Dental School Simulation Course

Working in UNLV SDM's advanced pre-clinical laboratory, participating pre-dental students will gain valuable hands on experience and will discover what the preclinical portions of dental school are really like. The course will help to confirm your interest in dentistry and make you a stronger applicant!

During the course you will:

- ✓ Make typodont impressions and pour them in stone
- ✓ Use a high speed dental handpiece and other dental instruments
- ✓ Prepare cavity restorations
- ✓ Fill cavity preparations using both amalgam and composite
- ✓ Identify normal dentition
- ✓ Model a central incisor in wax
- ✓ Earn a certificate of course completion
- ✓ Meet the Assistant Dean for Admissions and Student Affairs and Faculty on the Admissions Committee

May 18-19, 2012 (Fri.-Sat.)

June 8-9, 2012 (Fri.-Sat.)

Fee: $200

(includes lunch both days)

Each course is limited to 76 students
