

Non-Immigrant Visa Classifications

Foreign Nationals Who May Be Lawfully Employed and/or Study in the U.S. with Certain Restrictions

The ability to be employed and/or compensated for services in the U.S. is dependent upon the non-immigrant visa status held by the foreign national AND the specific immigration regulations, which govern the visa.

Many non-immigrant visa categories permit an individual to be employed and/or compensated by a U.S. employer. However, in almost every case, employment and compensation are restricted to an identified, sponsoring employer or organization, for a fixed period of time within a specific capacity.

This chart describes all the non-immigrant visa categories currently in effect today and outlines the restrictions placed on an individual's ability to be employed, receive compensation and/or study in the U.S. USNH departments should use it as a guideline only. For definitive information regarding the compensation, employment or enrollment of students and scholars at UNH, please contact the Office of International Students & Scholars.

Note: U.S.C.I.S. refers to the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services, under the Department of Homeland Security. U.S.C.I.S. has taken over some of the responsibilities of the former U.S.C.I.S. (United States Citizenship and Immigration Services).
