

The Dept. of Romance Languages Translation/Interpretation Program

The Hunter College community is invited to hear a presentation by CHRISTINE ADAMS, a freelance interpreter based in Geneva, Switzerland.

Christine will present interpreting practice in community or public service, court and conference interpreting. She will then focus on her training as well as her working life as an interpreter and also consider issues of ethics and good practice.

Tuesday
Sept. 16, 2014
5:30 – 6:30 pm
Chanin Center
Room B126
Hunter West

Open to All

Christine has served as a conference interpreter for the U.S. Department of State, the United Nations, the International Union for Conservation of Nature (the world's oldest and largest global environmental network), the Inter-Parliamentary Union, and many other international organizations and conventions.

A former co-director of the University of Westminster M.A. in Conference Interpreting, she has also trained community interpreters and taught consecutive and simultaneous interpreting in London. She was trained in Switzerland, at the Ecole de traduction et d'interprétation of the University of Geneva.

You can find her blog –Looking for Interpreter Zero– on the website of her professional association, www.aiic.net