

Curriculum Map: German

Program Learning Outcomes	101-103 Elementary Language Courses	200-203 Intermediate Language Courses	301-339 Advanced Language &amp; Literature Courses Level I	341-385, 444 Advanced Language &amp; Literature Courses Level II	491-492 Independent Study &amp; Honors Thesis demonstrate intercultural awareness	emerging	reinforced	reinforced to increasingly proficient	increasingly proficient	increasingly proficient demonstrate an understanding of the semantic, grammatical, and interlocutory patterns of German by comparing them to those of English and/or other languages	emerging	reinforced	reinforced to increasingly proficient	increasingly proficient	increasingly proficient use learned language to engage in various types of communicative interactions in German	Nov-Int	Int	Int-Adv	Int-Adv	Adv interact with and describe themes and topics encountered in written and spoken texts in German	Nov-Int	Int	Int-Adv	Int-Adv	Adv produce written and oral descriptions, narrations, summaries and/or analysis in German on a variety of topics	Nov-Int	Int	Int-Adv	Int-Adv	Adv examine and interpret a range of German prose, dramatic and poetic texts	Nov	Int	Int-Adv	Int-Adv	Adv demonstrate an understanding of German cultural history and contemporary culture	Nov	Int	Int-Adv	Int-Adv	Adv key to proficiency levels (see American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages):

Nov = Novice

Int = Intermediate

Adv = Advanced

revised spring/summer 2022