Visit the National Quality Improvement Center on Non-Resident Fathers and the Child Welfare System (QIC-NRF) website, dedicated to informing you of the benefits and challenges of engaging non-resident fathers in the lives of their children, in their children’s case plans and beyond!

The website includes:

- The most recent information on the QIC-NRF
- The latest research and findings related to non-resident fathers involved in the child welfare system
- The latest QIC-NRF products and publications
- Links to the project’s quarterly newsletter
- Contact information for project partners and staff
- Updates on the project’s four subgrantees
