Awards for Excellence

Once again, awards to faculty for excellence in teaching, scholarship and service will be given in the Spring, 1995, as in years past. A committee of faculty will be appointed by the Provost, on recommendation of divisional deans, to review all nominations. Faculty may apply themselves, or be nominated by chairpersons or colleagues, to the Committee on Presidential Awards, c/o Office of the Provost, by February 13, 1995. Faculty selected for each of the three Presidential Awards will receive a check and be honored at the Spring Honors Convocation of the College. We encourage you to apply, or to nominate a distinguished colleague.
