Requirements

The MS/MSUPL joint degree is offered by Hunter College's Department of Urban Policy and Planning and Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing. It prepares nurses to assume positions of leadership in a variety of health care settings, and agencies. The program emphasizes an interdisciplinary approach to management and policy in nursing and health care, particularly in urban settings.

Students complete a total of 52 credits (23 UPL core credits and 30 MS credits). The Urban Policy and Leadership (UPL) classes are held primarily at the main campus on 68th St and the Nursing Administration (NURS) classes are completed at the Brookdale campus of Hunter College. Urban Policy and Leadership's MSUPL Advisor is Owen Gutfreund: owen.gutfreund@hunter.cuny.edu and Nursing Administration's MS Advisor is Lynda Olender LO208@hunter.cuny.edu, (425 East 25th St, room 513W).
