Moving from an MSW program to full-time employment can present new challenges. Often, little supervisory time is available to reflect upon the complex processes occurring on multiple levels within the workplace. This interactive small group experience will address: deepening clinical skills from new or difficult client situations, expanding and integrating different theoretical perspectives, and understanding and managing organizational pressures. The group is also expected to help participants think about defining and planning for their own professional goals.

5 Thursdays Oct 18, 25 and Nov 1, 8, 15 6:30-8 PM
Course Fee $375 -- Register Here (deadline October 5th):
https://ceweb.hunter.cuny.edu/cers/CourseBrowse.aspx
Select Silberman School of Social Work on the right side bar menu under Course Category

Requirement are a master’s degree in social work or another mental health profession and an active client caseload

Silberman School of Social Work at Hunter College 2180 Third Ave @119th St
For more information contact trainssw@hunter.cuny.edu