Information and Procedure for Applying for
For J-1 (Exchange Visitor) Status

J-1 Exchange Visitor Program

The J-1 Exchange Visitor Program offers various options to individuals who wish to come to the United States to participate in a particular educational or cultural program. The “student” category allows eligible applicants to request the J-1 visa for the purpose of enrolling in an academic program at a U.S. accredited institution of higher learning.

Hunter College Academic Departments and Prospective Exchange Visitors

All J-1 applicants must be officially accepted by Hunter College in a degree or non-degree program of study. The academic department and prospective student must then contact the International Students Office (ISO) to request form DS-2019 (Certificate of Eligibility for J-1 Status).

Procedures to Follow:

I. In order to receive form DS-2019, the ISO must receive the following documents:

1. Exchange Visitor DS-2019 Request Form signed by the faculty host and Department Chair
2. Copy of acceptance letter from education abroad office
3. Copy of exchange visitor’s transcript from school abroad
4. Financial documentation which shows how the prospective student will meet his/her educational and living expenses in the U.S.
5. Proof of health/medical insurance for the period student will remain in the U.S.

II. Academic departments/prospective students must return the completed DS-2019 and supporting documents to the International Students Office at the address listed below.

III. Once the DS-2019 request has been received in the ISO, please allow up to 5 business days for processing. Departments will be contacted to schedule a pick-up. NOTE: Visa processing times vary at the consular issuing posts abroad. Therefore, departments should anticipate that a prospective student may need a minimum of 6 weeks to report to the school campus.

III. All exchange visitors (students) admitted to the U.S. are required to attend an orientation meeting, where they will receive information about the school’s academic requirements, cross-cultural issues and the available support services. If they have not yet signed up for orientation online, students can report to the ISO with their immigration documents (DS-2019, passport, current address) to receive assistance.
Estimate of Living Expenses for Exchange Visitors and their Dependents

Provided below is an estimate of the living expenses for an exchange visitor (student) and for his/her dependents. Students who plan to bring their spouse and/or children will be required to show they have sufficient funds to cover the additional living expenses. In order to be issued the J-2 status, the student’s dependents must also fill out a visa application and be able to prove their relationship to the primary visa holder.

Expenses for Exchange Visitor:

a) $ 2,200 per month

b) $ 26,400 per academic year

Expenses for Dependent (Spouse):

a) $ 8000 per academic year

Expenses for Dependent (Child):

a) $ 5000 per academic year

Health Insurance

Exchange visitors are required to have medical insurance that is ‘active’ for themselves and their dependents during the period they remain in J-1/J-2 status in the United States. Effective May 15, 2015 at minimum, the insurance must cover the following:

- Medical benefits of at least $100,000 (U.S. dollars) for each person, per accident or illness
- Repatriation of remains in the amount of $25,000 (U.S. dollars)
- Expense coverage for medical evacuation in the amount of $50,000 (U.S. dollars)

Note: The health insurance plan cannot have a deductible that exceeds $500, and must also meet other requirements specified in the U.S. Exchange Visitor Program regulations: 22CFR Part 62.14.

Documentation of Funding

All requests for the form DS-2019 must be accompanied by proof of support. The letters/statements must include the current date, the exchange visitor’s name, the specific dollar amount to be provided, as well as the beginning and ending dates of the sponsorship. Additionally, all statements showing proof of available funds must be typed on official letterhead and indicate that the sponsorship will be for the exchange visitor’s program of study at Hunter College. Sponsors must sign each statement of support. Letters that do not meet these requirements cannot be accepted and may delay the processing of form DS-2019. Documentation of funding must be translated into English and all currencies converted into U.S. dollars!
