

Multiple Sclerosis Management for Physical Therapists

A one day course sponsored by the Multiple Sclerosis Foundation

This course is designed to educate physical therapists about evidence based management of persons with MS including strategies for optimal evaluation and treatment of persons with MS through lecture, discussion, and live patient demonstrations. Persons who successfully complete this course will have their names and contact information published in the newsletter of the Multiple Sclerosis Foundation.

* September 16, 2018, 9:00 am - 4:00 pm

Hosted by:

Hunter College Physical Therapy Department
425 East 25th Street, New York, NY 10010

Cost: $25

For Enrollment information email: MSManagementNYC@gmail.com

Instructors

Dr. Herb Karpatkin, PT, DSc, NCS, MSCS is an associate professor of Physical Therapy at Hunter College. Recognized as one of the leading authorities on the topic of Multiple Sclerosis and physical therapy, he has worked as a clinician, researcher, and instructor. He has presented on the topic of MS and Physical therapy, internationally, and has published multiple peer reviewed studies on the topic.

Dr. Stefanie DiCarrado, PT, DPT, MSCS is an assistant professor of Physical Therapy at Dominican College and is studying for the board certified neurologic clinical specialist exam. Her work includes clinical posts at Aspire Center for Health & Wellness and The Axis Project. She has presented on the topic of MS and Physical Therapy and has published peer reviewed studies on the topic

Course Layout

Morning Session

Pretest

Epidemiology and Pathophysiology,
Clinical Presentation and Medical management,
Evaluation and Remediation of specific impairments
Remediation of specific Functional Impairments

Afternoon Session

Patient Presentations
Closing remarks, Q&A
Posttest