FACULTY VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

The Japanese unit of the Department of Classical and Oriental Studies of Hunter College, City University of New York, invites adjunct instructors from within Hunter College to apply for an adjunct conversion tenure-track lecturer position in Japanese language and pedagogy. The appointment will begin on August 25, 2017

QUALIFICATIONS

Eligible applicants must have Japanese language proficiency and must have experience with teaching Japanese language. To be eligible for the line, applicants must have taught as an adjunct in the Japanese program or a related course in a different department at Hunter College for 14 of the 18 most recent semesters (excluding summer session) preceding the Fall 2016 semester and in 7 of those 14 semesters must have taught at least 6 classroom contact hours during the semester. Substitute service and service in the visiting professor series immediately preceded by and immediately following by adjunct service shall be counted as continuous adjunct service for the purpose of meeting the above service requirements.

Evidence of commitment to and achievement in dynamic and effective language teaching and pedagogy as well as program coordination are a plus.

COMPENSATION

CUNY offers faculty a competitive compensation and benefits package covering health insurance, pension and retirement benefits, paid parental leave, and savings programs. We also provide mentoring and support for research, scholarship, and publication as part of our commitment to ongoing faculty professional development.
