HUNTER COLLEGE City University of New York OFFICE OF THE HUNTER COLLEGE SENATE

$\underline{\mathit{M}}$ $\underline{\mathit{I}}$ $\underline{\mathit{N}}$ $\underline{\mathit{U}}$ $\underline{\mathit{T}}$ $\underline{\mathit{E}}$ $\underline{\mathit{S}}$

"Overflow" Meeting of The Hunter College Senate 28 October 1975

	The sixty-second meeting of the Hunter College Senate was convened at 4:45 p.m. at the Playhouse.	1 2
Presiding:	Charles M. Sherover, Chairman	3
Attendance:	The elected members of the Senate with the exception of those noted by the Secretary as listed in Appendix I.	4 5
Report by the Administrative Committee:	The Chair informed the body that there would be no report at this meeting.	6 7
Nominating Committee Report:	Nominating Committee Prof. Ruth Gonchar, Chairman of the Committee, presented the following slate for the Select Committee re: the Office of the Ombudsman, as 'mandated by the Senate at its meeting on October 21st, 1975, and moved for acceptance of the entire slate.	8 9 10 11 12
4 4	Faculty: Robert Tannenbaum - School of Health Science Anastasia van Burkalow - Geology & Geography	13 14
	Students: Robert Daly - Day Neil Callender - SGS	15 16
	The motion carried by voice vote.	17
	The Chair (later) asked Prof. van Burkalow to convene the first meeting of the Select Committee.	18 19
	Prof. Gonchar then proposed that the vacancies on the Student Standing Committee and the Undergraduate Course of Study Committee be filled. There being no objection, she presented the Committee's nominees, who were elected:	20 21 22 23
	Student Standing Committee Faculty: Alan Holder - English	24 25
	Betty Bargonetti- Academic Skills Undergraduate Course of Study Committee Faculty: Robert July - History - Social Sciences	26 27 28
Undergraduate Course of	Undergraduate Course of Study Committee Re: Basic Prescription	29 30
Study Committee Report:	The Chair presented the Summary Report of action on the revision of the Basic Prescription dated 21 October 1975.	31 32
	He informed the Senate that alternatives for the English Composition requirement (page 3, Item V.) would be presented to the Senate at the November 18th meeting.	33 34 35
	The Chair then informed the body of the following corrections to be made in the Summary Report:	36 37
	p. l, Item II. C. Humanities: English Literature Course numbers should read: 17.220, 17.250, 29.325, 29.326.	38 39
	p. 2, Item IV B. Humanities: Course numbers for Russian should read: 28 255, 28 256; and	40 41
	the following departments should be added to B. Humanities as listed in the Bulletin at the top of page 68: Communications, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Theatre & Cinema.	s42 43 44 45
	The Chair proposed that the first item to be acted on is Alternative 2 (page 3 of the Summary Report under IV) as follows,	46 47

ment.

Alternative 2: The Committee has presented as an alternative 49 for immediate change—nine credits from 50 Bumanities and nine credits from 50 least two departments in each Division. 53 least two departments in each Division. 53 The floor was opened for discussion. 54 After discussion, the motion to accept Alternative 2, under IV 55 was defeated without dissent. 56 The next item to be acted on was item VI. F. PHYSICAL EDUCATION. 57 In accord with general procedure, the Chair moved the 58 Committee report to retain the present Physical Education 59 requirement. 60 The floor was opened for discussion. 61 Prof. Korn moved that the motion be amended by changing the 62 description in the Bulletin to read: 63 any activity course as listed in the college bulletin; 64 it is recommended that this requirement be fulfilled by 65 the time 75 credits have been completed. 66 This was accepted as part of the main motion. 67 After discussion, the question was called, and the motion to 67 retain the present Physical Education requirement, as amended, 69 carried by hand vote with two persons in dissent. 70 The next item on the floor were the following two alternatives 70 Alternative 1: 2 3-credit courses in literature originally 74 written in the English language. 77 Prof. Beaujour moved for an Alternative 3 which, after various 78 Alternative 2: 1 3-credit courses in literature originally 76 written in the English language. 77 Prof. Beaujour moved for an Alternative 3 which, after various 78 Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of ourses in literature, at 81 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 Literature originally written in the 82 Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of ourses in literature, at 81 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of ourses in literature at 83 English language; 84 Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of ourses in literature at 84 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of ourses in literature at 89 Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of ourses and	and in accord with	gene	ral procedure moved its acceptance:	48
After discussion, the motion to accept Alternative 2, under IV 55 was defeated without dissent. 56 The next item to be acted on was item VI. F. PHYSICAL EDUCATION. 57 In accord with general procedure, the Chair moved the 59 requirement. 60 The floor was opened for discussion. 61 Prof. Korn moved that the motion be amended by changing the 62 description in the Bulletin to read: 63 any activity course as listed in the college bulletin; 64 it is recommended that this requirement be fulfilled by 65 the time 75 credits have been completed. 66 This was accepted as part of the main motion. 67 After discussion, the question was called, and the motion to 68 retain the present Physical Education requirement, as amended, 69 carried by hand vote with two persons in dissent. 70 The next item on the floor were the following two alternatives 71 for Item II. C. HUMANITIES: Language and Literature-English 72 Literature: 73 Alternative 1: 2 3-credit courses in literature originally 74 written in the English language. 77 Prof. Beaujour moved for an Alternative 3 which, after various 78 consideration of wording, was presented to the body by the 79 Chair in two parts: 86 Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses in literature, at 81 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits on 84 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 least 3 credits on 85 least 3 least 3 credits in 89 least 3 least 3 credits on 80 least 3 least 3 credits in 89 least 3 credits on 80 least 3 le	Alternative 2:	for Huma Scie	immediate changenine credits from nities and nine credits from Social ences. Such credits must be earned in at	50 51 52
The next item to be acted on was item VI. F. PHYSICAL EDUCATION. 57 In accord with general procedure, the Chair moved the Committee report to retain the present Physical Education 59 requirement. 60 The floor was opened for discussion. 61 Prof. Korn moved that the motion be amended by changing the 62 description in the Fulletin to read: 63 any activity course as listed in the college bulletin; 64 it is recommended that this requirement be fulfilled by 65 the time 75 credits have been completed. 66 This was accepted as part of the main motion. 67 After discussion, the question was called, and the motion to 68 retain the present Physical Education requirement, as amended, 69 carried by hand vote with two persons in dissent. 70 The next item on the floor were the following two alternatives 71 for Item II. C. HUNANITIES: Language and Literature—English 72 Alternative 1: 2 3-credit courses in literature originally 74 written in the English language. 75 Alternative 2: 1 3-credit course of literature originally 74 written in the English language. 77 Prof. Beaujour moved for an Alternative 3 which, after various 76 Chair in two parts: 80 Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses in literature, at 81 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 literature originally written in the 83 English language; 84 b. a literature course satisfying the foreign85 language requirement, may also be used 86 (without additional credit) to fulfill 87 part of the literature requirement as 88 well. 89 (The Chair indicated that it was his understanding that the 9 general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would 91 provide the student with the requirement of 3 credits in 89 (The Chair indicated that it was his understanding that the 9 general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would 91 provide the student with the requirement of 3 credits in 89 (The Chair indicated that it was his understanding that the 9 general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would 91 provide the student with the requirem	The floor was opened for discussion.
In accord with general procedure, the Chair moved the Committee report to retain the present Physical Education requirement. 60 The floor was opened for discussion. 61 Prof. Korn moved that the motion be amended by changing the description in the Bulletin to read: 62 any activity course as listed in the college bulletin; 64 it is recommended that this requirement be fulfilled by the time 75 credits have been completed. 65 This was accepted as part of the main motion. 67 After discussion, the question was called, and the motion to retain the present Physical Education requirement, as amended, 69 carried by hand vote with two persons in dissent. 70 The next item on the floor were the following two alternatives for Item II. C. HUMANITIES: Language and Literature—English Literature: 71 Alternative 1: 2 3-credit courses in literature originally written in the English language. 75 Alternative 2: 1 3-credit courses of literature originally written in the English language. 76 Prof. Beaujour moved for an Alternative 3 which, after various consideration of wording, was presented to the body by the 79 Chair in two parts: Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses in literature, at least 3 credits of which shall be in literature originally written in the English language; b. a literature course satisfying the foreign85 language requirement, may also be used (without additional credit) to fulfill part of the literature requirement as well. (The Chair indicated that it was his understanding that the general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would provide the student with the requirement of 3 credits in a course in literature originally written in the English language, and that the student would have an option "to spend" the addi- tional 3 credits on: (a) another course in literature originally written in the English language, or (b) a course in literature originally written in a non- English language presented in the original language.) After some additional discussion the Chair asked for a vote on
Prof. Korn moved that the motion be amended by changing the 62 description in the Bulletin to read: 63 any activity course as listed in the college bulletin; 64 it is recommended that this requirement be fulfilled by 65 the time 75 credits have been completed. 66 This was accepted as part of the main motion. 67 After discussion, the question was called, and the motion to 68 retain the present Physical Education requirement, as amended, 69 carried by hand vote with two persons in dissent. 70 The next item on the floor were the following two alternatives 71 for Item II. C. HUMANITIES: Language and Literature—English 72 Literature: 73 Alternative 1: 2 3-credit courses in literature originally 74 written in the English language. 75 Alternative 2: 1 3-credit course of literature originally 76 written in the English language. 77 Prof. Beaujour moved for an Alternative 3 which, after various 78 consideration of wording, was presented to the body by the 79 Chair in two parts: 80 Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses in literature, at 81 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 literature originally written in the 83 English language; 83 b. a literature course satisfying the foreign85 language requirement, may also be used 86 (without additional credit) to fulfill 87 part of the literature requirement as 83 well. 89 (The Chair indicated that it was his understanding that the 90 general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would 91 provide the student with the requirement of 3 credits in a 92 course in literature originally written in the English language, 93 and that the student would have an option "to spend" the additional 95 written in the English language, or (b) a course in literature originally 95 written in the English language presented in 97 English translation, or (c) a course in literature in a non-80 English language presented in the original language.) 99 After some additional discussion the Chair asked for a vote on 100	In accord with general procedure, the Chair moved the Committee report to retain the present Physical Education any activity course as listed in the college bulletin; it is recommended that this requirement be fulfilled by the time 75 credits have been completed. This was accepted as part of the main motion. After discussion, the question was called, and the motion to retain the present Physical Education requirement, as amended, carried by hand vote with two persons in dissent. The next item on the floor were the following two alternatives of roriginal treature: Alternative 1: 2 3-credit courses in literature originally written in the English language. Alternative 2: 1 3-credit course of literature originally written in the English language. Prof. Beaujour moved for an Alternative 3 which, after various consideration of wording, was presented to the body by the chair in two parts: Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses in literature, at a least 3 credits of which shall be in aliterature originally written in the English language; Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses in literature, at aliterature originally written in the english language; Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses in literature, at aliterature originally written in the english language; Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses in literature, at aliterature originally written in the english language; Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses at literature, at aliterature originally written in the english language; Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of course and literature in the english language, and that the student would have an option of credits in a course in literature originally written in the English language, and that the student would have an option "to spend" the additional credits on: (a) another course in literature originally written in the English language, or (b) a course in literature originally written in a non-English language presented in the original language.) After some additional discussion the Chair asked for a vote on 100	The floor was open	ed fo	or discussion.	61
it is recommended that this requirement be fulfilled by the time 75 credits have been completed. This was accepted as part of the main motion. After discussion, the question was called, and the motion to retain the present Physical Education requirement, as amended, carried by hand vote with two persons in dissent. The next item on the floor were the following two alternatives for Item II. C. HUMANITIES: Language and Literature—English 72 Literature: Alternative 1: 2 3—credit courses in literature originally 74 written in the English language. Alternative 2: 1 3—credit course of literature originally 76 written in the English language. Prof. Beaujour moved for an Alternative 3 which, after various 78 consideration of wording, was presented to the body by the 79 Chair in two parts: Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses in literature, at 81 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 literature originally written in the 83 English language; b. a literature originally written in the 83 English language; b. a literature course satisfying the foreign85 language requirement, may also be used (without additional credit) to fulfill 87 part of the literature requirement as 88 well. (The Chair indicated that it was his understanding that the 94 general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would 91 provide the student with the requirement of 3 credits in a 92 course in literature originally written in the English language, 93 and that the student with the requirement of 3 credits in a 92 course in literature originally written in the English language, or (b) a course in literature 96 English translation, or (c) a course in literature in a non-English language presented in 97 English language presented in the original language.) After some additional discussion the Chair asked for a vote on 100	a control of the cont
After discussion, the question was called, and the motion to fertain the present Physical Education requirement, as amended, for arried by hand vote with two persons in dissent. The next item on the floor were the following two alternatives for Item II. C. HUMANITIES: Language and Literature—English the Iterature: Alternative 1: 2 3-credit courses in literature originally written in the English language. Alternative 2: 1 3-credit course of literature originally written in the English language. Prof. Beaujour moved for an Alternative 3 which, after various consideration of wording, was presented to the body by the foliar in two parts: Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses in literature, at least 3 credits of which shall be in least 3 credits of which shall be in finglish language; b. a literature course satisfying the foreign85 language requirement, may also be used (without additional credit) to fulfill apart of the literature requirement as well. (The Chair indicated that it was his understanding that the general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would provide the student with the requirement of 3 credits in a general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would provide the student with the requirement of 3 credits in a general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would provide the student with the requirement of 3 credits in a general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would provide the student would have an option "to spend" the additional 3 credits on: (a) another course in literature originally written in the English language, or (b) a course in literature originally written in a non-English language presented in the original language.) After some additional discussion the Chair asked for a vote on 100	it is recommended that this requirement be fulfilled by retain the present Physical Education requirement, as amended, 69 carried by hand vote with two persons in dissent. The next item on the floor were the following two alternatives 71 for Item II. C. HUMANITIES: Language and Literature—English 72 Literature: 73 Alternative 1: 2 3-credit courses in literature originally 74 written in the English language. 75 Alternative 2: 1 3-credit course of literature originally 76 written in the English language. 77 Prof. Beaujour moved for an Alternative 3 which, after various 78 consideration of wording, was presented to the body by the 79 Chair in two parts: 80 Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses in literature, at 81 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 literature originally written in the 83 English language; 84 b. a literature course satisfying the foreign85 language requirement, may also be used (without additional credit) to fulfill 87 part of the literature requirement as 88 well. 89 (The Chair indicated that it was his understanding that the 90 general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would 91 provide the student with the requirement of 3 credits in a course in literature originally written in the English language, 93 and that the student would have an option "to spend" the additional 3 credits on: (a) another course in literature originally 95 written in the English language, or (b) a course in literature originally 95 written in the English language presented in 97 English translation, or (c) a course in literature in a non-English language presented in the original language.) 99 After some additional discussion the Chair asked for a vote on 100	This was accepted	as pa	art of the main motion.	67
for Item II. C. HUMANITIES: Language and Literature—English Literature: 73 Alternative 1: 2 3-credit courses in literature originally 74 written in the English language. 75 Alternative 2: 1 3-credit course of literature originally 76 written in the English language. 77 Prof. Beaujour moved for an Alternative 3 which, after various 78 consideration of wording, was presented to the body by the 79 Chair in two parts: 80 Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses in literature, at 81 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 literature originally written in the 83 English language; 84 b. a literature course satisfying the foreign85 language requirement, may also be used 86 (without additional credit) to fulfill 87 part of the literature requirement as 88 well. 89 (The Chair indicated that it was his understanding that the 90 general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would 91 provide the student with the requirement of 3 credits in a 92 course in literature originally written in the English language, 93 and that the student would have an option "to spend" the addi- 94 tional 3 credits on: (a) another course in literature originally 95 written in the English language, or (b) a course in literature 96 originally written in a non-English language presented in 97 English translation, or (c) a course in literature in a non- English language presented in the original language.) 99 After some additional discussion the Chair asked for a vote on 100	retain the present Physical Education requirement, as amended,
Alternative 2: 1 3-credit course of literature originally written in the English language. 77 Prof. Beaujour moved for an Alternative 3 which, after various 78 consideration of wording, was presented to the body by the 79 Chair in two parts: 80 Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses in literature, at 81 least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 literature originally written in the 83 English language; 84 b. a literature course satisfying the foreign85 language requirement, may also be used 86 (without additional credit) to fulfill 87 part of the literature requirement as 88 well. 89 (The Chair indicated that it was his understanding that the 90 general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would 91 provide the student with the requirement of 3 credits in a 92 course in literature originally written in the English language, 93 and that the student would have an option "to spend" the addi- 94 tional 3 credits on: (a) another course in literature originally 95 written in the English language, or (b) a course in literature 96 originally written in a non-English language presented in 97 English translation, or (c) a course in literature in a non-98 English language presented in the Original language.) 99 After some additional discussion the Chair asked for a vote on 100	for Item II. C. HUMANITIES: Language and LiteratureEnglish written in the English language. 77 Prof. Beaujour moved for an Alternative 3 which, after various 78 consideration of wording, was presented to the body by the 79 Chair in two parts: 80 Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses in literature, at 81	Alternative 1:
Consideration of wording, was presented to the body by the Chair in two parts: Alternative 3: a. 6 credits of courses in literature, at least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 literature originally written in the 83 English language; b. a literature course satisfying the foreign85 language requirement, may also be used (without additional credit) to fulfill 87 part of the literature requirement as 88 well. (The Chair indicated that it was his understanding that the 90 general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would 91 provide the student with the requirement of 3 credits in a 92 course in literature originally written in the English language, 93 and that the student would have an option "to spend" the addi-94 tional 3 credits on: (a) another course in literature originally 95 written in the English language, or (b) a course in literature 96 originally written in a non-English language presented in 97 English translation, or (c) a course in literature in a non-98 English language presented in the original language.) 99 After some additional discussion the Chair asked for a vote on 100	Alternative 2:
least 3 credits of which shall be in 82 literature originally written in the 83 English language; 84 b. a literature course satisfying the foreign85 language requirement, may also be used 86 (without additional credit) to fulfill 87 part of the literature requirement as 88 well. 89 (The Chair indicated that it was his understanding that the 90 general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would 91 provide the student with the requirement of 3 credits in a 92 course in literature originally written in the English language, 93 and that the student would have an option "to spend" the addi-94 tional 3 credits on: (a) another course in literature originally 95 written in the English language, or (b) a course in literature 96 originally written in a non-English language presented in 97 English translation, or (c) a course in literature in a non-98 English language presented in the original language.) 99 After some additional discussion the Chair asked for a vote on 100	consideration of wording, was presented to the body by the language requirement, may also be used (without additional credit) to fulfill 87 part of the literature requirement as 88 well. 89 (The Chair indicated that it was his understanding that the 90 general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would 91 provide the student with the requirement of 3 credits in a 92 course in literature originally written in the English language, 93 and that the student would have an option "to spend" the addi- 94 tional 3 credits on: (a) another course in literature originally 95 written in the English language, or (b) a course in literature 96 originally written in a non-English language presented in 97 English translation, or (c) a course in literature in a non- English language presented in the original language.) 99 After some additional discussion the Chair asked for a vote on 100	Alternative 3:	ā.	least 3 credits of which shall be in literature originally written in the	82 83
general tenor of discussion was to favor a wording which would provide the student with the requirement of 3 credits in a 92 course in literature originally written in the English language, 93 and that the student would have an option "to spend" the additional 3 credits on: (a) another course in literature originally 95 written in the English language, or (b) a course in literature 96 originally written in a non-English language presented in 97 English translation, or (c) a course in literature in a non-98 English language presented in the original language.) 99 After some additional discussion the Chair asked for a vote on 100		b.	language requirement, may also be used (without additional credit) to fulfill part of the literature requirement as	86 87 88
a preference for a 6-credit or a 3-credit literature require- 101	general tenor of deprovide the student course in literature and that the student tional 3 credits of written in the English translation English language publish language publish additional some additional student course course additional student course c	discu nt wi nre o ent w on: (lish n in on, o orese	ssion was to favor a wording which would the the requirement of 3 credits in a riginally written in the English language, ould have an option "to spend" the addita) another course in literature originally language, or (b) a course in literature a non-English language presented in r (c) a course in literature in a non-ented in the original language.) discussion the Chair asked for a vote on	91 92 93 94 95 96 97 98 99

The body voted to establish a 6-credit literature requirement the content of which was then to be specified according to either Alternative 1 or Alternative 3.	102 103 104
Mr. Spector then asked the body to permit consideration of one item before moving on, and, with the Chair's consent, the following amendment to the motion was moved and seconded:	105 106 107
Any 6-credit literature requirement is subject to one exception, i.e. that students who begin a new language (Foreign Language Requirement, Option 6) shall be required to take only 3 credits in literature originally written in the English language.	108 109 110 111 112
After discussion, at 6:29 p.m., the meeting adjourned on a quorum call.	113 114
Before recessing, however, the Chair announced that discussion would start at this point, and that the Chair would meet with interested Senate members to try to work out satisfactory wording to clarify intent and scope of the proposals on the floor. These would hopefully be ready, and thereby be mailed, together with the Agenda for the next Senate meeting.	115 116 117 118 119 120

Respectfully submitted,

Elie de Comminges,

Secretary

APPENDIX I

The following members were noted as absent from the meeting:

FACULTY: STUDENTS - DAY SESSION: Academic Skills: Milagros Garcia Jeff Gross - Urban Affairs

Elizabeth Serrano - Business Education

Anthropology: Lester Firschein Agnes Chin - Home Economics Daniel Bates Deborah Rooks - Health & Phys. Ed.

Thomas Moylan Kathleen Quinn - Anthropology Maria Piskorz - Political Science Biology: Constante Ceccarini Evelyn Seda - School of Health Sci.

Robert Grant Bernardine Lopez - Health Science Morris Green Marilyn Jones - Communications

Neil Friedman - Communications "E"

Black & P.R.Studies: Benjamin Ortiz Kevin Hopkins

Steven Rondell Business Educ.: Bernadette Metzler Jeff Olefson

Harry Buckler Bonnie Gardner

Chemistry: Charles Hecht STUDENTS - EVENING SESSION:

Horst Hoyer Howard Crim Stanley Sachs Communications: James Aronson I.J. Neubart

Bernadette Piscitello

Curric.&Teaching: Elaine Block Gloria Kline

Marcia Kannry Educ. Foundations: Jonathan Levine George Sawicki Jeryl Healey

Geology & Geog.: Roy Grossman Thom Burns Michael Franekl

German: George Nordmeyer Harold Pickett Monica Safford

Home Economics: Barbara Maksymowicz STUDENTS - GRADUATE:

Health Sciences: Irving Eckman Hūmanities: Anita Cooper

Library: Rae Robinson Education: Theresa Slesinsky

Nadine King Mathematics: Robert Martin Linda Carney Marina Cohen

Sci.& Math.: Julia Yeung

Music: Peter Basquin

Ruth Anderson Matric.: John Fink Sylvia Kinney Constance Clark

Nursing: Josephine Kirsch STUDENTS - ACADEMIC SKILLS Margaret Magnus Juanita McNeill

Marjorie Martin Physics & Astron.: Marilyn Rothschild

Randy Fenstermacher

Political Sci.: Malcolm Valentine

Stephen Xydis

Romance Lang.: Jeanine Plottel

Social Work: Michael Phillips

Sociology: Celia Heller

Student Services: Robert Cohen

Theatre & Cinema: Milton Polsky

Holly Hill

Adult Education: Leonard Suib

Daniel Savage

Provost Schneewind

"E" = excused