought

If a faculty member suspects a violation and seeks a disciplinary sanction, the faculty member shall refer the matter to the college’s Academic Integrity Official using the Faculty Report form, as described in the third Recommendation for Promoting Academic Integrity above, to be adjudicated by the college’s Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee under Article 15 of the CUNY Bylaws. As provided for therein, the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee may, among other things, investigate, consolidate, or hear evidence on cases in which disciplinary charges are brought. Under certain circumstances, college officials other than the Academic Integrity Official may seek disciplinary sanctions following the procedures outlined above. For the reasons discussed in Item IV below, if a reduced grade is also at issue, then that grade should be held in abeyance, pending the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee’s action.

D. Procedures In Cases In Which Both A Disciplinary And An Academic Sanction Are Sought

If a faculty member or the college seeks to have both a disciplinary and an academic sanction imposed, it is not advisable to proceed on both fronts simultaneously lest inconsistent results ensue. Thus, it is best to begin with the disciplinary proceeding seeking imposition of a disciplinary sanction and await its outcome before addressing the academic sanction. If the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee finds that the alleged violation occurred, then the faculty member may reflect that finding in the student’s grade. If the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee finds that the alleged violation did not occur, then no sanction of any kind may be imposed. The decision whether to pursue both types of sanctions will ordinarily rest with the faculty member.

E. Reporting Requirements

1. By the Faculty Member to the Academic Integrity Official

In cases where a violation of academic integrity has been found to have occurred (whether by admission or a fact-finding process), the faculty member should promptly file with the Academic Integrity Official a report of the adjudication in writing on the Faculty Report form (see sample attached) provided by the college as described above. The Academic Integrity Official shall maintain a confidential file for each student about whom a suspected or adjudicated violation is reported. If either the grade appeals process or the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee finds that no violation occurred, the Academic Integrity Official shall remove and destroy all material relating to that incident from the student’s confidential academic integrity file. Before determining what sanction(s) to seek, the faculty member or the Academic Integrity Official may consult the student’s confidential academic integrity file, if any, to determine whether the student has been found to have previously committed a violation of the Academic Integrity Policy, the nature of the infraction and the sanction imposed or action taken.

2. By the Academic Integrity Official to the Faculty Member

Where a matter proceeds to the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee, the Academic Integrity Official shall promptly report its resolution to the faculty member and file a record of the resolution in the student’s confidential academic integrity file, unless, as indicated above, the suspected violation was held to be unfounded, in which case all reporting forms concerning that suspected violation shall be destroyed.

FIRE SAFETY PLAN

Instructions

A. If you see a fire, do the following:
   1. Call the Fire Department (911), or
   2. Call the Public Safety Emergency Number (Security) 772-4444, or
   3. Pull the fire alarm.
   4. Then, follow the procedures below:

B. Procedures
   a. Evacuate your area.
   b. Close, but do not lock, doors.
   c. Follow instructions transmitted over the public address system.
   d. Proceed to evacuate the building through designated exits.
   e. Evacuate to street if not directed otherwise over the public address system.
   f. Before entering any stairwell, touch the door with the palm of your hand. If it is warm or hot, do not enter the stairwell. Proceed to the next stairwell.

   h. Walk downstairs-do not run. Do not panic. Remain calm.
   i. It is dangerous to use elevators during an evacuation. Only use elevators when authorized to do so by fire emergency personnel.
   j. When using the down escalators, make long and wide turns going from one escalator to the next escalator in order to prevent congestion.
   k. When you are outside the building, move away from the entrance approximately 200 feet.
   l. Wait for the all-clear signal before re-entering the building.

HUNTER COLLEGE DEPARTMENT

FIRE SAFETY PLAN FOR THE DISABLED

This Fire Safety Plan for the Disabled is established to provide for the safety of the disabled members of the Hunter College community and disabled visitors to the College in the event of a fire or other life-threatening emergency. The plan will be implemented in any situation in which there may be a need to relocate disabled persons to a safe location.

The Fire Safety Plan for the Disabled identifies the New York City Fire Department as the agency having the primary responsibility for relocating any disabled person from an endangered floor to a safe location. However, if the Fire Department or other New York City emergency agency response is not exercised in a timely fashion and the situation requires immediate removal of disabled persons, Public Safety and Security Personnel will transport such individual or individuals to a safe location.

Disabled Persons Fire Emergency Assembly Area.

The Fire Safety Plan for the Disabled is a part of the Hunter College Fire Safety Plan. All faculty, staff and students are advised to read and be fully familiar with the entire Fire Safety Plan.

Instructions

A. If you see a fire, do the following:
   1. Call the Fire Department (911), or
   2. Call the Public Safety Emergency Number (Security) number, 772-4444, or
   3. Pull the fire alarm.
   4. Then, follow these procedures:

B. Procedures for the Disabled
   1. During an emergency, the entire floor may or may not need to be evacuated. In either case, when you hear the emergency alarm, assemble by any exit door near the elevators.
   2. Do not enter the stairwell. Do not use an elevator unless directed by the Fire Department.

Relocation Procedures for the Disabled

If it is necessary to evacuate the entire floor, a member of the Fire Department will search the entire floor to locate disabled persons. The emergency personnel will remove you to a safe location by elevator or stairwell. A notice containing these procedures shall be placed on each floor.

Hunter North-Special Instructions

1. In Hunter North, go to the area near the Fire Tower. The entrance to the Fire Tower is located at the north end of the west corridor (the corridor parallel to Park Avenue). A diagram of the Fire Tower location is provided at the end of this section.
2. Do not enter the Fire Tower stairwell unless the major portion of the college community has completed its descent.

Other Precautions

1. Remain calm. Your safety and the security of others depend on the absence of panic.
2. Before entering any stairwell, touch the door leading into the stairwell. If the door is warm or hot, do not open or enter the stairwell. Proceed to the next stairwell.
3. If you cannot reach a stairwell near an elevator and you are in an office or classroom and have access to a phone, call Security at 772-4444. Disabled persons and persons who are trapped are the only persons who should call Public Safety during a fire emergency.
4. If you are in an area with a door and cannot reach an exit near the elevators, seal the crack around the door with rags or clothing.
5. Public Safety and Security has a chart indicating all the special rooms in the library designed for use by the disabled. These rooms will be checked during a fire emergency.

What Emergency Personnel Will Do

1. The person who searches the floor will report your location to the fire command station. The fire command station will inform the Fire Department of your location.
2. If you are in need of relocation and the Fire Department is not available to relocate you, a member of the Public Safety and Security Department will relocate you to a safe location.
3. If necessary, you will be relocated to a safe floor or taken out of the building.

Orientation

1. Orientation to the Fire Safety Plan, including the relocation procedures, will be provided for disabled faculty, students and staff yearly under the auspices of the 504 Committee.
2. Orientation for new disabled students will be included in the orientation program for entering freshmen.
3. Instructions regarding the Fire Safety Plan and Relocation Procedures will be included in the regularly conducted fire drills.

Locating Disabled Persons

A. Public Safety maintains class schedules for disabled students and work schedules for disabled faculty and staff. These schedules will be used to assist emergency personnel to locate disabled persons in an emergency.
B. Students are responsible for reporting their class schedules, their work schedules and schedule changes to the Coordinator for Disabled Student Services (Room E1100 Hunter East).
C. Disabled faculty and staff are responsible for reporting their work schedules and schedule changes to the director of personnel (Room E1502A).

Responsibility for Implementation

The director of the Department of Public Safety is responsible for the implementation of the Fire Safety Plan.

Distribution

The Fire Safety Plan for Disabled Persons will be distributed to all faculty, students and staff who have identified themselves as disabled. The Fire Safety Plan for the Disabled will be distributed with the Hunter College Fire Safety Plan.

FIRE SAFETY PLAN FOR DISABLED PERSONS

Assembling and Relocation Procedures

When there is a fire alarm in one of the College’s buildings, disabled persons who are unable to walk down steps should assemble at one of the Disabled Persons Fire Emergency Assembly Areas (DFPEAA). These areas are located on every floor of Hunter’s four buildings in the immediate vicinity of each building’s elevators. They are near the two stairwells closest to the elevators. The areas are identified by wall signs that identify the area as a Disabled Persons Fire Emergency Assembly Area.

During a fire alarm, fire wardens, fire searchers and security personnel have been directed to communicate the number, the location and the status of all disabled persons via Fire Warden Phones or through security personnel to Hunter College’s Fire Command Station. The public safety person at the Fire Command Station will notify members of the New York City Fire Department of the status of all disabled persons in the building as soon as the firefighters arrive on the campus.

No person should ever use an elevator in a fire unless so directed by Fire Department personnel. Using an elevator in a fire is dangerous. The College has been informed that the use of elevators in a fire has, in many cases, resulted in many unfortunate and unnecessary deaths. The New York City Fire Department has informed Hunter College that the Fire Department has the primary responsibility to determine if elevators can be used to transport disabled persons during fire emergencies. Fire Department officials also state that they are responsible for relocating disabled persons to a safe location if such relocation is necessary.
The New York City Fire Department considers transporting disabled persons in an emergency a highly risky procedure. The relocation process may subject disabled persons and other persons to accidents and injuries. However, if it is necessary to relocate disabled persons during an emergency, the Fire Department will handle the relocation of disabled persons, using safe procedures and experienced Fire Department personnel.

If elevators can be used during a fire alarm, the Fire Department considers use of the elevators to be the best method of relocation because it is practical, safe and efficient. This explains the Fire Department’s position of advocating emergency assembly areas for disabled persons. (The Fire Department often refers to this type of assembly area as a refuge area.) When there is a report of a fire alarm in the building (Note: The alarm may be a false alarm or the fire may be in a small section of the building), if disabled persons are not in any danger from the fire or its smoke, the Fire Department does not automatically recommend the relocation of disabled persons. In most cases, the Fire Department would not recommend that such persons be removed from the building. Instead, the Fire Department would recommend that such persons be moved to a safe location within the building.

Note: It is extremely important that the Hunter College community understand the procedure of the New York City Fire Department for evacuating a building that is experiencing a fire. Everyone in the building should not automatically be evacuated to the street. Nor should everyone be relocated within the building. This is the policy for ambulatory persons as well as non-ambulatory persons.

If you have any questions regarding the standards used to determine the need for evacuating the buildings, call the Director of Public Safety and Security at (212) 772-4521.

When Public Safety Officers Will Relocate Disabled Persons

If, for any reason, a disabled person is in imminent danger due to fire, smoke or similar circumstances on campus and members of the Fire Department are not present to relocate the disabled person, Public Safety Officers and other members of the College Fire Brigade will assume the responsibility of relocating that person to a safe location.

Public Safety Officers and members of the Fire Brigade operating under the direction of the Fire Safety Director will take command and make immediate arrangements to have the appropriate disabled person(s) moved to a safe location if necessary.

Note: The Public Safety Officer in charge of the evacuation process will determine the number of carriers needed to relocate a disabled person. Factors to be considered when making these assignments will be the weight of the disabled person, the weight of the wheelchair, the width of the staircase and any other factors that are deemed necessary to successfully carry out these functions without accidents.

Procedures:

Person Who Is Visually Impaired

A disabled person who is visually impaired and has to be relocated, but is able to walk downstairs, will be personally escorted to a safe location by a Public Safety Officer, a Fire Warden, a Fire Searcher, or a member of the College Fire Brigade.

Person Who Has a Hearing Impairment

A person who has a hearing impairment will be alerted to a fire alarm by a Public Safety Officer, a Fire Warden, a Fire Searcher, or a member of the College Fire Brigade. Those disabled persons will be escorted to a safe location if necessary.

Special Caution on Lifting and Carrying Disabled Persons

Before lifting any disabled person, carriers will, if possible, ask the disabled person how they should be lifted. Disabled persons know better than anyone else how they should be lifted or carried in order to avoid any unnecessary injuries to the disabled person.

For Your Safety

The Hunter West Building is equipped with Fire Emergency notification devices. It is the responsibility of everyone to become familiar with their location and their use. These Fire Emergency notification devices consist of the following:

Fire Alarm

The Fire Alarm Pull Stations are small, red boxes. They are wall mounted and located next to a fire exit. Printed on these pull stations is PULL HERE IN CASE OF FIRE. To activate the Fire Alarm Pull Station, follow these steps:

1. Pull down the RED lever on the Fire Alarm Pull Station box. This will cause the fire alarm to sound on the fire door and on the floor above. In addition, it will send a signal to the Fire Command Station. The Fire Safety Director at the Fire Command Station will carry out the fire emergency procedures. Make yourself familiar with them now, so that in an emergency you will know what to do.

2. During a fire alarm, Fire Wardens, Fire Searchers and Public Safety Officers have been directed to communicate the number, the location and the status of all disabled persons via Fire Warden phones to the Fire Command Station. The Fire Safety Director will notify members of the New York City Fire Department regarding the status of all disabled persons in the building as soon as the Fire Department arrives on campus.

No person should ever use the elevator in a fire unless directed by Fire Department personnel. Using an elevator in a fire is extremely dangerous and the College has been informed by the Fire Department that the use of elevators in a fire has, in many incidents, resulted in the unfortunate and necessary deaths of many people.

The New York City Fire Department will be responsible for the relocation of disabled persons to a safe location if such relocation is necessary. If it is necessary to relocate disabled persons during an emergency, the Fire Department considers the transportation of disabled persons in an emergency to be highly risky. The relocation process may subject disabled persons and other persons to accidents and injuries. Consequently, the Fire Department wishes to handle any necessary relocation of disabled persons using safe procedures and their own experienced personnel.

If elevators can be used during a fire alarm only, the Fire Department considers this the best method of relocation because it is practical, safe and efficient. This explains the Fire Department’s position of advocating emergency assembly areas for disabled persons. The Fire Department often refers to this type of assembly area as a refuge area.

When there is a report of a fire alarm in the building (Note: The alarm may be a false alarm or the fire may be in a small section of the building), if the disabled person is not specifically in any danger from the fire or its smoke, the Fire Department does not automatically recommend that the person be completely removed from the building, but to a safe location within the building, if necessary.

Note: It is extremely important that the College community understand the protocol of the New York City Fire Department for evacuation of a building that is experiencing a fire. Everyone in the building should not automatically be evacuated to the outside, or, for that matter, be relocated within the building. This is the policy for ambulatory persons as well as non-ambulatory persons.

If you have any questions regarding the various parameters used to evaluate the necessity of evacuation, please consult with the fire safety director at Ext. 4521.

A reduced grade can be an “E,” a “D-,” or another grade that is lower than the grade that would have been given but for the violation.

Typically, disciplinary sanctions would be sought in cases of the most egregious, or repeated, violations, for example: infraction in ways similar to criminal activity (such as forging a grade form; stealing an examination from a professor or a university office; or forging a transcript); having a substitute take an examination or taking an examination for someone else; sabotaging another student’s work through actions designed to prevent the student from successfully completing an assignment; dishonesty that affects a major or essential portion of work done to meet course requirements. [These examples have been taken from a list of violations compiled by Rutgers University.]
