Economic Hardship Employment Application
Instructions for International Students (F-1 visa status)

Note to Student: When you initially applied for an F-1 Student status or J-1 Exchange Visitor visa, you were required to provide proof of your ability to finance your studies. Therefore, under no circumstances may undergraduate level students work during your first academic year in legal status, unless you work on-campus at Hunter College or any other CUNY school. Graduate level students may work off campus under another set of immigration guidelines. Undergraduate level students, facing unforeseen circumstances that adversely affect their financial resources after being in status for one academic year; you are eligible to apply for permission to seek off-campus employment. You must be able to document the nature of the unforeseen circumstances (The inordinate increase in tuition is an unforeseen circumstance). Also, you are required to maintain full-time status as a student while working.

3. Copy your valid Passport with the biographical information, passport expiration date and the attached Form I-94 (photocopy the front and back of this card)

4. ALL previous I-20s (from other colleges, if any), NOT just Hunter College I-20s.

5. 2 photos (2X2 Passport style) see Photo Composition Checklist page for proper photo dimensions. <see the attached pgs .10–11>
   o Write your Name, Date of Birth (month/day/year) and I-20 SEVIS number on the back.

6. There are two types for payment
   o Money order and personal check ▪ If paying by Money Order or Check make it payable to "U.S. Department of Homeland Security" in the amount of $410.00.
   o Electronically
     ▪ If paying electronically follow the following link http://uscis.gov/ create a E-File login ID and follow the instructions https://efiling.uscis.dhs.gov/efile/

   NOTE: Fees for U.S.C.I.S. forms are subject to change at any time. Therefore, before you mail any documents to U.S.C.I.S. Please visit their website to obtain the fee for the respective form.

7. A typed letter explaining the needs for off-campus employment and other document(s), such as <see attach pg. 3>
   o Medical letter from sponsor or yourself
   o Sponsor explaining hardship (loss of employment or decrease of funds)

8. Budget Sheet <see the attached pg. 4>
Suggestion on how to write the letter:

Paragraph 1: State your purpose for coming to the United States, when you arrived, who was financially supporting you at that time, what is your major and degree, and when you plan to complete your studies.

Paragraph 2: State how the unforeseen financial circumstances have created a severe economic hardship for you. You must have independent documentation (not merely online reports or news articles) to support your statements; for example: tax statements from your sponsor, monthly expenditures compared to monthly income of your sponsor, bank statements, and notarized letter from sponsor. Also, state how you have already attempted to resolve this financial deficit through employment opportunities on campus and why this has not been sufficient.

Paragraph 3: Express that you will continue to carry a full course of study even after acceptance of employment. Also, state what you plan to do with your degree in your country of residence if you are permitted to complete your course of study.

Paragraph 4: Close the letter by thanking the officer for considering your application, and SIGN the letter.

If everything is in order, the International Student Advisor will make a recommendation on the SEVIS I-20 for economic hardship for you to mail to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security service center. Please allow the office staff at least 7 business days to process your application.

Students must fill out this (I-765) form online. Please visit the website below and type in your information and once you are done, print the I-765 form then sign it with a blue ink pen.

Tips for filling out the I-765 form

☐ Permission to accept employment should be checked, if you are applying for Severe Economic hardship for the first time.

Items #12 and 13
The answer can be found on your I-94 card (the white card stapled inside your passport).

Item # 15
The answer for it should be student, if your last entry into the U.S. was with an F-1 visa.

Item # 16
(c) (3) (iii)
Sign and enter your telephone number and date on the I-765. Failure to do so will cause a delay in receiving your employment card.

Form I-765
If you made a mistake on the I-765 form that is enclosed in the economic hardship package, please go to the website to download the form http://www.uscis.gov/files/form/i-765.pdf

Any USCIS (United States Citizenship and Immigration Services) form fees are subjected to change at any time. So, for updated fees of a particular USCIS form or to download a form, please visit http://uscis.gov

For photo standards, please visit http://travel.state.gov/passport/guide/quality/quality_876.html

I-94 replacement
If you have lost your I-94, you can apply for another one by filling form I-102. http://www.uscis.gov/files/form/i-102.pdf

You must return to pick up the application in Room 1109 Hunter East. Follow mailing instructions very carefully, since an incomplete application will be returned to you resulting in additional delays. After mailing your application, you will wait approximately 4-6 weeks before receiving the result of your application for economic hardship from the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services.
representatives who file multiple unrelated immigration forms in one envelope, and who want their clients to receive e-Notification(s), this form, with the notification information provided below, must be clipped to the front of each related package of immigration forms. The e-Notification message will provide a receipt number for each immigration form but will not include the applicant’s name because the message cannot be sent over a secure network. One e-mail and/or text message will be sent per accepted immigration form; e-notification will only be sent to the person requesting the benefit(s).

The E-Notification Grant Any Type of Status or Benefit?

No. The e-mail or text message does not grant any immigration status or benefit. You may not present a copy of the e-mail or text message as evidence that USCIS has granted you any immigration status or benefit. Receipt of the transmission cannot be used as supporting evidence for other benefits.

WILL USCIS Cover My Costs to Receive E-Mails and Text Messages?

No. USCIS assumes no legal responsibility for your costs to receive e-mail and/or text messages. USCIS will not reimburse you for any costs related to e-Notification.

How Can I Request E-Mails or Text Messages?

If you submit your immigration form(s) to a USCIS lockbox facility and include your e-mail and/or mobile phone number on the appropriate box below, USCIS will use this information as permission to send an e-Notification to you.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor an information collection and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated at three minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions and completing and submitting the form. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Regulatory Products Division, 111 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., 3rd Floor, Suite 3008, Washington, DC 20529-2210. OMB No. 1615-0109. Do not mail your application to this address.

Complete this form and clip it on top of the first page of your immigration form(s).
